DATA GATHERED:

1. This is a separate William Hill from the William Hill Sr. who died by February 1787 or his son the Rev. William Hill who died by February 1785. The above deed March 10, 1788, proves this. This cannot be Sec. of State William Hill and the son of the Rev. William Hill either since he was not old enough to own land at this time.

2. Additional deeds which add information about this Hill family are:

   A. Rockingham County Deed Book A:221
      December 1786

      Joseph Pain Johnson to John Hill Sr.
      "137 acres on Buffalo Island Creek of Dan River...on William Hill's line...on said Hill's own line...."
      This proves that this John is the same John who bought the property on N.C. Grant 313 and proves that this John is still alive as of this date.
      This deed also proves a James and a John Hill Jr. are alive as they witness this deed.

   B. Rockingham County N.C. Deed Book H:109 1791
      Gustavus Hill to David Alexander
      200 acres on Buffalo Island Creek
      This represents the sale of the grant he received from North Carolina and proves he is alive by this date.

   C. Later Rockingham County Deeds in a time period of 1808-1815 prove heirship of John Hill Jr., Micajah Hill, Dutton Hill, etc., all as heirs of the John Hill Sr. who bought the N.C. land grant property of William Hill (No. 313) in 1783 as well as the Polly Shropshire connection.

   D. The last piece of property on record to be sold from the Hill family land on Buffalo Island Creek was in 1815 when Dutton Hill sold 75 acres to Polly Shropshire.

   E. None of these heirs appears in any land transaction in Rockingham County deeds past 1815.

James and Catherine Bryson sell to William Hill (380 acres)
January 20, 1789

"James and Catherine Bryson of Surry County of the one part and William Hill of said County of the other part...land in said county of Surry and Province aforesaid situated on Fisher's River beginning at a pine on the south side of the Main River and 9 degrees north, 70 degrees west, 80 chains to a Spanish oak; thence north 37 chains to a black oak; thence east 76 chains to a pine; thence south 63 chains to the beginning...."

Witnessed by: John Bryson Jr., Thomas Hill

 NOTE: This is the first land entry on the Fisher River in Surry County for any Hill.

SURRY COUNTY DEED BOOK F:348

Thomas Hill sells to Benjamine Cadle (100 acres)
October 2, 1792

"Thomas Hill of the State of Georgia and Wilkes County on the one part and Benjamine Cadle of the other part...parcel of land lying and being situate in the County of Surry on Bull Runn the waters of the Tarrarat River...."

Witnessed by: Joel Mackey, James Hill, Jean Mackey

 NOTE: Although this is not Fisher's River Property, it is relevant to the following sales because of the date and witnesses as well as to show that this is the same Thomas of the Fisher River family.

SURRY COUNTY DEED BOOK F:273-275

All three deeds are dated November 10, 1792.

A. Thomas Hill of the County of Wilkes and State of Georgia to Jacob Hill 140 acres.

"Being situate (sic) on Fisher's River on both sides of the Little River joining John Hill above and James Hill below agreeable to the conditional lines made between them and their father William Hill in his life time and including the place where he deceased."

B. Thomas Hill of the County of Wilkes and State of Georgia to James Hill 140 acres.

"Land lying in Surry on both sides of Fisher's River at the fork in the lower end of the survey made by William Ramsey for 380 acres bounded by a conditional line made between the said James Hill and his father William Hill...."

C. Thomas Hill of the County of Wilkes and State of Georgia to John Hill 100 acres.

"In the County of Surry on both sides of Little Fisher's River bounded by the conditional line made between the said John Hill and his father William Hill deceased and the former lines of survey deeded by William Ramsey for 380 acres...."

* NOTE: These three deeds from Thomas to Jacob, James, and John represent all 380 acres which William Hill bought from James and Catherine Bryson in 1789. All three deeds were witnessed by: J. Mackey, John Watson, and Matthew M. Sims.

SURRY COUNTY DEED BOOK K:217

John Hill sells to Colby Creed (100 acres)
December 1, 1795

"John Hill of County of Surry and State of North Carolina of the one part and Colby Creed of the other part...land lying situate in said county of Surry on Little Fish River being part of the survey made by William Ramsey which said Creed is now in possession of from a purchase of (Jacob or Joab; the handwriting is illegible) Hill...."

Witnessed by: G. Tucker, David Clark, George Burns

NOTE: The question to the above name has been solved! Jo Williams, the clerk who wrote this deed as well as the deed from Thomas to Jacob Hill 1792, has a very distinctive handwriting. I compared his writing of both deeds and was easily able to determine that the above deed stating "...from a purchase of..." is Jacob, not Joab. There is no recorded deed of sale from Jacob Hill to Colby Creed, nevertheless the above deed states that Jacob had sold his land to Creed.

SURRY COUNTY DEED BOOK G:190

Joab Hill sells to Colby Creed 140 acres
October 1, 1796

"Joab Hill of the one part and Colby Creed...land lying and being situate in the County of Surry on Little Fish River being part of a tract deeded for William Ramsey of 380 acres divided by and bounded by Fielding Herrin and John Hill deceased to said Colby Creed at the upper end agreeable to the conditional lines formerly made containing 140 acres...."

Witnessed by: Joel Mackey, Alexander Mackey, Martin Burrus

The above deeds provide the following information:

1. A William Hill purchased the first property on Fisher River January 20, 1789.

2. This date proves that he cannot be William Hill Sr. (dead by February 1787) or his son Rev. William Hill (dead by February 1785) or his son William (later Secretary of State) since he was too young to own property.

3. This William Hill was dead by November 10, 1792.

4. This William Hill is the father of a Jacob, James, and John.

5. This Thomas Hill, although he is never named as a son in any of the above deeds, most probably is since he is selling the same property that this William Hill bought in 1789. It would be probable that he was the eldest son of this William Hill and is his heir.

6. This Thomas Hill also owned additional property in Surry County as per the October 2, 1792 deed.

7. This Thomas Hill was residing in Wilkes County, Georgia, by October 2, 1792.

8. John, son of this William, is dead by October 31, 1796, but still living December 1, 1795.

9. The land that Joab is selling to Creed is almost certainly the same land that Thomas sold to Jacob in 1792 by the description of the property since only Jacob's property bounded John's property.

OBSERVATIONS:

If #9 above is accepted, what happened to the 140 acres which Thomas sold to James in 1792?

I cannot find a later deed in Surry County for such a sale!

Why does the 1795 deed from John to Creed state that Creed is now in possession of property "...from a purchase of Jacob..." and then in 1796 Joab is selling to Creed the property which was referred to as being sold one year earlier.

This Joab is unquestionably related to either Jacob or James and I suspect that he may be a son of Jacob.

There is, however, no factual evidence to the previous claims that this Joab Hill was the son of the Fisher River William Hill. Likewise, it is erroneous to have connected him in any way to the Rev. William Hill, the Baptist preacher who died in Guilford/Rockingham County by February 1785.

This Hill family was a Surry County family and much confusion has arisen due to the fact that the property of different Hill families in this area had been originally recorded in Surry County. However, as the counties broke off from one another, the land became a part of the newly formed counties, as is the case with the Hill property in Stokes, Guilford, and Rockingham Counties. Nevertheless, property cannot move. This Hill family was always a Surry County family with respect to their Fisher River land holdings.

Dear Agnes -

Enclosed is a 1990 Write Up by my "Mr. Texas" concerning the name: William Hill in Guilford/Surry/Rockingham, and Stokes Counties, NC, ca. 1759 - 1792. He is a "high flying" Texan who simply is not readily available for him to become a "clearing house" on all the various Hills's in North Carolina.

I suspect he got involved with this to learn to "talk the talk" language with his name clients all over the country.

In fact, he is in Europe for at least 6 months, and in the past he's been gone from his home several times a year.
For instance, from last May until late October, I doubt he slept in his own bed on back to back nights - so, you aren't readily available for study-discussions
under those conditions.

This copy has been shared with me as they "found" it in the Vertical file in NCSL in Raleigh. I thought you might deposit this in your Surry County records.

2) The bottom line of Mr. Bradley's research is: There were five different men named William HILL in the time frame, 1759 - 1792 in Guilford / Surry / Rockingham / and Stokes counties.

One, of course, is William HILL, the elder (or II) who left his 1787 Will in Surry Co. He is the father of:

Two - Rev. William HILL (note: not "Jr.") VA (1737 - 1784) Wife who's wife, Elizabeth (HALBERT) HILL received letters of administration from the Feb. 1785 Guilford County Court.

THREE: (This should be Incorporated some how on your Surry Co. Historical Map to "distinguish" him from the others) Capt. William Hill, of York Co., S.C. who owned 3 or 4 Iron Works in NC during the Rev. War. He is the Capt. Wm. Hill of the Battle of King's Mtn. His wife's name is Jane McCall. One of his Iron Works was about 4-5 miles west of Joel HALBERT (Jr.), and this has caused much jumping to Conclusions (wrong) concerning the 3 HILL / HALBERT marriages!

3] FOUR: Is the William Hill who owned land on Buffalo Island Creek (now in Rockingham County). Purportedly, his wife was a Mary Hill, and they were members of the Matrimony (Creek) Baptist Church along with the Gustavus Hill family, wife, Charity Hill. They "disappear" from the records before the 1790 Censuses.

FIVE: My William Hill who owned land on the Fisher and Little Fisher Rivers in Surry Co. He d. in the Fall of 1792, with Sons: Thomas, John, Jacob, and James?, and either a son or possibly a grandson, my. Joab Hill.

This fifth man's records had become superimposed upon the Baptist Minister's records and for over a hundred years a composite record for these 5 records has prevailed!
A "hidden" result of Mr. Bradley's work will be the quiet
"Closing out" of DAR records for William Hill, the elder (II) VA (1700 - 1787) NC. It was the Baptist Minister who was the Rev. War patriot. Not the father!
This direct impact upon your Surry County Historical volume and the Wm. Hill Write-Ups.

5] Because of the difficulty of determing his age and "fitting" him into the 1754–1792 time span, I have had the brain-storm—

What if he was the eldest and got some gal pregnant and had left Surry Co. in disgrace? This could explain why the records never say: Thomas-Hill was the eldest son -- instead he acts "as the eldest" and we have all assumed this to be true! This could explain his being "away from home" in the 1790 census.

Remember, my Joab was born
5 Oct. 1775 (Bible record (portion) in Nat. Archives. If it bes, this makes Jacob a very young married man and father.
This has troubled me for years and I know I am rationalizing.
We may never know.

I am attempting to get a title search on Joab's 500 acres he paid taxes in Grainger Co, TN in 1796. Who paid the taxes in 1795, and who paid
the taxes (probably in Knox Co, TN) for 1792, 93. 91 94???
Mr. Badley says Joab did not get this land as a Military

How does this sound
to you.
Agnes~ What can you tell me about any OLDHAM
in Surry Co., NC? I think there was a family who the man was a member of the Committee of Safety. What became of him? I'm deeply involved with Richard OLDHAM
(II) and his six sons in Caswell
Co. But, want to "place" the Surry County OLDHAM family. Will you need—"Working" fees, postage etc.?
As ever.

As a widow, Elizabeth (LANE) HILL rode horseback at age 67 all the way to Oregon. She witnessed each of her son's applications for Oregon Land Donation Claims (ODLC's) in a very neat, precise "E. Hill," which is quite distinctive and recognizable in the land records in the National Archives. From her pension application, based upon Joab HIL,'s service during the War of 1812, her sister Mary (LANE) HURST also witnessed as to the legality of Elizabeth's marriage, but the relationship is not spelled out. The handwriting of these girls leads me to marvel and ponder at their schoolin' in those days! This is one family who believed in schoolin' for the girls as they may become early widows or never marry while the boys could always "farm" their lands.

To carry this thought down another generation, Claiborne HILL donated the equivalent of 1/3 of his annual salary for the establishment of a female academy which was the forerunner of Linfield College today in McMinnville./ My Great Aunt, Melissa Emma HILL (1869 -1960) was a Pioneer School teacher beginning at the age of 14, went on to become a graduate of Holyoke College in Mass., and retired from Washington High School in Portland, Ore. in the 1930, came back during WWII to teach in a 1-room schoolhouse in the hills out of Salem, OR. and boarding a month with each family! She never married because she fell in love with a married man and wouldn't settle for second best.

A grand-daughter, one Academy attender, ORE.

In my mother's generation, she began teaching during WWI in a one-room school house in Eastern Oregon with gunny sacks painted black for blackboards and she had to "clunk" through 6" mud in high top boots to get to school in the winter. Her salary was less than $400 for the 9 months of teaching. She retired in the late 1960's as a social worker with the Multnomah County Juvenile Court "teaching parents to be parents." Kids weren't delinquent, their parents were the guilty ones!" She was seeing the 3rd generation of delinquent kids in trouble with the authorities because the parents didn't know how to break the chain!

Dear Mrs. Hiatt,

Enclosed two copies of a deed from Deed Book N, page 435 of Surry County in which my husband's 5th great-grandfather deeds to his son (who is also in the direct lineage) Richard Hill. I had worked on these "pesky" HILLS for years and found no wills, estates papers or anything else that would help me, until I found this deed. After this I found that my husband's lineage deeded their land & etc. to a son each time. So far, I have not found what they gave the other sons and children!
Thought you might like to have this for the JOURNAL.

Good job on the JOURNAL.

Sincerely,

Jane

Dear Genealogical Friends:

A Flyer has just been forwarded to me by Mrs. Stahle Linn, Jr. of Salisbury, N.C. calling my attention to your Association. Please send me further particulars as to your purpose, fees, etc.

Also, I am very interested in your new acquisition: THE HILL RECORD BOOK 1750-1981 by Pauline and John Jensen Hill. I enclose a check for $2.00 for a photocopy of the title page and, hopefully, all of the Index. Also, what would the fee be for a photocopy of that portion of the book through all of the 5th generation? Also, the fee for photocopying through all the sixth generation if the book os arranged in that manner. In particular, I am interested in William HILL, Sr.[4] (1710-1787) and Rev. William HILL, Jr.[5] (1737-1792) both of Surry Co., VA. and Surry Co., N.C.

My mother is: Lois Wendell (HILL)(GRAY) PRICE[10] (1899-1979) a great-great grand daughter of Joab HILL[6] (1775-1847) and Elizabeth (LANE) HILL (1784-1864) daughter of Lt. Isaac LANE of the Battle of Kings Mtn. This Joab HILL (there were 3 of them all marrying wives named: Elizabeth) was born in Surry Co., N.C., married 14 June 1802 in East Tenn. (prob. Claiborne Co.), resided in Claiborne Co., Tenn. until about 1837/39, and thence westward to Iowa and Clark Co., MO. where he died. She with several of her sons were Oregon Trail Pioneers in 1847. Her son, Claiborne HILL[7] (1803-1886), and grandson, Marshall HILL[8] (1836-1926), my Great Grandfather, were in 1852 three of my seven Oregon Trail Pioneer ancestors. Incidentally, my Joab HILL is supposedly: "the 5th son of Wm., son of Wm." However, I have never located any substantiating evidence of this statement which appears in Burnett's SKETCHES OF PIONEER BAPTIST PREACHERS IN TENNESSEE (1919).

Can you help me? Or perhaps you can place me in touch with Pauline and John Jensen HILL? For your convenience, I also enclose my abbreviated Work Sheets reflecting the miscellaneous HILL data that I've accumulated the past 25 years of my HILL researching (including the discrepancies which need to be "ironed out.") One discrepancy which is understandable but quite confusing is the inclusive dates for Rev. Wm. HILL, Jr. -- 1737-1792 or 1744-1808? Actually, the first set of dates is correct; the second set of dates belong to his brother-in-law, William Anson HALBERT, Sr. Some dear soul along the way became confused with her William's! It was a God-given insight that unscrambled this "bug."

Thank you for whatever information and/or data that you may be able to share. I enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience in replying.

Sincerely and genealogically yours,

Winifred Jacob

Dear Judy,

Enclosed is a transcription of a deed of gift from William Hill to his son Richard Hill, dated 1818 in Surry County, NC. I thought you might want to publish it in the Journal as an example of the gems found in deeds.

This is my husband's family and we have searched high and low for primary sources on this family, with little success, until I found this deed. The census records seem to support the deed of gift with the older William and his wife, (name not known) living with Richard and Sally (Bray) Hill and their family.

Also, do you remember Fred Hughes of Jamestown who made the set of pre-1800 maps of land owners of Surry and other nearby county? He gave me a set of papers concerning Tavern Rates in 1781 in Surry, a list of Grist Mills in Surry County dated 1779-1799, a list of Tavern Rates in Surry for 1796, and a list of Tavern Licenses issued in Surry County 1779-1799.

If you would like these for the Journal, please let me know and I will send copies to you.

I am one of the 400 people who searched the WEB site for Bray and Hill. I commend you on the site and for the way the families are listed. I have already heard from two people with whom I have made contact by e-mail, but they come up with an entirely different parentage for our Sarah/Sally. Will have to study that a bit.

Most sincerely,

Jane

Please note: the name Hannah Bray is obviously that of Hannan Bray. Elizabeth's last name is Mc-----.

We believe that Hannan Bray is the father of Sarah/Sally Bray who married Richard Hill, son of the above William Hill, in 1814. Hannon Bray and both William and his son Richard are in the same tax districts in Surry County. Hannon's will names his children but gives no surnames to any of them. So, we have the mystery I am trying to solve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jensen Hill
c/o Surry Co., N.C. Geneal. Assoc.
P.O. Box 997,
Dobson, N.C. 27017

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hill:

For a number of years I have been researching the genealogy of the GOOKIN(S) Family. One of the major sections of this concerns descendants of Thomas Warren of Surry Co. Virginia, builder of the historical Warren House still standing.

One line of his descendants is the MARRIOTTS. Some references indicate that it was his descendant Elizabeth Marriott, instead of Elizabeth Browne, who was the first wife of Sion Hill Jr. Each of these women is favored in turn in various printed references, as well as in private records of individuals researching the genealogy of the HILL Family.

Because of the Elizabeth Marriott connection to the GOOKIN Family, any further claim of HILL descendants would depend upon Elizabeth Marriott having been that first wife, and the mother of William Hill, born ca. 1710. I have, therefore considered very carefully all the information I could find about this first marriage of Sion Hill, Jr. I have made an evaluation of that information and written it up as a family group entry - enclosed as entry 8C3 at the bottom of enclosed page 4, continuing on p. 5. As far as I have been made aware by several HILL researchers, this has been the first time that anyone has made such an analysis; and it has seemed logical enough to them to have resulted in their abandonment of prior preference for Elizabeth Browne.

One of these researchers has kindly called my attention to your "THE HILL RECORD BOOK", as announced in the Journal of Surry Co. Genealogical Association, April 1982, as an addition to the Association's library.

I would very much appreciate being able to buy a copy of your book, if it is available. Extracts on the HILL/HALBERT lines in my notes total 78 pages alone. If you would like to see this material, I would be glad to loan you a copy for your interest.

If you feel that my evaluation of the Sion Hill Jr. marriage situation has sufficient merit to support descendancy of the HILL lines - through Elizabeth Marriott - as part of the GOOKIN Family of Co. Kent, I would very much like to include in my notes any information you would care to give me.

Sincerely,

Richard N. Gookins

9C6 WILLIAM HILL (SR.) (Elizabeth Marriott, 8C3) will prob.

b. ca. 1710, poss. Caroline Co., Va.; d. Feb 1787, Surry Co., N.C. Inclusion of numerous HILL descendants in this GOOKIN genealogy is predicated upon the marriage of Sion Hill Jr. and Elizabeth Marriott, as argued in entry 8C3 preceding. Questions have been raised, however, as to whether William Hill, subject of this entry, was indeed son of Sion Hill Jr., no matter who the wife may have been. Some of those doubts have undoubtedly arisen from the assertion of William's son Joshua Hill in a family account that his father had been born in Maryland and later moved to Virginia. Mr. Felix Earle Luck of Tabor, N.J. has pointed out that Joshua was over half a century younger than his father and further, wrote his recollections toward the end of a very long life. Thus, the interval between 1710 and the account written around 1850 suggests a possibly imperfect understanding of an event 140 years before. Confusion is further compounded by letters written by Martha A. Bruce (granddau. of William, dau. of Joshua) in her own extreme age, in which she first states, "grandfather William came from England and landed in Virginia and married there", then diminishing credibility by remarking at another place, "I think my grandfather's name was William". At the time of her writing in May 1899 only 11 years short of two centuries had elapsed since William's birth-date, a considerable potential for inaccuracy. Despite parentage queries by some researchers, most favor Sion Hill Jr. At the least no documentary evidence to the contrary has ever been found, to the knowledge of this compiler.

The marriages of William Hill have also been subject to divergent views. Worth S. Ray, on p. 609 of Tennessee Cousins, remarks without documentation, "there is a tradition that the wife of William Hill was an Elizabeth Williams but it was later concluded that he had married a Susanna Smithers, and the later version has been generally accepted as correct by the HILL FAMILY, but it seems plain to me that he probably had as his first wife the Elizabeth Williams, by whom he had at least one son, (or more), and after her decease, married the Smithers, who was probably the father (sic) of most of his children." A different view is noted by Carl M. Hill of Harriman, Tenn., who says (documentation unknown) that William's first wife was Susannah Smithers, and after her death he married Elizabeth Williams in 1750. Mrs. Helen Weona Hill Warwick (now deceased), DAR #434304, says William Sr. was the first and only child of Sion Hill Jr. and his first wife Elizabeth (Browne): [see entry 8C3 for refutation of E. Browne marriage]. Mrs. Warwick further claims William Hill Sr. first married Mary Catlin and had a son, William Catlin Hill, "in some places referred to as William Jr."; second wife was Susannah Smithers, mar. 1736 - prob. Caroline Co., Va. - the mother of the William Hill (1737-1792) who is most often referred to as William Hill Jr. (Info. 2/82, Jane Goldhamer, Dayton, Ohio). Even granting the possibility of the above alleged first marriage to Catlin, there appears to be no contradiction to supposition of a third marriage - to Elizabeth Williams.

The following accords with the most usually accepted version.

Prior to the Revol. War the family moved to Surry Co., N.C. William was a delegate from Surry Co. to the Provisional Congress which met at Hillsboro, N.C. on 20 Aug 1775 to set up the first self-governing Commonwealth, independent of British authority, among the 13 American Colonies. He was Episcopalian.

Mar. 1st, poss. Caroline Co., Va., ca. 1735/6, to Susannah Smithers (b. ca. 1716, Caroline Co., Va.; d. prior to 1750, prob. Caroline Co., Va.), poss. dau. of Thomas Smithers.

Mar. 2d, ca. 1750, to Elizabeth Williams. If this date is correct, it appears that children from iv. Robert on are of the second marriage. This presumption appears reinforced by the considerable gap between Elizabeth and Robert.

(9C6) i. William, b. 1710 m. Susanna Smithers
Ref: Boddie, Southside Va. Fam., 2:164; Trimble, D. B., American Origins, p. 125.
N.B. Natl. Geneal. Soc. Qtrly, v. 16, #2, Jun 1928, on p. 66 says that Sion Jr. also had a son, Green Hill, b. 1714 in Va., d. 1769 in Northampton Co., N.C., who m. in 1739 to Grace Bennett. Boddie's Southside Va. Fam., 2:165, assigns that child to the parentage of Sion's younger brother, Richard Hill (1684-1723) and wife Hannah Briggs. This is, however, after the date supposed for Elizabeth (Marriott) Hill's death, so is of no pertinent concern to the rest of this genealogy. Of extreme concern, however, are the assertions by several references, among them the 1947 genealogy of the Halbert Family by F. & K. Waddell, that the first wife of Sion Hill Jr. was an Elizabeth Browne, rather than Elizabeth Marriott. Elizabeth Browne has been variously supposed to be the daughter of Col. William Browne (____-1705) or of his son, Capt. William Browne (1671-1746).

The will of Col. Browne, proved in Surry Court 3 Jul 1705 (D&W, Bk 4, p. 305) does not contain any reference to a daughter Elizabeth. The will of Capt. Browne, pr. 19 Jan 1747 (B 9, p. 563) gives bequests to several grandchildren but no mention is given of any grandson Hill, nor of any daughter Elizabeth. (See Boddie, Southside Va. Fam., 1:111). This conflicts with Wm. & Mary Coll. Qtrly, vol. 16, no. 4, p. 229, where it is noted: "Will of Francis Clements, son of Capt. Francis Clements and his wife, Elizabeth Meriweather, sister of Jane Browne, wife of Capt. Wm. Browne, proves that Wm. Browne had issue besides Jane, three other daughters, Mary, Elizabeth, and Anne." "Capt. Wm. Browne d. at about 76 years of age, survived by all of his children". This is indeed a curious statement, for two sons had died several years before: in any case, no Elizabeth appears in the list of Capt. William Browne's children as given in Boddie, Southside Va. Fam, 1:111. Considering the care Capt. Browne took to give bequests to numerous grand-children, the omission of any Hill legatee is very substantial evidence that no daughter of his married Sion Hill Jr.

On the other hand, there is direct evidence in Mathias Marriott's will, pr. 2 Sep 1707, of a daughter "Elizabeth Hill". No Hill other than Sion Jr. has seriously been indicated as an alternative husband of Elizabeth Marriott. The suggestion of Robert Hill, Isle of Wight Co. (b. ca. 1667-70) is countered by documentation that he married Elizabeth Halleman (Deed Bk #1, p. 247), dau. of William Halleman. It is also significant that Sion Hill Jr. on 16 May 1739 transferred 150 acres of land to William Marriott, brother of Elizabeth, for the insignificant sum of five shillings: this implies some claim on the land, or perhaps a residual affection for a former brother-in-law.

Some clue to a Hill/Browne connection may be found in the note that Robert Hill (b. ca. 1685, brother of Sion Jr.) mar. Tabitha, thought to have been a Miss Browne (Natl. Geneal Soc. Qtrly, vol. 16, #2, Jun 1928, p. 66). Robert Hill, on 21 Feb 1721, sold some land to Henry Browne, the deed also being signed by Tabitha. (Surry Co. Bk, 1715-30, p. 391).

Dear Ms Adams:

While perusing your quarterly News magazine I notice you mention a new book for your library additions: The Hill Record Book 1750-1981, written and published by Pauline and John Jenson Hill.

I, too, have been researching this family for about two years. My ancestor, William Hill, moved from Caroline County, Va to Surry County, NC in 1763. He and several of his Children served in the American Revolution and I still have relatives in your area today. As a matter of fact, Mr. John Jenson Hill may be one of them.

In any event, you can imagine how excited I am to learn you have the book. On the other hand, you state the book is Not for sale.

Is there anyway I can gain access to this book, short of making the trip to Dobson?

I am a member of the Green County Genealogical Society in Springfield, Mo and would gladly furnish reference and/or security (bond) for the opportunity to read the book.

Any information you can give me in this regard would be deeply appreciated.

Very Truly yours,

Jack Hill

Dear Genealogical Researchers:

A few pages from your JOURNAL (Vol. II, Book II, April, 1982) has come to my attention concerning THE HILL RECORD BOOK (1750-1981) for Capt. Robert HILL[5] VA(1752-1834)NC m. __ Sept. 1769 Martha HALBERT VA(1750-1833)NC among other members of this particular HILL lineage.

I would appreciate it if you could enter my name and address as a serious HILL researcher. IF I have my research endeavors correct, then I descend from William HILL, Sr.[4] VA(1710-1787)NC m. 1736 Susannah SMITHER(S):

Rev. William HILL, Jr.[5] VA(1737-1792)NC m. 1758 Hanniniah Elizabeth (HALBERT)(HILL) GLENN VA(1744-c 1811)NC. HAD 6S + 5D.

Joab HILL[6] NC(1775-1847)MO m. 14 June 1802 Claiborne Co., TENN. Elizabeth (LANE) HILL NC(1784-1864)MO. HAD 7S + 2 D.

Marshall HILL[8] TN(1836-1926)OR m. 29 March 1869 Albany (Linn Co.), OR. Prudence Belinda (THOMAS) HILL IL(1849-1948)OR. HAD 3 S + 3 D.

Edwin M. (? Marshall) HILL[9]OR(1872-1922)OR m. 6 Sept. 1898 The Dalles (Wasco Co.), OR Lulu Jennie (BERRIAN) HILL WA(1875-1925)OR HAD 4S+3D.

Lois Wendell (HILL)(GRAY)(ROSS) PRICE[10] OR(1899-1979)OR m.1) 1 Sept. 1918 The Dalles (Wasco Co.), OR Lloyd Franklin GRAY OR(1894-1955)OR (my parents).

There does seem to be considerable controversy as to whether the Thomas HILL (Sr.)[6] NC(1759-1849)TN m. 1783 Catherine SHROPSHIRE was a son of the Rev. William HILL (Baptist Minister) who served as Chaplain at the Battle of Guilford County Court House. If this Thomas HILL should belong to another William HILL, Jr., then my Joab HILL would also have his lineage changed. Also, there seems to a discrepancy as to the approximate year of death and place of death for this Rev. William HILL, Jr. Was it 1792 in Surry or Stokes Co., N.C.? OR, did he die in Guilford Co. in 1785? An Elizabeth HILL received Letters of Administration in 1785 for a William HILL; YET, in 1811, John GLENN (Jr.) in the name of his wife, Elizabeth (widow of Rev. William HILL) filed suit for her widow's portion in the Surry Co. property which Thomas HILL sold in 1792 to 4 of his brothers plus a Jacob HILL (relationship not stated) in accordance to agreement reached in his father's lifetime.

CARd filed ✓

It is my theory that the records of two different William HILL's have become entangled.

Therefore, I would appreciate being placed in touch with interested HILL researchers. Thank you for whatever assistance you may be able to render.

Sincerely and genealogically yours,

Winifred Jacob

Thank you for sending your surname cards on the Barnes, Hill and Logan families. You ask for the same in our files. We are sorry that we did not have much in our files except one for the Hill family which we are sending you. We will file your cards in the library at Surry Community College.

We are sending you some names and addresses of researchers from other sources which may be of help to you. There are quite a few on the Hill family that have been accumulated. We have a copy of a book on the Hill family that Larry Mondell Martin donated to us but we did not find your family in a quick scan of the book. His address is enclosed if you would like to contact him. We did not have any names of researchers on the Logan family. Since Surry Co. formed from Rowan Co. in 1771 and John W. Hill m. Mae/Margaret Logan in 1760 the marriage record could be in Rowan Co.

Have you written to the NC archives for verification of marriage of Isaac Hill to Mary Barnes. The address is Department of Cultural Resources, Archives and Records Section, 109 E. Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601-2807.

We are very sorry that we could not help you more with your research at this time. If we can be of assistance in the future please write us again. We hope you have a very nice holiday.

Dear Society,

I've just now reread your letter of 8 January, and want to ask you to copy the article containing the name JOHN HILL, from your heritage books, please.

I,m searching for ISAAC HILL, whose father was JOHN W. HILL, and Isaac named a son, William, indicating he may have had an "Uncle William" and a "Cousin John Hill"---maybe!!

I do thank you kindly,

Sincerely,

Nola (Hill) Ochs

Isaac's other sons were James, John, Isaac, Andrew, Charles, George, Robert, and Richard. His daughters were Nancy and Margaret, and probably 2 more, at least.

If there is anybody you know that has done a genealogy on the Hill's of Surry county, if you would give me their name or e-mail address, I need to talk to them. I have a history book on this Hill family about 50 pages , anybody is welcome .

JONAS HILL R1799
West Tenn. #22030 $23.33/year issued 27 Sept. 1833
MARY CASTLEBURY, former widow
Arkansas #1799 (rejected)
Bounty Land Warrant 280-321-1855

23 Jan. 1833 Franklin County

Jonas Hill aged about 70 states he was born in Granville County, N.C., in 1763, according to the account he received from his parents. He was living in Surry County, N.C., in 1781 when he entered Capt. Samuel Dyer's calvalry company as a substitute for Joshua Freeman. He served three months, fighting along the Yadkin River. Cornwallis was headquartered at Hillsboro and the affiant was among a group ordered to conduct a night attack on his pickets. After that, during the same night, Cornwallis marched out of town.

After returning home for a short time he reenlisted as a substitute for Randall Brown and served in Capt. William Hickman's company. They marched to Salisbury where Hickman became ill and was replaced by Capt. McDowell. They were under the command of a French officer, Col. Malbortie (Malmady?). They participated in the battle at Eutaw Springs and were later ordered by Gen. Green to guard the prisoners at Camden. At this place the French officer aforesaid was killed in a duel by an American officer named Sneed, and Col. Locke became commander, marching the prisoners to Salisbury.

Immediately after the close of the war he removed to what is now East Tennessee and went out against the Indians. He then removed to Pendleton District, S.C., for 22 years, and from there to Overton County, Tenn., for two years before settling here over 20 years ago.

John H. Morris and Thomas Wilson of Franklin County vouch for Hill's character.

Stephen Adams aged 63 states he first became acquainted with Hill in Pendleton District in 1787 and Hill was then reputed to be a veteran of the revolution. One William Heath, also of that place, often spoke of his service with Hill.

Thank you for your letter postmarked October 27, 1994 regarding the Hill family. We are sorry it has taken so long to answer your letter.

We have checked our vertical file for information on Jonas Hill and Joseph Hill but did not find anything except a file on William Hill. There are also stories on a William Hill (born in 1710) in both of our books "The Heritage of Surry County," Volume I and II. There was no mention of a Jonas or Joseph in either of these stories. C. W. Hill, Rt. 2, Box 33, Westfield, NC 27053 did the William Hill family history in Volume I. Valeska Buchholtz Vicars, 4319 Waycross Drive, Arlington, TX 76016-3007 did the William Hill, Sr. family history in Volume II.

We suggest you try to obtain the Revolutionary War information on Jonas Hill from the Department of Cultural Resources, Div. of Archives and History, Archives and Records Section, 109 E. Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601-2807. They have state records of North Carolina, published in 12 volumes (pay vouchers, revolutionary army account books, final settlements, pension benefits, declarations of service found in county court minutes, land warrants, Secretary of State Military Land Warrant Book, Secretary of State Revolutionary War Military Papers, Petitions in Legislative Papers, Register of the NC Continental Line, and Military Collection (Troop Returns)).

Carol Leonard Snow, P. O. Box 703, Toast, NC 27049 of Surry County did a book in 1993 called "Volunteer Revolutionary War Soldiers From North Carolina." She might be able to help you with your questions.

We are sending you names found in our surname file that are researching the Hill family.

We're sorry that the books in our genealogical section of the library at Surry Community College are not available for loan.

Good luck with your research and we're sorry we could not give you more information. We invite you to send queries for our journal (free of charge) and submit surname cards for our file. If we can be of further assistance please write again.

Dear Librarians:

Hi! I am researching the early Hill family in Surry County, NC. On Jonas Hill's pension form he states that he entered the Revolution in 1781 when he entered Capt. Samuel Dyer's Calvalry Co as a substitute for Joshua Freeman. He served three months, fighting along the Yadkin River.

He re-enlisted again as a substitute for Randall Brown and served in Capt. William Hickman's Co. They marched to Salisbury where Hickman became ill and was replaced by Capt McDowell.

See attached copy about Jonas Hill.

I would like to find out more Jonas' enlistment in 1781. Would there be a list or document stating when he entered and what district he enlisted from?

There was a Joseph Hill living in 1769 in Granville Co where Jonas was born. There was a Joseph Hill living in Surry Co, in Wright's Dist. Would you have a family file on a Joseph Hill before the Revolution?

There were 7 other Hills living then. I would suppose that one of these Hills were Jonas' parents. I am interested in any book which may be ordered interlibrary loan which could help me narrow down the Hill families.

Thank in advance, Diane Van Eaton
