THE TORCH AFLAME

A hand to guide us
Through the dark,
The vast, the bleak unknown.
The mind that shared;
The heart that cared;
The eyes that saw the spark;
And seeds of wisdom sown.

A quiet love;
A soothing word
That penetrates the core
Of longing breeding;
Ears unheeding,
Souls once pleading -
The torch aflame
Shall shine forever more.

With these words we dedicate the 1966-67 AIRMONT to Mr. Ray Reed.

Our Final Word

AIRMONT STAFF MEMBERS: (SEATED) Frances Woltz, Elisabeth Sparger, Pat Andrews, Bryan Goad. (STANDING) Sarah Jessup, Linda Haynes, Sara Gwyn, Debbie Nichols, Cleve Folger, Rodney Ketner, Rodney Gwyn and Peggy Wrenn.

As we reach the end of our era, we look back with awe at the rapidity with which our days within these hallowed halls have passed. We have fears and insecurities about the life that we will find beyond these protective walls. Yet these walls that we so reluctantly leave now will never really be far from our touch. We may be going without, but we will not be going alone. With us we bear the legacy that these halls have given us--knowledge, understanding and a new-found maturity. Priceless gifts, these things will help us to span the gap between this end and our new beginning.
