The Emblem

The emblem for United Methodist Women affirms our opportunity as women organized for mission. Its symbolism affirms our continuous growth and renewal.

The emblem for United Methodist Women, as well as that for the church, combines the cross and a flame symbolizing the Holy Spirit. The cross and flame are ancient symbols of the church, dating back to the days of Christ and Pentecost. Each evokes images of sacrifice, witness and service. Both remind us of the opportunities and obligations of discipleship. Paul's ancient words to Timothy have fresh and contemporary meaning: "...I now remind you to stir into flame the gift of God which is within you..." II Timothy 1:6

As Part of the emblem of United Methodist Women, these symbols remind us of our Purpose of helping women grow as persons in community in their understanding of and willingness to participate in the global community of the church. They also remind us of our heritage, women who pioneered in service for the church at home and abroad and in organization of women for mission service and support in many areas of need.

The shape of the emblem is likewise symbolic. It is fluid and free flowing, suggesting change and mobility. As organized groups of women, this has been our heritage-often at the forefront of movements for change, at times supporting the projects initiated by others, but always aware of the times and striving to move with them rather than overwhelmed by them.

The cross, the flame the individual with her abilities and opportunities-all are elements of a 20th century movement for United Methodist Women.

Dr. Robyn Hakanson spoke about her organization, WOGO, Women Orthopaedist Global Outreach.

Who We Are

Women Orthopaedist Global Outreach (WOGO) is a not-for-profit volunteer medical service organization led by female orthopaedic surgeons. We have seen first-hand the power of joint replacement surgery to transform the lives of those who suffer from arthritis, the most disabling chronic disease in the world.

We seek to bring this same transformation of lives to those who suffer the burden of arthritis and disability in under-served global communities. While we will serve anyone in need, we have a special passion for helping women who are affected more commonly by arthritis, experience more disability and have less access to joint replacement surgery. We plan to undertake yearly trips to developing countries where orthopaedic reconstructive procedures are not readily available.

WOGO is incorporated as a team of Operation Walk (www.OperationWalk.com), a 16-year non-profit volunteer medical service organization that provides free surgical treatment in developing countries (and occasionally in the United States) for patients that have no access to life-improving care for arthritis or other debilitating bone and joint conditions. Twelve other Operation Walk teams have successfully completed missions in thirteen different countries. We have joined their global campaign because, although joint replacement surgeries have been performed on thousands of patients, millions more are needed.

The annual Harvest Bake Sale and Luncheon at Central United Methodist Church produced an array of baked items and frozen goods that sold out in a short time. Meanwhile a record number of guests dined on wonderful food prepared and served by the Friendship Circle.

The fundraiser was a huge success this year with the largest crowd ever. Debbie Lyon was overall chairman for the event with Debbie Williams and Ellen Welch heading the bake sale.

Sue Kirkman won a framed Pat Woltz print that was donated by the family. Ellen Woltz made the presentation with Marie Simmons, president of the UMW, participating.

Some of the area groups benefiting from the proceeds are: The Salvation Army, the Children's Center of Surry, Habitat for Humanity, the Domestic Abuse Shelter, The Shepherd's House and Hope Valley for Men and Women.

The local Walmart was a veritable beehive of activity Tuesday morning as shoppers poured through large containers of CDs, plowed through displays of toys and raced down the aisles to grab that last pair of jeans.

While it may sound a little like Black Friday, these shoppers were all out and about for a good cause. Tuesday morning marked the annual shopping excursion for the Surry County Sheriff's Office Christmas Fund. Shoppers turned out at the store bright and early, grabbed a cart and a wish list and hit the aisles running.

In less than two hours, the shoppers had grabbed up every wish list from roughly 275 children in Surry County and were mostly through filling their orders. Each shopper was offered up a list with a child's gender, age, sizes and a couple of toys or

Dear Ladies:

On behalf of the trustees, staff and especially the children, thank you for your gift of $150.00, received on February 1, 2012. It is indeed a blessing to all of us that western North Carolina Methodist Churches continue to sustain the "miracle" that has occurred daily at The Children's Home for over a century.

The support from our very loyal United Methodist Women is absolutely vital in our ability to provide what has been missing for so many of our children — stability, encouragement and nurture. Every child deserves a chance. With your continued funding we can offer these special children the hope and skills needed to succeed in a better life.

Our children's successes have been made possible with the help of many thoughtful United Methodist friends. We continue to be amazed and blessed by all that you have done over the last century and all that you continue to do for The Children's Home today.

Please keep us in your prayers, as we shall keep you in ours.

Yours truly,

Norma Pearman

The Anne Clark Circle of the United Methodist Women gathered Monday evening in the fellowship hall of Central United Methodist Church for a delightful dinner meeting.

The event was originally scheduled to be held at the home of Becky Clark but as clouds began gathering in the late afternoon, the dinner was moved to the church.

Donna Smith assisted Becky in hosting the outing with Linda Stanfield and Ruth McBride as circle co-chairs. Two new members, Marilyn Driggers and Suzette Sharpe, were welcomed to the group.

The buffet tables, decorated with arrangements of blue hydrangeas, held assorted dishes of vegetables, meats, country ham biscuits and another table featured homemade desserts. Similar flower arrangements were used as centerpieces at the individual tables.

Hostesses and some of the members helped gather some of the recipes from the members to share with you for summer entertaining. Here is an all-time favorite chicken salad that Kathy Stanley serves.

Fruited Chicken Salad (Kathy Stanley)

4 cups chicken, cooked, chopped
2 cups celery, diced
2 1/2 cups seedless green grapes, halved
1 can (15 1/2 oz.) pineapple tidbits, drained
1 can (11-oz.) mandarin oranges, drained
