This is the service record of John Zebulon Vaughn of Co. I of the 21st North Carolina Infantry. He enlisted at Mount Airy, North Carolina on June 5, 1861 for a twelve months period. He was inducted by John C. Gilmer.

September and October, 1861 - Absent at sick camp.

November, 1861 - Sick at Broad Run, Virginia.

February, 1862 - Listed on Register of Confederate States Army General Hospital in Charlottesville, Virginia - pneumonia. Returned to duty April 24, 1862.

Appears on Register of C.S.A. General Hospital in Charlottesville, Va. in August, 1862. Sent to General Hospital at Lynchburg, Va. August 28, 1862. Illness listed as "Debility".

Appears on a list of killed, wounded, and missing of Trimble's Brigade in engagements at various places in Virginia August 22 to September 1, 1862.

Appears on Register of C.S.A. General Hospital at Danville, Virginia, September 6, 1862. Illness described as "vulnus sclopeticum". Furloughed from here September 23, 1862 for 60 days.

Appears on a list of killed, wounded, and missing in Ewell's Division, August 22 to September 20, 1862. Wounded at Rappahannock August 22, 23, and 24, 1862.

Appears on a list of killed, wounded, and missing of Early's Division during the campaign in Pennsylvania and Maryland in June and July, 1862.

Wounded at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania July 1, 1863. (Slight head wound)

Captured at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania on July 3, 1863. Received as a prisoner of ^{war} at Fort M. Henry, Maryland on July 6, 1863. Later sent To Fort Delaware, Delaware. Arrived there October 15, 1863. Was transferred to Point Lookout, Maryland October 18, 1863. He was exchanged May 3, 1864.

His name was on a list of Confederate soldiers belonging to the Army of Northern Virginia who were included in the surrender of General Lee to Lt. Gen. Grant, and who were given individual paroles, dated Greensboro, North Carolina, May 4, 1865.

After he was paroled, his name appeared on the register of Chimborazo Hospital No. 3 in Richmond, Virginia. Admitted May 3, 1864. Illness diagnosed as palpitating heart. Furloughed May 19, 1864.

There were two references made to his being paid:

Paid $138.00 from January 1, 1862 to August 31, 1862. Given to him on his furlough.

Paid $44.00 for service from January 1, 1864 to April 30, 1864.

This regiment was organized in July, 1861 and was composed of twelve companies - A to M. It was reorganized in April, 1862 when companies B and E were taken from the regiment and formed companies A and B respectively of the 9th (also known as the 1st) Battalion North Carolina Sharpshooters.

The designation of the regiment was changed from the 11th Regiment North Carolina Inf. (Vol.) to the 21st Regiment North Carolina Infantry (State Troops) by Special Order No. 222, Adjutant General's Office dated November-14, 1861.

This information was taken from the service record files in the National Archives, Washington, D. C. July 29, 1968.

WILLIAM ABNER AND DEBBY ANN MIDKIFF SUTPHIN FAMILY

I have a very vivid memory of my maternal grandfather, William Abner (Will) Sulphin. He was such a kind and thoughtful man. He was born in Surry County on September 18, 1863, and he died July 31, 1932. For several years he operated a small grocery store in the Flat Rock Community. A few years before his death, he bought his first automobile, a blue Essex. He enjoyed going out for a short drive. I doubt if he ever drove over 25 miles an hour, and I am reasonably sure he never went any farther than Dobson. Sometimes he would say he had to go to Dobson to find a place to turn around. He went around the Court House Square. He rarely ever failed to stop by our home to see if I would like to ride with him. Often he would take me to the graveyard where his infant daughter was buried. The way he so lovingly cared for the grave made a great impression on me as a very young girl. Often he would lead the way to another part of the graveyard and show me where his father, Abner Sulphin, and his mother, Martha Jane Taylor Sulphin, was buried, and then he would point out the grave of his grandfather, Johnnie Sulphin. I can remember now seeing the graves lined up in rows with only a native rock for a grave marker. He told me a little about his grandfather. He said he owned a large tract of land on both sides of Falkner Creek, running along side the graveyard and that the graveyard was part of his property; that his grandfather was the first person to be buried in this graveyard. He told me that his grandfather went out to walk one day when it was snowing. He went into a field of pines on a little knoll, near an old tobacco barn. Knocking the snow off with his foot, he said, "Here is where I want to be buried." My grandfather commented, "And you know what, he died before the snow was off the ground, and he was buried right there on that very spot" (almost under a big pine tree). He said from then on when a member of the Sulphin family died, they would have them buried along with all the others. The graveyard soon became known as the "Old Pines Graveyard." But later on, he said someone came up with a new name; it was then called the Sulphin Cemetery. He said that a relative of his inherited a track of land adjoining the cemetery as well as the land designated for the cemetery. I found out later that this person was Jane Taylor Midkiff. She was a cousin of William Abner. She was better known as Jennie Midkiff, wife of Columbus Midkiff, my maternal grandmother's sister-in-law. Grave plots were in great demand, especially during the flu epidemic of 1918. Seeing the need, Jane (Jennie) Midkiff assumed the responsibility of selling lots on her land adjoining the original site. I suppose because she was handling all the required details of the cemetery, the people gradually referred to the cemetery as the Sulphin-Midkiff Cemetery, and finally it became known as the Midkiff Cemetery. Since her death, various ones have taken over the supervision of the maintenance of this cemetery. The Flat Rock Ruritan Club at one time took this as a project and made great improvement in its appearance. Now volunteer contributions are solicited each year to hire someone to keep the grass mowed.

Abner Sulphin died October 3, 1913 and was buried in this cemetery beside his father, Johnnie and his wife Martha Jane. She was born March 27, 1841, and died April 23, 1875, and was buried there.

Abner and Martha Jane had three sons and two daughters, all born in Surry County: John Lincoln — born March 3, 1862, died February 23, 1947. His first wife was Mary Jane Love. Second wife, Elsie May Bowman. William Abner — born September 18, 1863, died July 31, 1932. His wife was Deborah Ann (Queen) Midkiff. Rebecca H. — born May 18, 1866, died March 15, 1909. Married Peter Deatherage. Mary — The dates of her birth and death are unknown. She married Bud Norman and moved away from the community. They had no children. Elijah Irvin — born February 5, 1870, died September 3, 1963. He married Sarah Jane Bellon.

After Abner's wife, Martha Jane, died, he married her sister, Mary Taylor. To this union were born two sons and three daughters:

Nick H. — born June 13, 1876, died June 22, 1945. He married Susie Haymore. Sarah Emma — born May 24, 1878, date of death unknown. She married James Edward Alkins. Nancy Ann — born June 24, 1880, died March 19, 1949. She married John Walter Kirkman.

Dock Sulphin — born April 23, 1882, died January 1, 1905. His wife was Annie Shelton. Catherine — born in Surry County, but we have no other information about her. We assume she died in infancy.

William Abner was married to Deborah Ann (Queen) Midkiff on December 23, 1883. She was born March 4, 1864, in Surry County and died November 30, 1935. She was the daughter of Ephraim and Lucy Falkner Midkiff. She was buried in the Falkner graveyard on Highway 89 east, near Oak Grove Church.

Will and Queen, as they were known, were the parents of two daughters and one son. Lucy Frances — born September 30, 1884, died February 27, 1972. She married Charles Walter (Buddy) Vaughn on October 4, 1901. They had thirteen children, four sons and nine daughters.

Their un-named infant daughter was born March 15, 1887, and died April 2, 1887.

George Lee Sulphin — born January 7, 1891, died December 7, 1952. He was married to Elsie (Duck) Hicks in January of 1910. This couple had 7 sons and 8 daughters.

FAMILY OF DR. WESLEY MONROE STONE

Dr. Wesley Monroe Stone, son of Joseph and Melissa Stone, was born two miles south of Pilot Mountain, N.C., October 23, 1871, and was reared in this locality within the very shadows of the Pilot Knob. Dr. Stone attended the old Pinnacle Academy, and after graduation there went to work for Dr. J.B. Smith in the Smith Drug Store in Pilot Mountain. He married Louisa Bean of East Bend, N.C. on February 28, 1893.

Doctor Wesley Monroe Stone, 1871-1945, who spent his life in the practice of his profession among his kin and neighbors in Surry Co.

He later entered the North Carolina Medical College at Davidson and graduated there in 1905. After teaching there in 1905-1906 he moved to Dobson, N.C., on June 12, 1906, and began his career as a country doctor. He was also a registered pharmacist and with the help of his son, Wendell, ran a drug store in connection with his practice.

He was active in his practice, the Methodist Church and community affairs until his unexpected death in September 1945. Dr. and Mrs. Stone had a son, Wendell B. Stone, who died in 1949, and a daughter, Thelma, who married Kent Swanson of Pilot Mountain. She died in September, 1976.

Wendell married Mary Mills in Wadesboro, N.C., June 10, 1924. He worked in his father's drug store in Dobson until his death April 25, 1949.

Wendell and Mary had three sons. Harold was born May 24, 1925, and died February 6, 1930. Edward, born July 19, 1927, now lives with his family in New Jersey.

Joe D. Stone has been a Pharmacist in Pilot Mountain since 1956. Joe married Frances Sue Whitfield of Durham, N.C., in December 1958. They have three daughters and one son.

George Lee Sutphin (b. Jan. 7, 1891 — d. Dec. 7, 1952) is the son of William Abner Sutphin, Jr. (b. Sept. 18, 1863 — d. July 30, 1932), and Debby Ann Midkiff (b. Mar. 4, 1864 — d. Nov. 30, 1935). He grew up in the Flat Rock community of Surry County. He was married to Sarah Elsie Hicks (b. Apr. 7, 1890 — d. May 2, 1971), daughter of John Alex Hicks (b. about 1850 — d. Apr. 22, 1928) and Margaret Ann Boyd (b. June 22, 1854 — d. Oct. 18, 1930).

At a very young age he had a little grocery store in his parents' home. He liked to work and wanted to make a little money at an early age. As he grew older he became a stone cutter. He worked at the Quarry for about five years after his marriage.

He had a large bicycle he rode to work. It was usually parked in the hall of his home when not in use. Later he left the stone cutting and built a grocery store and began to sell groceries. He made a real good living at this store.

He built a large garage behind the store. It was located just below the Old Flat Rock School, which is now a beautiful Baptist Church. He bought about five cars that were called Big Hubs. These were to rent. The hubs measured the miles the cars had been driven, he got 5¢ a mile. He made some money at this.

He added to the store a cafe, sold sandwiches, drinks and other eats. Later he built about four small homes to rent near the store. When his father and mother died he inherited a few acres of land that was farmable, their homeplace and his dad's store that was located near his home.

With these things and raising chickens to sell as fryers and hens for eggs, his income was enough to have a good living for their large family of fifteen children until the depression hit in 1929.

Almost all the people in Flat Rock depended on the Quarry for a living. In the year 1929 the Quarry closed almost entirely. My dad tried to keep selling groceries but everyone wanted them on a credit. They were sure there would be work at the Quarry soon.

He kept going for a few weeks but saw that he could not do this without some money coming in. So he closed his store. It seemed like people were picking up a few jobs on W.P.A. and other government jobs, so he opened again on a cash basis but this didn't work because he let people begin with a new charge account, expecting them to pay every week. They began wanting credit again and they were running up the new account.

He deduced all he could do to keep from going broke was to close the store and go to farming. He began growing tobacco. With the help of the family and a renter he did very well. He kept chickens and grew most of the food on the farm. He had four or five hogs to kill every year for meat. There was always one cow.

Mother worked on the farm and did housework. She never had a public job. Mother was known in the community as Duck Sutphin. She was a very friendly person and made many friends.

He did well for sometime at this work but Daddy's health began to fail and his work on the farm slowed down. He had the large family to support and it was hard for any of them to find work. He never went hungry and we had a good time.

There are twelve of his fifteen children living, three dead. The children are as following: Margaret Ann Sutphin (b. May 12, 1911) married to James Callis Hiatt. Bessie Elizabeth (b. May 20, 1912) married to George Short. Malle Lois (b. Nov. 19, 1913) married Walter Short. John William (b. Oct. 6, 1915) married Mearle Jolly. Mary Savannah (b. July 6, 1917) married Carl Midkiff. Raymond Woodrow (b. Jan. 2, 1919 — d. Aug. 1, 1925). Betty Ruth (b. July 23, 1920) married Lloyd Key. Clarice Essie (b. May 22, 1922) married to Willie Green Hall. Nathan Jackson (b. June 15, 1924) married Margaret Sutphin. George Abner (b. June 18, 1926) single. Kathrine (b. and d. Dec. 24, 1927). Bobby Morgan (b. Dec. 22, 1928 — d. Dec. 24, 1928). Frances Louise (b. Jan. 12, 1930) married to Marcine Gilbert Moore. They have one son named Bradley. Joe Dean (b. Aug. 17, 1934) married Kated Weddle (divorced).

ISAAC UPTEGROVE JR. FAMILY

Isaac Uptegrove was born in Surry Co., N.C., on Oct. 25, 1800, the son of Isaac Uptegrove and Mary (Moore). He was married to Rebecca Lovell, the daughter of Edward Lovell and Nancy (probably his second wife). Isaac and Rebecca were married March 6, 1819, in Surry Co., N.C.

Isaac and Rebecca had twelve children. The older children were born in Surry Co., N.C., and the younger one born in Mo. Armstead Franklin married three times, first to Candance Earnest, then to Margaret Beaty Clare (previously married to a farmer), and third to Margaret Jane Hogue. Mahalia married George Oull. Samuel Moore married Carrie Robinson. Edward Lovell first married Bershaba Wilson and second to Mary Hammett. Edward had twenty children, four by his first wife and sixteen by his second wife. Lucinda married Nicholas Choate. William married Cornelia Robinson. Elizabeth married James Brown, and Thomas Benton married Virginia Pew. Most of the descendants of this family moved to Montgomery Co., Mo.

Isaac died June 15, 1875, in Lincoln Co., Mo. Rebecca is buried in a cemetery on his brother William's farm.

WILLIAM UPTEGROVE FAMILY

William Uptegrove was the son of Isaac Uptegrove and Mary Moore Uptegrove.

Born on October 11, 1785, in Surry Co., N.C., he lived ninety-one years and died in 1878. He is buried in the Uptegrove Cemetery on the farm that was settled by his wife. His wife died August 17, 1850.

William and Mary had seven children; Rebecca married Jacob Edelman in North Carolina, Lovell probably didn't marry. Mary married Phillip Mabry. William married Mary Edlin. Elizabeth married Jonathan Ingram. Isaac married Elizabeth Ann Ingram, and Nancy married Samuel Ingram. The Ingrams were brothers and sisters and were the children of Jarrott Ingram and Nancy Hudson Ingram.

William and Mary came to Lincoln Co., Mo., in 1828-29. They settled on a farm in Northern Lincoln Co. Their farm was near Louisville on Cuivre River. In Lincoln Co. the last six children were married.

Isaac Uptegrove and Elizabeth Ann Ingram were married Oct. 9, 1834. They are the parents of seven children. The oldest child Nancy, Mary, Edward-Lovell, Jarrott Ingram, Jonathan Samuel, Rhoda Ophelia, and William. Elizabeth died in 1859. Isaac married later his second wife Sarah King Brown. They had one son Isaac.

Jonathan Samuel married, in 1871, Elizabeth Blackorby, daughter of Grigsby Blackorby and Mary Jane Sanders Blackorby. They had six children, Ida, Joseph W., Sarah Jane, John Thomas, Beverly and Isaac Harrison.

Isaac Harrison was born Oct. 14, 1887, in Lincoln Co., Missouri. He married July 12, 1912, to Cora Mabel Burkett. They had one son, William Harrison.

William Uptegrove was born August 1, 1918, in Elsberry, Lincoln Co., Mo. William married Gladys B. Lovell and they had four children. They are, William Cecil, Mary Lynn, Sue Ann, and Michael Dale.

William Harrison has one son, Charles William, by a previous marriage.

VAUGHN ANCESTORS

722

Information on Vaughns in Colonial America has come down through official and family records and family memories. The first census taken in 1790 lists three Vaughns in North Carolina at that time. One of the Vaughn brothers settled in Stokes County, another in Floyd, Virginia, and the other, Isaac Vaughn, settled in Surry County, North Carolina, in Zepher Township — between Dobson and three daughters and seven sons. They are:

Mary J. Vaughn — born 1848, date of death unknown. John Zebulon Vaughn — born October 23, 1850, died July 10, 1924. Emory J. Vaughn — born 1852, died February 22, 1920.

William F. Vaughn — born 1855, died February 2, 1863. J. Buck Vaughn — born 1857, death unknown. Elizabeth C. Vaughn born 1859 died November 21, 1863.

Jesse M. Vaughn, Wilkes Co. — born 1863, died November 25, 1946. Ulysses Grant Vaughn — born 1865, death unknown. Betty Vaughn — born 1869, died June 21, 1975. R.L. Vaughn — born 1870, died September 25, 1928.

John Zebulon Vaughn married Malinda Evelyn Burch from Surry County, Burch Station Township, between Dobson and Elkin. They set up housekeeping in that part of Surry County, farmed and reared two sons and four daughters:

Alice — born October 6, 1871, died December 29, 1956. She married James W. Deatherage. They lived in the Flat Rock Community. Raised several children.

Charles Walter (Buddy) Vaughn, born August 6, 1873, died June 6, 1964. He married Lucy Frances Sulphin on October 4, 1901.

Ennis Vaughn Teague, born July 8, 1876, died April 4, 1957. She lived in Mt. Airy, Durham, and Greensboro.

Dora, born in 1879, died December 27, 1968. She married Robert Lee Hatcher. They Mountain Park. It is believed he was born in the late 1700s or early 1800s. The only thing we know about Isaac Vaughn is that he had a son, John Zebulon Vaughn, who was born November 20, 1824, in Antioch Township in Wilkes County, North Carolina. John Zebulon Vaughn fought in the Civil War. He was captured at Gettysburg, was a prisoner of war for a brief period of time, and was subsequently exchanged. His wife, Elizabeth (Betty) Key, was born October 23, 1827, in Dobson, and died August 25, 1900. To this union was born lived in Winston-Salem, N.C., where Mr. Hatcher was a city police officer.

Elizabeth Mildred (Betty), born January 17, year unknown, died June 25, 1963. She married Thomas Washington Holt. They lived in Winston-Salem, Washington, D.C., and later in Brownsville, Texas, near their daughter, Lucile.

Zebulon Vance Vaughn, born July 19, 1839, died January 20, 1965. He was married twice, first to Mamie Shelton. They had one son, Ronald Vaughn. They were divorced. Vance later married Ella Robertson. He owned and operated the Vaughn Shoe Shop in Mount Airy.

John Zebulon Vaughn and Malinda Eveline were divorced when their youngest son was hardly grown. He was re-married to Laura Smith Johnson. He moved to the town of Mount Airy where he owned and operated a shoe repair shop for several years on Moore Avenue. He died of a heart attack at his work on July 10, 1924. His funeral was conducted at the First Baptist Church in Mt. Airy, where he was a member. He was buried at Oakdale Cemetery in Mt. Airy.

Note: Some of the facts contained herein are from the research done by Janet Croft of Pennsylvania, a great-granddaughter of Emory Vaughn.

CHARLES AND LUCY VAUGHN

Charles Walter (Buddy) Vaughn b. Aug. 6, 1873 in Zephyr Community of Surry Co. John Zebulon Vaughn of Wilkes Co. and Malinda Burch. His grandparents were John Zebulon Vaughn 1825-1891 and Elizabeth Betsy Key. Buddy's parents farmed in the Zephyr Community during their early married life, but moved in 1901 to Flat Rock near Mt. Airy where he owned and operated Vaughn Shoe Shop.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army at the age of 22, two years prior to WWI. He served his enlistment in the 12th U.S. Regular Infantry in Cuba and the Philippines.

Returning to the Flat Rock Community he became a stone cutter. It was while he was boarding with his sister, Alice Deatherage, that he met a neighbor girl, Lucy Frances Sulphin, who was only 17 years of age. They were married in Mt. Airy on October 4, 1901. Lucy Frances was the daughter of William Abner and Deborah Ann Midkiff Sulphin and the granddaughter of Abner and Martha Taylor Sulphin.

Buddy worked as a stone cutter for almost fifteen years; then later as a rural mail carrier in the communities of Flat Rock, Westfield, Woodville and Shelton town. By this time, his family had grown quite large, and his salary as a mail carrier was not adequate to meet their needs. So again he cut stone until he decided that what he really wanted to do was operate a general store. For 40 years, the people of Flat Rock and surrounding areas were familiar with the Vaughn Store (gas, groceries, feed, and notions). But Buddy was foremost a farmer, and managed to keep some acreage producing even as he worked at other jobs.

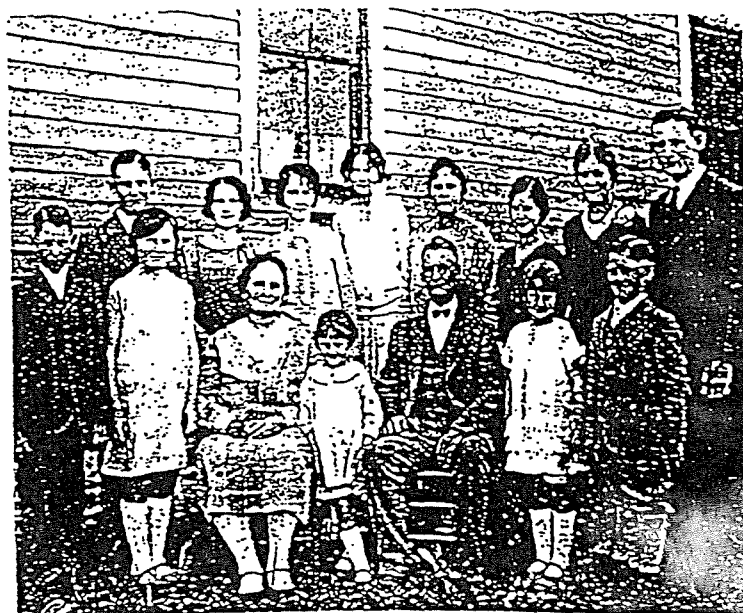

During the early years at first they attended Oak Grove Methodist Church. Later they joined the Central United Methodist Church in Mount Airy where a number of their children and their families are still active members.

Between 1902 and 1923 Buddy and Lucy had 13 children:

1. Pearl Vaughn — July 30, 1902 — Oct. 17, 1981. Pearl and Robert Fritz Gwyn married on April 6, 1924. He died Sept. 1, 1975. Two children: Lucy Ellen Gwyn — born September 6, 1934, educated at Mt. Airy High School, Golden Wedding Anniversary Charles W. (Buddy) and Lucy Sulphin Vaughn Oct. 1951.

Greensboro College and ECU. She has taught in the Surry County School System since 1957 as a speech and hearing therapist. She was President of the NCACT during the 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1979-1980 school terms. Vaughn Monroe Gwyn — b. Dec. 28, 1940, educated in Mt. Airy High School, ECU, and the Brooks Institute of Photography, Santa Barbara, CA, and UNC-CH. He served one tour in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Europe Army Security Agency. He is owner and operator of Smith Studio in Raleigh.

2. Gladys Vaughn — b. Aug. 14, 1903, married Newton Dalford White Jan. 28, 1933. Three daughters: Gladys Ann, b. July 31, 1935; Sara Frances, b. Sept. 7, 1939; Mary McCollis, b. Apr. 15, 1941. This family lived in Hamptonville, Yadkin County, for several years, and later moved to Daytona Beach Florida, where Mrs. White still lives. She is a retired real estate broker. Newton D. White died Sept. 7, 1967.

3. Flossie Vaughn — b. Jan. 3, 1905. Flossie married Rossie James Callaway Jan. 29, 1939. One daughter: Judith Flo (Judy), b. June 28, 1943, educated at Mt. Airy High School, High Point College, and Virginia Commonwealth University. She has taught at New Hanover High School in Wilmington, N.C. and in the Richmond, Va. school system. Flossie and Judy make their home in Mt. Airy.

DOCK AND MATTIE VAUGHN

Dock A. Vaughn, the youngest of nine children, was born on October 21, 1889, to John Zebulan Vaughn and Manervia Flincham Vaughn in a log house about three miles from Pilot Mountain. He attended the Grassy Knob School. As a young man he worked on the farm and also worked at the Job Hiatt Lumber Company.

On July 23, 1916, Dock and Mattie Lila Forkner were married in Pilot Mountain in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Beasley. The ceremony was performed by Reverend O.E. Smith-deal, a Methodist minister.

Mattie Forkner Vaughn was born on December 18, 1898 in Ararat, North Carolina, to J.B. Forkner and Lila Stevens Forkner. She grew up and worked at Vaughn's Springs Hotel which
