Obituary

Mrs. Delores Everett Adams age 88, Of 356 Old Highway, Roaring River, NC, was born on July 8, 1925 to the late Bradshaw and Maggie Sharrock Everett. She departed this life on April 13, 2014 at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, Winston, NC.

She attended schools in the New York area. While living in New York she was a Tupperware distributor, Executive Secretary to the vice president Mobile Oil Corporation and she also worked for CBS, prior to moving from New York to North Carolina in 1984. She was married to the late William (Bill) Adams, and he was the love of her life. She was employed at the Ronda Clingman Elementary School where she worked for 20 years as a foster grandparent which she truly enjoyed. She was an active member of Poplar Spring Missionary Baptist Church, in Roaring River, NC, where she was a choir member and on the Praise Team. Sister Delores was also a member of the Communities in Prayer. She was a classy lady and greeted you always with that beautiful smile. She will be missed by the ones that loved her deeply.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her special niece Molonda Everett of Atlanta, GA, a special nephew Michael Everett of Fayetteville, NC, and a wonderful great-nephew Omar Everett of Roaring River, NC, two step-daughters Loretta Colley (Lawrence) of Matthews, NC, Joyce Adams Wynter (Desmond) of Winston Salem, NC, one step-son William A. Adams Jr. (Pat) of Matthews, NC, four step-grandchildren. With a host of cousins and other relatives and many friends.

A Tribute to Bill and Delores Adams

- BROKEN , BUT YET HEALED -

*In tears I saw you sinking;
as I watched you fade away - broken, but yet healed,
I still wanted you to stay.
But when I saw you sleeping;
...so peaceful and free of pain -
How could I wish you back,
To suffer that again ?
My strength weakened when you left;
...but you didn't go alone -
a part of me went with you ,
The day God called you home*

Thank You

*Life brings tears, smiles and memories:
The tears dry, the smile fades,
But the memories live on forever. Thank you sincerely for sharing our sorrow
Your thoughtfulness is appreciated and will always be remembered*
