The Committee on Obituaries reported, as follows:

Report of Committee on Obituaries.

We are sad to report the death of Bro. Floyd Whitaker, who was a member of Salem Fork Baptist Church and a devoted Christian and a good citizen. He was in the bloom of life. He leaves three children. His wife had preceded him to the glory land. Brother Whitaker is greatly missed in his community and church.

We also report the death of Sister Lula Maser, who was a member of Salem Fork Church. A devoted Christian and Sunday-school teacher is gone, whose place will it will be hard to fill.

On the 28th of December, 1918, the spirit of the noble young Thomas F. Lewellin took its flight from earth to heaven. His life was without spot or blemish, loved by all who knew him, too good, too angelic to dwell in a land of sorrows and disappointments, a faithful member of his church, untiring devotion to duty, a heart full of love for others, were among his most prominent traits of character. At the call of his government for soldiers to fight for the principles of right and humanity, nobly and bravely he heeded the call and went to camp for a while, and then, with his face toward the enemy, crossed the turbid waters of the Atlantic and landed upon the shores of the orient, ready to do and die. Before reaching the roar of cannon and the clash of arms, the hand of affliction seized upon him. Though away from home, away from the loving hand of a devoted father or mother, in a distant land, surrounded by strangers, yet God was there to lead him through the Valley of the Shadow of Death and anchor safely in the haven of rest. Here we shall see him no more, but oh! how sweet will be his sleeping beneath the sod of the far-away land. Tommie, we will meet you bye and bye.

Report adopted.

The Committee on Ministerial Relief reported, as follows:

Report of Committee on Ministerial Relief.

If they that preach the gospel shall live of the gospel, then there is something for the churches to do. Paul accepted gifts of the churches, that he might go on and devote his time proclaiming glad tidings; and he commanded them to lay by in store for this purpose, that they who administer unto us spiritual things should have of our temporal things, and those who have given the best part of their lives preaching the gospel need our prayers and our gifts to comfort and help them in their declining years. Let us pray that God will impress this fact more fully on our churches.

J. S. LAYNE, for Committee.

It was moved that the report be adopted, and after discussion by E. E. Stafford, T. F. Bryant, J. G. Burrus, and D. S. Hubble, it was finally adopted.

On motion, adjourned. Prayer by Bro. F. T. Lewellin.

Saturday Morning, July 19, 1919, 12 O'Clock M.

Report of Committee on Temperance.

We, your Committee on Temperance, ask to make the following report:

The temperance question is a big thing, and we are commanded in the good Book to be temperate in all things, not only in strong drink, but in conversation, eating, and all things pertaining to the good of humanity. We recommend that all church members abstain from the use of strong drink.

W. J. HODGES, for Committee.

The Committee on Home Missions reported, as follows:

Report of Committee on Home Missions.

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is located at Atlanta, Ga., with Dr. B. D. Gray as Corresponding Secretary, and is the channel through which our churches work together to spread the gospel in our Southland and Cuba. What State Missions is to the State, the Home Board is to all the States of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Board is subdivided into departments, with each particular interest in charge of a leader of wisdom and experience. The department of evangelism was fortunate in securing the service of Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of Lynchburg, Va., as general evangelist. Dr. A. E. Brown, of Asheville, remains in charge of the mountain schools. Dr. L. B. Warren has charge of the department of church building. Besides these special workers, there are many effective workers doing work among the Indians in the West, the negroes of the South, and the foreigners of all the ports and towns of the Southern States, and we now have a program on foot to raise seventy-five million dollars to advance our Master's work in the Southern Baptist Convention. We earnestly recommend that all the churches and members of the Surry Association take part and contribute liberally to the work of raising the seventy-five million dollars for our Master's cause.

J. G. BURRUS,
T. J. WHITE,
Committee.
