Oct. 21, 1997

The Mt. Airy Arts and Craft Guild met on the 21st of October, 1997, with 11 (eleven) members present. We met with Claire Merritt, Claire's daughter Sara who was a guest and who also gave the program.

After refreshments were served - Chris called the meeting to order - a hand book was given to Caroline Springs.

It was noted that the bottom half of the roll will be entertaining at the Christmas party this year.

After finishing with the business, Claire the program was turned over to Sara, who gave a program on photo albums and memory book type of keepsakes. She had many useful tools and ornaments for assembling the books. She was also quite entertaining with her presentation of her program. Everyone enjoyed the program very much.

November 4th, 1997

The Mt. Airy Arts and Craft Guild met on Tuesday Nov. 4th with Lois Hennis, with ~~eleven~~ twelve (12) members present.

We also had a guest who also presented the program, Bernice Burton.

After a delicious fruit cup, cheese wafers, mints and coffee were served, Bernice gave each member a small square of material with a heart outline, and directions for doing ribbon embroidery. She also gave each of us the thread and ribbon for doing the embroidery. This was a very interesting and entertaining project. After this the bottom half of the roll retreated to another room to plan for the Christmas party, which will be held at Mary Pavis on December 2nd.

There being no further business, the meeting came to a close after an enjoyable afternoon.

The Mt. Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met on Jan. 20th, with Sara Lee. There were nine members present. We also had a guest with us. Joy introduced a friend and neighbor, Eleanor Sauring. We were so glad to have her join us.

After a delicious dessert, nuts and coffee were served the meeting came to order. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given. Sick members were discussed, and cards are to be sent to them. After all business was done with, Joy took over as she had the program. Valentine was the theme. She had made several things with Valentines as the motif. She had made a vest from Valentine material, and had decorated a shirt for her granddaughter, Sara. Some of the members decorated tote bags and some made novelty baskets, filled with valentine candies. All were different and all very pretty. Joy had brought quite an assortment of decorations for us to use. Every one seemed to be real proud of her achievement. Our next meeting will be with Jean on Feb. 3rd. Respectfully submitted

Feb. 3rd, 1998

The Mt. Airy Arts and Craft Guild met. with Lealan on Feb. 3rd with 11 members present. After delicious refreshments were served the meeting was called to order by Chris. The minutes of last meeting were given and approved. also Treasurers report. Notes were passed for each member to sign to be sent to our sick members - Mary Lee, Mae and Margaret - each member wrote a jiffy note on the card. Our April 14th meeting will be a trip to Greensboro to Replacements. All of the arrangements were made as follows:

Morning of April 14 - meet at Moravian Church parking lot at 9:00 a.m. departure time.

We also had planned a "Soup Shower" for Margaret - so each member brought cans of soup or homemade soups to be taken to her. Lealan was kind enough to do this.

Thanks Lealan.

After all business was over - Joy had the program, which had a St. Patrick's Motif. She brought paper tote bags and the decorations to be used. She brought samples for us to use as a guide. They were most attractive.

The meeting was a busy and a most entertaining one. Our next meeting will be with Wilma on February 17th.

our program was a demonstration of Sugar Eggs, given by Chris. She also gave us a short history of Sugar Eggs.
Chris had all the supplies needed for making them. She also had several she had made. She decorated one for us. They are most attractive ornaments, and especially for Eastertime. Chris also gave us the recipes used in the making,
one recipe for making the egg, and another for making the decoration mixture. We all enjoyed the meeting, and went away
hoping to make some eggs.

The meeting was adjourned - our next meeting will be with Bruce. The program being "Making Snowflakes".

March 17, 1998

The Arts and Craft Guild of Mt. Airy met with Bruce Malmo on the 17th of March with seven members present. After delicious refreshments were served, the meeting was called to order by Chris.

The minutes were read and approved. A discussion of a change of the by-laws was held, and it was decided to delay on a vote - due to the lack of members present. The vote to be held at the next meeting.

Bruce had charge of the program, which was the Making of Snowflakes. Each one brought the materials for the making. Each snowflake was made from plastic canvas. The finished products were most attractive - They will be real pretty on next year's Christmas trees. This was a real fun program because we could work and chat at the same time. ^{Bruce was a good teacher} with a lot of patience.

We also re-hashed our trip to Greensboro, which will be April 14th.

Chris had more details to give us.

The meeting was adjourned after everyone looked at the bird house. ^{My} ~~old~~ ~~made~~ painted. It was most attractive.

April 28th 1998

The Arts and Craft Guild of Mt. Airy met on April 28th with Sis as hostess. Eleven members being present.

After delicious refreshments were served, the meeting was called to order by Chris. Most of the business was our picnic arrangements, after all these were settled each one had brought something or which to make or something to show and tell. Sis was working on her afghan, Jeanne had her needlepoint & foot -

Stool Covers - Bruce was on the floor showing several how to make and assemble the snowflake ornaments.
The afternoon was enjoyed by everyone.

The May 12th meeting of the Mt. Airy Arts and Crafts Club was our annual picnic, which was held at Snow's Lacey, with Jay as hostess. Eleven members being present, and Mae Turpin as a guest.
It was so nice having Mpe with us,
after a long absence. The first order of the day was a visit to the Kennel
to see Maggie's litter of nine Golden Retrievers. They were a sight-to-see.

After this everyone headed for the Kitchen and dinning room. A caterer from the Waldorf could not have made a better display. It was a beautiful sight, and everything was so good.
A sample of every dish was just too much.

After the Blessing was said by Chris, everyone filled a plate.
Too busy to talk - it was a very quiet meal, except for the oops and crashes. After a great get together - we all went home - filled to the brim, all looking forward to a summer vacation, and a reunion in September.
