

April 27, 1976.

RECEIVES AWARD—Officials of the Northwest North Carolina Development Association presented Dobson Community Council officials with a plaque designating their recent selection as top community in the area of community development. Left to right, John Woodruff, president of the 11-county association, Kathryn Crownfield, chairman of the Dobson Community Council and Gary Lail, chairman of the community development division.