John, here are some notes I made that may not mean anything but may give you something to think about. I could probably find more but don't have the time right now. Wilma

Gideon Cook (age 26) and wife Mary are found on the Surry Co. 1880 census.

Newel Cook is also listed in 1880 Surry. It states he is married but does not show his wife's name in my book. He has a dau. Martha (age 10).

Newel Cook (age 32) and Rebecca (32) are listed in the 1870 Surry census.

Martha Edna Cook, d/o Gideon Sheppard and Mary Adkins Cook, died in 1981 Surry.

In the 1900 Surry census are the following (all in the Westfield Township):

Martha Cook (49), son Newel (21), Lucy (16), Phebe (15), John (13), Nelia (11), Wallace (9), Bill (7) and William (3).

John Joyce (38), Eua (27), Robert (8), Roxie (6), Samuel (3), Ruth (1), Martha Joyce (73) (mother), Ester Willard (14) (niece), and Ben Hickman (18) (servant)

Dallas Brinkley (31), Laura (33) and son Anthony (6)

Will of Lucy Inman dated 14 Jan 1883 names dau. Nancy Simmons!

Newel Simmons had an estate record dated 1862. (wonder if there is a connection between older Newel Simmons and Martha Cook's son Newel Cook)

Franklin Joyce will dated 23 Feb 1886 names wife Martha L. Joyce, son John Franklin Joyce, dau. Elizabeth E. Haymore, dau. Mary J. Willard, son A. H. Joyce, dau. Nancy Joyce, dau. Sarah G. Simmons and dau. Ruth Simmons.

John F. Joyce (s/o Frank & Martha Joyce) married Ura Brinkley (d/o Robert & Frances Brinkley) in 1889. Dalice Brinkley was a witness.

Dalis P. Brinkley, s/o Robert & Frances Brinkley, m. Laura Mathews in 1893 and died in 1950.

Newel Cook (45) s/o Abel Cook married Nancy J. Arrington in 1881 in Westfield Twp.

All of this is from Surry County records.

I could not find a married ^{one} for Martha and a Randy (Handy) Owens in Surry. Perhaps he married after 1900 in Surry and I don't have it at home.

Hope you and Esther enjoyed your trip to Kinston for the Scott family reunion.

John, received your package and looked at it. Tried to find some of these people in my books at home. Sending you some notes. These families are all probably related somehow if you can figure it out. Ha. However, the map you sent is strictly in Stokes County as it is today. I'm sure where Nancy Simmons died is near here but in Surry County in the Westfield area. Parts of Westfield are given Stokes County addresses but Westfield is really in Surry County. You will note on the Widow's application that she was a resident at Flat Shoals post-office of said County (Surry). Surry did have a post office named Flat Shoals which was probably near the area of the map. You will note on the deed that the property was on the waters of the little Flat Shoals Creek which should be in Surry County and not Stokes County. Mrs. M. C. Cook, John Joyce and Dallas Brinkley are all from Surry County. On the Surry County historical map it shows Flat Shoal Creek that runs from the Tarrarat (Ararat River). It does not show it going into Stokes Co. It appears to end at the Chestnut Ridge in Surry County. Therefore I think your map is not where Nancy lived. There was a Peter Simmons that lived on the creek in 1783. There is also a Flat Shoals Creek on the Stokes County Historical Map. It forms at the Dan River that runs through Stokes County. People living on this Creek are John Brown, Nathaniel Baise, John Smith, Phillip Wilson, William Lewis, Philip Willson, Matthew Bass. This Flat Shoal Creek is near Flat Shoal Mountain. I will send you this and send the other notes separately. Wilma

Dear Esther Gearhart,

Thank you for your letter of 10 August 2004 received by this office 12 August 2004.

The accounting records would not have an individual total but rather a county total or state total; they could not help you pinpoint date of death. You may try searching through the correspondence of the State Auditor's office for information about when a clerk contacted the Auditor as to notice of death, however, we cannot perform this search for you. There are also rolls of pensioners in the State Auditor records, arranged by year and then by county. You could look through these rolls (available on microfilm) to determine when an individual was removed from the role, thus giving at least an estimated year of death. I have personally resolved question of death of one pensioner using this method. Again, because these are not indexed we cannot search these records for you.

Enclosed is a list of researchers who do research for hire.

If I can be of further assistance please let me know.

Sincerely

Dear Wilma :

Ref: our previous e-mails about Nancy Simmons; some more goodies for you to examine. Don't think it will help in finding her info any time after 1906.

- 1- two maps showing Flat Shoals and Flat Shoals Creek.
- 2- Deed transferring her property to G F Cook, June 15 1906. Signed with "x" her mark before Notary and Reg.of deeds Surry Co.
Note, page one, shows lands adjoining those of Mrs M.C. Cook : John Joyce and Dallas Brinkley.
- 3- Widows application for pension , dated June 27, 1906. Shows residence as "Flat Shoals and age of 77.
- 4- Letter from the Raleigh Archives, regarding finding out when the pension was stopped for cause of death. (the writer did not send the list of researchers for hire)
- 5= 1900 Census for Martha Cook : John Joyce and Dallas Brinkley are on this page. I tried to enlarge it but still was hard to read. Next trip to Dodson I will try to look up in the 1900 Census book there.
- 6- From the deed, to G.S. Cook (1906) : looks like he was single and bought nancy's property for his son-in law / daughter Handy or Randy Owens and his wife Martha.
- 7- Census 1880, shows a Martha Cook, age 30 wife and a daughter Martha cook age 10 (Census from Westfield , N C)
- 8= From item #2 : Property next to Nancy's, I found more info on the 1910 Census for Mrs M.C. Cook (age 59) (probably the wife from the 1880 census) .
- 9- From item # 2: property next to Nancy's , I found more info on the 1910 census for Dallas Brinkley (census from Westfield NC)

Page two. That is about all I got to report as far. Maybe I am just too close to this problem and have missed something to look at. Would appreciate your checking this over and any suggestions will be followed up.

We are going to Kinston, NC tomorrow for a Scott family reunion (my late wife's family) They have accepted Esther as one of the family as well, so we enjoy going. I will give a short talk about the Scott family research that I have been working on for many years. Have it back into the 1700's but the old courthouse blew away in a storm (Onslow County) in 1752 and a lot of the old land grants and deeds were lost. I did find some few in Raleigh and the Onslow courthouse several years ago. Had a niece who knew the clerk of court and this was a great help. Some clerks don't like you to look into their books. I just don't know why. I have had some problems with the clerks when I was checking out the early Gearhart family in several Michigan counties.

Bye for now. I will get this in the mail today.

Best regards, Esther & John Gearhart

FIRST GENERATION

1. Hans Georg¹ Brendel¹. Born, 18 Apr 1713, in Oberbronn, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France². Died, circa 1783 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania³. Burial in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania⁴. Occupation: Farmer.

In the records recording all these children in the Berks County, Pennsylvania, Historical Society Library (from Moravian Church Records), the birth dates are mostly listed as being "old style" dates.

According to information from Wayne A. Brindle, 3909 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75204, Hans Georg Brendel came to the American English Colonies in 1738 with two brothers Johann Philip Brendel and Johann Heinrick Brendel.

A book entitled "New World Immigrants" [N.C.929.373 N532, Vol. 2 by Tepper] on page 183 MORAVIAN BRETHERN IN HEIDELBERG - 1752, there are some variations in the birthdates in the Moravian records, as follows:

Georg Brendel - April 18, 1713
 Anna Maria - born August 1741
 Eva Cathrina - Feb. 20, 1745
 Johannes Johann - June 22, 1746
 Heinrich - March 3, 1748
 Elizabeth January 31, 1750

He married² Eva Catharina Frey¹, 26 Apr 1735, in Langensoultzbach, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France⁵. Born, 9 Oct 1718, in Langensoultzbach, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France⁶. Died, after 1784 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania². Occupation: Domestic.

According to the research of James A. Journey of Bellevue, Washington, the Frei or Frey family history starts with Marti Frey, born about 1521 in Knonau, Canton Zurich, Switzerland. Johann Peter Frei was the immigrant from Wingen, Bas-Rhin, Alsace, France. He and his family resided at North Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania before removing at an old age to the Friedberg area in the Forsyth / Davidson County area of North Carolina. Johann Peter Frey was a brother of the above mentioned Johann Heinrich Frey.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Anna Maria² Brendel (Hans Georg¹). Born, 9 Aug 1739, in Muddy Creek, Berks Co., Pennsylvania¹. Died, 11 May 1815, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina¹⁶. Baptism: 12 Aug 1739, in Cocallico TWP, Berks Co., Pennsylvania¹⁷. Burial: 13 May 1815, in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Immigration: 1766, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Occupation: Domestic.

From her Moravian Memoir: When she was 10 years old her parents put her "to school" with other Moravian children where they had to stay day and night because of the Indian War. (French allied with Indian tribes trying to drive out the English.)Now I wished to obtain permission to join the fellowship of the Brethren which was granted to me in Bethlehem when I was 17 years old. I thought now I was safe, and nothing could happen to me that would disturb my life. But I was very much mistaken in this,....For 12 years I served children and girls. In the year 1766 I traveled with the first group of Sister and girls to Wachau, where in November of the same year I was married in holy matrimony to Brother Jacob Bonn who was then a physician in Bethabara.

On October 31, 1781, her dear husband passed away with whom she had three children, who have also passed away, two daughters when they were small children, and her son Jacob who left a family of grand children of whom 5 she lived to see buried, and 2 are living, to whose welfare she was devoted like a mother.During her almost 34 years as a widow our dear Sister served for 10 years as a midwife and often praised emphatically the countless instances of the Saviour's help which she experienced throughtout these years.

She married¹⁶ Jacob Bonn¹⁶, Nov 1766, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C. Born, 5 Apr 1733, in Pennsylvania¹⁸. Died, 31 Oct 1781, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina¹⁶. Burial: 2 Nov 1781, in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, Forsyth Co., N.C. Occupation: Medical Doctor.

(Info from Moravian Church records)In May 1746 Dr. Bonn became a physician and surgeon. He came to Wachovia as a messenger bringing letters in 1758. In 1759 he came again and served as Moravian Doctor for a year. In July 1766 he returned to Wachovia as Community Dovtor, and in November of that year he married Anna Maria Brendel. They had a son Jacob (and 2 daughters who died in infancy). In 1769 he was made Justice of the Peace in Rowan County. When the county of Surry was broken off in 1771, he had the same office and was presiding Justice of the Court for several years. He had a stroke and died in church. Children:

SECOND GENERATION

- 15 i. Jacob³ Bonn Jr.¹⁶. Born, after 1766, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.¹⁶. Died, before 1815, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina¹⁹.

4. Johannes Georg (George)² Brendel (Hans Georg¹)¹. Born, 12 Aug 1743, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, circa 1784, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania²⁰. Baptism: 1743, in Cocallico TWP, Berks Co., Pennsylvania²¹. Burial in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Occupation: Farmer.

He married¹ Elizabeth Unknown¹. Born, after 1743 (?), in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1784, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

- 16 i. Fredrich³ Brendel¹. Born in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1784. Occupation: Farmer.

6. Johannes Johann (John)² Brendel (Hans Georg¹)¹. Born, 23 Jun 1746, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, after 1790 (?), in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Baptism: 1746, in Muddy Creek, Berks Co., Pennsylvania²². Immigration: 16 May 1773, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.²³. Occupation: Farmer.

Dorothy Brendle Boner of Knob Noster, Missouri, writes that there are 5 sons, but this was guesswork, and NOT proven. John Brendle Sr. had five sons and five daughters in the 1790 census. I tend to support this group, and will pursue the German language records in the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, NC, to see what they say about this family. [G.W.Cook 5/28/92]

Apparently the family left the Moravian Church. There are no further records.] There is a memoir in the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, NC for an Anna Maria Brendel, born August 20, 1739 at Muddy Creek, Pennsylvania, who died May 11, 1815 in Salem, NC. She was the wife of Dr. Jacob Bonn (md. 1766), and she had 3 children. She could be the sister of Johannes Brendel b. 1746. [See her record.]

He married Unknown Brendel, before 1768, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Born in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Children:

- + 17 i. John³ Brindle Jr.
 + 18 ii. George Samuel Brindle.
 + 19 iii. Daniel Brindle.

THIRD GENERATION

17. John³ Brindle Jr. (Johannes Johann (John)², Hans Georg¹)²⁴. Born, 8 Jun 1768, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Died, 11 Feb 1824, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina²⁵. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC. Occupation: Farmer.

He married²⁵ Mary Ann Stoehr (Star Starr)²⁵, 16 Apr 1789, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina²⁶. Born, 25 May 1771, in Heidelberg, Berks County, Pennsylvania²⁷. Died, 10 Feb 1826, in Rowan, now Davie Co., N.C.²⁸. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC¹⁶. Occupation: Domestic.

Mary's father's will was made December 19, 1808, and probated February 1814 in Rowan (now Davie) County, Will Book G, page 311. He named wife Catherine, sons John, Casper, and Adam; daughters Peggy (widow of Abram Little), Sarah (widow of Thomas Magotty), Mary (wife of John Brindle), Rachel (wife of Frederick Long), grandchildren by Abraham Douthet who is still living and had married daughter Catherine, sons-in-law Charles Posten, Abraham Douthet, and Lewis Little. Son Casper and beloved friend John Hoehns (son of Philip Hoehns) [Hanes] were named executors, and the witness was Michael Hanes [sic]. Children:

- 20 i. Rachel Alice⁴ Brindle²⁵. Born, 15 Dec 1789, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina¹⁶. Died, 16 Jun 1815, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Burial in Mt. Pleasant, Tanglewood, Forsyth Co., NC.

Samuel and Sr. Mary Brendel and their five children have moved from Deep Creek into the neighborhood of Salem. Here after they will belong to this congregation. [December 11, 1812]

He married²⁴, first, Maria (Mary) Lang²⁴, 1 Sep 1795, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina¹⁶. Mar License, 25 Aug 1795, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. Born, 12 Jun 1773, in Deep Creek, Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.¹⁶. Died, 10 Feb 1819, in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina³². Burial in Moravian Gvyd., Winston-Salem, Forsyth Co., N.C. Occupation: Domestic.

From her Moravian Memoir: After she became an adult, she lived near Salem with her sister, who was married to Brother Joseph Spach, and joined this congregation as an out-of-town member. (Home Moravian Church in Salem, N.C.) She was received into this congregation on December 26, 1793....When they (she and husband) subsequently joined the congregation at Hope she received Holy Comunion on October 8, 1803. They then lived for a time near Friedberg, and again with her parents in Surry County, until she and her family moved to near Salem and maintained contact with the congregation here as out-of-town members, and 2 years ago they moved to a nearby plantation which was located within the town limits. (Salem was a Moravian owned and controlled town at that time.) marriage was blessed with 9 children, 3 of whom preceded her to eternity. Children:

- (Moravian Church records) April 12, 1812 by request Br. Reichel went to our friends on Deep Creek and preached today to a number of attentive gathering. Jacob the 9 month old son of Br. Geo. and Mary Brendel who belonged to Hope had fallen asleep on the 6th of this month and has been buried quietly in a neighboring graveyard as had that of another child. The parents wished that some notice might be taken of this and pointed out that near the graveyard there was a place in the woods where there was enough benches to accomodate the crowd. After Br. Reichel had finished speaking a Methodist preacher followed with an evangelical address.

- 38 xiii. Albert Alexander Brindle¹⁶. Born in Salem, Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina. He married³³ Paulina Bukle, 29 Mar 1848, in Stokes, now Forsyth Co., North Carolina.

19. Daniel³ Brindle (Johannes Johann (John)², Hans Georg¹)³⁶. Born, 8 Jun 1787, in Salem, Rowan County, now Forsyth Co., N.C.²⁴. Died, 24 Sep 1844, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.³⁷. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Prob of Est: Nov 1844, in Surry County, North Carolina³⁸. Occupation: Planter/Farmer.

According to the Daniel Brindle Family write-up in the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE book, by Marvin C. Brindle of Conrad, Iowa, his ancestry is undoubtedly to be traced back to the George Brendel who came to America from Germany with two brothers, John Phillip and John Hendrick or Heinrich in 1738. [The spelling "BRANDLE" was used for the family in the 1850 Surry County Census.]

From the YADKIN COUNTY HERITAGE: "The 1768 tax lists of Heidleberg Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, named a John Brendel, but he is absent from a similar tax roll in 1779. Records indicate that a John Brendel came from Berks County, Heidelberg Township, Pennsylvania in 1773 to the area around Salem, [Winston-Salem] North Carolina]. The 1778 Rowan County, North Carolina, tax roll lists a John Brendel/Brindle owning property.

"The 1790 Rowan County, North Carolina census lists a John Brindle and wife living with five sons and five daughters; and a John Brindle, Jr., with his wife and a son. Daniel Brindle is very likely to be a son of John Brindle with five sons and five daughters."

The Salisbury District of Rowan County in the 1790 census appears to take in a larger area than what Rowan County consisted of that year. On the page of the printed census for this district, I recognize people I know lived in Salem, Stokes (now Forsyth) County, Examples:

Christian Fry, Jacob Douthit, Henry Boyer, Christopher Elrod, and Jacob Motzinger, all of whom were from or near Salem in what became Stokes County (Forsyth in 1849) in 1789. It would appear that this John Brendle was living in or near Salem in 1790, and moved to the Deep Creek (Surry/Yadkin) area later. On May 15, 1992 I checked the Moravian Archives in Winston-Salem, and found that there exists Moravian a memoir for a Mary Brendle wife of George Samuel Brendle, who died in 1819, and is buried in the Moravian Graveyard. She and George, and a daughter of theirs were all from Deep Creek in what is now Yadkin County, North Carolina. Stokes was so new in 1789, that the Federal Government probably let Rowan conduct the census of 1790 for Stokes.

John Brindle and John Brindle Jr. are the only Brindle/Brendel/Brendle family members in all of North Carolina in the 1790 census. The presumption that Daniel Brindle is their son is easy to make. John Sr. had one slave.

Note: Surry County was formed before 1790; also the YADKIN HERITAGE article has Daniel married in 1800; the Hoots Cemetery book has him born in 1787, which would make him 13 when he married. One of the dates is wrong. I changed the marriage date to 1810 pending verification of what is wrong here. Also the tombstone of Susanna shows born in 1791, which means she would have been nine years old when she was married if 1800 is the correct date. His tombstone could read 1784 for the birth date. 4's and 7's are frequently mixed up.

His will called for John and Henry Brendle [sic] to be executors, or if they were dead, William Brendle and William Calloway. Witnesses for the will were James Sheek and John Holcombe.

He married³⁹, first, Susanna Weatherman³⁶, 12 Feb 1806 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C. Born, 18 Jul 1791, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁴⁰. Died, 30 May 1836, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.³⁷. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic. Children:

- 39 i. William⁴ Brindle⁴¹. Born, circa 1806 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁴². Died, before 1880, in Yadkin Co., N.C.⁴³. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Census: 1850, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁴⁴. Occupation: Farmer. He married³⁶ Nancy Callaway⁴⁵, daughter of Samuel Callaway and Mary Unknown Calloway, circa 1835 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁴⁶.

Vermont Jarvis wrote that William Brendle/Brindle was buried in Yadkin County, out from Yadkinville in Brendle's Cemetery. This probably explains why no one has found where

This family was counted in the Hotel District (township later) of Surry County, North Carolina. Elder Wesley Brindle was not counted, but he is known to be a son.

Researcher Vermont Jarvis lists him as a Doctor.

- 45 vii. Elizabeth Brindle³⁶. Born, circa 1828 (?), in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁵⁴. Died, 11 Feb 1845, in Surry, now Yadkin Co., N.C.⁵⁵. Burial in Mitchell's Chap., UMC, Boonville, Yadkin Co., NC. Occupation: Domestic.
