IN RE: Report on Taylor,
Wood, Wilson lines for
EG-~~Caldwell~~ George Taylor

Dear Sir:

I know that you find me to be the slowest of all who do research for your Society, but I have to do it only when my regular work does not interfere, and that slows me considerably. I did much of the research on this problem (or these problems) early last year, did more of it last summer, and more this past fall. However, I have been unable to get the reports made, for a full report requires much time.

In addition to my regular work here at the college, I have been handicapped for several month by a low blood pressure condition that left me quite anemic and unable to push my self beyond certain limits. However, I shall try to get the material together this weekend.

THE PROBLEM ITSELF

I must first recall very briefly the problem itself. I did quite a lengthy report for your client on the ancestry of William Taylor, of Alamance County, N. C., who was a son of William Taylor and Elizabeth Bowles, and also the ancestry of Nancy Wilson(wife of William Taylor), who was a daughter of John W. Wilson and Absilla (?) Wilson. That report was submitted in the summer of 1951.

In that report I traced the ancestry of ~~William Taylor~~ Elizabeth Bowles Taylor to Thomas Bowles (c1750-1847) who married Anne Davis (Orange County, N.C. Marriage Bond dated 13 Dec. 1791). In that report I cited a deed that showed this Thomas Bowles to have been a son of an older Thomas Bowles, who was probably born by 1750.

I also had considerable luck in tracing the ancestry of John W. Wilson, proving him to have been the son of Thomas Wilson and Jean (or Jane) Woods Wilson. I reported at that time that Thomas Wilson was a son of Robert Wilson, whose wife was Ann __?__. I showed you then that Jean (or Jane) Woods Wilson was a daughter of John Woods (c1750-ante 1817) and his wife, Anne, who left a will in 1817.

At the time of that report I was unable to find out anything concerning the earlier ancestry of William Taylor, other than his father, William Taylor Sr., whose name you gave to me when you solicited my work as a researcher. Nor was I able to determine the identity of Absilla Wilson, mother of Nancy Wilson.

This resume of the problem and my earlier findings is from the summary I gave you on Page~~s~~ 14 of my report submitted to you in June, 1951. This left me with the problem of seeking further data on the ancestry of William Taylor, further data on the acnestry of Thomas Bowles Sr., further data on the ancestry of Robert Wilson and also further material on the ancestry of John Woods and wife Anne.

Following that report I commissioned by you to search further in Orange County and also in Caswell, Person and Granville Counties in North Carolina in an effort to ascertain the earlier data, since I cited to you on Pages 16 and 17 of that 1951 report that there were many of these names in those counties in the Census of 1790.

I have searched all of those counties and have also done some work in the border counties of Virginia in an effort to solve the problem. I shall go first into the Taylor material. I was unable to do much in the Taylor material in that earlier report, so I went first to Orange County, N. C.

TAYLOR RECORDS

On Page 13 of My 1951 report I mentioned that a typewritten collection of obituaries listed the death of an Hon. William Taylor in 1947, who might possibly have been the husband of Eliza Bowles Taylor. No other information was given, and a check on the original files of the Hillsborough Recorder, from which the obituaries came, failed to reveal any further information of value. On Page 12 of the same report I showed from the will of Thomas Bowls (father of Elizabeth Bowles) that he left a bequest to "three children of my daughter, Elizabeth Taylor, Jane, William and Thomas, with other children to have an equal share if she has other children." This will was written in 1839 and probated in 1847, and it would seem to indicate that William Taylor (her husband) was still living in 1839 and possibly might have been the Hon. William Taylor, who died in 1847.

In checking the Orange material on the Taylors, I found the following deeds. Following data from ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOKS:

Deed Book 1, Page 97 -- James Taylor from ~~Eliz~~ John Rutherford Nov. 7, 1855 -- 385 acres Eastern For of Eno River. Witnesses -- Thomas Nelson, Hugh Dobbin. (First Taylor record)

Deed Book 1, Page 32 -- John Taylor to George Miller. Aug. 22, 1755 -- 320 acres on Little River. Witnesses -- William Reid and Jorcas ~~Dickerson~~ Dickson. (NOTE: This was in the Little River neighborhood in upper Orange County, where the ancestors of your client lived.)

Deed Book 1, Page 96 -- James Taylor to Henry Gold -- Dec. 9, 1755 -- 360 acres on FlatvRiver. (NOTE: This deed was acknowledged in county court and had no witnesses. In cases where a deed was thus acknowledged, I shall cite no witnesses. If no witnesses are listed, then you may know the deed was acknowledged in court by the grantor.)

Deed Book 1, Page 125 -- James Taylor to James Armstrong -- Oct. 10, 1755 -- 670 acres on Eno River. Witnesses -- William Churton and John Gray.

Deed Book 2m Page 182 -- John Taylor Jr. from William Alston, of Caswell County -- May 23, 1785 -- 90 acres south side of Flat River.

Deed Book 2, Page 183 -- John Taylor Jr. from William Alston, of Caswell -- May 23, 1785 -- 180 acres south side of Flat River.

and James Mebane to James Williams --
Deed Book 3, Page 75 -- John Taylor ~~and James Mebane~~/June 10, 1784 - 347 acres on Rocky Creek. Witnesses -- Thomas Mulhollen and James White.

Deed Book 3, Page 76 -- John Taylor ~~from~~ and James Mebane to James Williams -- June 10, 1784 -- 400 acres on Flat River. Witnesses -- Thomas Mulhollen and James White.

> (Note: We see here a gap in the Taylor deed records from 1755 until the 1780's)

Deed Book 3, Page 86 -- Thomas Taylor to William Shepherd -- Oct. 17, 1784 -- 200 acres Bradford Creek. Witnesses -- James Gooch, Samuel Farris.

Deed Book 3, Page 149 -- John Taylor, Jr., of Granville, to James Carrington -- Dec. 11, 1785 -- 270 acres south side of Flat River. Witnesses -- Isham Harrison, Thomas Rice, Ephraim Carrington. (NOTE: Here is an indication that the Taylors of Orange were connected with the Taylor family of Granville County, N. C.)

Deed Book 3, Page 314 -- Placher Taylor and wife, Elizabeth, to Phillip Taylor, his son -- July 18, 1770 -- 100 acres on Leego Creej. Witnesses -- Brinefield Barns, John Siler.

Deed Book 3, Page 471 -- James Taylor to Benjamin Thompson and wife, Sarah -- Dec. 20, 1761 -- 270 acres (location not listed). Witnesses -- John Taylor and Isaac Taylor.

Deed Book 3, Page 107 -- John Taylor, son of Edmund Taylor, of Granville County, from James Scarlett -- Sept. 10, 1782 -- 270 acres on ~~Flat River~~ Great Branch of Flat River. Witnesses -- Solomon Mangum and Edmund Taylor. (NOTE: This is the second time within a few deeds that we find Granville County mentioned in Taylor deeds in Orange. It would seem that the Taylors of Orange were of the same family as the Taylors of Granville. This Flat River location was in the northeast corner of Orange County near the Granville line in what is now Durham County.)

Deed Book 3, Page 165 -- John Taylor, of Hillsborough, from James Monro -- Nov. 3, 1786 -- Town lots in Hillsborough. Witnesses -- Arch Lytle and William Lytle.

Book 4, Page 236 -- Frederick Taylor from John Allison, Sept.10, 1788 -- 459 acres adjoining James Pratt. Witnesses -- William McCauley and James Pratt. (NOTE: Turn back to page 10 of my previous report, and you will find that Elizabeth Wilson, an [redacted]-aunt of John W. Wilson, married a certain James Allison, as proven by a marriage agreement in Orange Deed Book 29, Page 213. Here in this deed we find that a John Allison was in the same community with the Taylors in 1788. It looks like the Taylors, Wilsons, etc., were in the same community very early.)

Deed Book 4, Page 342 -- John Taylor from Samuel Allen -- Jan. 3, 1790 -- Lots in Hillsborough. Witnesses -- A. Tellom and James Baldridge.

Deed Book 4, Page 408 -- John Taylor from John Nichols and wife, Sarah -- Nov. 1, 1790 -- 429 acres Combs Creek. Witnesses -- Robert Duncan and Robert Ferguson.

Deed Book 4, Page 518 -- Joseph Taylor, of Granville, from Thomas Rutherford, of Clarendon County, S. C., Feb. 21, 1791 -- Powers of Attorney to sell lands of Patrick Rutherford in Orange County. (NOTE: Again that mention of Granville County.)

Deed Book 4, Page 160 -- John Taylor, Jr., of Granville, to John Carrington -- Dec. 11, 1785 -- tract of land south side Flat River, which had been purchased from James Scarlett. Witnesses -- Ephraim Carrington, Thomas Rice. (NOTE: Turn back to Page 3 this report and you will see that this John Taylor Jr., was a son of Edmond Taylor, of Granville.)

Deed Book 4, Page 282 -- John Taylor, of Orange, to William Cain -- Jan. 23, 1790 -- lot in Hillsborough. Witnesses -- O. Labom and James Baldridge. (NOTE: This was probably a different John Taylor from the one above.)

Deed Book 4, Page 419 -- John Taylor, of Caswell, to John Nichols, of Caswell County, -- ~~Nov. 2, 1790 -- Jan. 23, 1790~~ Nov. 2, 1790 -- 429 acres on Combs Creek. Witness -- Robert Ferguson and Robert Duncan. Same land that had been bought from John Nichols and wife, Sarah in deed above.

> (NOTE: We find several deeds in which John Taylor sells lots in Hillsborough, but nothing important.)

Deed Book 5, Page 18 -- John Taylor and wife, Eleanor, to John Faviman -- March 18, 1793 -- 420 acres Combs Creek. Witness John Allison and James Coughlin. (NOTE: Here is a wife's first name for one John Taylor, and again we find the Allison name that was later connected with the Wilsons)

Deed Book 5, Page 87 -- John Taylor, of Hillsborough, to John Casey Aug. 11, 1794 -- lot in Hillsborough. Witnesses -- John Allison and James Coughlin. (NOTE: Same witnesses as for above deed of John Taylor and wife, Eleanor.)

Deed Book 5, Page 255 -- Thomas Taylor and wife, Martha, to William Shepherd -- July 20, 1785 -- 188 ½ acres Eno River. Witnesses -- Thomas Mulhollen, Sarah Moore and James Taylor.

Deed Book 5, Page 611 -- Thomas Taylor to James Stockard -- Mar. 5, 1785 -- 300 acres, location not given. Witnesses -- Richard Faucett and John Riley.

Deed Book 5, Page 666 -- John Taylor, of Orange, to William Kirkland -- July 28, 1796 -- 346 acres Enoe River. Witnesses -- J. Casey and James Phillips.

Deed Book 5, Page 722 -- John Taylor, of Orange, to William Lockhart -- Jan. 4, 1797 -- 143 acres north side Eno River. Witnesses -- Samuel Hill and Francis Dunn.

Deed Book 5, Page 314 -- John Taylor, of Orange, from George Carrington, -- Jan. 27, 1794 -- 100 acres adjoining Ephraim Carrington. Witnesses -- Charles Holeman, Samuel Turrentine, William Carrington. (NOTE: Turn back to middle of Page 3 of this report, and we find that the John Taylor who was dealing with the Carrington's along Flat River was John Taylor, son of Edmund, of Granville. It would seem that this "John Taylor, of Orange," as he is described in these deeds was the same who was formerly of Granville.)

Deed Book 5, Page 637 -- Richard Taylor, from William Penn, of Virginia -- Oct. 10, 1796 -- 284 acres on Little River, part of tract originally granted to John Penn, father of William. Witness -- W. Norwood.

Deed Book 5, Page 639 -- John Taylor from James Cozart -- Aug. 21, 1786 -- 150 acres Flat River. Witnesses -- Ansel Parrish, Jesse Waller.

(NOTE: I shall abbreviate "Deed Book" to "DB" to speed typing. Also "Witness" to "Wit")

DB 6, Page 85 -- Joseph Taylor from James Hogge -- Aug. 19, 1797 -- 100 acres Eno River. Wit -- John Taylor, George Alsworth.

DB 6, Page 152 -- Joseph Taylor from George Ailsworth -- Aug. 19, 1797 -- 38½ acres Eno River. Wit -- John Taylor, Robert Taylor.

(See Bottom Page 7)

DB 8, Page 237 -- James Taylor to John Taylor -- Sept. 10, 1755 -- 213 acres Eno River. Wit -- Law Thompson, Caines Tinner. (NOTE: I think that 1755 date must have been an error in copying, since the other entries in DEED BOOK 8 were dated in the late 1790's. Of course, it could have been an old deed just then being recorded.)

DB 8, Page 60 -- John Taylor from Hardy Morgan -- May 23, 1799 -- 61 acres near the University of North Carolina lands.

DB 9, Page 79 -- Joseph Taylor and Morgan Hart, acting as agents for Thomas Hart, of Fayette County, Ky., ~~sold~~ to Nancy Benton, widow of Jesse Benton -- Oct. 17, 1800 -- three tracts of land on Eno River, 228 acres. Wit -- Dun Cameron.

DB 11, Page 236 -- Joseph Taylor to Robert Anderson, Jr. -- June 1, 1804 -- 100 acres on Eno River. Wit -- John Anderson.

DB 12, Page 253 -- John Taylor, Sr., of Orange, to John King -- Oct. 16, 1806 -- 277 acres on Boland's Creek. Wit -- J. Searcy and James Forsythe. (NOTE: That Forsythe name was a Granville County family)

DB 13, Page 113 -- John Taylor Sr., from State of N.C. -- Dec. 4, 1807 -- 268 acres Ben's Creek and Morgans Creek.

DB 14 -- Page 26 -- Thomas H. Taylor, of Chapel Hill, from Wm. Whitted -- Sept. 17, 1811 -- Lot in Chapel Hill. Wit -- Wm. A. Whitted, J. H. Whitted.

DB 14, Page 69 -- Robert Taylor from John Taylor, Sr. -- May 25,1812 -- 50 acres east fork of Eno River, adjoining Col. William Shepherd, Stephen Taylor and Thomas Taylor.
Witnesses -- Thomas Taylor and Stephen Taylor.
(NOTE: It would seem that Robert Taylor, Stephen Taylor, Thomas H. Taylor and John Taylor, Jr., all mentioned in various deeds, were sons of John Taylor Sr., and indications are that John Taylor Sr., ~~was son of Edmund Taylor~~ the son of Edmund Taylor, of Granville, who was mentioned in earlier deeds.)

DB 14, Page 70 -- John Taylor to Thomas Taylor -- May 25, 1812 -- 43 acres Eno River, adjoining William Shepherd, Thomas Taylor and Robert Taylor.

DB 14, Page 94 -- George Taylor from Wm. Horton -- May 11, 1812 -- lot in Hillsborough. Wit -- W. A. Whitted, W. Whitted.

DB 14, Page 724 -- John Taylor to Thomas H. Taylor -- June 28, 1814 -- "love and affection for my son" -- lot in Chapel Hill. Wit -- Frederick Tyler and Charles Reavis.

mf (NOTE: That last deed proves Thomas H. Taylor was son of John, and location of lands indicate he was brother of Stephen, John Jr., Robert and possibly a brother of George and James Taylor.)

DB 14, Page 345 -- John Taylor Sr., from Wm. H. Haywood, of Raleigh -- Oct. 19, 1812 -- lot in Chapel Hill. Wit -- Thomas H. Taylor and Wm. M. White.

DB 15, Page 324 -- Robert Taylor, of Franklin County, Ga., to Joseph Allison -- March 9, 1816 -- 51 acres adj. Thomas Taylor, Stephen Taylor and Wm. Shepherd on Eno River. Wit -- Thomas Hydon, Marady Blalock. (NOTE: Here's that Allison again, and the Allisons were related to the Wilsons by marriage.)

DB 16, Page 256 -- Stephen Taylor from Elijah Allis -- Mar. 2, 1815 -- 61 acres Eno River. Wit -- Moses Gwyn, Thomas Taylor.

DB 16, Page 256 -- Elizabeth Taylor, of Giles County, Tenn., from Samuel Couch -- Oct. 20, 1817 -- 45 acres Back Creek. Wit -- Wiley P. Mangum, P. H. Mangun. (NOTE: Cannot say who this Elizabeth Taylor was, for it was too early to have been Elizabeth Taylor, wife of William and mother of William Jr., who later married Nancy Wilson. However, this land was in western Orange not too far from the Stoney Creek section where your William Taylor was later located.)

DB 17, Page 209 -- Thomas H. Taylor from Joseph Caldwell -- Feb. 10, 1817 -- 523 acres Bolands Creek. Wit -- Green Bowes, Charles Lewis. zitxszzazchibalzizHanzezz zaz

DB 19, Page 111 -- Jane Taylor from Thomas Taylor -- Feb. 26, 1820 -- 31 acres Flat River, szz described as "Parts 7 and 8 of John Taylor, estate). Wits -- John J. Carrington, Morgan Carrington. (NOTE: Turn back to Page 3 this report, and we find that the John Taylor, of Granville, was on Flat River originally and was associated as neighbors with the Carringtons.zx This deed proves that John Taylor was dead by 1820, when this deed spoke of his "estate.")

DB 19, Page 215 -- Elisha Taylor to Richard Crabtree -- Nov. 27, 1821 -- 19 acres on Flat River, "his share in estate of his father, John Taylor, Sr.. Wits -- John Carrington, Edward Harris. (NOTE: Here was another of John Taylor's sons.)

DB 20, Page 119 -- John Taylor Estate (by Thomas H. Taylor, Exor.) to Stephen Taylor -- April 3, 1815 -- 108 acres, part of larger tract deeded to John Taylor by James Taylor on Sept. 10, 1755. (NOTE: This proves that the deed on top of Page 6, of which I doubted the date, was really dated correctly. It was really dated 1755 and not recorded until 1799. Furthermore, this deed proves John Taylor was dead by 1815. This deed further shows that the land originally came to James Taylor from Gabriel Johnston on 1751z Aug. 10, 1751. That 1751 date was before Orange County was formed, and that deed may show up in Granville County records, which I shall give you presently.)

DB 20, Page 440 -- John Taylor, Jr., of Orange County, to Thomas H. Taylor -- Jan. 30, 1824 -- Power of Attorney to handle John Taylor's business. Wit -- James Webb, Dan Cameron.

DB 20 -- 358 -- John Taylor Jr./from ~~John Young Estate as~~ William Courtney -- Sept. 1, 1819 -- 205 acres on Hillsborough Road to Benton's Mill. Wit -- Wm. Norwood.

DB 21, Page 143 -- John Taylor from Nathaniel King -- Apr.24,1815 -- 75 acres Ben's Creek. Wit -- Thomas H. Taylor and Charles Lewis.

> (NOTE: Here is a Charles Lewis witnessing this Taylor deed in 1815. Much earlier ~~was~~ (Page 9 of my 1951 report) we found a John Lewis witnessing one of the early Woods family deeds. That early Woods deed also involved a certain Stephen Scarlett, and on Page 3 of this report we found John Taylor buying land from James Scarlett. Other similar names involved indicate that this Taylor group was certainly close neighbors with the Wilsons, Woods and Bowles. For On the fifth deed on Page 5 of this report we find Charles Holeman and Samuel Turrentine witnessing a John Taylor deed in 1791. On Page 5 of my 1951 report we found a Samuel Turrentine as ~~son-in-law of~~ a brother-in-law of John W. Wilson and also a Samuel Holeman ~~and~~ witnessing a Wilson deed. We also on that same page of the 1951 report found James and Richard Holleman witnessing Thomas Wilson's will in 1829. Of course these facts do not prove a thing, but they do indicate relationship and close proximity of residence of the Taylors with those other families in which we are interested.)

THERE ARE NUMEROUS OTHER DEEDS involving John Taylor Jr., and Thomas H. Taylor in the early and middle 1820's, none of which are pertinent. I have them if you are interested, but I am picking only certain deeds as follows:

DB 22, Page 171 -- James Taylor, of Union District, S.C., to Jane Taylor -- ________ 1821 -- 178 acres formerly the property of John Taylor, deceased. Wit -- Samuel Geddes, Samuel Mangum, William Culloch. (NOTE: Turn back to Page 7, seventh deed on that page, and you find Thomas Taylor deeding land to Jane Taylor. In that deed he described it as "Lots 7 and 8 of the John Taylor estate." Now we find James Taylor, of S.C. also deeding John Taylor land to Jane Taylor. A bit further along we shall find William Taylor deeding land to Jane Taylor.)

DB 23, Page 171 -- William Taylor from James Tate -- May 18, 1828 -- 220 ½ acres on Little River. Witnesses -- John J. Carrington and John H. Carrington. (NOTE: This is the first time we find a William Taylor deed, and it would seem that he must be "Our" William Taylor, who was just coming of age to be buying land. Note here that two Carringtons were were witnessing his deed, and if you will check back to deed # 8, Page 3 of this report, and to deed # 5, Page 5 of this report, you will find John Taylor, son of Edmund of Granville, in land deals with the Carringtons of the Little River community.)

DB 23, Page 177 -- John Taylor (Jr) from Thomas Fawcett -- May 24, 1828 -- a lot in Hillsboro which had been sold earlier by John Taylor to Jack Wilson and by Jack Wilson to Fawcett and now by Fawcett to Taylor. Wits -- A. B. Bruce and Wm. McCauley. (NOTE: He we find a Jack Wilson mentioned in a Taylor deed, and Jack is the nickname for John. Could this have been "our" John W. Wilson, known in his youth as Jack Wilson?)

DB 24, Page 228 -- William Taylor, of Orange, to Jane Taylor Dec. 20, 1830 -- 18 acres on Flat River. Witness -- J. J. Carrington.

(NOTE: This looks important. It indicates, although it does not absolutely prove that William Taylor was one of the brothers, sons of John Taylor, Sr., of Orange County, for we we have already found two deeds in which "known sons of John Taylor" deeded some of the John Taylor land to Jane Taylor.

The deeds and pages are numbered as from this report.

Deed #6, Page 7 -- Thomas Taylor deeded 31 acres, to Jane Taylor as "Parts 7 and 8" of the John Taylor land. Note that each of those parts must have been about 16 acres, and they were on Flat River.

Deed # 7, Page 7 -- Elisha Taylor deeded 19 acres on Flat River, describing it as "his share in estate of his father, John Taylor."

Deed # 4, Page 8 -- James Taylor, of S.C., deeds 178 acres, formerly property of John Taylor to Jane Taylor.

And now just above we find William Taylor deeding 18 acres to Jane Taylor. Since know that other "shares" in John Taylor estate were 16 to 18 acres, it seems very probable that this 18 acres was also a share in the John Taylor estate. It is interesting to note that witnesses when Thomas Taylor deeded "Parts 7 and 8" to Jane Taylor were John J. Carrington and Morgan Carrington. Now we find that John J. Carrington witnessed this deed when William deeds 18 acres to Jane Taylor. It seems that these "shares" were so small that it was more profitable to consolidate them into one holding, hence we find them being deeded to Jane Taylor, who was probably either the widow or the daughter of John Taylor. I think it more probable that she was a daughter, for I shall presently give you John Taylor's will, and he does not mention a surviving widow. Also we know from a deed at the bottom of Page 4 of this report that John Taylor's wife was named Eleanor. She was probably dead before 1812, when will was written.)

DB 25, Page 301 -- John Taylor from Thomas Taylor -- Feb. 22, 1823 -- 54 acres, adjoining Stephen Taylor and Joseph Allison. Wits -- William Allison and William Taylor. (NOTE: Here we find William Taylor. Also we know from Page 10 of my 1951 report that Elizabeth Wilson, aunt of John W. Wilson, married Joseph Wilson, in same community as were Taylors and Bowles. Note William Taylor witnessed this deed in which one son of John Taylor Sr., deeded land to another son of John Taylor Sr. The land adjoined Stephen Taylor, another son of John.)

Now, I shall turn to Orange County Wills

WILL BOOK D, Page 380 -- John Taylor (his will).
Written June 15, 1812. Probated Aug. 1813.
This will lists
    Son -- Joseph Taylor.
    Daughter -- Ann Taylor.
    "All my sons and daughters."
EXECUTOR -- Thomas Taylor.

NOTE: He does not list a widow, indicating that Eleanor Taylor was already dead. Nor does he list more than one of his sons and daughters. A study of deeds I have given you indicates that he had at least eight heirs, for there were "parts 7 and 8" of his estate. ~~Furthermore,~~ Further study indicates that he must have had the following sons and daughters --

John Taylor, Jr. --- Son
Elisha Taylor ------- Son
Thomas H. Taylor ---- Son
Stephen Taylor ------ Son
Robert Taylor ------- Son (In Franklin County, Ga. by 1816 --See Page 7)
(mentioned in will) Joseph Taylor ---- Son
William Taylor ------ Son
James Taylor -------- Son
Anna (Ann) Taylor---- Daughter
Jane Taylor --------- Daughter

Also possible and probable there was a son, George.

Count those. There are ~~nine,~~ eleven, and the will just below proves that the son James died before his father.)

WILL BOOK D, PAGE 335 -- James Taylor (his will)
Written March 11, 1812, Probated May 1812.
This will lists
    Sister -- Anna (called Ann in John's will).
    Father -- John.
EXECUTOR -- Thomas Taylor (Same executor as for John Taylor).

WILL BOOK F, PAGE 33 -- William Taylor (his will)
Written Aug. 17, 1839. Probated Nov. 1839.
Will lists
    Eldest son -- Harrison.
    Eldest daughter -- Nancy.
    Second son -- Henderson.
    Second daughter -- Juda Betsy.
Witnesses -- William Bowles, Hugh ~~Bowles.~~ Woods.

(NOTE: This could not have been "Our William" Taylor, for we know that the three children of him and his wife, Elizabeth Bowles, were William, Thomas and Jane, as proven by division of Thomas Bowles' estate given you on Page 12 of my 1951 report. He was probably a grandson of John Taylor Sr. and a nephew of "Our William." I still believe that "Our William" was the one who was mentioned in obituary as "Hon. William Taylor" in the Hillshorough Recorder in 1846.)

WILL BOOK G, PAGE 236 -- Elizabeth Taylor (her will)
Written Mar. 22, 1850, Probated May 1860.
The will lists
    Daughter -- Martha
    Son -- William W.
    Daughter -- Eleanor Smith
    Daughter -- Sarah Tinnen.
    Daughter -- Mary J. Taylor.
EXECUTOR-- Son William

(NOTE: This was not Elizabeth Bowles Taylor, for the children do notcoincide. Note the name Eleanor. This indicates that this Elizabeth was the wife or widow of one of the sons of John Taylor Sr., and his wife, Eleanor. The girl would have been named for her grandmother.)

WILL BOOK G, PAGE 394 -- Stephen Taylor,(his will)
Written Oct. 26, 1860. Probated Aug. 1862.
Will lists
    Grandson -- Stephen T. Forrest.
    " -- John P. Forrest.
    " -- James A Forrest.
    Grand-Daughter -- Mary E. Forrest.
    Daughter -- Eliza A Jones, wife of Thomas Jones.

(NOTE: This was probably Stephen, son of John Sr.)

I also read the Orange Court Minutes for the period involved and checked the Orange Estates Records and the Orange Guardian Accounts and found no better proof than I have been able to give you. In fact, I failed to find any record of those Taylor estates. The Taylor estate recordsI found were as follows:

ORANGE COUNTY ESTATES PAPERS (In N.C. Archives At Raleigh)
Inventory of Hope Taylor, Oct. 24, 1771. This included no definite identification. She was probably wife or widow of som of John Taylor Sr.'s brothers or uncles.

ORANGE COUNTY ESTATES PAPERS (In N.C.Archives at Raleigh)
Estate of Col. Thomas Taylor, Nov. 1845. Lists heirs
Elizabeth Taylor, David A. Taylor, John Taylor, Nancy Taylor, William W. Taylor, Eleanor Taylor, D. T. Tinnen, Martha C. Taylor, Mary J. Taylor. (NOTE: This proves that the Elizabeth Taylor, whose will was probated 1860 was the widow of Thomas Taylor, who had been executor of will of John Taylor Sr. The heirs here coincide with those in Elizabeth's will in 1860.)

I did not check the Orange County Marriage Bonds for the Taylors, for you have all of them transcribed in your own records there at Salt Lake City.

I checked both Caswell and Person Counties in N. C., but I found nothing of any value whatsoever in our Taylor search,

BUT NOW LET US TURN TO GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C., for we have established from the Orange County, N. C., records that the Taylor family of Orange County did come from Granville County. If you check your N. C. map you will find that Granville joins present Durham County on the northeast, and Durham County was cut from Orange County in 1881, so it was in Orange at the time in which we are interested.

GRANVILLE COUNTY (N.C.) TAYLORS

I shall first take up the Granville Wills, for we have established (at least by circumstantial evidence) that "Our William" Taylor must have been a son of John Taylor and wife Eleanor, of Orange County. Furthermore, we know from the deeds that John Taylor was the son of Edmund Taylor, of Granville County. Let us look for Edmund Taylor in Granville. The following are from GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C., WILL BOOKS (I shall use WB as abbreviation for Will Book.

Overseer -- Alexander Farrow.
(NOTE: This was a son of Joseph and Frances Taylor, whose wills were given on Page 14. He was grandson of John, the Elder, and a nephew of John, of Orange County.)

WB 13, Page 519 -- John Taylor Sr. (his will)
Written April 29, 1827. Probated May 1837.
Will Lists
Son -- John C. Taylor.--Got land northwest of Taylor's Ferry.
Son -- James H. Taylor.
Daughter -- Agnes B. Taylor.
Grandson -- John Taylor Walton.
Daughter -- Nancy Young.
Son-in-law -- Henry Young.
(NOTE: He was probably either John, son of William, or John, son of Phillip, and a grandson of old John the ~~Elder~~ Elder. That mention of Taylor's Ferry ties the family back into Virginia, for Taylor's Ferry was in Mecklenburg County, Va., not far from Clarksville, Va.)

Refer back to the will of John Taylor, the Elder, on Page 12, and you will see there a reference to Phillip Taylor's interests in Caroline County, Va. We shall also see connections back into Lunenburg and Caroline Counties in Va. in the Granville Deeds. The following are from GRANVILLE DEED BOOKS. (Using DB abbreviation)
DB-D -- Page 5.
~~DB-E~~ -- Phillip Taylor, of Caroline County, Va., from Jonathon Parker and Wife, Ann. -- July 19, 1760 -- 245 acres. WITS -- Wm. Taylor, Benjamin Wade and Howell Lewis.

NOTE: Mecklenburg County, Va., which is adjoining Granville County, N. C., was cut from Lunenburg County by a Virginia act of 1764. Nou see that Edmund Taylor was called "of Lunenburg" in the previous deeds, and in the one immediately following, he is described as "of Mecklenburg County, Va," in 1767.

DB-H, Page 422 -- Edmund Taylor, of Mecklenburg County, Va., from Abraham Cooke, of Rowan -- 162 acres on road from Granville Court House to Taylor's Ferry. WITS -- William Potts and David Mitchell. (NOTE: This Abraham Cooke, who was of Rowan County, N.C., at this time had previously been in Granville, having witnessed some of the Taylor wills. Incidentally we find that Abraham Cooke, John Williams, James Mitchell, Ben Wade, Abraham Smith and some of the Bullocks, all of whom traded land with the Taylors of Granville or else witnessed their deeds and wills had been in Lunenburg County, Va., being found referred to in Landon C. Bell's "Old Free State," which is a history of Lunenburg County.)

DB-I, Page 102 -- Edmund Taylor, of Mecklenburg County, Va., from Robert Gilliam -- Dec. 4, 1769 -- 1220 acres Gilliams Branch. WITS -- John Doswell, Nat Robinson and Joseph Taylor. (NOTE -- Robert Gilliam-- or Gilham -- had been in Lunenburg County, Va. before coming to North Carolina.)

Let us now check the Granville Marriages, of which there are several. Most of them seem to be too late for much value. They all seem to be later than "Our John" of Orange County. Following are GRANVILLE COUNTY MARRIAGES. (S) means "Surety".

Richard Taylor to Lucy Byne, Feb 7, 1775. (S) Joseph Taylor.
(Probably Richard son fo Edmund and brother of John, or Orange. He was evidently a younger son of Edmund of Va. and Granville.)

John Taylor to Susannah Bullock, Marc 16, 1784. (S) Edmund Taylor.
(NOTE: We know this could not have been John of Orange, for his wife was named Eleanor, as proven by Orange deeds. The Surety on this bond could have been either Edmund Sr. or Edmund Jr., and this John could have been either of several grandsons of old John the Elder, of Granville.)

Edmund Taylor to Patsy Lewis, April 24, 1790. SURETY: Henry Potter.

Edmund Taylor to Polly Robards, Sept. 10, 1798.x(S) Joseph White
(These might have been late marriages for Edmund Jr. Edmund Jr., of Granville was a member of the N.C.Constitutional convention of 1787, so he was fairly old to have been marrying at these dates. We found no record of his will.)

George Taylor to Jerusha Buchanon, Dec. 16, 1793. (S) Silas Paschall.
(Possibly a son of John, of Orange County)

James Taylor to Betsy Robards, Oct. 15, 1798. (S) Edmund Taylor.
n (Could have been James, son of Phillip, or James, son of Edmund Sr.)

John Taylor to Mary Knott, May 2, 1801. (S) James Jones.

William Taylor to Elizabeth H. Smith, Dec. 8, 1804.(S) James Townwell.

Mills Taylor to Jenny Hicks, Feb. 18, 1808. (S) Alex Hamilton.

Anderson Taylor to Lany Hawley, Julu 13, 1814.(S) Lemuel Taylor.
(Possibly a son of William and grandson of old John the Elder of Granville)

(Other marriages definitely too late ~~far~~ to be useful)

FROM MARRIAGE RECORDS OF MECKLENBURG COUNTY, VA.
we find the following:

Howell Taylor to Susannah Young, Dec. 30, 1778.(S) Samuel Young.
(This seems to have been son of Edmund Sr.)

Now, let us turn to some data from Bishop Meade's "Old Churches and Families of Virginia." He gives an excellent sketch of one of the early and prominent Taylor families of Virginia, a family which first settled in New Kent County, Va., between 1650 and 1667. We have already seen from the Granville County wills and deeds that the Taylors of Granville had relationships back in Caroline County,&Va. (Check back to will of John Taylor, the Elder, of Granville, and also to early Phillip Taylor deeds, about 1660. Both refer to Carolina County, Va., and Carolina County was formed from New Kent County, Va. After a study of all the Taylor data, in Orange and Granville Counties in N. C., it seems to fit with the following line, which Bishop Meade gives.

THE MEADE SKETCH FOLLOWS:

1.) James Taylor, first of the family in America, emigrated from Carlisle, England, to Virginia, probably about 1666 or 1667, settling on Mattypony River in New Kent County, Va. (The Mattypony River ran through what later became Caroline County) James Taylor was married twice, first in England to Frances ___?___, died Sept. 22, 1680. He later married second on Aug. 22, 1682 to Mary Gregory. There were four children by the first marriage, and four sons and five daughters by second marriage. They follow

(First Marriage children)

2. Jane, born Dec. 27, 1668.
3. James, born March 14, 1674.
4. Sarah, born June 30, 1676. Md. a Powell.
5. One daughter, died in infancy.

(Second Marriage Children)

6. John, died in infancy.
7. Ann, born Jan. 12, 1684.
8. A twin to Ann, died in infancy.
9. Mary, born Jan. 21, 1686, died in infancy.
10. Mary, born June 29, 1688. (Second child to be named Mary)
11. Edmund, born July 5, 1690. (Mead says he migrated to N. C. and no further record of him or family)
12. John, born 1692. Die in infancy. (Second boy to be named John)
13. Elizabeth, born June 10, 1694.
14. John, born Oct. 18, 1696. (Third child to be hamed John.)

(Now Meade goes ahead and traces descendants of James Jr., born 1674, for he was the ancestor of President Sachary Taylor. I made these notes some years ago, and my notes do not show that Meade traced any line except that of James, Jr. However, I checked North Carolina biographical references on John Penn, M.C., and found in the Dictionary of American Biography that John Penn, born Carolina County, Va., in 1740, was definitely a son of Moses and Catherine Taylor Penn. It stated that he came to ~~North Car~~ Granville County, N.C., where many of his relatives lived. This coupled with fact that John Taylor, the Elder, of Granville, bequeathed in his will to "my grandson, John Penn, M.C., son of my daughter, Catherine," definotely makes the connecting link. Therefore, I go ahead from there --)

14. John Taylor, son of James and Mary Gregory Taylor, born ~~Caroline Coun~~ New Kent County, Va., Oct. 18, 1696, in section that was cut off in 1727 to form Carolina County, Va. Name of wife unknown. Removed by 1761 to Granville County, N.C., where he died between March 16 and May 1780 (dates of his will. At least four of his children were dead before he made will in 1780. In his will he mentioned "my grandson, John Penn, M.C.," who was himself born in 1740. This would indicate that John Penn's mother was born by 1720. The order of John Taylor's children cannot be definitely ascertained. However, we may assume that his "deceased" children were possibly the oldest ones, ~~and~~ and we list them first.

15. Catherine Taylor, married Moses Penn, in Caroline County, Va., and had at least one son, John Penn, who was a N. C. Signer of the Declaration of Independence. Moses Penn died in 1759, and it is probable that Catherine Taylor Penn died before 1774 when John Penn, M. C., followed his grand-father and other relatives to N. C. to Granville County.
16. Mary Taylor, married ________ Penn, probably a brother of Moses Penn, her sister's husband, since Mary named one of her sons, Moses. Her children, as listed in John Taylor's will were John, Phillip, Moses, Thomas, Catherine and Mary.
17. Phillip Taylor, probably born in early 1720's, died before Aug. 1766, when his will was probated in Granville County. His wife, Mary ________, was still living at time of his death.
18. James Taylor, already dead by time his father wrote his will in 1780. His father mentioned two of James' children, who were to get money due their father in Caroline County, Va.
19. Joseph Taylor, probably one of older ones, since he was first of John Taylor's living children to be listed in the will. Probably born before 1730. He must have lived to ripe old age, for we find a Joseph Taylor will in Granville, probated 1815.
20. Edmund Taylor, probably born by middle 1720's, for indications are that his son, John Taylor of Orange County, N.C., had to be born by about 1740. This is true, because we know that Thomas H. Taylor, son of John, was old enough to be buying land in Orange County by 1784, whe he sold a tract to William Shepherd.
21. John Taylor, Jr., probably born about 1730 or soon afterward, died in Granville County about 1787. His will written October 1787 and probated November 1787.
22. William Taylor, probly born in 1730's, will written ~~and probated in 1801~~ in 1801 and probated in 1803.
23. Isobelle Taylor, married a Hopkins. Listed in father's will.
24. Elizabeth Taylor, married Wm Bullock. Listed in father's will. She had previouly md. James Lewis.

17. Phillip Taylor, born Caroline County, Va., died in Granville County, N. C., in 1766. Wife was Mary ________, listed in will. Children were listed in will.
    25. Phillip.
    26. John.
    27. James.

~~x~~

18. James Taylor, deceased when his father wrote will in 1780. Name of wife unknown. Children listed in father's will were
    28. John.
    29. Elizabeth.

19. Joseph Taylor, probably born Caroline County, Va., will probated in Granville County, N. C., 1815. Wife listed in will was Frances ________. Children in will were wife died 1814, leaving will.

30. Betsy Taylor, married ~~a Hunt~~ William Hunt.
31. Ann Taylor, married Willis Lewis.
32. Franny Taylor, married a Somerville.
33. Joseph Taylor.

20. Edmund Taylor, born Caroline County, Va., name of wife was Anne ? ~~unknown~~ since she was thus listed in his will, when he died in 1808. Will written 1807, probated 1808. ~~Children~~ It would seem that his son John was probably born by 1740, since John's son was owning land in Orange County, N.C., by 1784. Children of Edmund listed in will were
33. Lewis Taylor, probably born before 1760. Left will probated in Granville County, N.C., in 1820.
34. Richard Taylor.
35. Howell Taylor, probably born about 1755, married Susannah Young in Mecklenburg County, Va., in 1778. His father Edmund had previously removed from Caroline County to Lunenburg County, Va., where his holdings were cut off into Mecklenburg County, Va., in 1764. Edmund, however, was in Granville when he made his will and was mentioned as "of Granville" in deeds of his son, John, in Orange County.
36. John Taylor, probably born about 1740 in Caroline County, Va., and died in Orange County, N.C., in 1813, which was date of probate of his will. His wife, listed in deeds in Orange was Eleanor, who was apparently dead before 1812, since she was not mentioned in his will.
37. Edmund Taylor, Jr., probably born by 1760 or before, for he was a member of the N. C. Constitutional Convention that met in 1787 to ratify the U.S. Constitution.
38. James Taylor,
39. Mary Taylor, married a Brody.
40. Elizabeth Taylor, married a Rux.
41. Frances Taylor, married a Moore.

21. John Taylor, Jr., born Caroline County, Va., died in Granville County, N. C., in 1787, when his will was probated there. Wife was Elizabeth, who died leaving will in 1798. ~~Children were listed as follows~~ They had no children, for they ~~all~~ left their property to brothers and sisters and nieces and nephews.

22. William Taylor, born Caroline County, Va., died in Granville County, N. C., in 1803. Will probated that time. Wife not listed in will. Children were
42. William Taylor.
43. John Taylor.
44. Anderson Taylor.
45. Sarah Taylor, married George Tarry.

33. Lewis Taylor, son of Edmund and Anne Taylor, listed wife as Jane ______ in his will, probated in Granville County, N.C., in 1820. Children listed were
46. Richard Byne Taylor. (his wife probably was a Byne, and this son got his mother's maiden name.)
47. Elizabeth Taylor.
48. Lucy Taylor, md. first an Evans, md. second a Burwell.

49. Patty (Martha) Taylor, married a Judge.
50. Nancy Taylor, married a Boswell.
51. Charles Taylor.
52. Edmund Taylor.
53. Lewis Taylor Jr.
54. Nathaniel ~~M~~ Taylor.
54. Fletcher Taylor.

36. John Taylor, son of Edmund and Ann Taylor, born Caroline County, Va., probably migrated with father to Lunenburg ~~and~~ (later Mecklenburg County, Va.) and later to Orange County, N.C. First deed to be definitely identified as his in Orange County, N. C., was dated 1782, when he was spoken of a~~s~~ John, "son of Edmund, of Granville." ~~He died in Oran~~ His wife was Eleanor, who was associated with him in deeds in Orange. She was apparently dead before John made will in Orange in 1812. Will probated 1812. He listed only two children in his will (son Joseph and daughter Ann), but he mentioned "all my sons and daughters." A close study of Orange County deeds indicates that his children were as follows:
54. Thomas H. Taylor, probably born by 1760 or 1763, since he owned land in Orange by 1784. He was executor of father's estate. ~~Thomas died, leaving will that was probated in Orange in 1825.~~
55. Elisha Taylor.
56. John Taylor, Jr,
57. Stephen Taylor, died leaving will in Orange in 1845. His wife, Elizabeth, left will in Orange in 1860.
58. Robert Taylor, shown by deeds to have been in Franklin County, Ga., by 1816.
59. Joseph Taylor, mentioned in will.
60. William Taylor, probably born about 1800, ~~since his wife,~~ since he married Anne Bowles, who was shown by Census of 1850 to be born in 1800. Deeds gave good circumstantial evidence that he was a son of John, since he deeded a small tract of land that from size and location appeared to be one of the shares of John's estate.
61. James Taylor, died before his father, leaving will probated in Orange in 1812.
62. George Taylor.
63. Anna Taylor, listed in will of father.
64. Jane Taylor, to whom several of brothers deeded shares of John's estate.

57. Stephen Taylor, son of John and Eleanor, died ~~leaving~~ and left will in Orange County, N. C., in 1845. His wife, Elizabeth, died, leaving will in Orange in 1760. Children from those two wills were
65. Martha Taylor.
66. William W. Taylor.
67. Eleanor Taylor, married a Smith.
66. Eliza Taylor, married Thomas Jones.
67. Sarah Taylor, married a Tinnen.
68. Mary J. Taylor.

60. William Taylor, who seems definitely from deed book evidence, to have been a son of John and Eleanor Taylor, of Orange County, N. C., was married (probably in late 1820's) to Anne Bowles, ~~daught~~ daughter of Thomas Bowles and Anne Davis. She was born in 1800 ~~and was dead before~~ shown by Census of 1850 for Orange County, N. C. William probably died about 1846, when the Hillsborough Recorder carried an obituary notice for an Hon. William Taylor. He was definitely not the William Taylor, who had died leaving will in 1839, for the children did not coincide. Children of William and Anne Bowles Taylor, as shown by settlement of Thomas Bowles estate were
   69. Jane Taylor, born about 1830, married before 1850 to Thomas Moore. She was dead by 1857, and Thomas Moore himself died before 1860. They had one son, W. A. Moore.
   70. William Taylor, born March 2, 1833, in Orange County, N.C., and died Clay County, Mo., on Oct. 15, 1808. Orange County deeds showed him to have been in Clay County, Mo., by 1880. (See Page 13 of my 1951 report), He married Nancy Wilson, daughter of John W. and Absilla Wilson. Nancy was born Dec. 19, 1827 in Orange County, N. C., and died Clay County, Mo. on April 23, 1882.
   80. Thomas Taylor, listed in settlement of his Grandfather Bowles' estate, but no further data.

From the above report, your patron, Caldwell George Taylor, will be aboue to figure a pedigree on Taylor line as follows:

1. James Taylor, the eimgrant, from Carlisle, England, to New Kent Couhty, Va., about 1666. Second wife, Mary Gregory, had

2. John Taylor, born New Kent County, Va., in 1696, died Granville County, N. C., in 1780. Wife not known. Had son

4. John Taylor, born probably by 1740 in Caroline County, Va., removed with father to Lunenburg and Mecklenburg Counties, Va. and later to Orange County, N. C., where he died in 1813. Wife was Eleanor ________. ~~Their~~ One of their sons was ~~M~~

5. William Taylor Sr., born Orange County, N.C., between 1790 and 1800. He Married Anne Bowles. One of their sons was

6. William Taylor, born 1833, died 1908, married Nancy Wilson. Their son was

7. Jackson Caldwell Taylor, born 1868 in Missouri.

And so on to your client.

Now, I realize that I have not given documentary proof that William Taylor Sr., (circa 1800-circa 1846) was a son of John and Eleanor Taylor, of Orange, but more than a year of periodic research, plus close study of the wills and deeds of Orange County, N. C., convince me beyond question that such was the case. Except for that link of circumstantial evidence, all other links are definitely proven. It is truly a fine line, for two Presidents of the United States (James Madison and Zachary Taylor) and at least one signer of the Declaration of Indepence are descended from James Taylor, the emigrant to New Kent County, Va., ans the family is linked with some of the most illustrious families of both Virginia and N. C.

I have voluminous notes ~~at~~ here at my side, which I have gathered on the Wilson, Bowles and Wood families, along with some on the Davis family -- seeking to extend your client's pedigree on those lines -- ~~but~~ and I had hoped to include all of them in this report at this time. However, I have been studying and typing this Taylor stuff for ~~about~~ about twenty hours during a three-day period, and I simply cannot complete the report on those lines at this time. I will prepare the Wilson, Bowles and Woods stuff as quickly as possible. In the meantime, I shall send this Taylor report on to you. I do not know whether those lines will work out as well as this one, for I really did not realize that I had as definite a line on the Taylors until I began putting the material from various sources together.

A jaunt for research up through Mecklenburg, Lunenburg, Caroline, Brunswick and New Kent Counties in Virginia might yield a great deal of extra material on this Taylor line, including possibly the identification of the wives of some of these Taylor men.

Again I say that I am sorry that I had to take so long, ~~[illegible]~~ but my regular work and health interfered. I trust that your client will like this report. I shall send the remainder as quickly as possible.

Sincerely

Luther N Byrd

Dear Mr. Byrd:

Our patron Caldwell George Taylor has deposited $60.00 with our organization with a request that you continue research on his Taylor, Bowles and Wilson lines of ancestry. He is especially interested in obtaining additional information about his Taylor line.

In your report of.18 June 1951 you offered to do the entire job finishingup in Orange and checking the other three counties for $60.00. Our patron is very pleased with the work already accomplished and would like to have you continue if this is at all possible.

We regret the delay previously experienced but this was because our patron moved to Arizona for the winter and had not advised us of his change of address, consequently he did not receive our letters.

Please advise us if you are able to undertake the research and when and the money order for $60.00 will be mailed to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Byrd:

Thank you for the excellent report and research undertaken on behalf of our patron, Mr. Taylor.

Enclosed is a money order for $5.00 to partly cover the amount due.

Because of lack of funds it has not been possible for us to scrutinize the report very carefully but it would appear that your deductions are correct. We are writing to our patron today for additional money and when this is received the balance of $5.00 will be sent to you.

Your assistance is appreciated.

IN RE: E.G.-Caldwell George Taylo
Your letter dated Sept.29,1952

Dear Sir:

I have been delaying an answer to your above letter on the Taylor, Bowles and Wilson lines of ancestry in Orange, Caswell, Person and Granville Counties in N. C., waiting to answer until I could find when I had the time to pursue the research work referred to in that letter.

In the letter you stated that your patron, George Taylor had deposited $60 to pay for a search which I advised in a report sent to you on June 18, 1951. However, I have been so busy through the fall months that I could not seem to get around to genealogical research.

However, I now see that I will have a chance during the coming Christmas holidays to do the work in question, and I will be glad to do it for your client at that time if he and you are still interested.

In your letter this fall you stated that I should advise you whether and when I could do the work, and that you would mail check. Well, I will be glad to do the work and will try to do it during the holiday period, which ends on January. Therefore, I am writing at this time and am mailing the letter by air mail to speed matters. If you and your client still want me to prusue this research on the Taylor, Bowles, Wilson lines of ancestry in Orange, Caswell, Person and Granville Counties, you may send the check for $60 at once.

Thanking you for your early attention to this matter, I remain

Sincerely
Luther N Byrd

Dear Mr. Byrd:

Enclosed is a Money Order in the amount of $5.00 to cover research on the above patron's Taylor and Wilson lines of ancestry. Please advise us if this amount is not sufficient.

The above patron is a descendant of William Taylor, born 2 March 1833, Alamance County, North Carolina, son of William Taylor and Elizabeth Bowles and Nancy Wilson, born 19 December 1827, Alamance County, daughter of John W. Wilson and Absilla.

The 1850 census revealed the following:

John W. Wilson	54	farmer	born in Orange, North Carolina
Absilla	46		" " Alamance "
Nancy	22		" "
Martha	20		" "
John	18		" "
Colbert	15		" "
Josiah	13		" "
Eliza	10		" "
Eliza Taylor	50
William	17
William	10 months
Thomas	15
Anna Price	36

dead by 1857 – she was a Bowles

The wills of Orange County have been searched.

Will you please search in the unpublished records of Orange County in an effort to extend the pedigree. Enclosed is a pedigree chart for your guidance.

Your assistance in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

IN RE: EG--Caldwell George Taylor
Your letter of September
28, 1950 and also your letter of March 13,1951

Dear Sir:

I am sorry to have waited so long about your query and search on the Wilson and Taylor lines for your patron, Caldwell George Taylor. However, I was so completely occupied with my duties as a member of the faculty at Elon College that I simply was unable to do any genealogical work during the winter and spring.

I realize that I should have at least written and acknowledged your letter, but I was actually so busy that I scarcely wrote any letters. I knew that I would be back down here at Chapel Hill (which is in Orange County, N.C.) to attend summer school, and I thought I would be better able to do the work in Orange County this summer.

You sent only $5 money order with the request, and I thought I would at least take a look at the material for that amount, but it was more than 25 miles from Elon College to the county seat of Orange County. Therefore, I could scarcely afford to come down on a special trip for that and then do any work. I did run over to the Alamance County seat at Graham and take a look there, as a means of orienting myself for the work in Orange.

In your letter of Sept. 28, 1950, you wrote me to advise you if the $5 fee was not sufficient for the work. Well, I figured if there was not too much material, then I would go ahead and look through it for that amount, for your organization has been very kind to me in years past. However, I have found a great quantity of material, and I have gone ahead (since my return to Chapel Hill) and done quite a bit of work in gathering the material for this report, which I am mailing you with this letter. When you read the following report, I feel that you will agree with me that the work done and the results accimplished make the report worth more than the original payment of $5 you sent. The report follows:

THE PROBLEM ITSELF

I shall first review the information you sent me. You wrote me that "the above patron, Caldwell George Taylor, is a descendant of William Taylor, born 2 March 1833, Alamance County, North Carolina, son of William Taylor and Elizabeth Bowles, and of Nancy Wilson, born 19 December 1827, Alamance County, the daughter of John W. Wilson and Absilla."

Now, I should like to point out errors in the birthplace of the two ancestors shown above. You state that William Taylor, born 1833, and Nancy Wilson, born 1827, were both born in Alamance County. That was impossible, for Alamance County was not formed until 1849, when it was cut off from Orange County. The two ancestors may have been born in the section that later became Alamance County, but they were certainly born in Orange County, N.C., if they were born before 1849.

You also enclosed an 1850 Census listing of the families of John W. Wilson and wife Absilla and for Eliza (Elizabeth) Taylor, widow of William Taylor. You asked me to search the unpublished records of Orange County in an effort to extend the pedigree chart. You also enclosed a partial pedigree chart, which (in brief form) was as follows:

William Taylor
William Taylor
1833-1908
Elizabeth Bowles
Jackson C.Taylor
B.May 1868
D.________
John W. Wilson
Nancy Wilson
B. 1796
1827-1882
Absilla ?
B. 1803

My problem was to find the parentage and any added information concerning (1) William Taylor, Sr., (2) Elizabeth Bowles, (3) John W. Wilson and (4) Absilla ________.

You stated that the wills of Orange County had been checked, but I had to check them over in order to orient myself to the problem and to cordinate them to the remainder of the information. I also checked the Alamance County records for any information they would yield.

I shall take the lineages one at a time.

JOHN W. WILSON LINEAGE

I found more than one John W. Wilson and several John Wilsons in the records of Orange and Alamance Counties, but I think I can prove it when I make the following statement:

(1) John W. Wilson was the son of Thomas Wilson and wife, Jane Wood.

In proving that statement, I shall cite some of the wills and some deed references found in Orange County, ~~first, I shall~~ along with some marriage records:

I found one John W. Wilson (not the one in which we are interested) in the will of a certain Samuel Wilson probated in 1840.

~~ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK E, PAGE 65~~

I shall give an abstract of that will, and you will see that certain names in that will indicated a relationship, but it was not the right John W. Wilson:

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK F, PAGE 63
Samuel Wilson (his will)
Written April 5, 1840. Probated: August 1840.
His will lists
- Wife -- Elizabeth.
- Son -- Charles.
- Son -- John W.
- Son -- Felix.
- Daughter -- Harriett Walker.
- Daughter -- Sally Rountree.
- Daughter -- Polly Robards.
- Daughter -- Elizabeth Dickson.
- Daughter -- Nancy Nichols.
- ________ -- Lotty Cates.
- ________ -- Jane Taylor.

(The will specified that daughters Polly Robards, Elizabeth Dickson and Nancy Nichols were "now in the West")

EXECUTORS: Sons Charles Wilson and John W. Wilson.
WITNESSES: James Holeman, Alex Robinson.

The very name John W. Wilson was intriguing, but discovery of another John W. Wilson of the same general time brought on study and convinced that this was the wrong man. I am convinced that ~~he was~~ the John W. Wilson listed in this will was one who was married to Ann R. White in Orange County on 30 Oct. 1850. Their bond is of record, and then that John W. Wilson died within two years, as proven by the following will:

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK G, PAGE 18
John W. Wilson (his will)
Written: April 28, 1852. Probated: May, 1852.
His will lists:
- Wife: Ann R. Wilson.
- Daughter: Lucy C. Wilson.

WITNESSES: J. W. Carr and Jones Watson.

There is, of course, a possibility that this John W. Wilson could have been the son of "your" John W. Wilson, who was listed as John Wilson, aged 18, in the Census of 1850. Your client may have information which would prove that point right or wrong. A further check of the Census of 1850 might prove the point.

HOWEVER, I now go to the two wills and other records that do prove the parantage of "your" John W. Wilson. I shall cite the will of both his father and mother and shall also cite the other records that tie them together.

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK F, PAGE 453
Jane Wilson (her will)
Written: Sept. 5, 1841. Probated: Feb. 1850.
Her will lists
  Son -- John. (This was John W. Wilson of our problem.)
  Daughter -- Nancy.
  Son -- Charles.
  Son -- Robert.
  Son -- Josiah.
  Daughter -- Fanny.
  Son -- Anderson.
  Son -- Caleb.
  Son-in-law -- Absolom Turrentine.
  Son-in-law -- Samuel Turrentine.
  Daughter -- Elizabeth Latta, wife of Solomon Latta.
EXECUTOR: Samuel Turrentine.
WITNESSES: Nelson P. Hall, Robert Hall, Jr.

NOTE: The thing which first intrigued me was the presence presence in the will of the names Josiah and Nancy, both of which were repeated in the names of children of John W. Wilson and Absilla. You will note also that there was a Charles in this family as well as in the family of that Samuel Wilson, whose will we have already studied. That might indicate that ~~John W. Wilson and Samuel were the~~ Samuel Wilson and the husband of this Jane Wilson were closely related.

I then looked for the husband of this Jane Wilson, and I found him quickly in the person of Thomas Wilson, whose will was probated in Orange County in 1829.

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK E, PAGE 188
Thomas Wilson (his will)
Written: Nov. 22, 1828. Probated: Aug. 1829.
His will lists
  Wife: Jane. (Same who died in 1850.)
  Daughter: Nancy.
  Daughter: Fanny.
  Son: ~~Charlssa~~. Charles
  Son: ~~Robebt~~. Caleb
  Daughter: Elizabeth Latta, wife of Solomon Latta.
  Grandson: Caleb H. Latta.
  Grandson: Asabel M. Latta.
  Grandson: Jackson Latta.
  ALSO mentions "gifts(already)made to sons that have already married and left me."
EXECUTORS: Sons, Anderson Wilson and Caleb Wilson.
WITNESSES: James Holleman and Richard Holleman.

NOTE: You can readily see that this Thomas was the husband of the Jane Wilson who had had her will probated in 1850, although some of the sons are not left bequests in the will. You can see why though in the provision about "gifts to sons that have already married and left me." Two of those sons are mentioned as executors, but there is no mention of the son John at all. However, I can cite additional documents that prove that ~~your~~ it was true that John W. Wilson was a son of this couple. You will remember that the wills of both Thomas Wilson and Jane Wilson mentioned Turrentine son-in-laws. Well, I shall cite the will of Nancy(Wilson)Turrentine below, in which she lists her "brothers", and John W. Wilson was one of them.

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK G, PAGE 188
Nancy Turrentine (her will)
Written: April 15, 1852. Probated: Nov. 1857.
Her will lists
    Brother -- John W. Wilson. (This was the one of our problem.)
    Brother -- Josiah Wilson.
    Brother -- Anderson Wilson.
    Brother -- Thomas Wilson.
    ________-- Thomas J. Latta. (he had been listed as Jackson Latta in Thomas Wilson's will in 1829.)

NOTE: You find the names of at least three of these brothers listed along with "Daughter--Nancy" in the will of the mother Jane Wilson, probated 1850. Now, I shall cite a few deeds to prove the relationship.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 26, PAGE 303 -- Josiah Wilson; John W. Wilson, for himself; John W. Wilson, attorney for Anderson Wilson and Caleb Wilson, of the State of Missouri; Samuel Turrentine and wife, Nancy; Absolom Turrentine and wife, Fanny; -- all give joint deed to Thomas Carrington --- Aug. 25, 1835 -- 70 acres of land on Little River. Witnesses -- Silas M. Sink and Samuel Holeman. (NOTE: This deed was after the death of Thomas Wilson in 1829 and apparently dealt with some of his land.)

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 31, PAGE 85 -- John W. Wilson for himself; and John W. Wilson, attorney for Josiah Wilson, Anderson Wilson, Caleb Wilson, heirs of Charles Wilson and ~~Robert Wilson~~ heirs of Robert Wilson; Samuel Turrentine and wife, Nancy; Absolom Turrentine and wife, Fanny -- all give joint deed to William Latta -- Jan. 1, 1842 -- 88 5/8 acres of land, part of Thomas Wilson lands.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 34, PAGE 27 -- Caleb Wilson, of Clay County, Mo., to John W. Wilson -- Jan. 6, 1851 -- Power of Attorney to recover legacies from estate of my father, Thomas Wilson, or from estate of deceased aunt, Elizabeth Allison.

Now, I studied a great many Wilson deeds in Orange and Alamance Counties for the various Wilson men. The lands of Thomas Wilson (father of John W. Wilson) were in the upper part of Orange County on Flat River and Little River in a section not far from what later became Alamance County. I can cite deeds to show the exact location, but I do not think them necessary. However, we find John W. Wilson buying land on Stoney Creek (in a section that was later cut off into Alamance County, and then Alamance County deeds show him along the same creek, definite proof that this John W. Wilson we find in Orange was the same one later in Alamance County.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 27, PAGE 63 -- John W. Wilson from Caleb Wilson -- Sept. 15, 1832 -- 227 acres on Stoney Creek, adjoining Anderson Watson. Witnesses -- George Hurdle and Henry Garrison. (NOTE: Perhaps Caleb Wilson was selling to his brother and preparing to remove to Missouri.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 28, PAGE 326 -- John W. Wilson from the Andrew Hughes Estate -- Sept. 17, 1838 -- Wilson is buying land in same section, and we find him later with the Hughes family in Alamance. He later buys more from same estate in 1843.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 30, PAGE 338 -- John W. Wilson from Andrew Watson -- Feb. 8, 1843 -- 50 acres on Stoney Creek. Witness -- Umstead Wilson.

Now, let me cite some Alamance County deeds:

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 2, PAGE 299 -- John W. Wilson to John H. Wilson -- March 1, 1855 -- tract of land on Stoney Creek, adjoining Andrew J. Hughes and Dr. E. F. Watson. Witness -- A. J. Hughes. (NOTE: Here we find mention of both the Hughes and Watson lands, and both were mentioned in John W. Wilson's Orange County deeds. Also, please note the name John H. Wilson. We find John W. Wilson deeding land to John H. Wilson in Alamance County as late as 1869, and this John H. Wilson was apparently his son "John Wilson, aged 18" in the Census of 1850. Therefore, that proves that the John W. Wilson who died in Orange in 1852 was probably the son of that Samuel Wilson, who left will in 1840.)

There is also a series of three deeds in 1869 from John W. Wilson to his children --

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 4, PAGE 176 -- John W. Wilson to John H. Wilson -- June 2, 1869 -- 11 acres. Witnesses -- A. B. Tarpley, E. E. Foster.

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 4, PAGE 177 -- John W. Wilson to Martha Wilson and Elizabeth Tarpley -- June 2, 1869 -- 62 acres of land to settle $249 in notes due to Martha Wilson and Elizabeth Tarpley. WITNESSES: A. B. Tarpley and John H. Wilson.

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 4, PAGE 178 -- John W. Wilson to Martha Wilson -- June 2, 1869 -- 27 acres of land to pay $81 due Martha Wilson for work and labour done. WITNESSES -- A. B. Tarpley and John H. Wilson.

NOTE: These three deeds indicate that John H. Wilson, Elizabeth Tarpley and Martha Wilson were children of John W. Wilson still about him. There is an Alamance County marriage bond of record, showing Elizabeth F. Wilson's marriage to William A. Tarpley, August 15, 1860. Apparently Martha Wilson was still single and perhaps living with her father. There is no mention of his wife.

Then, we find in Alamance County the will of John W. Wilson, which shows that he died in 1881 and also showing that Martha Wilson married a Forrest.

ALAMANCE COUNTY WILL BOOK 2, PAGE 181 --
John W. Wilson (his will)
Written -- April 25, 1879. Probated -- May 6, 1881.
His will lists
    Daughter -- Martha Forrest.
    Daughter -- Elizabeth F. Tarpley.
    Grand-Daughter -- Mary C. Wilson.
    Son -- Josiah L. Wilson.
EXECUTOR: Son, Josiah L. Wilson.
WITNESSES: Konathon Brooks and Nathan C. Garrison.
(NOTE: He did not mention any other children, so they were apparently either dead of removed to another section.)

NOW FOR ANOTHER STATEMENT --

(2) The wife of Thomas Wilson and mother of John W. Wilson was Jane Wood, a daughter of ~~John Wood and Anne Woo~~ John Woods and his wife, Anne Woods.

I shall first cite the marriage record of Thomas Wilson and Jean (Jane) Woods. According to Orange County Marriage Bonds --

Thomas Wilson married Jean Wood, 16 March 1789. SURETY: William Wood.

You will note that this was the correct date to have made this Thomas Wilson and Jean (or Jane) Woods the parents of John W. Wilson, born in 1796. (John W. Wilson was listed as 54 years of age in the Census of 1850).

As proof of this and also proof of Jane (or Jean) Woods, I submit the will of her mother as follows:

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK D, PAGE 521 --
Anne Woods (her will)
Written: April 5, 1817. Probated -- Feb. 1818.
Her will lists
    Daughter -- Nancy Robinson.
    Daughter -- Jane Wilson.
    Daughter -- Rebecca Thompson.
    Niece -- Sally Woods.
    Niece -- Ann Wilson.
    Son-in-law -- Thomas Wilson.
    Son-in-law -- Samuel Thompson.
        She provided that her two sons-inlaw should share "the money received from my husband, John Woods.)
EXECUTORS: Two sons-in-law, Thomas Wilson and Samuel Thompson.
WITNESSES: Richard Holeman and Charles Holeman.
    NOTE: You will remember that Richard Holleman and James Holleman were witnesses of the will of Thomas Wilson, the son-in-law, whose will was to be probated in 1829.

I think this proves beyond doubt ~~that~~ the parentage of the Eno River. Witnesses -- John Flinthum and William Lewis.

(NOTE: It does not specify just whose estate this land was from, although the joint deed indicates that all were joint heirs of someone.)

An earlier deed and will indicates that Frances Few was the widow of James Few, Jr.. See below

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 5, PAGE 579--James Few, Jr. and wife, Elizabeth, to (I FAILED TO NOTE NAME OF GRANTEE) --- July 20, 1787 -- 150 acres on Eno River -- including one tract conveyed from James Dinney to William Cox July ~~20~~ 20, 1761, then conveyed from William Cox to John Woods February 2, 1762, and then conveyed by deed of gift from John Woods to James Few, Jr.under date of Nov. 3, 1763. -- including a second tract conveyed from William Frw to James Few, Jr., in 1764. Witnesses -- John Lewis and Stephen Scarlett. (NOTE: This might indicate that James Few, Jr., had married a certain Frances Woods, sister of John and Samuel Woods and that the joint deed above was where Frances Few, widow, joined with her brothers in ~~conveying~~ conveying some of their father's land.)

This is further borm out by the will of James Few, which I found --

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK B, PAGE 32
James Few (his will)
Written -- March 25, 1779. Probated -- Nov. 1787.
His will lists
Wife -- Frances.
Daughter -- Elizabeth.
Daughter -- Ann.
Daughter -- Bethiah.
Son -- James Few, Jr.
WITNESSES: John Wood, Anne Wood and John Flinthum.

(NOTE: You will remember that John Flinthum witnessed the deed in 1797 given by Frances Few and John and Samuel Woods and their wives. This will proves that John and Anne Wood were already married and living in Orange County by 1779, and the deed just above shows that there was a John Wood buying and giving land in Orange County by the 1760's.)

Actually, all this proves is that John Woods and wife, Anne, were in Orange County by or before 1779. We have already found that they had a daughter, Jane (or Jean) old enough to marry Thomas Wilson by 1789. It seems probable that Jane Woods was born by at least 1772 if she married in 1789, and was possibly born by 1770. That would place the marriage of her parents before 1770, and it would mean that John Woods and his wife were born before 1750.

NOW FOR ANOTHER STATEMENT:

(3) Thomas Wilson, the father of John W. Wilson, was the son of a certain Robert Wilson, dead before 1820, and his wife, Ann Wilson, who made a will in 1820.

Proof starts next page.

As first proof, let me cite the will of Ann Wilson.

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK D, PAGE 586
Ann Wilson (her will)
Written -- Aug. 27, 1820. Probated -- Nov. 1820.
Her will lists:
Son-John Wilson. (This John died, leaving will in 1829)
Grand-Daughter -- Betsey Wilson,"that now lives with me"
Grand-Daughter -- Polly Wilson, "that now lives with me"
Son -- Thomas Wilson.
Son -- Caleb Wilson.
Son -- James Wilson.
Daughter -- Elizabeth Wilson.
Son-in-law -- John Wilkinson.
Grand-son -- Robert Wilkinson.
EXECUTORS: Son Thomas and Daughter Elizabeth.
WITNESSES: Joseph Latta and Caleb Wilson.

(NOTE: The daughter Elizabeth married James Allison in Jan., 1823, as proven by a marriage agreement recorded in Orange County Deed Book 29, Page 213. Furthermore, I found her marriage in a compilation of marriages from an old Hillsboro newspaper, marriage date being Jan. 9, 1823. You will now please turn back to Page 5 of this report, and there you will find where Caleb Wilson, brother of John W. Wilson and son of Thomas, gave a Power-of-Attorney from Clay County, Missouri, to John W. Wilson to recover his share of the estate of "his (Caleb's) father and Thomas Wilson and his Aunt Elizabeth Allison." Thta proves that this Elizabeth Allison was also an aunt of John W. Wilson and that this Ann Wilson who made this will in 1820 was the grand-mother of John W. Wilson.)

The will does not show who the husband of this Ann Wilson was, but the following deed clarifies that point -- This deed also proves that Robert Wilson, husband of Ann, died before 1806.

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 13, PAGE 100 -- Elizabeth Wilson, John Wilson, James Wilson, Thomas Wilson, Robert Wilson, John Wilkinson and wife Anne, heirs of Robert Wilson, deceased, --- they make a joint deed to Caleb Wilson,"one of the sons of the said Robert Wilson, deceased." -- May 27, 1806 --- 229 acres Middle Fork of Little River. Witnesses -- James Walker, John Cabe, Francis Ballard and Joseph Ray. (NOTE: The parties of this deed are the same ones, or part of them, who were heirs in the will of Ann Wilson in 1820, proving that she was the widow of Robert Wilson.)

This is as far as I have been able thus far to carry the lineage of John W. Wilson, but I think I have proven that he was the son of Thomas Wilson and wife, Jane Woods; that Thomas Wilson was the son of Robert Wilson and wife, Anne ________; and that Jane Woods was the daughter of John Woods and wife, Ann ________. I have not established any complete dates for any of the group, but we can see that ~~I think~~ the following dates are approximately correct:

(1) John W. Wilson
Born -- 1796 (his age 54 in Census of 1850)
Died -- between April 25 and May 6, 1881 (Dates of his will in Alamance County)

(2) Thomas Wilson, father of John W. Wilson.
Born -- About 1770 or before.
Married to Jean (or Jane) Woods, in Orange County, 16 March 1789.
Died -- About July, 1829. (His will probated Aug. 1829.)

(3) Jane Woods, mother of John W. Wilson.
Born -- Probably between 1765 and 1770.
Married to Thomas Wilson, in Orange County, 16 March 1789.
Died -- About January 1850 (Her will probated February 1850.

(4) Robert Wilson, father of Thomas Wilson and grandfather of John W.Wilso
Born -- About 1740-44.
Married -- ? to Ann ? .
Died -- Before 1806. (His children referred to him as "deceased" in a deed made in 1806.)

(5) Anne ________, mother of Thomas Wilson, wife of Robert Wilson, and grandmother of John W. Wilson.
Born -- Probably by 1740--44.
Married -- to Robert Wilson, date unknown.
Died -- between Augu.27,1820 and Nov.1820 (Dates of her will)

(6) John Woods, father of Jane Woods Wilson and grandfather of John W. Wilson.
Born -- Before 1750.
Married -- Place and date unknown to Anne ? .
Died -- Before 1817. (He was referred to as "deceased husband" in will of his wife or widow, written April 5, 1817.

(7) Anne ________, mother of Jane Woods Wilson, wife of John Woods and grandmother of John W. Wilson.
Born -- Before 1750.
Married -- Place and date unknown, to John Woods.
Died -- Between April 5, 1817 and Feb. 1818. (Dates of her will).

ELIZABETH BOWLES TAYLOR'S LINEAGE

I shall now turn to the ancestors of Elizabeth (or Eliza) Bowles Taylor, wife and widow of William Taylor. Again I checked the Orange wills and deeds and the Alamance County wills and deeds.

ORANGE COUNTY WILL BOOK F, PAGE 344 --
Thomas Bowls (his will)
Written -- Feb. 13, 1839. Probated -- Feb. 1847.
His will lists

(Continuation of will of Thomas Bowls)

His will lists

- Grand-Daughter -- Sarah Bowls, daughter of Thomas.
- Grand-Daughter -- Mary Bowls, daughter of Thomas.
- Grand-Son -- Thomas Bowls, son of Thomas.
- Grand-Son -- John Bowls, son of Thomas.
- Daughter -- Jane Bowls, got land adjoining Colonel Moore.
- Wife -- Mrs. Thomas Bowls -- did not list her given name.
- Grand-Daughter -- Rebecca Wilson, daughter of Sarah Wilson.
- Grand-Daughter -- Margaret Wilson, daughter of Sarah Wilson.
- Grand-Daughter -- Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Sarah Wilson.
- "Three children of my daughter Elizabeth -- Jane, William and Thomas, with other children to have equal share if she has other children."

EXECUTOR: John W. Wilson.
WITNESSES: Absolom Harvey and James Moore.

(NOTE: You see that he did not speak of his daughter Elizabeth as Elizabeth Taylor, but she is referred to by her Taylor name, and her children listed in a deed book recording of the division of his estate. Furthermore, the deed books refer to the division of the estate of his son, Thomas Bowls, Jr., at the same time, the division of the estate of father and son being made by the same committee.)

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 32, PAGE 417 -- Division of Estate of Thomas Bowles, Sr. --- the division made March 16, 1847 and recorded at the May Term of Orange Court. The heirs listed were

(1) Jane Bowles.
(2) Jane Taylor, William Taylor and Thomas Taylor, heirs of Elizabeth Taylor. (Elizabeth not listed as "deceased")
(3) Sarah Wilson, Nancy Wilson, Martha Wilson, Harrison Wilson, Anderson Wilson and Joseph Wilson, heirs of Ann Wilson, deceased. *

The Taylor heirs got "Lot #1" adjoining Moore's land.

(NOTE: It seems strange that he listed in his will the children of Sarah Wilson, and then in the division we find the heirs of Ann Wilson. Perhaps she was Sarah Ann Bowles Wilson, and from the names of the children above, it would seem that either Anderson Wilson or Caleb Wilson, brothers of John W. Wilson must have married a daughter of Thomas Bowles and sister of Elizabeth Bowles Taylor. Then, too, it is possible that there were two daughters of Thomas Bowles that married Wilsons, for the names of the grand-children were not the same in the will and the division, and I found a later Power of Attorney which indicates such to be true, See bwlow:

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 3, PAGE 53 -- Williamson Wilson and wife, Mary Jane, ~~Wilson,~~ of Ray County, Mo.; and Rebecca Jane Mabe, and her husband Alexander Mabe, of Caldwell County, Mo.; heirs of Sarah Wilson, deceased --- they jointly give a Power of Attorney to John W. Wilson, of Alamance County "to collect their share of the estate of Aunt Jane Bowles." -- dated Dec. 18, 1860.

(NOTE: This proves that there was actually a Sarah

Bowles (the name sometimes spelled Bowls and sometimes Bowles) and also an Ann Bowles who married Wilsons.

Also we find

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 3, PAGE 352 -- William Taylor and wife, Nancy Taylor, of Harrison County, Mo. to John W. Wilson -- Oct. 16, 1860 -- Power of Attorney"to collect their share of the estate of Jane Bowles, who died intestate."

(NOTE: This indicates that William Taylor was also a nephew of Jane Bowles and bears out the relationship of the children of Elizabeth Taylor to the children of Sarah Bowles Wilson and Ann Bowles Wilson. It also shows that William Taylor was in Harrison County, Mo., by 1860.)

Also we find

ALAMANCE COUNTY DEED BOOK 8, PAGE 84 -- William Taylor, now of Clay County, Mo. to W. A. Moore --- May 19, 1880 -- Power of Attorney to deed a certain tract of land to the widow of Thomas Moore, deceased, mentioning a bond given by Thomas Moore to William Taylor in 1857. It also mentions that W. A. Moore was a ~~sister's~~ son of William Taylor's dead sister and states that Thomas Moore, now deceased, had inherited a life interest in the said tract of land from his deceased first wife, sister of William Taylor. It is also stated that W. A. Moore, grantee for this Power of Attorney, had been a minor in 1857. (NOTE: This proves that Jane Taylor, sister of William Taylor, had married Thomas Moore and had one son, W. A. Moore. Apparently she died before 1857, and Thomas Moore married again and then died himself before 1880.)

~~These~~

These documents prove that Elizabeth Bowles Taylor was a daughter of Thomas Bowles, who died in 1847. Since he mentioned in his will in 1839 that she might have other children, it would seem that her husband, William Taylor was still living at that time.

I found in a compilation (typwritten dollection in University of North Carolina Library) of obituaries published in the old Hillsborough Recorder in issue for Jan. 29, 1846 mention of the death of Hon. William Taylor on January 16, 1846. It seems possible that this may have been the husband of Eliza Bowles Taylor, although I would have to check the original files for further information, and it is possible that no other information was given.

I also found proof in a deed proof that Thomas Bowls was the son of an older Thomas Bowls. See the following:

ORANGE COUNTY DEED BOOK 10, PAGE 337 -- William Bowls from Thomas Bowls -- Nov. 27, 1802 -- 102 acres North Fork of Little River, being a tract of land willed to Thomas Bowls by his father, Thomas Bowls, Sr. Witnesses -- James Latta and Ann Latta.

(NOTE: I did not find the will of that older Thomas Bowls, so it is possible that the will may have been in either Person or Caswell Counties, since those counties border Orange not far from the Little River section.)

The only indication I found, and I could not swear to such a fact, of the name of the wife of Thomas Bowls, the mother of Elizabeth Bowls Taylor, was in a marriage record in Orange. This old marriage record follows:

Thomas Bowls married Anne Davis, 13 Dec. 1791. SURETY: Robert Davis.

(NOTE: The time element is right at least, and I feel sure that this was the marriage and the name of the parents of your Elizabeth Bowles Taylor. She was seemingly still living when her husband wrote his will in 1839.)

Ithink I have established the followingfacts in regard to Elizabeth Bowles Taylor and her ancestry, although the ~~(1) The father of Elizabeth Bowles Taylor was~~ dates are not absolute.

(1) Elizabeth Bowles Taylor,
Born -- 1800 (her age 50 in Census of 1850.
Married -- probably by 1825 to 1827,
Death -- Unknown.
(NOTE: You will note that the Census of 1850 does not list her daughter Jane, but Jane was already born when her grand-father made his will, and she was apparently already married by 1850. We know that she married Thomas Moore and that Jane Taylor Moore died before 1857.)

(2) Thomas Bowls, father of Elizabeth Bowles Taylor. ~~and grandfather~~
Born -- Probably by 1770.
Married -- to Anne Davis, 13 Dec. 1791. (Probably correct) since I found only one Thos. Bowls in the Orange records of that period.)
Died -- January 1847. (His will was probated Feb. 1847.)

(3) Thomas Bowls, Sr., father of Thomas Bowls and grand-father of Elizabeth Bowls Taylor.
Born -- Before 1750.
Married -- Date, place and wife unknown.
Died -- Before 1806 (Dead when his son made deed in 1806).

(4) Anne Davis, most probably mother of Elizabeth Bowls Taylor.
Born -- About 1870 to 1872.
Married -- to Thomas Bowls, 13 Dec. 1791.
Died -- After 1839, when her husband wote his will.

I found no indication as to identity of Absilla, wife of John W. Wilson, although a search through Caswell and Person Counties, which adjoin Orange in the section where John W. Wilson lived might reveal some information.

There are so many Taylor deeds and records in Orange that I did not feel justified in going into them without knowing just how much your client would want to invest in further search.

As I said before, I think that a reading of the Orange County Court Minutes and a check on the Orange County Estates Papers might reveal more information on all these lines. It seems that the Wilsons, Taylor, Bowls and Woods were all in Orange County even before the county was formed, and that would necessitate a search in Granville County. However, Caswell County (formed from Orange in 1777) and Person County (formed from Caswell in 1791) adjoined the section of Orange where all these families lived, so a search of their records might prove fruitful. It is possible that searches in the other Orange County records, including the court minutes and the estates papers; a search in Granville, a search in Caswell and a search in Person, would cost more than your client would wish to invest. And, too, I do not know that he would want me to do further work for him, since I have been so long getting this work done.

ACTUALLY, I HAVE GONE FAR BEYOND THE $5 YOU SENT ME FOR THIS SEARCH, in spite of the fact that I waited so long to do it. I made one trip ~~[illegible]~~ from my home at Elon College to the Alamance Court House at Graham and, since coming to Chapel Hill, I have made two trips from Chapel Hill to Hillsboro to the Orange County Court House, so the mileage alone amounts to almost the amount sent me, since I usually figure my mileage at 5¢ per mile.

Mileage --
Elon College to Graham and return	15 miles
Two trips Chapel Hill to Hillsboro ...	52 miles.
Total mileage ....@ 5c per mile	67 miles	$3.35
Working time
Research in Alamance County	3 hours
Research in Orange County	10 hours
Time Organizing and compiling report..	8 hours
Total time @ $1 per hour	21 hours	21.00
TOTAL For full report		$24.35

However, I have delayed so long that I will just price the report submitted at this time at $15. You have already sent me $5, so that leaves the amount due me $10. I hope your client will like the report, for I feel that I have accomplished right much. I would also appreciate your writing me your opinion of the report. You may write during the summer at the following address.

ADDED NOTE:

Since I suggested further search in Orange on the Taylors, (along with checking court minutes and estates records) and also searches in the counties just north of Orange --- that is Caswell, Person and Granville, I would like to submit a list of persons of the Taylor, Wilson, Woods, Bowls and Davis names found in each of the counties in the Census of 1790. Actually, the Census of 1790 for each of these counties was destroyed, and only tax lists are extant. See the following lists

ORANGE COUNTY	CASWELL COUNTY (Included Person Until 1791)	GRANVILLE COUNTY
Frederick Taylor	Charles Taylor	Edward Taylor, Sr.
Hardiman Taylor	James Taylor	Edmond Taylor
John Taylor	John Taylor	Elizabeth Taylor
John Taylor	Joseph Taylor	George Taylor
John Taylor	Joshua Taylor	John Taylor
Jonathon Taylor		John Taylor
		Joseph Taylor
		Lewis Taylor
		William Taylor

(You will see that there could have been an over-lapping of the Taylor families in these counties, since they might have all been the same general locality.)

Charles Willson	Henry Willson	Henry Wilson
Edward Willson	James Willson
Isabel Willson	James Willson
James Willson	James Willson
James Willson	James Willson
John Wilson	Joseph Willson
John Wilson	Thomas Willson
Robert Wilson	William Willson
Robert Wilson	John Wilson
Samuel Wilson	Johnston Wilson
Stephen Wilson
Thomas Wilson
Thomas Wilson

(We have already covered the Wilson--or Willsons-- in Orange thoroughly, but you will see that there was quite a colony in Caswell and --Person County -- and they might have been just across the county line a members of the same family as "your Wilsons" in Orange County. They might hold the key to the early ancestry and point of origin.)

Thomas Bowls	John Bowls
William Bowls

(Since these three were the only Bowls listed in N.C. in 1790, it seems evident that they were all related, so it would seem that either Caswell or Person Counties might hold the key.)

ORANGE COUNTY

William Wood
Blayton Woods
Edward Woods
Hugh Woods
James Woods
Samuel Woods
Thomas Woods Jr.
Thomas Woods Sr.
William Woods
William Woods
John Woods
John Woods Sr.

CASWELL COUNTY
(Included Person)

Isaac Wood
Stephen Wood
Samuel Woods

GRANVILLE COUNTY

NO WOODS

(We have already traced back to John Woods in Orange, and you will note in Caswell the names Stephen and Samuel in the Woods family, both of which later appear in the Wilson family in Orange. We know that John Woods was in that part of Orange next to the Caswell line.)

Now, we saw where ~~Robert Wilson marr~~ Thomas Bowls married an Anne Davis in Orange in 1791, but we did not find her family connection. Note the number of Davises in the various counties.

Abraham Davis
James Davis
John Davis
John Davis
Nicholas Davis
Richard Davis
William Davis
William Davis

Aquilla Davis
Robert Davis

(Your client may not be interested at all in the Davises, but I feel sure the wife of Thomas Bowls was Anne Davis, because there was only one Thomas Bowls in all of N.C. at that time.)

Absolom Davis
Augustan Davis
Baxter Davis
Joseph Davis
P. Davis
Solomon Davis

I think these various lists will show your client just why I recommended research in Caswell, Person and Granville Counties, in addition to a complete search in Orange for the Taylors and a check on the Orange court minutes and estates records on all the lines.

Your client may not wish me to do any further work for him at all, since I have taken so long to do this, but I will submit a price for each of the continued searches, each of which will involve more travel than I have yet done on this report.

(1) I will do the Orange Court minutes, the Orange estate records on all lines and thorough check on the Taylor family in Orange for $20.00

(2) I will do the check on all lines in Caswell County for $15.00.

(3) I will do the check on all lines in Person Cpunty for $15.00

(4) I will do the check on all lines in Granville County for $15.00 and I have a feeling that this may reveal that several of the lines moved into this part of N.C. from southside Virginia.

(5) I will do the entire job, finishing up in Orange and checking the other three counties complete, ~~including~~ for a combined price of $60.00.

Those prices are based on payment in advance.

Or, I will do any one or all of the jobs on a straight mileage and hour basis, charging mileage and hour time for the work involved, but I have found that such charges usually run higher than the straight contract prices ~~and~~ in advance.

If your client is interested in further work, you can write me when you mail me the check for the additional $10 due me on this report, or you can write me later concerning the work.

Again I say I am sorry to have been so long getting this work done, but I have to do genealogical work when I have time from my regular duties.

Most sincerely

Dear Mr. Byrd:

Will you please let us have an report as to the progress of the genealogical research work which was requested in our letter of the 16 December 1952.

We are now in a position to spend another $10.00 on this work if the results justify further research.

Thank you for your help in this matter and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,
