(MOUNT AIRY TIMES - Fri., Aug. 29, 1941)

Frank Leonard, 57, Claimed By Death

Frank Leonard, 57, died at his home on Mount Airy Rt. 5, at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. His death was attributed to heart dropsy and followed a lengthy illness.

He was a native of Carroll county, Virginia, where he was born June 12, 1884, the son of Ham and Fannie McCraw Leonard. His mother survives him along with his widow, Mrs. Caroline E. Leonard; four sons, Jim Claude, Carl and Guy Leonard and three daughters, Mrs. James Easter, Mrs. Broadus Berrier and Miss Kate Leonard.

Funeral services were held from the Flower Gap Primitive Baptist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, the rites being conducted by Elder J. C. Dunbar. Burial was in the Flower Gap cemetery.

RALEIGH REGISTER, Friday, August 20, 1819

DIED: At his seat in Norton, Mass. July 26, the Hon. George Leonard, LL.D aged 90. He was descended from one of the most respectable families in the ancient colony of Plymouth. His ancestor, Jas. Leonard, emigrated from England in 1656. One of his sons, the Hon. Thomas Leonard, was one of the first characters in the colony. Maj. George Leonard, a son of Thomas, was the first settler in the town of Norton, 1696. His son, the Hon. Geo. Leonard, was for many years a member of the Provincial Council of Massachusetts Bay, and a Judge of Probate. The subject of this notice was born at Norton, July 4, 1729. At the age of 19, he was appointed, by Sir Wilham Shirley, then Governor of the Province Register of Probate, which office he held without interruption, 34 years. At an early age he was elected a Deputy to the Provincial Assembly, and was generally a member of the Assembly or Council, until the Revolution. After the Revolution, he was appointed Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas in his own county, and Judge of Probate. He was one of the first representatives chosen by the people of Massachusetts under the federal constitution, to the Congress until 1797, with the exception of one term, and during that term was a senator in the State Legislature. A short time after he had relinquished his seat in Congress, he resigned all his offices, and devoted himself wholly to agricultural pursuits, in which he had ever delingured. At his death he is supposed to have been Magistrate of longer standing than any in the state.- Centinel we owe to the public and to human-ty. We would not unnecessarily excite alarm—neither would we be guilty of concealing from the public so important and interesting a fact.

We have the authority from, and are requested by, His Honor the Intendant to state, that a death by the Yellow Fever occurred on Tuesday, and that more cases existed. The subjects are all strangers to the climate, and it is hoped the disease will not spread. Proper means have been taken to prevent it, as far as possible.
The public shall be apprised, from time to time, (from official sources) of the state of the disease, should it continue.

We understand (says the National Intelligencer) that Robert Brent, Esq. has resigned the office of Paymaster General of the Army. Ill health is the cause of this vacation of office.— His successor is not yet named.

The heat for the last three or four days has been intense. On Sunday, in a passage on Shocke Hill the thermometer was at 96. The drought stil rages.—Rich. Eng. Aug. 5.

The stock of the Bank of the United States has again taken a start, and has risen from 89 or 96 to 96. This improvement in the market price, whilst money becomes every day more valuable, is owing, it is presumed, to the confidence inspired by the late rigorous administration of the affairs of the institution.

An anchor weighing 4000 weight belonged to the British frigate Acteon, which was blown up on the memora-

Sir Peter Parker, on the 28th June, 1776. It was thickly incrustated with sure, not first quality, but will probably make fine flour. There are upwards of 5000 bushels in one parcel, a part of which has been sent here and sold at 50 cents!

That wheat should be brought from Europe to this country, is certainly surprising, and speaks a language that cannot be well misunderstood.

At his residence in Williamson county in Tennessee, on the 21st instant, after a painful illness of thirty days duration, Thomas E. Sumner, Esq. in the 50th year of his age, formerly of Warren county, in this State. He was a son of the patriot Gen. Sumner, of North Carolina. For honesty—humanity—and all the other manly virtues, he was excelled by few if any. His piety was of that rational kind, that will insure his soul admission to the immediate presence of a Saviour, whom he adored and most faithfully served.— He has left an affectionate and amiable wife, and sister, and a few distant relations and intimate friends to lament his loss.

Leonard's Jewelers commended for 100 years of service to area

By ELEANOR POWELL

Staff Writer

Walter D. Leonard Jr., owner of Leonard's Jewelers, has been awarded a certificate naming him a member of the Jewelers 100 Club. He has been in the jewelry business for more than 50 years.

The certificate commended Leonard's Jewelers for over 100 years of continuous service to its community. Leonard said the business will celebrate its 110th anniversary in January 2003.

"I was pleased to be recognized for this honor," he commented this week.

The certificate is signed by Matthew A. Runci, president and CEO, Jewelers of America Inc., New York, N.Y.

Leonard's Jewelers was founded in 1893 by Leonard's Uncle, R.H. Leonard, and was located on the corner of Main and Franklin streets.

In 1926 Walter D. Leonard Sr. came to Mount Airy from his own store in Louisburg. He ran the jewelry store at that location but later moved about three buildings down Main Street.

In 1943 he relocated to the present location, directly in front of Moore Avenue.

Walter Leonard Sr. and his wife owned and operated the jewelry store and were later joined by their son, Walter Leonard Jr. Two of Leonard's daughters, Kathy and Amy are following in their father's footsteps.

Leonard Sr. once said his son Walter Jr.'s expertise in diamonds was probably the best in the county. Walter Jr. was trained by his father just as Walter Sr. as trained by his father.
