

What is the Altrusa International of Mount Airy Club ?

- an international association of community leaders from diversified professions and businesses
- provides personal development
- volunteer opportunities
- networking
- fellowship through its meetings, projects and programs

The work and direction of Altrusa is planned and executed through community service and literacy projects such as:

Janice Hutchens Award for an Outstanding Altrusan
Salvation Army
Surry County Woman's Shelter
Surry County Children's Center
HOSTS Program
Mayberry's Magic Moments
Scholarships
Mini-grants to schools
Leadership Surry County (for members)
Sally Foster wrapping paper sales
Make a Difference Day

Mayberry's Magic Moments is an annual project.

The money received from this project provides:

- mini-grants to the local schools for educational projects

In the fall we sell Sally Foster wrapping paper. The money made from this project provides money for our scholarship fund.

Scholarships are awarded to:

- high school students and adults who wish to further their education

In the fall of 2002, Altrusa will begin an exciting new project called WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD the first of its kind in Surry County.

Criteria for nominating a deserving woman:

- must be a resident of Surry County
- exemplify leadership, character and dedication to community service
- outstanding role model for other women
- perceived by peers to be a builder of women

Mount Airy Altrusa International invites interested professionals to join.

- Time: Dinner meetings are the first Tuesday of each month at 6:00 p.m.
- Place: Mount Airy Country Club
