THE OBITUARY

"In tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away, our hearts were almost broken, we wanted you to stay. But when we saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain, how could we wish you back with us to suffer all that again"

Mrs. Hunter attended public school in Stokes county. As a young adult she relocated to New Jersey and was employed at the ILG Dress Factory for many years prior to her retirement. She was of the Methodist faith.

Due to a serious automobile accident that left her impaired, she relocated to Mount Airy, NC in 1986 to live with her daughter and her near family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Mr. Robert Hunter. Surviving to cherish her memory is a loving daughter, Mrs. Louise Rawley of Mount Airy, NC; two grandsons, Mr. Johnny Moore of Flint, MI and Mr. Paul Moore of Mount Airy, NC; five great grandchildren, including a devoted great grandson, Mr. Johnathon Moore of Winston-Salem, NC; five great great grandchildren; a niece, Mrs. Helen Cox Edwards of Flint, MI; a great niece, Mrs. Glennie Edwards.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Thank You

The flower that you sent that day,
The card you mailed along the way,
The service you stopped by to render,
The gift you brought with thought so tender.
The prayers you said which played a part,
In easing the pain that was in our hearts,
Each helped us to find that strength to bear,
The loss of the one we held so dear.
It was to us, a great comfort indeed,
To see you in the time of sorrow and need,
So from our hearts which you tried to help mend,
We thank you sincerely again and again
For being such wonderful friends.
