Introduction

The information in this book has been compiled in the usual manner - lots of research and interviews and lots of time trying to fit people in the proper places. Naturally, there will be mistakes found in this book for numerous reasons. I hope interested readers will help correct them. If you find a mistake and would like it corrected, follow this procedure: (1) write down the mistake, (2) write down the correction, (3) write down the page number, (4) and mail to Kenneth C. Kallam, Route 8 Box 660-C, Mount Airy, N.C. 27030 or phone: 1-919-374-4146/5249.

I hope this book can be revised with more information at a later date. Obituaries, newspaper clippings and other articles of interest have been included in this book. The pictures included are of poor quality because of the expense factor.

This book concentrates on the family members of John and Nancy Nichols of Surry County, North Carolina. John Nichols listed Dudley Nichols, aged 95, as his father on a census report. Dudley was born in Pittsylvania County, Virginia about 1784. He married Sarah (Sallie) Parsons at the home of Samuel Parsons March 30, 1818. Sallie wrote her own consent stating she was over the age of 18. p.66. The Reverend Griffith Dickinson married them. Dudley was a veteran of the War of 1812 and received a land grant in Surry County for his service. I have enclosed some of his records that might help if someone is interested in trying to find more information about him. Dudley was probably over one-hundred years of age at his death for he was still living in 1883.

It also appears that Joshua Nichols, Jeff Nichols and perhaps Edmund Nichols might have been brothers to John. Joshua married Martha Jane Simpson, sister to Nancy, John's wife. I think all of the Nichol's in the Toast section of Surry County are related.

In January of 1809, John Nicholos (Nichols) and Sally Farthing, daughter of William Farthing were married. Sur. Dudley Farthing married them. In January of 1817, John Nicholos (Nichols) and Lucy Owen, daughter of Christian Slayden were married. In March of 1822, Solomon Nicholos (Nichols) and Suzanna Parsons were married. Sur. Richard Farthing. This information came from the Courthouse in Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

I would like to thank everyone concerned for helping me organize this book, especially my mother and brother, Wallace. I hope you enjoy the information and continue to update it.

John Nichols

John Nichols was born October 14, 1825 and died February 2, 1894. He married Nancy Simpson January 9, 1846. Nancy was born June 9, 1825 and died April 21, 1889. Their marriage was witnessed by Edmund Nichols. John was probably born in Virginia and lived most of his life in the Toast section of Surry County, N.C. Nancy Simpson was the daughter of Vinson and Dicy Cook Simpson. Her parents lived in the Ash Hill section of Surry County. Her father is buried at the Bryant Cemetery in Ash Hill.

John was elected Constable, Deputy Sheriff and later United States Marshal. He founded the Post Office at White Plains in 1862 and gave White Plains its name. John and Nancy had eleven children. Both are buried in the White Plains Baptist Church Cemetery in Surry County, N.C.

After Nancy died in 1889, John married again February 6, 1890 to Hellen Elizabeth Blackwood. Hellen was born June 11, 1853 and died July 13, 1923. They had two children, one a son, Julius Oscar Nichols, born August 8, 1891 and died June 22, 1892. The next year another son was born and was named Muncie F. Nichols. Muncie was born in 1893 and died April 2, 1948. Muncie married Maggie "May" Gant and they had one daughter Margaret Nichols who is still living in 1982, and one son, Muncy Norwood Nichols, born May 30, 1918, and died November 9, 1918.

Witness to the marriage of John and Hellen was: N.J. Blackwood. Hellen's father was Matt Blackwood and her mother's name was Eugenia. They were married by J. H. Llewellyn.

First child of John and Nancy Nichols

George Yancy Nichols was born February 11, 1847 and died June 26, 1929. He married January 4, 1880 Nannie Susan Marshall, born June 20, 1852 and died November 22, 1913. N. T. Hutchens married them at his home on the Siloam Road. Banner Simpson, S. E. Marshall and Susan Hutchens were witnesses. Both are buried at the Friends Meeting House in White Plains, N.C.

Nannie was the daughter of J. M. and Christinia Sparger Marshall. George was a merchant in White Plains, an Auctioneer and Teamster in his younger days. He hauled Eng and Chang Bunker, the Siamese Twins, to Winston-Salem for shipment to Pennsylvania after their death. He was the first Postmaster and ran a store in White Plains and later became a farmer. He was a member and leader in the White Plains Friends Church. His residence was east of Jobe Jackson's home and south of the Lane Place. Nannie later became the Post Mistress of White Plains. Nannie attended Guilford College. Their home was occupied by School Teachers.

Children of George and Nannie

1. Daisy B. Nichols, born October 21, 1883 and died October 12, 1906 and was born in Surry County. She married Will L. Sheppard in 1902. Daisy is buried at the White Plains Friends Cemetery. Will is buried in Greensboro, N.C. Daisy was a housewife and Will was a salesman and merchant in Mount Airy. They had two children:
  - (1) Claude Robert "Bob" Sheppard, born August 9, 1903 and died February 19, 1963. He married Thelma Taylor in 1930. Bob is buried in the White Plains Friends Church Cemetery.
  - (2) Christine Nichols Sheppard, born January 19, 1905 and died October 12, 1905. She is buried at the White Plains Friends Church Cemetery.

2. George Stanley Nichols, born in Surry County March 2, 1892, and died October 11, 1970. He is buried at the White Plains Friends Meeting Cemetery. He married Jessie Davis from Dobson, N.C. in 1914. She is the daughter of Warren and Jane Venable. Jessie was born January 14, 1894 and is still living in White Plains as of 1982. George ran the Post Office and general store as did his wife. They had three children:
  - (1) Nan Nichols, born June 13, 1915 and married Edward Lester Davis, son of John and Olivia Davis. Lester was born April 18, 1914. They have one son, Don Lester Davis, born January 8, 1935. They operate a Drive-In Theater in Mount Airy, N.C. and reside in White Plains.
  - (2) Georgia Nichols, born December 12, 1918, died March 30, 1974. Georgia, like all the family, was born in Surry County, N.C. She married first Tom Wright and had no children. Later she married Howard B. Eddins. They had

PERSONALITIES of the NORTHWEST

GEORGE S. NICHOLS

Since he was 18 years of age George S. Nichols of White Plains has been selling goods to his neighbors in and around the little hamlet of White Plains. Nichols, a son of George and Nannie Nichols, pioneer merchants of the Plains community, received first-hand information in the business of running a store. Before he was old enough to go in business for himself, he explains, due to the fact that in his young days a person had to be 21 years of age before he could sell on "his own," he was, in a way, general manager of his mother's store, which was also operated at White Plains. Nichols went to school at the old White Plains public school and to Guilford College. The first establishment operated for himself was under the trade name of N. S. Nichols and Son. The business continued by that name until his mother's death. Nichols operates a large mercantile establishment and has served the people of his community well. At the present time he is also postmaster of the White Plains office. Concerning the business of keeping the post office, Nichols tells an interesting history of it since its establishment. He says that his grandfather, John Nichols, founded the White Plains post office 78 years ago, and also gave the name "White Plains" to the office. Several years after the establishment of the office, the grandfather became a U. S. marshal, then the office was handed down to Nichols' father, and in turn his mother kept it, until today it is in the hands of the family of the founders again. His mother kept the office for 28 years. Last spring Nichols' store was burned, and now he has erected a 50 by 80 brick structure on the site where the old store stood. He is a member of the White Plains Quaker Church. He is married to the former Miss Jessie Davis and they have three children, Nan Davis Nichols of Winston-Salem, Georgia Nichols of Bessemer City, and Daisy, 10 years old.

two children, 1st, Georgianna Eddins who married Jack Powell and had one daughter, Heather Powell. Her 2nd marriage was to Dick Nichols. Georgia and Howard resided in St. Petersburg, Florida.

- (3) Daisy Nichols, born May 7, 1930 in Surry County married Walter Perce Simmons. They have a daughter, InAnn Simmons.

Second child of John and Nancy Nichols

William "Billy" A. Nichols, born October 20, 1848, died March 27, 1927. Billy was born in Surry County, N.C. and married January 16, 1870. He married Martha J. Marshall, born December 6, 1847 in J. M. Marshalls' home. Martha died July 28, 1900. Mr. J. W. Jackson married them. Billy was a farmer and owned 110 acres of land and lived just past the Lane Place in White Plains. Both are buried at the White Plains Friends Cemetery. His second marriage was to Sarah Lewis and they had two sons, Brady and Perry Nichols.

Children of Billy and Martha Nichols

1. John Marion Nichols, born April 17, 1871, died April 1, 1940. Married Sarah Lilla Badgett March 6, 1898. Sarah was born September 27, 1874, died December 8, 1935. They had eight children. John married Sallie Easter the second time, and they had no children.
  - (1) Mamie Christini Nichols, born January 29, 1899. Mamie married J. Brady Johnson in 1917. Brady was born in 1895. Brady's father was Sol Johnson, and mother Annie Johnson. Sol was a charter member of the Pine Hill Friends church and his mother was named Annie Rachel Johnson. Sol's father was John Johnson, married a. Kidd, his father was Enoch Johnson. Annie was the daughter of Sanders and Mary E. Simpson, her father, Vestal. They had four children:
    - (1) Faye Johnson m. 1st Calvin Simmons, one son, Reid Simmons
m. 2nd Johnny Prather, one son, Watt Prather
    - (2) Bennie Johnson m. Clinton Mosley
Daughter Sarah m. Nick Johnson

Highly Respected Lady Passes at Advanced Age

The funeral of Mrs. Regina Livengood Nichols was held in the White Plains Baptist Church Monday afternoon and the remains laid to rest in the church cemetery. Before her marriage in 1878, to Solomon F. Nichols, who died 18 years ago, she was Miss Regina Livengood, and was born near Mount Airy March 1, 1858. She joined the White Plains Baptist Church fifty years ago.

She spent the greater part of her life in Surry County and had endeared herself to all who knew her by her great Christian spirit and neighborliness. She will be greatly missed by the entire community. The high esteem and affectionate regard in which Mrs. Nichols was held was attested by the large gathering at the home and later at the church and the profusion of floral tribute.

The officiating minister was Rev. Everett Draughn her pastor, who was assisted by Rev. Mr. Dunbar and Mrs. Lottie Robertson.

Ten children remain to mourn their loss. Mrs. Rosa B. Clare, Vinton, Va. Mrs. John J. Simpson, Mount Airy. Jesse F. Nichols, Mount Airy; Charles T. Nichols, Ballsville, Va.; Mrs. Will Mauldin, Mount Airy; Will T. Nichols, Ballsville, Va.; Mrs. Ed Jones, White Plains; Mrs. W. B. Marion, Dobson; Joe and Edd Nichols, Eldorado, Kansas.

She also leaves two brothers, W. J. and R. D. Livengood of Mount Airy, fifty one grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Muncie S. Nichols Passes In Virginia

Muncie S. Nichols, 55, superintendent of the Mantel and Table company, one of Mount Airy's largest furniture manufacturing concerns, died at the University of Virginia Medical College hospital, Richmond, Va., at 1:40 p. m. Sunday. He had been a patient at the Richmond hospital for the past three weeks.

A native of Surry county, Mr. Nichols was a son of John and Helen Blackwood Nichols. He was a member of the Rockford Street Methodist church, having been a member of the board of stewards for a number of years. 4-2-49

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Maggie Gant, and one daughter, Miss Margaret Nichols of the home.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at Rockford Street Methodist church. Rev. James E. Rink, pastor, and Rev. George Williams were in charge. Burial was in Oakdale cemetery.

Obituary of John Nichols.

The subject of this obituary, John Nichols, was born Oct. 14, 1825, and died Feb. 2, 1894. When about twenty-two years old he was married to Miss Nancy Simpson, and to them were born ten children. About 1858 he was elected Constable and served in that capacity and also as Deputy Sheriff of Surry county for eighteen years. About 1883 he professed religion and joined the Missionary Baptist church at White Plains, being baptized by Rev. C. C. Haymore, and from that time lived a consistent Christian. In April, 1887 his wife died and in the fall of 1889 he was again married to Miss Helen Blackwood. The issue of this marriage was two children. He leaves a wife and one little son, and four sons and four daughters by his first marriage, and many relatives and friends who mourn his death. He was buried Feb. 3rd, the funeral services being conducted by Elder W. H. Beamer and the writer in the presence of a large concourse of people. Our loss is his gain. May we all be prepared to meet where sin is not known.
