Dear Beatrice:

Hope this will find you all a. k. a. m. alright working most of the time. What's little Rayvon doing along now. I surely would like to see him. I bet he's almost grown. Isn't he? I see Fannie Sue almost every time I go up town.

Has David been having very much work. Hope you all are liking out there fine.

Listen Beatrice that Blanket man has ~~to~~ been down here just raising all kinds of sand. wanting to know your address but I didn't tell him what it was. Beat- you can send the rest you owe to the company or to me and I'll give it to him. He talked like he was awfully mad. I'm going to pay the rest I owe as soon as I can. It's about all I can do to keep up my board and what few clothes I get. You know how much I have still owe. He talked as if he was going to write you as soon as he found out your address. He talked awfully hateful when I get this all straightened out I never intend to buy any thing else on time. If I had mine back down here I'd just let him haul them back.

I've got to sign off here and get a bath. Write me all the news.

Love,

M. Sue

Dear Ray now:

I received your letter, and was glad to hear from you, and to know that you are getting along
in school so well.
I am all right
and feeling fine
and working every day. I am sending you a picture its not so good

I had it taken
 the first time,
 I put on my suit
 after I got out of the army. The first time I get a chance
 I will get you
 some Post cards of Baltimore, and send you, I had a letter from Mother she had felled down
 and hurt her leg
 she sure has had a time with her leg, you ought to go and see her

some time,

you had better watch out Whistle bait, they might get you.
Write and let me know how you are.

things that make you
sigh with contentment,
