THROUGH THE YEARS WITH CENTRAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

In The Hollows between the "ridges" and the Blue Ridge Mountains there were but few houses, no Mount Airy, and very little religion when Bishop Francis Asbury, that remarkable "founder of American Methodism," came riding through Flower Gap on horseback from the Holston country beyond the mountains down to Clemmons, in present day Forsyth, where Methodism had taken hold. The years were 1788, 1790, and 1792.

Asbury had seeded his territory well as Methodist societies began to spring up, first in homes, then in organized congregations.

The first conference appointed minister who, we have reason to believe, visited The Hollows, as our section was known at that time, was Thomas Waddill, appointed in 1815. From then on Methodism in our vicinity seemed to have grown. In the late 1820's Peter Doub, who later became an eminent Methodist minister, was appointed presiding elder of this district. He must have held meetings and preached because around that time a number of local churches were organized, among them our first congregation, "Old Lebanon," housed in a frame structure which stood on its four granite pillars on Lebanon Hill near where the present water tanks are. Tradition, and it is only tradition, places the building of Lebanon church in 1829.

Lebanon served well this community and the just emerging town of Mount Airy until in 1858 the congregation divided itself into two groups, one going north to found Salem, and one going south to serve Mount Airy.

In 1858 a new church to be placed more in the center of things was built down on South Main Street. It's cemetery still exists. "Old Methodist," or Main Street Methodist, saw the Civil War and the end of slavery, Reconstruction, and the more tranquil years which followed.

In 1894 it again seemed prudent to build a more handsome edifice in the newer central part of town. Thus Central was built, and the old wooden "Old Methodist" building abandoned.

So from 1894 until 1965, Central, in its fine brick building with its beautiful French glass windows grew into the most powerful church in this part of northwest North Carolina and into one of the most solid in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 1966 it again seemed expedient to move into a new church nearer to the center of the church population. So our present church came into being just one scant mile from its beginning on Lebanon Hill.

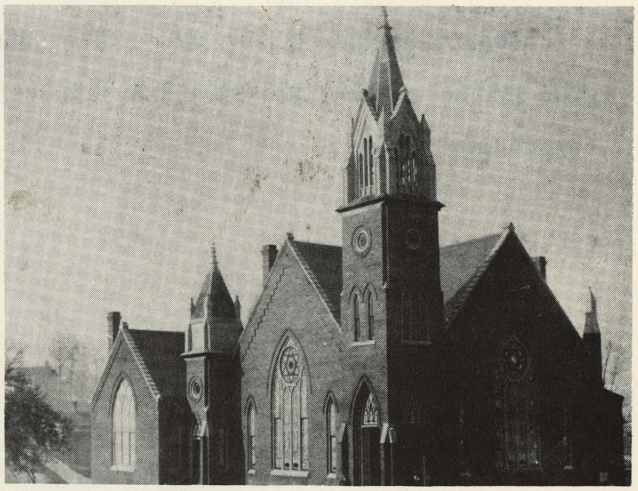

The Methodists, The Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Episcopal South, The Methodist Church, and now the United Methodist Church, and just as many changes of conferences from the whole of western North Carolina to our present "shoestring" district, our church has gone through them all.

In its earliest years Central had some remarkable ministers, three of whom will be mentioned here: The Reverend Miles Foy, doctor-preacher, converted by Peter Doub in 1829, pastor of Lebanon, server of "Old Methodist," groundbreaker of the then new Central; James Needham, lovingly called Father Needham, local preacher, served of Lebanon, of "Old Methodist," and deliverer of a revival sermon at Central in his ninety-ninth year; and Marcus L. Wood, last pastor of Lebanon and first at "Old Methodist," missionary to China, author of an exhaustive diary now housed at Duke University, without reference to which much of the early history of Central would have remained mostly tradition.

Following is a list of Central's ministers beginning in 1900. Until 1947 when conference time was changed from November to June, the year of appointment is for the ensuing year.

FORWORD

"A picture's worth a thousand words," and literally this Picture Directory is worth thousands of words. I am sure you agree it is a most useful tool for learning our members, name by name. I dare say none of us can call all of our members by name, and now we have no reason for not knowing the greater majority, where they live, and their telephone numbers. Let me suggest that you keep your Directory by your phone and refer to it regularly. I even heard someone say the first thing she is going to do with her Directory is take it to church with her and put faces and names together!

The Church is people! Here we see hundreds of pictures of our "church", located not just on the corner of Salem and Country Club Roads, but with their families where we all really are the church. Somehow if this Directory will only help us to understand that the Church is "the people of God," then it will have proven its worth and every effort that went into it.

It really would be impossible for me to list the scores of people who made this Directory possible. However, I would be amiss if I did not acknowledge at least five who worked untireingly to bring it about: Mrs. Jeanne Pettyjohn, Chairman of the Work Area on Membership and Evangelism; Raymond A. Smith, who took pictures of our shut-ins in their homes and of our church; Mrs. Frank Lowry and Mrs. Wayne Ables, for compiling the Directory; and Miss Ruth Minick, for writing our history.

What a privilege it is to serve as the minister of such beautiful people. Let us all join hands as the people of God and serve our families, our church, our community, and our world in a meaningful way.

Yours sincerely,

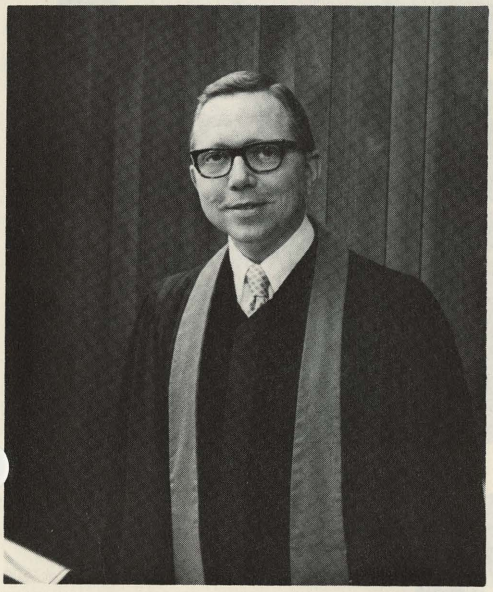

Robert J. Ralls

The Lord's Prayer

UR FATHER which art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts.

As we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil;

For Thine is the kingdom and the Power and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

CALL YOUR MINISTER

1. WHEN YOU ARE FACING A SERIOUS PROBLEM
   Most Ministers have been trained to help people with their personal, family and other problems. The important judgment of a spiritual leader, together with his prayers for Divine guidance, will enable you to face your problems with confidence. Don't allow your problem to get too big for you.

2. WHEN SOMEONE IS INTERESTED IN THE CHURCH
   You constantly meet young people and adults who are in your community, and others who have not united with the local church. Put in a good word for your church and tell your pastor about the prospective members.

3. WHEN THERE IS ILLNESS
   Your Minister is as near as your telephone. His presence, counsel and prayer will be helpful. Your pastor will appreciate your phone call when you, your loved one or friend is sick or going to the hospital.

4. WHEN THERE IS DEATH
   Your Minister should be notified when there is a death in the family. He can give comfort and counsel at this difficult time.

5. WHEN YOU MUST MAKE AN IMPORTANT DECISION
   If you are a young person and face a decision about going to college, arranging your course of study, or choosing your life work, make an appointment to see your minister. The viewpoint of your spiritual adviser should be considered.

6. WHEN THERE IS A WEDDING
   Your Pastor should be consulted before the wedding day is set. Since you will undoubtedly desire to have one or more conferences with your Minister, it is advisable to contact him well in advance of the wedding.

7. WHEN SOMEONE DESIRES TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN
   Happy, indeed, is the pastor who is asked to talk with someone desiring to become a Christian. Tell your Minister about friends of yours who are interested in knowing more about the Christian faith.

Your Pastor is as Close as your Phone :
