

My dear Miss Speer:

If you run and show this letter to the new "Dean" I shall never write to you again. It might cause him to dislike me, and that would be a tragedy.

Write to us when you can, and call on me at any time when I can be of service to you.

With best wishes,

Your friend,

N. Evell Hope

(over)