Dear Sir,

I am doing research on the Carlton, Long, Welch, Miller, and Hoppes family who were in Surry County in the late 1700s to early 1800s.

There is a book, Surry County, North Carolina, Wills, 1771-1827, by Jo White Linn. Do you have this book in your collection? If so, could you check this book for any listings for the above surnames?

Please let me know if you can do this and what the cost would be.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Donna Kilroy

In 1841, The John Carlton Family, William Long Family, the Welch family, the Hoots family and the Jackson family all moved to Scott County, Illinois. This was a fairly large group of people leaving as they all had their married children and their (over) families with them. Researchers say they left because of their opposition to slavery or because of the availability of public domain lands. They all lived in the Deep Creek area, and their families had been some of the earliest settlers in Surry County.

Is there anything written in your history books about them or their movement to Scott County?

The Longs, George, Frederick and Barbara (Long) Zimmerman, came to Surry County around 1787 along with their mother, Catharina (Kern) and her husband, George Hoppes. George Long married Catherine Miller, daughter of Christian Miller and Veronica. I have information on the Longs and the Hoppes family back into Germany. I am working on Christian Miller's family in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Also, the Carlton family, who no one seems to be able to piece together right. John Carlton married Lettice Morefield 16 Feb 1816 in Surry County, and I have no information on the Morefield family.

If you have any information on the above families, I would really appreciate your help. If you have anyone looking for information on the Long or Hoppes family, I would be happy to share what I have on them.

Thank you for your letter dated September 21, 1997 regarding the Carlton, Long, Welch, Miller, and Hoppes families.

We are sending you information from the book you inquired about, "Surry County, North Carolina, Wills, 1771-1827" by Jo White Linn.

We are also sending you a copy of a letter we recently got from Aileen Woodward regarding Lettice Morefield and John Carlton. You might wish to write her.

We found that Christian Miller (and other Millers), Joseph Welch, George Long (and other Longs) were listed in the book, "Joseph Winston His Entry Book, Surry County, NC, Land Entries 1778-1781."

George Hoppes, Sr., George Hoppes, Jr., and David Welch were listed in the Surry County 1790 Census.

You might also want to write The Yadkin County Historical & Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 1250, Yadkinville, NC 27055.

If we can be of assistance in the future please write us again.
