To-day is ours; what do we fear?
To-day is ours; we have it here.
Let's treat it kindly, that it may Wish, at least, with us to stay.
Let's banish business, banish sorrow;
To the gods belongs to-morrow.

- Abraham Cowley

Memories Are Made Of This

REPENT YOU SINNERS!

AHAB THE ARAB

WE ARE NOT kissing cousins.

"LITTLE DOC"

SHE HASN'T CHANGED a bit.

School Life

We live in deeds, not years: in thoughts,
not breaths;
In feelings, not in figures on a dial.
We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts
the best.

- Bailey

Sweetheart Dance Climaxes

STUDENTS ENJOY A dance at the annual Sweetheart Dance.

TAKING A BREATHER between dances, students help themselves to refreshments.

TWIRP COURT, ANNUALLY A part of the entertainment of the Sweetheart Dance, tries anyone breaking the laws of twirp season. Here Dick Foy and Kathy Moody receive sentence for their secret rendezvous at Randleman's Drug Store.

HARRIET HATCHER AND Mike Preddy jovially receive their sentences from Judge Frank Longest.

Twirp Season Activities

KING STEVE PUCKETT and Queen Lynn Hennis enjoy a dance.

SOPHOMORE STEVE PUCKETT and senior Lynn Hennis are crowned King and Queen of Hearts by Presidents of the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y, Francine Johnson and Stephen Stanley.

Spring Offers An Unlimited

IN THE SPRING the Glee Club's fancy turns to concerts!

(BELOW) DENNIS CHILDRESS, Lucky Moody, Tony Bledsoe, and J. W. Sumner hold their well-earned trophies, presented to them at the annual basketball banquet.

Variety of Student Activities

EXCITEMENT, ANTICIPATION, COMPETITION--all are a part of campaigns for Student Council offices, president and vice-president.

J. D. SIMMONS CONCENTRATES on a meeting between bat and ball, not on the pretty flowers of spring.

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR Prom with its romantic music and enchanting decorations thrills the hearts of all who attend. The smiles of Patty Webb and Tommy Fawcett reflect their enjoyment.

Juniors And Seniors Enjoy Romance

CAROLYN SMITH AND Jane McMillian decorate with roses to express the theme of the prom "Some Enchanted Evening."

MARSHALS, COMMITTEE HEADS, and class officers form the figure at the prom. These students, pictured with their escorts, help to make the prom a success.

INVOLVED IN THE somewhat dangerous process of hanging stars are Jack Armfield and Mike Allran. The glittery stars are the products of many hours of tedious cutting and gluing.

Of "Some Enchanted Evening"

SERVING THE GUESTS punch, mints, and cookies are Mrs. Neal, junior class sponsor, and her sister Mrs. Johnson.

"LET'S SIT THIS one out."

THE FABULOUS FIVE supplies the music for dancing or just enjoyable listening.

MUSIC, DANCING, REFRESHMENTS, decorations-- these make the prom a memorable occasion for all who attend.

Seniors Experience A Moment Of

(RIGHT) MISS NANCY SAUNDERS, play director, calls to the attention of the cast members mistakes made during practice.

MANY HOURS OF practice went into the production of THE CURIOUS SAVAGE.

Bimelight In The Curious Savage

"HER DRESS IS cut rather low, isn't it?" remarks Hannibal (Terry Blackmon), peering over Fairy May's (Susan Davis) shoulder at the picture of Lily Belle.

MRS. SAVAGE SUDDENLY develops a headache when her children, Senator Titus Savage (Rodney Frye) and Lily Belle (Mary E. Preddy), demand the missing money.

Commencement Brings An

REVEREND WILSON DELIVERS an inspiring message to the graduation class during commencement exercises.

DR. HENRY STROUPE, of Wake Forest College, strikes a serious note as he addresses the 1963 graduating class.

SANDRA PATTON PLAYS for graduation.

End To A Beginning

THE GRADUATION CLASS listens attentively to the speakers at commencement activities.

FRANCES ASHBURN (LEFT) and Mary Elizabeth Preddy (RIGHT) flash smiles upon receiving the long-awaited diplomas from Mr. Bowman George, chairman of the school board.

THE GRADUATION CLASS of 1963, with high school behind, looks toward the future with bright and eager hopes.

PROCTOR-SILEX CORPORATION

This company believes that the future of Mount Airy is in the hands of its youth. We feel that it is the responsibility of industry to provide training and employment for our youth upon their graduation. To this end we are providing college scholarships in engineering and are participating in the Industrial Co-operative Training program sponsored by Mount Airy High School. It is our sincere desire that we will continue to be able to offer these training programs and job opportunities to students and graduates of Mount Airy High School.

Our Final Word

SENIOR MEMBERS OF the AIRMONT are (STANDING) Becky Laws, Bill Seigler, Sarah Hoover, (SEATED) Jane Leach, Nancy Merritt, Business Managers; Barbara Lovill, Editor; and Sarah Harkrader, Copy Editor.

Today, like a dream, is a fragile wisp of time which defies description. It slips by too quickly to be savored fully. Cling to it. It, somehow, escapes our grasp; and today with its joy, its heart-break, its triumph, its defeat, and its monotony, suddenly becomes yesterday. Days, too priceless to be forgotten, should be preserved. We, the 1964 AIRMONT staff, in words and in pictures, hope that we have recorded permanently for you, our classmates and teachers, some cherished memory, some tiny fragment, of "All Our Yesterdays."

Jimmy,

It has really been a pleasure knowing you this year. I can really admire a person who is smart and has the ambition you have. I am sure you will be able to achieve your goals in life. I wish you success in all you do. May God bless you is my prayer.

Lais Wine

Jimmy,

I have enjoyed knowing you this year. I value your friendship highly and hope that it may continue. It seems as though we will make it through Alg. III - it surely has been a struggle! Next year we'll be big SENIORS. Doesn't that sound good!? Well, study hard & be good.

A friend always,
Beverly Neal

Jimmy,
This has really been one year. I certainly have enjoyed being in homework,
Algebra, English, and study hall with you. I appreciate all of the help you have given me in Algebra; I could not have passed it without you help. Hope I can get in some of your classes
next year.
Best of luck to you Love
Lais Wine

Dearest Jimmie,

I certainly appreciate your translating for me this year. I doubt if I could have passed without you! It's been fun being with you.
I know you'll keep up the good work, and go to the best university in the country:

The University of North Carolina
(at Chapel Hill).

My latest New Year's Resolution is to forgive you for showing me up in Latin!

Your friend,
Ralph Lavin

Jimmie,

I have always admired smart people. I never could understand the "drive" in such people because I am so literally lazy. You could do just about anything in life you want, I know. So - Good Luck -

Ruth Simmons

April 13, 1964

Jimmie,
We really had a good time going to see the diddly! it was?
Well we've had a good time in some listening) to the atrocious) mistakes
of the G. H. G. members. You are a very talented and nice boy and I know you will succeed
at anything you
try.
A fellow band member,
Frank Thornfield
P. S. Good luck of Simmons' & school!

Jimmy,

I think we've both gained a lot from U.S. history. I've learned to appreciate our country. The arguments, discussions if you prefer, that we've had have shown me I can't always be right. Although we've been in school together since Banner-town, I feel that I've just gotten to know you.

Good luck!

Susan Midgill

Sandra Paton

A friend,

year you will do fine in all your attempts. Good of luck

of our friend,
Jane Tison

Jimmy -

Did you know we can use more of the remaining back to our account please, Katie clear. Even though I'm not a Latin scholar I have enjoyed it this year. We have all had a pretty good time. I'm sure that next

Jim,
I have certainly enjoyed the lunch sessions with you. Now the year is almost at a close. I want to wish you lots of luck in all your future work.
Your friend
Duff Kippha

Jim,
I have admired your ambition. Keep up the good work next year.
Paula

Jimmy,

~~Dear Jimmy~~

I just thought I would mess that up to show you I'm not as much a perfectionist as Mr. Reed thinks I am. I'll always remember you as the boy who "would argue with a sign." Remember the Shrine's Club show?! It was fun. I hope we have some classes together next year. I had fun at the fair last fall - Did you?
