Presents

Our 1962

School Year . . .

Through Open

So people say, "Why open doors?"

Because there are old doors and new doors, Great doors and dull doors, and,
For the most part, all you have is doors,
And while some may say, "Well, they're nice doors,"
For the most part you have, "Well, that's doors . . .

Because when you take your doors and open them,
They become not just doors but thresholds Offering up their opportunities and fates,
And soon people are saying, "Open all doors!"

Because there are old lives and young lives, Great lives and dull lives, and,
For the most part, all you have is lives,
And while some may say, "Well, they're nice lives,"
For the most part you have, "Well, that's life . . .

Because we look at life Through Open Doors . . .

Administration

Under the direction of Mr. Finch the office is a bee-hive of activity. Bells and telephones ring; office pages scurry about; decisions are made; and records are carefully checked. In this activity, however, there is order, order which results in an efficiently organized and functioning school.

And Faculty

Mr. Finch, Principal

(Right) "NOW, WHO DID he want me to write?" wonders Mrs. Johnson, secretary to Mr. Tharrington, as she prepares to type a letter.

THE ADMINISTRATION FINDS their new building both pleasant and convenient. Our school executives first occupied the new building last spring.

"A WOMAN'S WORK is never done." Katherine Gordon and Estelle McCloud help keep our school clean.

"YOU CAN'T WORK on an empty stomach," say the cafeteria workers, (STANDING) Mrs. Speight, Mrs. Moxley, (SITTING) Mrs. Beamer, and Mrs. Jackson.

MR. JACKSON, CUSTODIAN, pauses moment from his many duties.

Teachers Are Our

Mr. Charles D. Atkins
 "A good cigar is as great a comfort to a man as a good cry to a woman."

Miss Maria R. Baird
 "A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

Mr. J. D. Bartley
 "Wit makes its own welcome."

Maria Baird (Homeroom)

Mr. H. M. Finch
 "A wit's a feather, and a chief a rod,
 An honest man's the noblest work of God."

Mrs. Mary Lou Bartley
 "An effort made for the happiness of others lifts above ourselves."

Miss Etta Ruth Burke
 "As merry as the day is long."

Mrs. Irene Christian
 "A pleasant way, a winning smile, to know her is indeed worthwhile."

Mrs. Maude Coble
 "It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

Irene Christian (English)

Open Doors To Knowledge

Mr. J. M. Gollehon, Jr.
"To wake, the music and the beauty needs the master's touch."

Mrs. Maxine Hamilton
"Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her ways are peace."

Miss Eva Holder
"Patience is the best remedy for every trouble."

Mr. Robert B. Holder
"The man who loves and laughs must sure do well."

*Best Wishes
Joe Gollehon (band)*

John's Charles Johnson (Club)

Mr. Charles Johnson
"Without music life would be a mistake."

Mr. Edmond W. Limer, Jr.
"Gentle in manner, firm in reality."

MRS. SYDNOR AND MRS. COBLE browse through new books in the library.

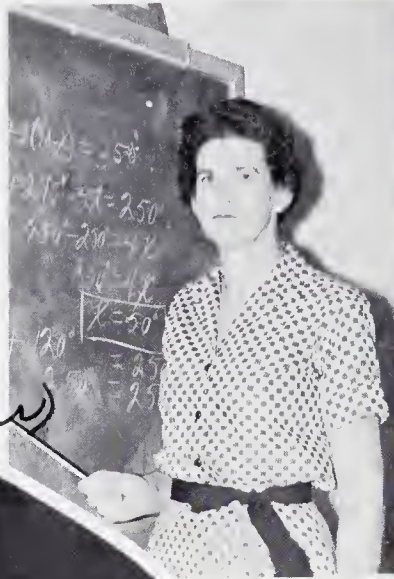

Mrs. Lavinia Mackie
"Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

They Work, Prod;

Miss Willie Lou McGee
"She doeth little kindnesses which most leave undone."

(My algebra II teacher)

Lorraine McKinney
Mrs. Lorraine McKinney
(My Earth Science teacher)
"I had rather be small and shine than large and cast a shadow."

Mr. Charles R. Moir
"There's no substitute for victory."

OUR LOYAL SUBSTITUE, Mrs. Irene Wortman, taught for Mrs. Hamilton during her illness.

Mrs. Mary Neal
"It is well for one to know more than he says."

Mr. Ray Reed
"Not only is there an art in knowing a thing, but also a certain art in teaching it."

Miss Nancy Saunders
"Wit to persuade and beauty to charm."

Mr. Wallace Shelton
"Born with the gift of laughter!"

Excelsior!
Mary Neal
(My Latin I teacher)

They Encourage, Inspire

Miss Jean Simpson
"For a jollie goode Booke where-on to looke is better to me than Gold."

Mrs. Caroline Sydnor
"Business like, a touch of fun, and a way all her own with much appeal."

Miss Annie Thomas
"A friend to everyone, and everyone's friend."

Mrs. Vera Thomas
"Abundance in wisdom, delightful in manner."

Mr. W. L. Woodie
"There are very few persons who pursue science with true dignity."

Mr. George Williams
"Man is a tool-making animal."

TEACHERS LEISURELY EAT
during their lunch break.

Mr. Ivo Wortman
"The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world."

Many and varied are the activities which occur in our classrooms. Teachers lecture and reprimand; students alternately concentrate and fidget; but the process of education, leading our students to a richer and fuller future, continues.

Activities

Languages — Key.

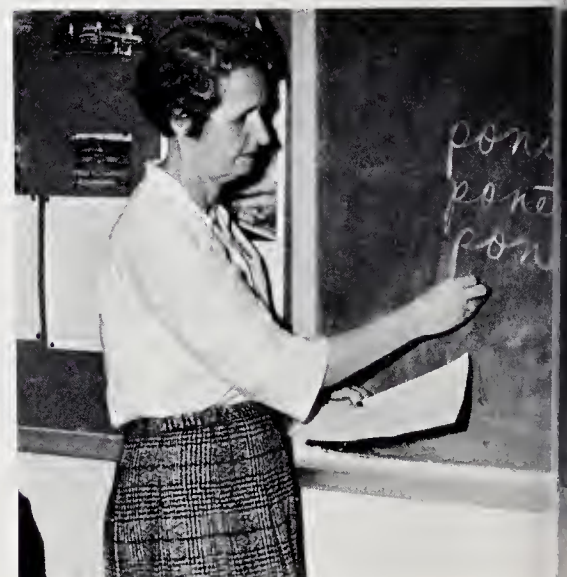

Fourth year Latin students, Elizabeth Cockerham, Mary Eliz. Preddy, and Tippy Cox, examine a bulletin board illustrating the story of THE AENEID.

Latin I, II, and IV add culture to our curriculum. Miss Baird teaches all three.

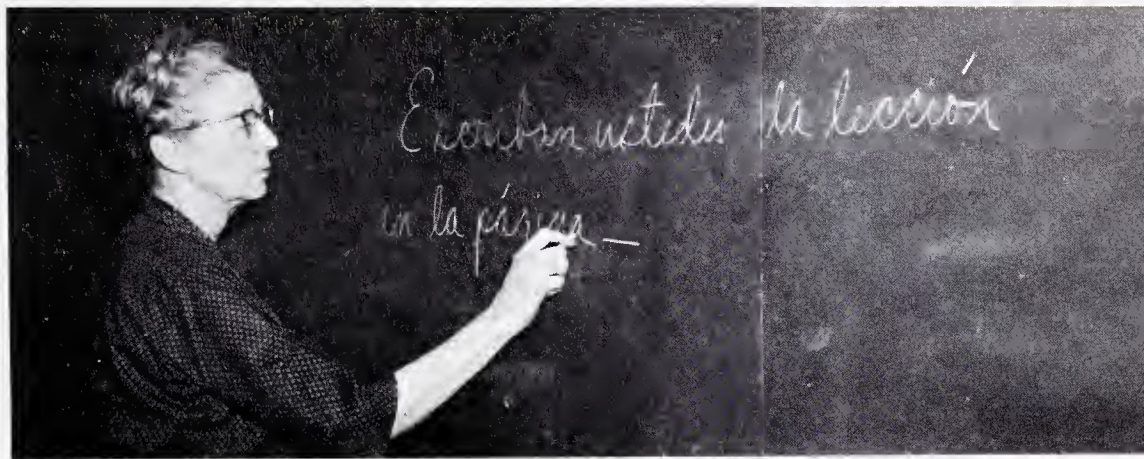

KATHLEEN PEOPLES AND Doris Hanks arrange compositions "From the Pens of Our Students" in Mr. Reed's class.

NEW TERMS, WORDS, and constructs are introduced by Mrs. Neal to Latin students.

To Learning

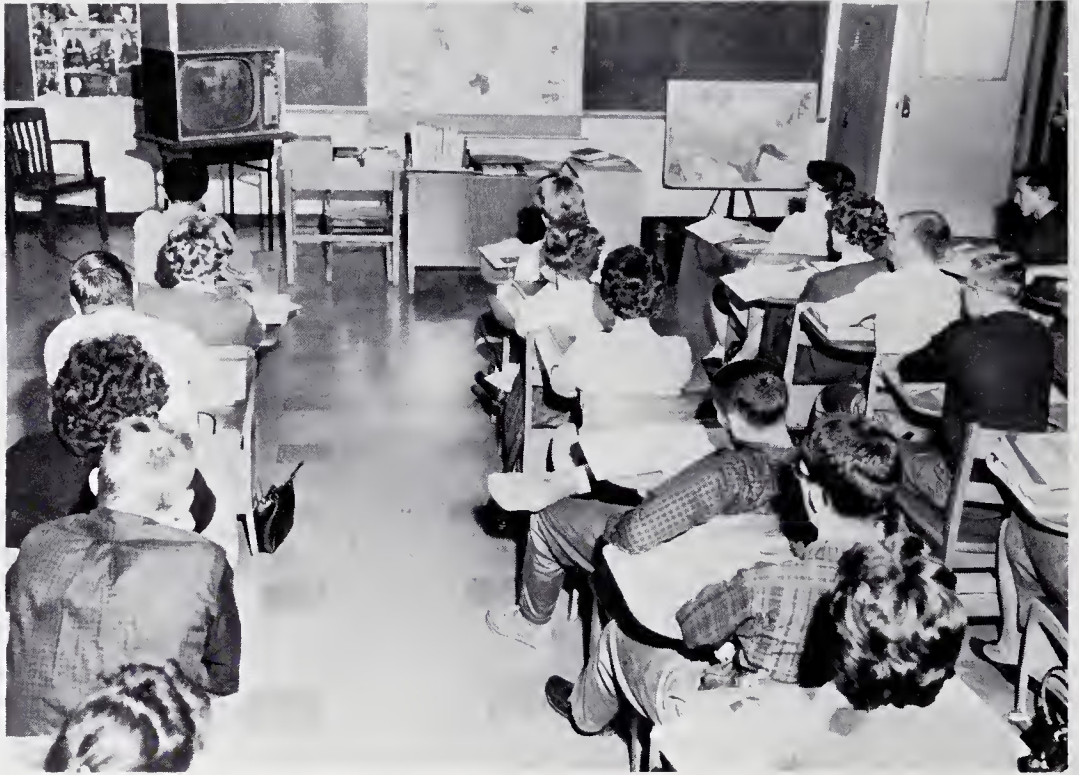

No! HABLE USTED ESPANOL? Students under Mrs. Mackie enjoy learning the language of our Southern neighbors.

A WELL-ROUNDED COURSE of English grammar and most interesting literature is offered by Mrs. Christian.

(Circle) BILL SEIGLER POINTS to an interesting article on the current events map in Mr. Wortman's room.

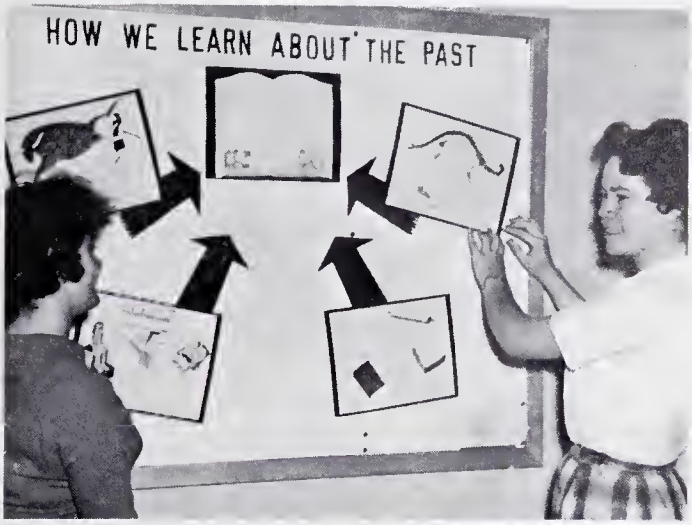

MR. WORTMAN AND his first period class use television to supplement their study of U. S. History.

Around The World

COACH ATKINS' CIVICS class works on a classroom project.

In today's world when such fear-provoking possibilities as nuclear war, atomic fallout, and fallout shelters have become household words, students must learn more about the world in which they live.

HOW WE LEARN About the Past is the theme of Ellen Foy's display on the history of mankind.

In 180 Days

MR. MOIR EXPLAINS the Constitution to his civics class.

Math And Science Open The Doors To (Above) BIOLOGY CLASS IS always fun when lab time comes around—that is, for everyone except Mrs. Wortman when she tries to explain to her students the use of the microscope.

A New And Challenging Future

Vocational And Homemaking Courses

Train Us For The Years Ahead

Commercial, vocational, and home-making courses broaden the educations of MAHS students. Well qualified teachers and excellent facilities enable all students to take these subjects which serve a dual purpose-- to train for future jobs and to teach useful skills.

(Above) FOR THE EIGHTH year the carpentry class is building a house for its main project. This year it is an eight room structure located on Creed Street.

HOPEFUL JUNIOR, Porter Dawson, watches the nervous, but proud, seniors as that long-awaited moment finally arrives.

THE RISING SENIOR class is installed during Class Night exercises.

Graduation--that long-awaited moment--finally arrives for the 1961 seniors. This night brings tears and laughter. . . joy and sorrow. The class of '61 is together for probably the last time. Each, striving for happiness and success, must now go his separate way. For a brief moment the first school years are remembered; then the seniors say good-bye to MAHS.

The "Y" Clubs Help

HI-Y OFFICERS for 1961-62 include Bob Lovill, president; Johnny Taylor, secretary; Hugh Peoples, chaplain; Sam McGee, treasurer; Jimmy Hazel, sergeant-at-arms; and Steve McKnight, historian.

All juniors and seniors are eligible to join the Hi-Y or Tri-Hi-Y Club. The aim of the "Y" Clubs, which are a part of the national Hi-Y Fellowship, is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout home, school, and community high standards of Christian character." The Tri-Hi-Y has a total of eighty members and the Hi-Y fifty members.

These projects include Homecoming, help for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas, Sweetheart dance, and banquet for the "Y" Clubs.

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Baird and Mrs. Neal, meets once a month during class. The club, composed of second, third, and fourth-year students, has for its main project the annual spring banquet at which the members dress like Romans and are served by first-year Latin "slaves."

The Spanish Club, of which all second-year students are members, meets once a month during class period. Sponsored by Mrs. Mackie, the 1961-1962 club has two sets of officers because of increased enrollment. This year the members are planning a Spanish banquet, which they hope will become an annual event.

Music Appreciation

The glee club is made up of students who meet daily in two separate classes. Non-credit members practice with the full chorus at night. The glee club appearances--both at school and before special groups--are eagerly awaited by everyone.

M A H S Band Adds Excitement

The band under the direction of Mr. Joseph Gollehon is one of the most colorful organizations in M AHS. It performs at all home football games, in parades, and in many other events through out the year. Each spring the band participates with the glee club in a joint concert, one of the most popular school-sponsored events.

To School And Community Life

The students have gone; the halls are deserted. However, they echo still the optimism, confidence, and eager curiosity of youth, youth bubbling with exuberance and love of life, always drifting along, groping for something that is always beyond their reach. Some will reach the end of the hall and the door that awaits, open to the universe; yet others may stumble and fall. Halls form passageways to the doors of life.

Seniors, Remember . . .

A Welcome To Our Exchange Student

Oda Jessen, our student from abroad, came to us from Celle, Germany. Her idea of America--a land of few trees and many skyscrapers--was quickly changed. Entering into various school activities, she acquired many friends.

We, the AIRMONT staff, welcome you, Oda, and will long remember you after this year is past.

ODA AND HER American sisters, Connie and Pattie Wyche, find that they enjoy sharing both home and school experiences.

ODA AND FRIENDS gather during lunch for a few minutes of fun.

Jimmy,

I would like to take this minute for a little lecture - always be a slave, never grow up to be a Caesar. (Wu! Wu!) Whatever choice you choose know that you will receive all the rewards and happiness that you deserve. Good luck always.

MY PREDICTIONS:

Jimmy,

It has been nice knowing you this year. You are a very intelligent person. I hope you receive all the rewards in life you deserve - nothing upside-down,

Nancy W.

Our Final Word

You, the students, have turned the knobs; and we, the AIRMONT staff, have opened the doors to pleasant memories of M.A.H.S. We hope you find this AIRMONT a treasured record of our 1961-62 school year.

Jimmy,
 It has been great knowing you this year. We're certainly glad that you're in High School with us this year.
 Good luck!
 Pat Cox

(8th + 9th grade)
 Music to my ears
 Stay sharp!

Billie Holiday
 Jimmy,
 Keep smiling and singing. Good luck in your new year at the high school.
 Stay sharp!

Jimmy,
 I have enjoyed knowing you these past years. You are a very brilliant person and I think you always will be. Someday I hope I see you as a great scientist or chemist. If that is your goal, I hope you reach it.

Love you always Eddie King

Jimmy,
 I have enjoyed being in your homeroom and English class. Best of luck in the coming years

Spencer Brown
 7/10/62

Jimmy,
It's been a lot of fun sitting beside you in band this year. Lots of luck in the future to a brilliant guy.
Sincerely,
Cordell Jones 4/19/62

Jimmy, you it has been great being in band with you and the other guys.
Lots of luck in the future to you and your group. Keep up the good work!
Cordell Jones

It has been educational, knowing you. - as you give me more of your assignments and at times! I'm sure you'll be famous as a musician, brilliant, and "committed". Best of luck.
Cordell Jones

Jimmy,
although we saw a little rough on your suitcase it's all in fun. I hope you want to get to work at us. you are a lot of fun to sing with. without you I would never get the pitch. Good luck always,
Jimmy Simmons

Dear jim, although I ~~we~~ met you last year I didn't really know you 'til I was in some of your classes.
you are an interesting person and I wish you the best of luck.

Forever a friend,
Naitha Rowe

Good luck Jimmy Naitha Rowe
Edwards

Jimmy,
I hope you have had as much fun as I. Hope to see you at your next year as I really been a lot Best of luck,
Judy Jones

Jimmy!
You a real pal and I know you'll succeed Best of luck
George Pennington

With your knowledge of many different things, I am sure that your future will prove to be an interesting and wonderful one. Make the best of your brain and I'll see you around the corner next year.

Jimmy,
I was happy to be in two of your classes.
Your remarks in both sciences were very good.

lots of luck,
David Green

Love to you always, Lauri

Jim, I've known you for quite a while and you're a fine person. With your knowledge of the world you should go far in life. Best of luck to you forever.
Best wishes,
Lester

Jimmy,

It has been wonderful being in the club

Jimmy, this year.

It has been great being in some of your classes. Your help has been a me so very much. Your charge for you is a great joy.

Best wishes & luck always.

Jimmy, Thank for the help in aligning. (I admit) I hope we can be in the same class together through our re maturing year at least city side of life. ^{see in} July 11.

Jimmy,
your voice seems to stand out for some reason in chorus 2nd. period.
Loads a luck and success to a real nice boy.
Stay happy!

I hope you will continue to grow your talent.

Jimmy,
Although I give you a hard time this year I really thank you are a fine person (Even though you can't carry a tune and buck) I really think you and I are the backbone of the bass section. Best of luck always Steve Simon

Jimmy,
I won't say it's been nice knowing you all these years, because it hasn't!
10 hly bidding! You're a real nice boy (sometimes) and I wish you lots of luck. your' cuz' Diane

Jimmy,
I have really enjoyed knowing you this year. Bring in your hat in class.
Best wishes to you always.

Jim,
It's been a real pleasure knowing you this year and being in Beeb Club with you. You really are good and not off. You have a good personality and you offer. See you next year and before you go this summer.
Good luck to a very busy Jim and Barbara and Nancy!

P.S. I have sent you a letter but it wasn't in the mail.

Jimmy?
It sure has been fun knowing you this year. I hope you like this and that you of this letter and I think you are a great person.

Jimmy,
I have enjoyed being in your classes and looking forward to being in more of them in the future.
John Owen

Jimmy,
You're a nice intelligent boy with a different personality. I'm sure you will be a success in whatever you do. I'm not in any of your classes this year but maybe you'll be backy enough to be in one of my classes next year. Good luck in what ever you do.
Best wishes
Virginia Short

Dear Jimmy,

I've really been enjoying being your friend this year. You are such an interesting person to talk to and you have such a friendly personality that I'm sure you'll always be full of friends. Keep your fine qualities and you'll go far in life.

Well, it's time through the letter brought tonight and that's all for tonight. Good night, honey.

May God bless you always.

Your friend,
Dad

Dear Jimmy,

I surely have enjoyed being in school with you this year. Especially English, because of the writing and all. You are one of the brightest and most considerate boys I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Always be yourself and I am sure you will climb to the top rung of the ladder of success.

Good luck always.

A proud,
Dad

Jimmy,

I have enjoyed knowing you this year you have a very amusing personality.
Keep smiling and I'm sure you will go far.
Danna Lee

Jimmy,

We have been friends for a long time. I hope we stay that way.
You're a swell guy. Stay that way. I'm sure you'll go far.
May luck follow you through life.

Best wishes,
