Easter hunts continue

Dean Palmer/The Pilot

A large group of youngsters from the Westfield community flocked to Westfield Baptist Church Saturday for an afternoon Easter egg hunt. Jim Richland, Westfield Baptist associate pastor of Young Families, began the event with a talk to youths about resurrection story. Afterwards, youngsters made quick work of finding the more than 1,000 eggs hidden behind the church. "Our hope for today," Richland explained, "is to be able to reach out into our community and allow families to come together and enjoy the day. It's an opportunity for us to present the Gospel in a fun environment. This is our first year and we're very pleased. We hope to see this continue to grow." (Above) Cousins Claire Marriott, 3, and Averi Phillips, 5, check out each other's treats after Saturday's egg hunt. (Left, top) A family event - Eighteen-month-old Samantha Rule gets some help with finding the goodies inside her eggs from her grandmother, Armida Rule, and her mother, Amanda Rule. (Left, bottom) Associate Pastor of Young Families Jim Richland uses "resurrection eggs" to share the Easter story with a large group of children.
