The life of a student nurse after she passes "Through These Doors" to her profession

We, the student body of Martin Memorial School of Nursing, respectfully dedicate this 1963 edition of THE STRIPES to, Mr. John K. Lockhart.

His dependability and service have helped us to develop a school of nursing in which we are proud. The knowledge and courage which he displays, inspires in us a willingness to view our horizons courageously and enthusiastically.

For these many assets and tributes which he possess' we are proud to present him with this 1963 yearbook.

Gratefully Dedicate

"Quotes about Nurses"

"Nurses are indespensable to the art and act of healing. Good nursing care can do more than medicine in many cases. We have the people here capable of giving this quality care."

Dr. Bolin

"Nurses are a very essential group integrated into the over-all program of patient care."

Dr. T. C. Britt

"I have always had a high regard for the nursing profession. I think that present day nurses are better equipped to do a better job. I don't see why more young nurses don't go into Public Health."

Dr. Caldwell

"I think they are great. I'm married to one, what more can I say?"

Dr. Everhart

"The student nurses program is a vital and growing part of the hospital."

Dr. J. G. Hall

"Nurses are some of the greatest and some of the loveliest people we have in the medical profession. It would be a most difficult job to practice medicine without them."

Dr. C. Sykes

"They are wonderful."
