DEDICATION

We the student body of M.M.S.N. proudly dedicate this 1964 edition of THE STRIPES to Miss Coleen Soloman, R.N.

The inexpressible knowledge and skill that she displays is an inspiration to everyone around her. She is a person with many talents and skills; a servant to mankind.

We dedicate this to you as a small token of our gratitude.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of Martin Memorial School Of Nursing, in this year of 1964, being in reasonably good health and of doubtfully sound mind and realizing the uncertainty of grades do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Lockhart, the instructors, and staff we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for the help, guidance, and understanding they have shown us during our three years here.

To the Senior Class of 1965 these prized possessions of the 1964 class we leave to you:

I, Shelby Angel leave my witty outlook on life to Jewel Lowry. Betty Gallimore leaves her ability to oversleep to Darnell Cockerham. The fastest walker in the Senior Class, Jane George leaves her fast pace to Mary Watts. Brenda Griffin leaves her natural curly hair to Ann Roberts. To prove this man's institution hasn't got Dale Harris down, she leaves her grey hair here. In the process of trying to slow Lena Mae Thomas down, Pat Johnson leaves her slow manner of talking. The formula for growing tall is being left by Mary McDonald, to Jessie Anna Ward so she will be able to attain great heights in this world. June Martin leaves her ability to keep everything neat and in order to Brenda Hall. For anyone that likes to play guessing games Fay Norman leaves her handwriting because it will really keep you guessing. To anyone that feels they need a quick lift Carolyn Owen leaves her vitamin pills. The money beggar of the class, Sue Porter leaves her money begging ability to Mary Watts. Katherine Redmon is leaving her natural blond hair to Darnell Cockerham since the cost of rinses are going up every day. Since Sharlene Shockley is thinking about settling down to one fellow she will leave a few of her ex-beaus to Mamie Jo Beasley. Frances Speas leaves a reserved seat in the date room and her heavy date schedule to Lena Mae Thomas. Brenda Venable leaves her ability to have fun and her wittiness to Carolyn Lamb. I, Eva Wooten, leave whatever I have, if I have anything, to whoever needs whatever I have and can do anything with whatever this thing is. I, Imogene Bowman leave my giggle to my little sister, Mary Watts.

The Entire Senior Class leave to the housemothers and Lou these quiet halls.

"A Cap and A Cape is now reality and not a dream, so
Student Nurse, the Future is yours."

THE NURSE

That cap the nurse on duty wears
Is costlier than the bonnets gay
Worn by the wives of millionaires
Regardless of the price they pay.
'Tis something she herself can make,
A bit of linen, trimmed and turned
The right to it (for mercy's sake)
Was with three years of training earned.

That uniform of spotless white
Was costlier than a lady's gown,
'Twas bought with care by day and night
For those with illness stricken down.
The royal robes show royal birth
But every nurse's simple pin
Is emblematic of her worth;
A symbol she has toiled to win.

Oh gracious spirit, love imbued,
That can such tender care accord,
Perhaps it is, that gratitude
Must always be your best reward.
Now out of gratitude appears
This tribute, done in simple verse
Unto the dedicated years
Of all who choose to be a nurse.
