CHIEF (HEAD) LIBRARIAN
DOBSON AND SURRY COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
DOBSON, NORTH CAROLINA

WE ARE WRITING ABOUT FERRY BRADLEY, WHO WITH ANOTHER MAN, JERRY BRADLEY, BOUGHT LAND IN SURRY COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA, IN 1770-71. THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION APPRISED JS, THROUGH A MEMBER IN SUMTER SC (HOWELL) THAT FERRY WAS BURIED AS A PATRIOT OF THE REVOLUTION, IN 1784, IN SURRY COUNTY NC. ACCORDING TO THEIR FILES, HE HAD BEEN BORN IN 1736, STATE OR COUNTRY UNKNOWN, AND HAD DIED IN 1784, IN FEBRUARY. IT WAS RECORDED THAT HE HAD MARRIED PRIOR TO HIS DEATH, ALBEIT NO NAME OF SPOUSE WAS AVAILABLE TO THE DAR, AT THE TIME OF THE RECORDATION. THE STATE OF NC HAS GIVEN JS THE OLDEST BOOK ENTRY OF NORTH CAROLINA TAXPAYERS, WHICH SHOWS FERRY BRADLEY OF SURRY COUNTY NC, IN 1772-AS A TAXPAYER; HIS BROTHER OR? JERRY, IS LISTED WITH HIM IN SURRY CO NC (1771), AS A TAXPAYER.

THE STATE LIBRARIAN ALSO SUPPLIED THE NAMES OF EDWARD BRADLEY 1784-1787, JOSEPH BRADLEY 1784-1787, AND JOHN BRADLEY 1784-1787; THESE STATE CENSUS ENTRIES (MRS ALVARETTA KENEN REGISTER) SIMPLY CITED THESE AS CITIZENS LIVING IN SURRY COUNTY NC, AT THE TIME OF THE STATE CENSUS.

WE WERE ALSO GIVEN AN OBIT FROM ONE OF THEIR DESCENDENT GRAND SONS, JAMES A BRADLEY, BORN 1829, MAYSVILLE, ALABAMA, WHICH CONTAINED THE FACT THAT HE HAD BEEN BAPTIZED BY (RICHARD) TALIAFERRO, THE SON OF CHARLES TALIAFERRO, THE THIRD SON OF JOHN TALIAFERRO, WHO HAD COME TO SURRY COUNTY IN 1771, FROM MAX MEADOWS VIRGINIA (THROUGH HILLSVILLE). THIS FAMILY WAS OF COURSE ONE OF YOUR MOST HISTORIC FAMILIES. SO THE TWO FAMILIES EVIDENTLY WERE RELATED. AND FUTURE MARRIAGES DID OCCUR IN ALABAMA BETWEEN TALIAFERROS AND BRADLEYS. (MARENGO COUNTY).

SINCE FERRY WAS WRITTEN-UP IN THE CENTENNIAL EDITION PUBLISHED BY THE DAR, I WOULD ASSUME HE HAS A MAGNIFICENT MEMORIAL IN DOBSON. MANY OF US WOULD JUST LIKE TO COME TO THE COUNTY SOME DAY TO SEE FISHER'S RIVER, WHICH SKIFF TALIAFERRO WROTE ABOUT; AND THE FAMOUS MT AIRY. ANY WORD THAT YOUR GENEALOGISTS MAY HAVE, THAT THEY WOULDN'T MIND SHARING WITH US, WOULD BE A BLESSING TO THE MANY HUNDREDS OF BRADLEYS IN CENTRAL ILLINOIS, WHO DESCEND FROM NC STOCK, INCLUDING MILITARY SONS & DAUGHTERS.

THANK YOU ALL.

I REMAIN YOURS VERY SINCERELY,

Your letter dated August 27, 2000 to the Librarian in Dobson, NC was forwarded to our association to answer. We are very sorry that it has taken so long for you to hear from anyone.

You wanted information regarding Terry and Jerry Bradley in Surry Co. We found these men in Surry as early as 1771 as you indicated. However, we are not sure the Jerry Bradley in the 1771 taxables list is really Jerry or should have been Terry Bradley as you can see on the enclosed listing. Old handwriting is sometimes hard to decipher. Jerry only appeared that one time that we could find. Do you have other documentation that list Jerry as his brother or otherwise?

A copy of the abstract of the Will of Terry Bradley is enclosed for your information. There are loose estate papers at the NC Archives for Bradley dated 1785. You might wish to order a copy of the will and the estate papers. Write the Department of Cultural Resources, Archives and Records Section, 109 E. Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601-2807. They will advise you of the charge.

We do not have information of Terry's service in the Revolutionary War. In the book Roster of Soldiers From North Carolina In The American Revolution there are many Bradley surnames listed. Was he shown in the South Carolina listing? We would love to have copies of this information for our files. We are sorry that we do not have family information in our files on the Bradley family. At this time we do not know of any researchers working on this family. We hope you will share your information with us on this early family. We would love to know where he came from before arriving in Surry Co.

We wish he did have a great memorial in Dobson. If he does we're not aware of it. Perhaps you should write the Surry Co. DAR Chapter in Elkin,

NC to see if they have information. The name is the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the NSDAR and their advisor is Alice Brumfield, 321 Virginia Drive, Yadkinville, NC 27055. We hope they have information for you.

We would love for you to come to Surry County to see the Fisher River that Taliaferro wrote about. That is a wonderful little book. It was recently reprinted and sold very well.

We are sending you information on our association. We publish four journals a year and they are well worth our yearly membership of $15. The journals are normally 40 pages in length. We will be happy to publish queries for you and place surname cards in our file. And we hope you will visit our web site at <http://juliemorrison.com/surry/> and let us hear from you again. We hope we have helped a little more with your research.

If you are interested in copies of property deeds for Terry Bradley, we can look at the Surry County courthouse. Copies are 25 cents each. You can write them at the Surry County Register of Deeds, P. O. Box 303, Dobson, NC 27017.

Good luck with your research and we hope to hear from you again.

It was extremely nice of you folks to send me some valuable information on a case still in motion in Lauderdale county Alabama.

When I get all the pieces together I'll notify you. If you need something, please write again to remind me.

This case has been a killer! 8 yrs of vigorous research. Still-in order to weld together the Surry Co NC Bradley line- we need something you might have on Edward Bradley. That info will be critical to us-all the way. I realize that Terry was active in KY. And I may find that i shall have to study KY genealogy in order to find Edward Bradley 1775-1780, whose father was one of your Terry's boys-most likely.

Where do I think they came from? It depends on the Robinson family and the Everton family (Everton was NC) Robinson was Ireland-Va-NC-SC-Madison Co Alabama. If as we think, the only Irish connection was thru John and Charles Robinson-and maybe, the Alexander Everton's (JNO EVERTON) of NC, then we have Terry's line I believe-Edward 1680 Bradley descended from Isaac Bradley (or his brother M) who both were from London. Isaac lived his life out just east of New Haven Conn. Isaac was born ca 1650, Great Britain.

We do have the affidavit that my great uncle James was baptized by your Richard Faliaferro (see Chas Faliaferro the father from Surry Co NC) in 1844 in Maysville, Al.

Thanks again for your faithful work on my behalf. I appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Dr RSN Bradley

Here, we believe that we have a very plausible argument showing that Edward 1680 Bradley of Hanover and Caroline Co., VA is the father of John 1707 Bradley of Old Tryon Co., NC. John 1707 has been well studied and his many sons provide a huge host of progeny.

In studying the Bradleys of VA, NC, KY, and MO, we continuously encounter John 1707 Bradley's line, and having recorded much data from this line present a selection of Family Sheets of the progeny extending into MO.

At the time that we were actively studying this line, we were corresponding with a man who had excellent data on John 1707 Bradley, but did not know who John 1707's father was. We wrote a commentary upon this family and sent it to our correspondent and never heard from him again.

We apparently lost a correspondent, but the data survived and is presented here. We lost a correspondent, but gained a much better one, Joyce Bradley McComb.

Note that these comments are in the form of a personal letter:

You mention that you have several prospects for the father of your John 1707 Bradley. This gives me license to have a try at it; I have hit upon a series of observations that convince me that John 1707 was the son of Edward 1680 Bradley of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover (later Caroline) Co., VA.

THE BRADLEY-TERRY CONNECTION

Here is the story extracted from our Bradley database, and arranged essentially chronologically:

- 1) First, the birth data which we have known for many years; unfortunately, these are the only children listed for Edward 1680 Bradley.
- 2) Next, we find Edward in St. Paul's parish on processioner's lists with Thomas Bradley and more significantly, James Terry. Note that Thomas had died by 1716, and that Edward removed in 1719.
- 3) Then, we find Edward's estate being executed in Caroline Co., VA in 1733/4 by--James Terry!
- 4) And, in the 1740's we find John 1707 purchasing property in Orange Co., VA with Terrys as his neighbors. Here, we confirm that this is in fact, John, son of Edward Bradley, decd, of Hanover and Caroline counties.
- 5) John sells out in 1746; his wife is Diana. Next, we have a Terry Bradley of Albemarle Parish in 1752; this could be a son of either Edward or Thomas Bradley of St. Paul's Parish, VA.
- 6) Then, in 1772-1776 we have Terry Bradley in Surry Co., NC; probably the one found earlier in Albemarle Parish, VA.
- 7) And the list of Bradleys in the Revolution supports my story, the pension records for the war of 1812 may provide more information on (James) Terry Bradley.
- 8) Then, we note that John 1707 names Thomas, James Terry, Edward, and Isaac son in his will. This certainly supports the story--but proves nothing.

Thus ends our argument. We feel that this displays an extremely close relationship between the families of Edward 1680 Bradley and James Terry, beginning in 1711 and continuing through 1824, and very plausibly ties John 1707 to Edward 1680 Bradley of Hanover and Caroline Co., VA.

NOTES

John 1707 Bradley is almost certainly the John Bradley who, in 1739, purchased 600A of land from Richard Mauldin on the Robinson River in Orange Co., VA.

We do not find the rest of Edward 1680's family, however, we find his will probated in Caroline Co., we do not find Isaac there, however, we do find John Lawrence, and William there in the 1730's. John is almost certainly John 1676 Bradley of Middlesex Co., VA, Lawrence is almost certainly Lawrence 1690 Bradley later found in Orange, Culpeper, and Madison counties, VA; William is almost certainly William 1712, son of John 1676, later of Spotsylvania and Culpeper counties, VA.

This is probably the Edward Bradley who we find in Northumberland Co., VA in 1707/8, and in St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co., VA in 1711.

A careful study of Edward 1680, and John 1707 reveals that Edward was associated with James Terry in St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co., VA, removed to Caroline Co., VA, died there 1733/4, estate settled by James Terry. In 1739, John 1707 purchased property in Orange Co., VA, identified as John, son of Edward Bradley decd. of Hanover Co., VA; his property abutted James and Stephen Terry's properties. John 1707 sold out in Orange Co., VA, 1746, his wife was Diana. John Bradley of Old Tryon Co., VA wrote his will in 1778, naming sons John, Richard, George Walton, Edward, Isaac and James Terry. John 1707's second wife was Mary Ledbetter, daughter of Richard Ledbetter and granddaughter of George Walton, thus accounting for the names of two of the sons.

Edward 1726 Bradley is found many times in the records of Fayette and Bourbon counties, KY. He was an associate of Daniel Boone. He was probably the father of Terry 1750 Bradley.

We believe that John Bradley of Old Tryon Co., NC is John 1707 Bradley of Hanover Co., VA, son of Edward 1680 Bradley of Hanover Co., VA.

JOYCE BRADLEY MC COMB

We have already introduced our excellent correspondent Joyce Bradley McComb of Lexington, SC. Most of the data from here forward is either supplied by Joyce, or is confirmed or supported by her data. Two very interesting historical articles, supplied by Joyce are presented here:

An abstract of the first article carries the valuable genealogical information:

In the year (1) Richard Bradley (2) Richard Ledbetter (3) William Harris (4) George Ledbetter (5) Jones Williams (6) Wm. Elliott (7) (8) (9) Walton, John & Isaac Bradley, three brothers. (10) James Humphreys and (11) Widow Jones with their families and several slaves, came from Virginia and settled here in the cove when not a stick of timber was amiss

This article, found in the papers of Elbridge Crayton Harris, and likely written by him, was published in the 30jul1903 issue of The Rutherford County Sun. It is apparently a continuation of historical articles written for The Sun.

SOME MORE HISTORY

THE COVE A NOTED PLACE--ALL THE NEWS ABOUT OTTER CREEK

(Special to The Sun.)

(Abstracted--ed)

OTTER CREEK, N.C., 27jul1903.

The Cove's first settlers- (1) Richard Bradley settled on the west side of the present Cove road, about one-fourth mile above the McDowell-Rutherford county line, and here erected the first brick house built in Rutherford county. He and his wife, Winnie Williams, who was a daughter of (5) Jones Williams, died in this house, and sleep in the family graveyard on the big hill just west of there. This house was torn down on account of the cellar, by Joshua Hall, and with the brick he built the house in which he now lives, just across said road from the former site.

(11) Widow Anna Jones was Mr. Bradley's sister, and (7) Walton, (8) John and (9) Isaac were his half-brothers.

To them were born eight sons, to-wit: Coleman, John, Terry, Simmons, Thornton, Ledbetter, Richard Jr., and Jones, and three daughters, one of whom married Isaac Ledbetter, and one (Nanna) first married a Moore, and afterwards Henry Elliott; and H.E.'s second wife was Polly Souther, a sister of the late Noah Souther of Old Fort. Phil was a son of (10) James Humphreys.

Of the eight sons, we will notice only three: first COLEMAN owned and lived on what is known as the old John Hemphill farm, on Cove creek. His daughter Polly was the second wife of Harbart Harris. Second, JOHN lived near Sugar Hill. He had several sons. One named Roe was murdered in South Carolina while off with a market wagon. He had only one daughter, who married James Crawford, whom he much opposed as a son-in-law. Mr. B. had been sending his daughter off to school, and bought her several silk dresses, and when she ran away and married Mr. C., Mr. B. just picked up her trunk, dresses and all and burned them, and threatened to shoot Mr. C. on first sight. But time generally changes matters, so by-and-by he sent for the young couple and gave them a farm; and as is often the case, the plowboy, perhaps made a much better son-in-law than would the fashionable son of some aristocrat, for the sons and daughters of this couple have all done fairly well. And we have ample evidence of this fact in their three sons - The Hons. J.C. Crawford, of Sugar Hill; G.W. of Marion and Lee P. of Old Fort - all having been very successful both in business and politics.

The third and last of the three, JONES, the youngest child had also eight sons and several daughters. The youngest of these sons is named Jones and is now 80 years old and lives in Washington, Ark.

From the list of entrants, we note the name William Harris. Refer to the data we recorded from St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co., VA and you find that William Harris was an associate of Edward 1680 Bradley. This may be a son of the William Harris of the early 1700's, but this name, plus the revelation that the entire clan removed from VA to NC certainly supports our belief that these are progeny of Edward 1680 Bradley.

Fortunately, we now have excellent data from Joyce Bradley McComb of Lexington, SC. Reviewing her data shows that she researched patiently and painstakingly in an area where good documentation is hard to find. Also, she cites her sources, a discipline that all too few follow.

Joyce's data adds tremendously to that accumulated from other sources. We find only one questionable entry in her Family Sheets; this shows John 1759 marrying Nancy Hampton in 1790. We believe that the John Bradley who married Nancy Hampton is probably John 1771, son of Edward 1752 Bradley, however, we have much conflicting data on Edward, so additional research is required here.

As for Edward 1752, we have conflicting data for Isaac 1772 Bradley. It is clear that he married Sarah Cooksey, (Coxey, born 1775-84), 10jun1814, Rutherford Co., NC, but Joyce shows possible marriages to Annie Allison and Mary Moore; we need to resolve this.

Joyce McComb reports that Edward 1752 removed to MS, and progeny lived in TX.

Mary's husband, Danza Metcalf, born 1759, VA, was a Revolutionary War veteran. Her Pension Application is W4280, NC.

James Terry Bradley usually used the Terry given name.

John and his first five sons all served in the Revolutionary War. John 1707 was listed on the Regimental Roll of Warren Co., NC in 1738 and 1755; registered for the Revolutionary War from Tryon Co., NC 1776 to 1778. James Bradley lived in Rutherford Co., NC for at least five years before John's family moved there. He was at least 20 years older than James Terry.

John 1707 lived on Howell's Branch, in the Forks of Haw Tree Creek, Bute Co., later Warren Co., NC. He moved in 1770 to Old Tryon Co., later Rutherford Co., NC, died there. John 1707's will was filed in Lincolnton, NC.

John 1707's second wife was Mary Ledbetter, of Brunswick Co., VA, she remarried to John Goodbread, a neighbor, in Rutherford Co., NC, on 23apr1779. Mary Goodbread's will left in Rutherford Co., NC in 1826. Mary's parents were Richard Ledbetter, and her mother Mary Walton daughter of George and Elizabeth Rowe Walton.

In addition to the John 1707 Bradley line, we find believe that Leonard 1756 Bradley's father was Terry 1725 Bradley, son of Edward 1680 Bradley. And, since we follow Leonard's progeny through KY into MO, we present some of that line.

Some of the data on Terry 1725's children comes from a Guardian's list in the probate records of Rowan Co., NC. This record probably indicates that Terry's wife died at that time and he released his children to guardians, a common practice at that time. From the account provided by Leonard 1765 Bradley, we learn that Leonard's father did not die until they had removed to KY.

NOTES

We have a great amount of loosely related documentation on this family. First, we will start with the Edward-John Bradley--James Terry story which is spelled out under the Edward 1680 Bradley Family Sheet. There is clearly a strong relationship between the Edward 1680 line and the Terry family. It is entirely likely that Edward 1680's wife was a Terry.

As noted, we find Edward first in the records of St Paul's Parish, from where he evidently removed in about 1719. Next, we find him in Caroline Co., VA where, in 1734, his estate was administered by James Terry. On the 1786 Tax List of Wilkes Co., NC, we find a Leonard Keeling. This unusual name was chosen for Terry 1725's second child.

We find Terry Bradley in property transactions, along with Leonard Keeling Bradley, in Surry Co., NC in 1789-1793. Also, the Valentine Papers report a deed in Amelia Co., VA to Terry Bradley of Albemarle, 24apr1752. Also, we find Terry Bradley on the Surry-Wilkes NC tax list for 1772, and Terry and son on the 1774 tax list.

Here we append, out of chronological order, three generations of Bradleys who entered Floyd Co., IN in 1826. From the family names, we felt certain that they belonged to the Richard 1700 Bradley line, but Richard 1784 of that line has been well researched by Lloyd Bockstruck, and they are clearly different persons.

We will introduce the line by presenting an abstract of the will of Lawrence 1818 Bradley, written in 1905:

New Albany Ledger--Floyd Co., IN

Abstracted from Obituary, published 10jull1905: Lawrence Bradley was born in Edgecombe Co., NC on 25nov1818, died at the residence of his son L.L. Bradley of 807 E. Main, Sunday, 9jull1905.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradley of Edgecombe Co., NC. He came to this county with his parents at eight years (1826).

He was married twice, second was the sister of Hon. Isaac Layden, Miss Martha Layden, and Mrs. W.C. Depauw.

Surviving children Mrs. Matson Hill of Chicago and Los Angeles; Mrs. Rev. Jacob K. Walts; L.L. Bradley, and granddaughter Miss Harriet Bradley. His brothers were Augustus and Washington W. Bradley.

The Bradleys intermarried with the Laydens, a German-Swiss family, then entered the milling business with the Laydens and were quite successful financially.

In the 1850 census, Augustus is listed as the County Auditor, with a net worth of $1800, and in the 1860 census, he is listed as a Commission Merchant, with net worth of $11000.

In the 1850 census, Lawrence is listed as a Merchant with net worth of $3000, and in the 1860 census he is listed as a Merchant with net worth of $60000.

Family data is found primarily in census, marriage, and birth records. With these, we attempt to construct correct families, but we know that the families are not complete, and we are uncertain of some of the assignments in all the families.

By 1985, we find no Bradleys of this line living in the New Albany area, so we suspect that all survivors followed the "Westward Ho" compulsion of this era.

We believe that Richard R. 1849, son of Augustus 1821, was probably an alcoholic and led a very troubled life.

In the 1850 census, living with Augustus 1822 was Mary Petty 10, and living with Lawrence 1818 was Josephine Petty 9. We believe that these were orphans of a sister, Mary Bradley who had evidently married a Petty and had died about 1842.
