CONDITIONS

Quotations are subject to change without notice.

Sales are subject to fires, strikes, floods, accidents, embargoes, delays in transportation, shortage of cars, shortage of labor and any other causes beyond reasonable control of the seller.

The acceptance of any order and terms of payment on all sales and orders are subject to the approval of our Credit Department. All sales contracts become effective only when approved and accepted by the Home Office.

All material claimed to be defective shall be held subject to inspection by the seller. Claims of any nature must be presented within (10) ten days after receipt of the goods or they will not be allowed. No material will be taken back and credited or replaced, unless permission is granted by the seller, for such returns or exchanges.

The only warranty that is given by the seller is to replace such goods as prove defective, or allow credit for such goods, at its option; no claims for damages beyond the price of the defective pieces, or for labor will be allowed by the seller, nor will the seller be subject to any other or further liability. If any goods appear defective their use should be discontinued and the seller notified promptly, so the matter may be investigated without delay.

Any tax imposed by any present or future law of the State or Federal Government on the sale of the articles covered hereby shall be added to the amount of this quotation.
