Dedicated to

Mrs. Ann B. Patterson

...more than a teacher...

a friend.

8:30 marks the beginning of a day that is different for each of US.

Enthusiasm and spirit are very definite characteristics of US.

Is it food or knowledge that sustains
US?

There are those who fight valiantly to defend US.

As prominent members of the "jet set," energy and pep are vital to US.

And 3:00

is a time of joy(?) for all of US.

Faithful they are in lending a helping hand to US.

Mrs. Catherine White, secretary

Mr. Ralph O. Lanier, principal

Mrs. Judy Bryant, secretarial aide

As capable officials they help

The Board of Education represents the general public and serves as a board of directors for the schools. The board acts as the legislative body and through its policies, the administration functions.

The local school committee serves in an advisory capacity and is responsible for the protection of school property in the district.

Mr. Gentry works and plans with all the school personnel in the county in order to better the methods of instruction.

As assistant superintendent, Dr. Richards coordinates the entire instructional program in the school system.

Mrs. Hine, as supervisor, assists teachers in providing better instruction in our school.

Mr. J.S. Gentry, superintendent

Mrs. Eva Hine, supervisor

Dr. Swanson Richards, assistant superintendent make decisions for US.

Mr. R. O. Lanier, Mr. Thedford Sprinkle, Mr. Ralph Beane, Mr. Frank Freeman, Mr. J. I. Shinault, Mr. Robert Burrus, chairman.

Mr. J. Sam Gentry, Dr. Joe Folger, Mr. Ford Cockerham, Mr. Joe Pell, Mr. C. W. Moseley, Mr. Cecil Ring.

There are many who lead the way for US!

Leadership is a quality found in only a few of US, but one which is important to all
of US.
The following people are a few who lead the way
during 1966-67.

Led by a "crackerjack" . . .

--president, our student council is very efficient. Each member wishes to contribute a part, if only a small one, to the molding of another year.

Steve Sprinkle's parody of "The Night Before Christmas" evokes laughter from the student body.

Miss Libby White, HOLIDAY QUEEN

Leadership requires effort, and effort is rewarded as Central's representative receives district DEOA honors.

A competent faculty strives to guide US!

This year Surry Central is very fortunate to have one of the best faculties in the history of the school. These teachers take an interest in student activities that is far beyond the call of duty.

There "ain't" a better one . . .

--anywhere. Our English department emphasizes skills essential to the management of language for effective communication. Through oral and written composition, students learn to convey clearly their thoughts and feelings to a given audience.

Mr. James McPherson, Mrs. Linda Brown, Mrs. Virginia Cooke, Mr. Wayne Nance, Miss Mary Frances Hodges, Miss Evelyn Holyfield, Mrs. Clara Strickland.

Mrs. Brown makes English IV interesting.

Mais Oui,

--of course we have a great French department. Ability to communicate effectively has never been more vital than it is for twentieth-century American youth caught in the strife of international affairs. French courses at Surry Central attempt to meet this need.

French III students display bulletin board.

Miss Mary Frances Hodges, Miss Evelyn Holyfield

French I students take dictation.

one of the most interesting . . .

--departments in our curriculum is that of math. The challenge to mathematics teachers to improve the mathematical skills of the students has never been more acute. The teachers at Surry Central are continually reorienting their program—not discarding the old merely for the sake of making a change but adapting content that is still valid and adding that which is required to meet new demands.

Mr. Garnett Cox, Miss Mary Blevins, Mr. Christopher Crusenberry, Mrs. Ann Patterson.

Boy! This new math is funny!

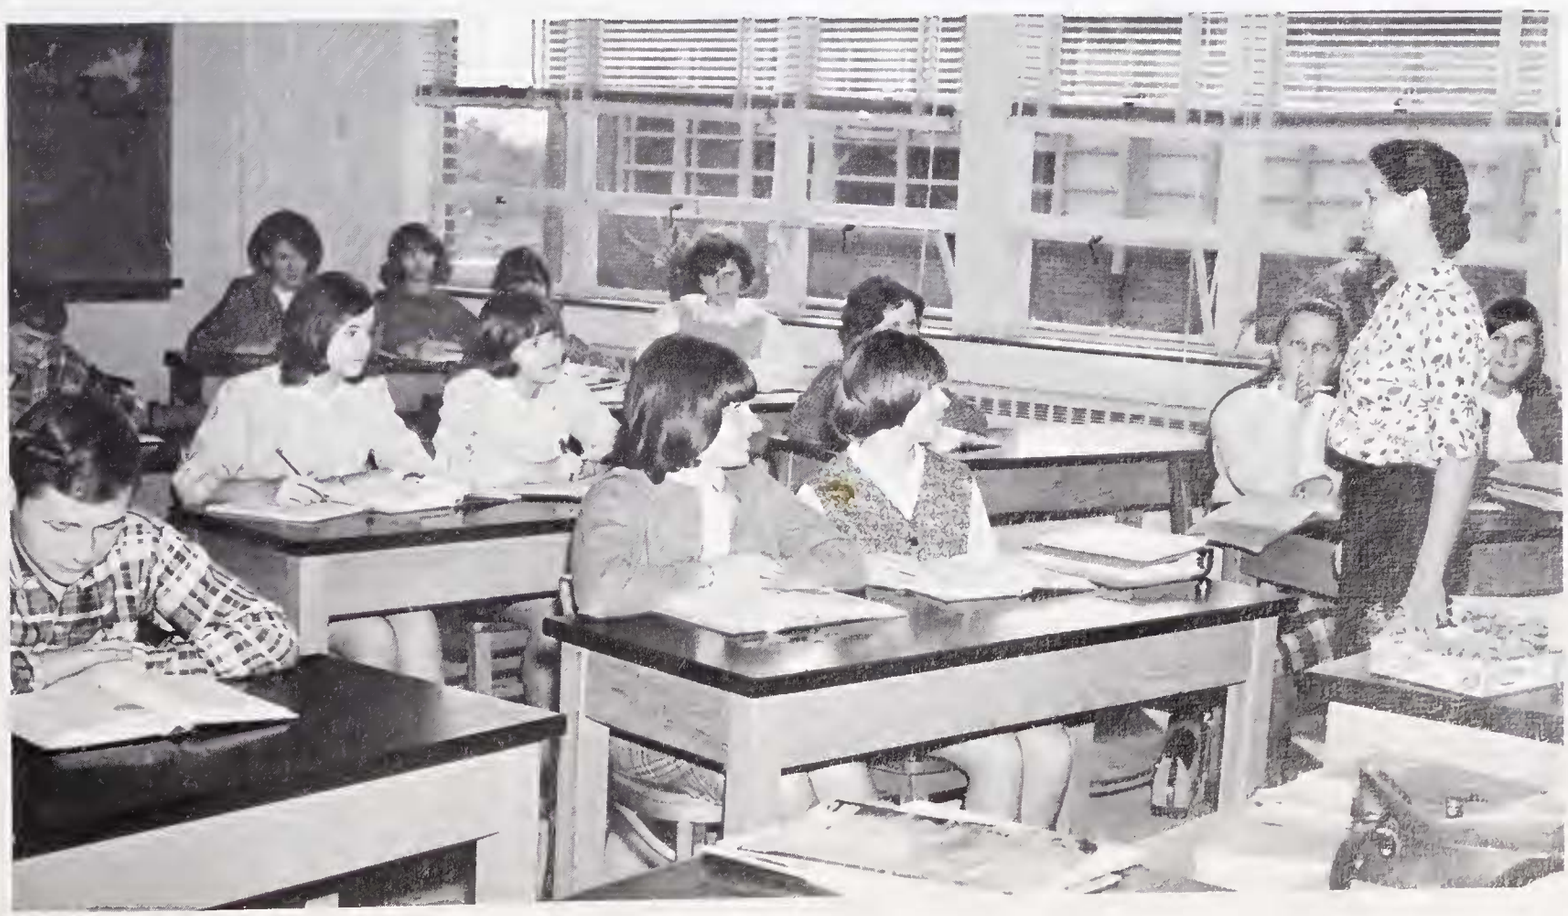

Brave explorers . . .

--into the world of the unknown are the teachers in the science department.

Surry Central's science courses are planned for the general education of all students and not for the express purpose of training scientists. The students are encouraged to be active investigators and to discover nature's secrets for themselves.

Mrs. Clara Freeman, Mr. Charles Williard, Miss Mary Ellen Blevins, Mrs. Oma Norman, Mr. Christopher Crusenberry, Mr. Joseph Bradshaw.

Mrs. Freeman arouses curiosity in biology students.

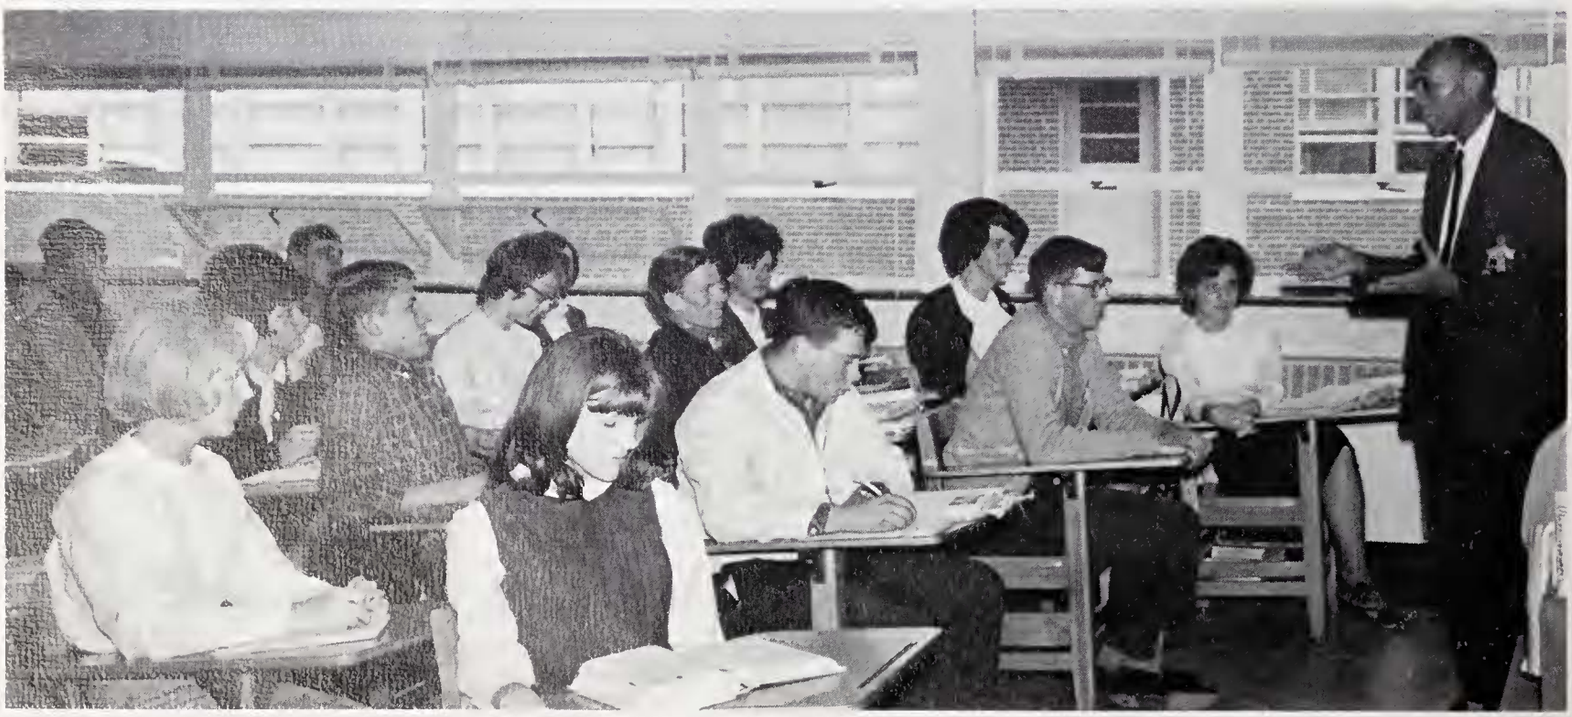

An effective social studies curriculum . . .

--can provide youth with a foundation for fostering competent citizenship in a democratic society. Students at Surry Central are acquiring knowledge, skills, and understandings essential for living in a changing society.

Mr. Joseph Bradshaw, Mr. Trent Strickland, Mrs. Mary Ellen Graham.

Mr. Bradshaw conducts active discussions in social studies classes.

Salesmanship . . .

--is the key to our economy. At Central a study of human relations helps develop an understanding of the various types of personalities a salesman may encounter. Courses in retailing and marketing prepare students to accept responsibility.

Boys from carpentry class partition Room 2 for guidance offices.

Mr. Raymond Cox, Mr. Charles Kirkman, Mr. Gene Everette.

A drafting class learns the importance of this skill in building trades.

Mr. Everette and Gay Hamlin put the final touches on a display for marketing classes.

Asdfjkl; Asdfjkl;

The business education department has a program designed for the student who is interested in a career in business upon graduation from high school or college. This year a new course has been added--applied business--which combines classroom study and practical training, thus giving the student valuable work experience while in high school.

(Right) Miss Louise Morris, Miss Bessie Matthews, Mrs. Ann Pack.

An applied business class uses a transcribing machine.

But Miss Baxley, you've been showing us how to sew darts for a month now!

Future Homemakers . . .

--learn basic homemaking skills in the home economics department.

Mrs. Nellie Hill, Mrs. Ruby Stanley, Miss Ann Baxley.

A variety . . .

--of opportunities is available to junior and senior boys in agriculture classes. There are specialized courses in livestock, farm mechanics, and horticulture.

Mr. Douglas Crater, Mr. Sam Briggs.

Agriculture mechanics overhaul a truck motor.

Two years . . .

--of physical education is offered at Surry Central. The main purpose of the department is to provide the best physical education possible for every student in our school and to help him grow and develop intellectually, physically, morally, and socially.

The physical education program alternates with health classes for the freshmen and with safety education classes for the sophomores. This part of the program provides opportunities for students to gain knowledge and to develop attitudes and practices necessary to meet present and future health needs.

Girls' physical education classes enjoy intramural basketball games.

Coach Charles Williard, Coach Gary York, Mrs. Margaret Bates

Several of our girls enter a float for the homecoming parade.

Rev. Roy Johnson, instructor

Driving . . .

--is one course which, for obvious reasons, our students must not fail. Surveys show that drivers who have had driver training have more than 50 percent fewer accidents than drivers who have not completed a driver education course.

Mr. Gene Wagoner

The function of chorus is to inspire and to enrich the lives of the youth at Surry Central. Its prime purpose is to equip each of its members to gain an insight into and an appreciation of music.

Mr. Johnson and Brent Church put the final touches on a bulletin board.

Today . . .

--we prepare for tomorrow. Through our guidance department, students receive help in the planning for their futures.

The blind leading the blind?

Mr. Gary York, Mr. John Bell

Mrs. Jerri Hemric, Mrs. Ruth Freeman.

MR. W.B. WHITE

We give our thanks . . .

--to Mr. Bolich and Mr. White for a lifetime of dedicated services to public education in our community. In their retirement we wish them many years of happiness.

MR. P.G. BOLICH

The backbone . . .

--of our school consists of the people who serve on the school staff. Each group performs a duty that is essential to both students and faculty.

Mr. Gilbert Nixon, custodian.

These organi zations involve US!

Surry Central offers many opportunities for students who are interested in extracurricular activities. Several new clubs have been organized this year by a student body that is continually developing a wider range of interests.

Character . . .

--leadership, scholarship, and service are the qualities found in every member of the Surry Central Chapter of the National Honor Society. Membership in the Chapter is more than an honor: it carries with it a responsibility. Students must continue to demonstrate the qualities which brought about their selection, and they must also exert an influence to promote these qualities in other students.

First row: A. White, W. Haymore. Second row: G. Kidd, D. Atkins, J. Sidden, H. Snow, S. McCraw. Third row: V. White, M. Mooney, J. Collins, P. Dobbins, S. Cummings. Fourth row: K. Lewis, J. Coe, J.S. Edwards, J. Folger, C. Lanier, L. Dellinger, B. Briggs. Fifth row: G. Jones, C. Norman, S. Freeman, J. Cockerham, M. Stanley, J. McCann.

National Honor Society members and alumni present Miss Holyfield with a Christmas gift.

Officers: Gwen Kidd, reporter; Janice Sidden, secretary and treasurer; Miss Evelyn Holyfield, adviser; Hilda Snow, president; Shirley McCraw, vice-president.

Publicity . . .

--is only one important facet in the composition of a yearbook. The success of a yearbook depends largely upon the efficiency of the staff and its advisers. These people are responsible for its contents which, in turn, determine the success of the Aquila.

Advisers: Miss Evelyn Holyfield, Mr. James McPherson, Mrs. Ann Pack.

R. Chilton, H. Payne, J. Hanes, M. Mooney, J. McCann, S. McCraw, G. Kidd, S. Darnell, J. Folger, C. Lanier, J. Atkins, B. Coe, K. Peele, P. White, K. Reid, L. Holcomb, L. White, C. Norman, P. White, J. Collins.

Henpecked . . .

--is the word for our paper staff. The editor and co-editors--all females--insist that the paper be composed of only the best journalism. In order for the Centralette to fill its important role, everyone from the adviser to the reporters realizes that the paper must be a real work of journalism.

Seated: L. White, M. Church, G. Smith, D. Hatcher. Standing: G. Hamlin, M. Venable, J. Southard, L. Fowler, K. Hardy, S. Wilmoth, R. Chilton, M. Coe, G. Kidd, A. White, L. Johnson, J. Hanes, H. Payne, C. Evans, B. Tilley, B. Hutchins, J.S. Edwards, D. Dobbins, S. Martin, K. Reid.

Interested . . .

--in the career of teaching are these members of the Future Teachers of America Club. The major purpose of the FTA is to provide activities and programs which will stimulate the interest of the members. Advisers strive to help members discover whether or not they possess those qualities which are necessary for the teaching profession.

FTA members attend state convention at Catawba.

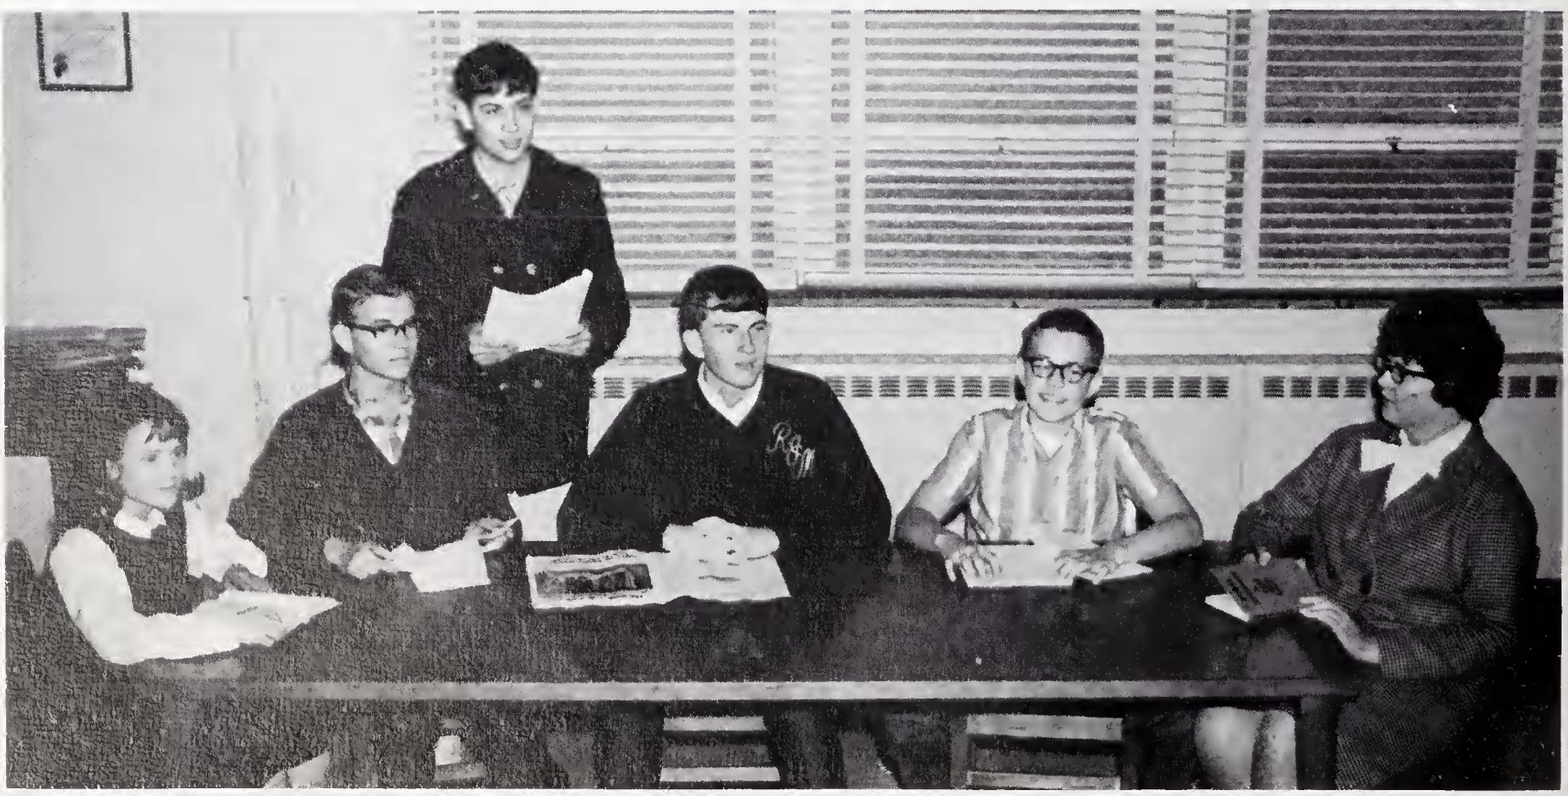

Seated: J. Hemric, historian; N. Ferguson, secretary; W. Haymore, parliamentarian; H. Snow, president; S. Cummings, vice-president; P. White, treasurer; J. Hanes, reporter. Standing: R. Bowers, D. Felts, C. Lanier, J. Folger, M. Coe, G. Kidd, J. McCann, A. Layne, J. Baldwin, S. Dranell, P. Hill, L. Dellinger, M. Church, B. Freeman, D. Moser, K. Hardy, L. Dellinger, J. Shores.

Friendly persuasion . . .

--of an audience to accept or reject the resolution that is under consideration is the main objective of the debating team. The student of debating who gives his best gains much in return. Debating provides valuable research experience for the individual student.

Miss Mary Frances Hodges is the helpful adviser for the Debating Club.

Jan Hemric, Steve Sprinkle, Lee Harrison, Jeff McCann, Eric Comer, Miss Hodges.

Lettermen . . .

--at Surry Central compose the Monogram Club. Many of the students have lettered in at least one athletic field. This year the club has ten new members.

OFFICERS: Kay Reid, vice-president; Marcia Venable, secretary; Mile Gillespie, president; Kathy Atkins, reporter.

The Monogram Club frequently sponsors post-game dances.

First row: Coach Williard, adviser; K. Atkins, K. Reid, C. Lanier, J. Folger, M. Venable, S. Phillips, L. Fowler, Coach York, adviser. Second row: T. Woodruff, D. Martin, H. Whitaker, J. Venable, W. Norman, J. Woodring, B. Riddle, B. Slawter, J. Sidden. Third row: J. Brindle, M. White, D. Atkins, R. Thompson, B. Carter, S. Freeman, M. Church, M. Gillespie, D. Beane. Fourth row: J. Shores, R. Johnson, J. Simmons, J. McCann, R. Wilmoth, V. Hamlin, R. Cockerham, T. Marion, J. Riddle.

Boys . . .

--are fast becoming active members in the Future Homemakers of America Club. The club is comprised of those students who study homemaking and who want to improve personal, family, and community living.

Future Homemakers of America

Hilda Snow, a senior FHA member, won the 1967 "Betty Crocker Award."

Competition . . .

--is a vital part of our Future Farmers of America Club. This organization is made up of boys who are interested in farming. These boys compete in certain types of contests during their years of enrollment in vocational agriculture: tool identification, livestock judging, dairy judging, parliamentary procedure, public speaking, and soil judging.

Future Farmers of America

Stimulation . . .

--of the interests of students entering the field of distribution is the foremost purpose of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. This organization is made up of students at Surry Central High School enrolled in vocational distributive education classes. The primary purpose of the club is to help students develop progressive leadership in distributive education and to create and nurture an understanding of our free, competitive enterprise system.

DISTRICT DECA SWEETHEART, Miss Shelby Miller.

Deca Club: Left to Right--Mr. Gene Everette, adviser, W. Southern, M. Branch, J. Dezern, J. Venable, K. Branch, M. Venable, J. Roberts, A. Bledsoe, R. Cockerham, R. Hudson, G. Hamlin, J. Jenkins, S. Bowman, S. Miller, S. Wilmoth. Standing: M. Watson.

Participation . . .

--in a wide variety of sports is offered to girls in the Girls' Athletic Association. It provides an opportunity to develop interest and ability in individual and team sports. The organization tries to maintain the standards conducive to spiritual and social growth and to assure physical safety and well-being through adequate leadership.

There's a song in the air . . .

--any time the Surry Central chorus is practicing or performing for an audience. The chorus provides excellent entertainment for the student body and other groups at various times during the year.

Marching . . .

--is a part of their profession. The Surry Central band performs for many neighborhood activities. They also participate in out-of-state parades.

MAJORETTES: Janice Sidden, Janice Southard, Joyce Johnson, Diane Atkins, Vickie Greene.

And

this is US!

Without US,
there would be no school.
We, the students,
make up the school and its activities.
Each of US plays an important role in making our school.
Everyone cannot be a leader—
some of US
must be followers.
What would a general be without his army?
And what would our school be without US?

For seniors, graduation is just around the corner.

And there are those who defend US!

Sports make up a big part of any school life.
At Surry Central,
there is an avid student interest in sports—not only because of the games
themselves, but because of the deserving people who participate in them.

Football team ends hard fought season.

A championship team . . .

--is the one composed of these golfers. Once again the Golden Eagles of the golfing links brought home the championship laurels. The golf team enjoyed its most successful year in the four years since golf became one of the major sports. The golfers posted a conference record of ten wins and two losses for the season, and then went on to win the Surry-Yadkin golf championship from the other title contenders.

Mr. Bradshaw,

Mr Bradshaw I have enjoyed being in your class this year and I hope I have you next year. Mr Bradshaw I have learned more in here than just History, I have learned that more things are important than just having a big time in school. in my Book you said to get a good Education and Mr. Bradshaw I ask you to try to finish High School and go to a two year College at least. My Ambition is to be a Radio D. J. and if I become one I will play some records for you. Don't forget to come up this summer to see you and your son and we will go fishing. Well so long Mr. Bradshaw and Good luck and May God Bless.

Mr. Bradshaw,

I have truly enjoyed being in your 5th period Am. History Class. You are really a swell person as well as a swell teacher. Stay as witty as you are now and you will certainly gain more friends than you have now and that will be a lot. Good Luck & may God bless you.

A junior student,
