Rev. Thomas J. Fulk set Apart to the Gospel Ministry
As a Baptist Minister

Sunday, August 30, 1942 the Haymore Memorial Baptist Church, Mount Airy, N.C. authorized the calling of a presbytery for the purpose of examining one of its young men, Thomas J. Fulk, for the ministry. This committee consisted of the following ministers: C.E. Otey, A. Finch, C.A. Simmons, D.D. Hodges, A.S. Hale.

The presbytery met Wednesday evening, September 2, 1942 and was organized by electing Rev. C.E. Otey moderator and Rev. C.A. Simmons clerk. Rev. A. Finch led the questioning of the candidate in regard to his conversion and the call to the ministry. Rev. A.S. Hale led the questioning on Bible and doctrine.

The presbytery was pleased with the testimony which Mr. Fulk gave concerning his Christian experience and his call to the ministry. His answers to the questioning were satisfactory and he was unanimously recommended for ordination.

The service of ordination was held in the Haymore Memorial Baptist Church on Wednesday evening, September 2, 1942. Rev. A.S. Hale presided and presented the charge to the church and to the candidate. Rev. A. Finch made the presentation of the Bible. Rev. D.D. Hodges led the ordination prayer and Rev. C.E. Otey preached the ordination sermon. One of the most impressive parts of the service came as a climax when Mr. Fulk's wife presented herself as a candidate for baptism for membership in the Haymore Memorial Baptist Church. She had previously held her membership in a church of another denomination. She was received by the church and her husband, now a duly ordained Baptist minister, administered the ordinance of Baptism to his first candidate - his wife.

Rev. Mr. Fulk has recently been called as pastor of the Hopewell Baptist Church, Madison, Indiana.

He will continue his studies as a second-year student in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. He is a graduate of the Mount Airy High School, Mars Hill College and Wake Forest College.

EXTRA!!

ORDINATION SERVICE

An ORDINATION SERVICE for brother T.J. Fulk of the Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky. will be held at Haymore Memorial Baptist Church, Wednesday evening, Sept. 2nd, at 8 o'clock.

It is the desire of this young worker of God that he shall be ordained in his home church.

The following ministers will take part in this service: C.E. Otey--pastor, A.S. Hale, Delma Hodges, Finch, and Simmons all of the Surry County Association.

Our pastor is always more than glad to partake in such a wonderful event because he realizes the need to-day of ministers to tell others of God and his ability to bring happiness into every heart by offering "Free Salvation." In behalf of our church, he wishes to say--"Good luck and may God bless you as you take your stand for Christ in a fight against the sins of the world."
