and about 1822 removed to Nelson. Clifton was appointed a magistrate in 1806, and in 1813 contested unsuccessfully the election of Jesse W. Garth to the House of Delegates. He died unmarried in 1815.

James, as already narrated, lost his life at the Prison Barracks in 1781. His wife was Ann, daughter of John Wingfield and Mary Hudson, and his children Hudson M., James P., and Spotswood. They all removed to Amherst. Hudson was admitted to the bar, represented Amherst in the Legislature, was a captain in the war of 1812, was an intimate friend of General Jackson, and received from him an office in Washington, which he held until the administration of President Tyler. His wife was Letitia Pendleton, and he was the father of Judge James Garland, of Lynchburg, and General John, of the United States Army, who daughter was the the wife of General Longstreet. Spotswood became the first Clerk of Nelson, married a Rose, and was the father of Landon, late Chancellor of Vanderbilt University.

In 1778 Nathaniel bought land from Colonel Charles Lewis in North Garden, near Taylor's Gap. He died in 1793. His wife's name was Jane, and his children were Frances, the wife of John Woodson, Nelson, Mary, the wife of Isham Ready, Anderson, whose widow Nancy was married to Richard Bruce, and whose children removed to Lewis County, Kentucky, Elizabeth and Peter. Peter married Elizabeth, daughter of Benjamin Martin, who after her husband's decease became the wife of Daniel, son of Thomas Martin and Mary Ann White. Peter's sons were James and Goodrich.

William Garland, who was probably a brother of the first James, married Ann, daughter of Christopher Shepherd, and died comparatively young in 1777. His children were Frances, the wife of Reuben Pendleton, Mary, James, and David S. David S. resided at New Glasgow in Amherst, and in 1807 represented the district in Congress. His wife was Jane, daughter of Colonel Samuel Meredith and Jane Henry, sister of the renowned orator.

Another branch of the Garlands was resident in the county at a later date. About 1833 a mercantile firm did business on the public square in Charlottesville under the style of Binford and Garland. The Garland of the firm was James, who soon after removed to Richmond. In 1835 his brother Thomas purchased from John R. Campbell the fine low grounds on the Rivanna, just below the mouth of Buck Island. He was appointed a magistrate in the county in 1838. He was a man of unamiable temper and unsavory reputation. He died in 1874. The brothers came from Goochland County. Their mother was Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Morris, of Green Spring, Louisa, and sister of Mrs. Dr. Frank Carr.

GARRETT.

The name of Garrett must always awaken interest in Albemarle, because of its long official connection with its affairs. William Garrett appeared on the scene in 1764, when he purchased from Francis Jerdone, the same person who bought the Farmington lands and sold them to George Divers, two thousand acres along the northern base of Tom's Mountain, in North Garden. In the course of the next ten years he disposed of this property to different parties, but far the greater portion of it to John Jones. Garrett as well as Jerdone belonged to Louisa. It is thought he was the grandfather of Alexander Garrett. The father of Alexander was Henry, who in 1810 removed from Louisa to Kentucky, and in passing through Charlottesville constituted his son his attorney to settle up his business. He departed this life in his new home in 1815.

Alexander came to the county as early as 1794. In 1799 he was a deputy of Samuel Murrell, who at that time was Sheriff. A year or two after he married Elizabeth, daughter of James Minor, who resided on the north fork of the Rivanna, near Stony Point; and from the mention of his name among those assigned to work the roads, Mr. Garrett evidently lived for a time in the same vicinity. In 1806 he received the appointment of deputy Clerk under John Nicholas. About that time his wife died, and in 1808 he married Evalina, daughter of John Bolling, of North Garden. In 1815 he succeeded Mr. Nicholas as County Clerk, and in 1819 was appointed Clerk of the Circuit Court upon the resignation of John Carr, who had occupied that office since the Circuit Court superseded the District Court in 1809. Both of these offices he held until 1831, when his brother Ira was made County Clerk. Besides his official duties, he was assiduous and successful in many lines of business. He was a large dealer in real estate, owning at different times fine tracts of land in various neighborhoods of the county, Meadow Creek, Birdwood, North Garden, North Blenheim, Ivy Cottage and Greenwood. About 1815 his home was on the south side of University Street, and during the decade of 1820 he erected the large brick mansion at the foot of Second Street. In 1825 he laid out and brought into market the lots on Ridge Street, and in 1828 built Midway as a hotel, of which J. A. Xaupi was the first occupant. During his latter years, owing no doubt to the constant and long continued strain on his powers, he was afflicted with softening of the brain. He died in 1860. By his first marriage he had a daughter, Elizabeth, the first wife of V. W. Southall, and by his second, Dr. John Bolling Garret, Susan, the wife of Dr. Thomas Johnson, Eliza K., the wife of Alexander Duke, and Clarissa, the wife of Dr. Thomas J. Pretlow.

Ira Garrett, like his brother, commenced his business life by riding Sheriff. He was a deputy under Benjamin Harris in 1815, and Robert Davis in 1817. Soon after he became deputy County Clerk under his brother, and in 1831 succeeded him as principal. When the office became elective, he was chosen both to it and the Circuit Court Clerkship, term after term, as long as the people had a voice; and even when another was appointed by military authority, it was demanded by an overwhelming public sentiment that the faithful old man should act as deputy. In 1818 he bought from Jonathan B. Carr the place at the east end of Main Street, which he made his home the rest of his life. He always had a strong inclination to rural pursuits, and in 1836 purchased a plantation south of Charlottesville, afterwards the farm of W. P. Farish; but with him the lack of a close hand marred the knack of accumulation, and the project soon failed. Just before the war he bought Sunnyside, the late residence of Colonel Duke, but the outbreak of hostilities interfered with his enjoyment there. After the war however he indulged this fancy at Hobby Hill, a cottage with a few acres east of James D. Goodman's, where he and his wife, who shared in his taste for horticulture, spent a part of every summer. He died full of years in 1870. His wife was Eliza, daughter of John Watson, and his children Dr. Henry, of Southwest Virginia, John Alexander, George, Jane, the wife of Benjamin Winn, Ann, the wife of Thomas M. Smyth, Isaetta, the wife of K. Kemper, and Ellen, the wife of ——— Watkins, who emigrated to Mississippi.

GARTH.

The first of the Garth family in Albemarle was Thomas, who in 1762 bought from Samuel Taliaferro four hundred and fifty acres on the Indian branch of Buck Island Creek. In 1770 he purchased from John Lewis, of Halifax, nearly a thousand acres on Blue Run, not far from Barboursville. The next three or four years he was employed by Mr. Jefferson to buy the Lego estate from William and James Hickman, sons of Edwin Hickman, the second Sheriff of the county. In 1779 he bought another thousand acres of the Lewis estate on Ivy Creek, and continued his purchases in that section, till he owned all the land stretching from near the Staunton Road, opposite Jesse Lewis's place, to the forks of Mechum's and Moorman's Rivers. On this tract he resided until his death. He was appointed a magistrate in 1791, and served as Sheriff in 1807. He died in 1812. His wife, it is said, was Judith Long, and his children Thomas, John, Elijah, Jesse, Garland, Ann, the wife of Richard Gaines, whose daughter Margaret was the wife of George Crank, and mother of R. G. Crank, a representative of the county in the Legislature twenty years ago, Sarah, the wife of Samuel Poindexter, who removed to Bedford County, Susan, the wife of Isaac Dalton, who emigrated to Stokes County, North Carolina, and Mildred, the wife of John Fretwell.

To the Auditor of the State of North Carolina:

We certify that we have carefully examined the application of Elizabeth Gordon the widow of the late Jonathan D. We certify the following allegations set forth in her application to be true, namely: That she has never re-married; that she is, and has been for twelve months immediately preceding this Application for Pension, a bona fide resident of North Carolina; that she holds no office under the United States, or under any State or County, from which she is receiving the sum of three hundred dollars as fees or as a salary annually; that she is not worth in her own right, or the right of her late husband, property at its assessed value for taxation to the amount of five hundred dollars ($500), nor has she disposed of property of such value by gift or voluntary conveyance since the 11th day of March, 1885, and therefore her application is correct and just under the act.

Advertising programs already are being centered on the following products: Cereals, dried soups, margarine, butter multipoliers, gelatine, coffee substitutes and mixtures and dehydrated foods.

Meanwhile, researchers have been instructed to take a long view of possible shortages and prepare to meet these deficiencies. One company, alone, has developed 19 new food products which doubtless will be placed on the market after the war regardless of whether a need for these foods develops during the war years.

Advertising men say that food advertising in the next year will be highly educational, newsworthy and realistic. There is no indication of a lessening in enterprise in either the manufacture or promotion of foods.

For 17 Year Olds

Stressing the importance of enlisting while still 17 years of age, Lieutenant Lawton M. Calhoun, of the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board in Atlanta, was here yesterday to acquaint the young fellows of the city with the navy's offer of aviation cadet training after completion of high school and after the eighteenth birthday.

Mebane E. Turner, chairman of the local civilian committee on naval aviation, is dispensing information about the opportunities under the new program as are officials in the local navy recruiting station upstairs in the post office building.

Lieutenant Calhoun outlined certain requirements for the applicant. He should first pass the preliminary physical examination at the nocal Navy Recruiting Station. He must be 17; must be unmarried and agree to remain unmarried until his training is completed and his commission is accepted; must be morally, physically, and psychologically qualified for appointment as a cadet; must be able to pass the prescribed mental tests, must be graduated from or currently enrolled in an accredited high school with reasonable expectation of graduation by June 30, 1943; must be in the upper half of his class in academic standing, and must be recommended as to moral character and quality of leadership.

Moreover, he needs to have his birth certificate, three letters of recommendation, the consent of his parents, two pictures of himself, and a letter from his high school principal or college dean certifying that he is in the upper half of his high school class or in the upper two-thirds of his college class and that he is qualified as to moral character for appointment as naval aviation cadet.

Lieutenant Calhoun explained that the period of training for the men is about a year and a half. Since a man must wait until he is 18 to enter active training, it was indicated that he would have reached considerable maturity before going into active service. However, he had better not wait until he is 18 to enlist, Lieutenant Calhoun said.

New Priority Rate Is Given

Charlotte (AP).—The Charlotte District Office of the War Production Board announced yesterday a new order giving a priority rating of AA2X—next to the highest available—to producers of textile goods, clothing, hides and leather, and leather products.

Arthur F. Black, priorities manager of the Charlotte office, said the new rating may be used for keeping machinery or plant in sound working condition, and to restore machinery or equipment worn out.

Potato Price Parity Rate Up

Washington (AP).—The Agriculture Department reported yesterday it would support farm prices of potatoes grown this year at 92 per cent of the parity price instead of 90 per cent as previously announced. Farmers are being urged to plant 17 per cent more land to potatoes for war purposes.

J. P. McCabe conducted the services. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Surviving are eight daughters, Mrs. M. Self, of Koehler; Mrs. Josephine Ijames of Anderson, Ind.; Mrs. H. C. Brandt, of Lynchburg; Mrs. Clyde Hensley, of Salisbury, N. C.; Mrs. G. D. Brandt, of Spencer, N. C.; Mrs. Corrine W. Ferguson, of Koehler; Mrs. F. S. Smith, of Granite Quarry, N. C., and Mrs. Arthur L. Williams, of Lanhan, Md.; and two sons, R. E. Wells, of Red Jacket, W. Va., and R. I. Wells, of New Wilmington, Pa.

Rearrange Schedules

Other eastern trains will slow down accordingly, so that passenger trains will operate under rearranged schedules which will permit existing equipment to carry more people and to adhere more closely to schedules.

The move was expected to relieve increasing irregularity in east coast travel. Frequently in recent months passenger trains have been side-tracked to let freights roar through—especially on lines carrying arms to the seaboard. In most such cases, however, this has occurred only where the siding happened to be too small to hold a 60-car freight but could accomodate a 10-car passenger train.

In some instances badly-needed carloads of steel destined for war plants have been hitched to fast passenger trains, setting some new records for overland freight hauls.

ODT so far has not recognized or sanctioned any priority control over passenger space by railroads or bus lines. However, officials who declined use of their names said that in some cases railroads might have imposed a semblance of such control simply by holding back a few tickets for last-minute emergency use of military or government officials traveling on defense business.

Wright Saved Men's Lives, Lost $15,000

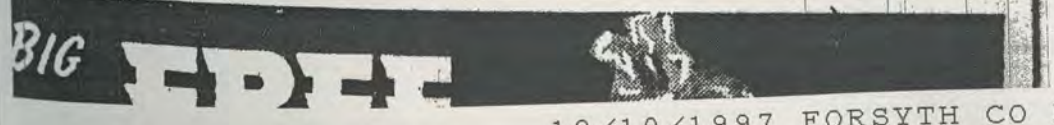

London (UP). — Capt. Jerauld Wright of Massachusetts, senior naval officer in Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clarke's secret "message-to-Garcia" North African mission, ordered the party to sacrifice 750,000 francs (nominally $15,000) to save the small boat in which the mission was escaping, it was revealed here yesterday.

The boat was about to capsize in a rough sea as the eight-man party was fleeing from the Algiers police. All had previously taken off their uniforms and packed them together in one bundle, which also contained the money.

As the boat began to capsize one of the group shouted: "Save the clothes."

"To hell with the clothes," Captain Wright said. He managed to retrieve the oars and brought the party safely to its destination.

Captain Wright is 44. His home town could not be ascertained here. He formerly commanded the battleship Mississippi and was assigned to the staff of Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower by Adm. Harold R. Stark, commander of U. S. naval forces in European waters.

Parade and Exercises at Cemetery Feature Observance Here

Memorial Day was quiet in Winston-Salem with the exception of the exercises conducted during the morning by the patriotic organizations of the city which included a parade through the principal business streets to Salem Cemetery.

The parade which was composed of members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish War veterans, Confederate veterans and other patriotic organizations, was formed at Fourth and Cherry streets and then marched through the business section to the strains of patriotic marches played by the American Legion Band, Pythian Band and High School Band.

At Salem Cemetery, appropriate services were held by the various organizations at the designated graves of departed comrades. Returning to the courthouse square, the parade disbanded after wreaths had been placed at the monuments on the [illegible]

Commencement Concert Draws Crowd to Salem

Before an audience that taxed to capacity the historic auditorium of Memorial Hall, the Salem College school of music touched a high point in its long record of achievement last night when in the annual commencement concert it presented Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," in two parts.

Under the direction of Dean Charles G. Vardell Jr., as conductor assisted by Miss Hazel Horton Read as concertmaster, a very difficult and exacting composition was presented in a manner that left nothing for the audience to desire. It is true two nationally known artists, Dicie Howell, soprano, and Dan Gridley, tenor, and an able local baritone, Ernest Leslie Schofield, sang the principal roles, and sang then in masterly fashion, still the part of the performance which pre-eminently stirred the admiration of the listeners was the rousing choruses in which the large vocal chorus and orchestra combined with such exultant effect

In the concert portion of the program, which preceded the oratorio, Miss Howell and Mr. Gridley each sang a group of numbers that brought prolonged applause and several encores. The bright lyrical quality of Miss Howell's voice was delightfully effective. The wide range of Mr. Gridley's voice and his excellent command of the high notes were evident in all of his selections. He sang with considerable feeling and expression that gave both himself and his songs personality.

The accompanists were Miss Viola Tucker and Miss Ruth Marsden. Their playing, which was executed with delicacy and appropriateness, was no small contribution to the success of the soloists.

Among the numbers sang by Miss Howell were the following: "O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me" by Handel; "The Bird of the Wilderness" by Edward Horsman; "Aquarelles No. 1" by Debussy; "Les Filles de Cadix" by Delibes.

Four principal numbers sang by Mr. Gridley were "Recondita Armonica" from "Tosca" by G. Puccini; "I Heard A Piper Piping" by Norman Peterkin; "Sea Fever" by John Ireland; and "Morning Serenade" by Clara Edwards.

The concert and oratorio was the final and climatic event of the present school term and a feature of the commencement program at Salem College. It brought to a fitting conclusion a long series of public concerts, recitals and musical hours presented by the music department during the 1930-31 term.

Court Handles Heavy Docket

Total of 130 Cases Disposed of During Two-Weeks Term

A total of 130 cases were disposed of during the two-weeks term of superior court for the trial of criminal cases which terminated Friday evening at 7 o'clock, the records of Ernest Yarbprough, court clerk, show. Of this number, only about 15 were left open for judgment or continued until the July term, leaving 115 cases in which final judgment was entered.

The Forsyth Grand Jury acted upon a total of 80 bills during the term, finding true bills in 76 actions. In addition to the calendar cases a large number of actions came up from municipal court for trial.

The heaviest sentence meted out during the term fell upon the shoulders of Napoleon G. Scott, negro house-breaker with a monotonous record of crime stretching through many years. Napoleon is reputed to have been given from ten to twenty years in 1920 for housebreaking. Judge Wilson Warlick gave him not less than fifteen or more than twenty years in State Prison. The only other prisoner sentenced to State Prison was Raleigh Miller who was adjudged guilty of the larceny of an auto-

Can anyone tell me the parents of Jacob Bullin md. Mary ("Polly") Butcher in Stokes 14 Nov 1799? They eventually came to Surry and had these probable children: Wm. md. Sarah Holyfield, Sarah md. Rice Key, Charles md. Nelly Holyfield & Evaline Evans, Mary md. Thomas Wood, Jr., 5 others (4 boys/1 girl) names unknown. Is Rev. War soldier Isaac d. 1828 Stokes his brother? Are these sisters: Fanny Bolling to John Bowles 27 Apr 1795 & Leanner Bolling to John Cox 6 Sep 1791 [both Henry, VA]; Nancy Rolfe Bolling to William Joseph Bowls 7 Dec 1800 [Franklin VA]? Thanks. Jim

My family tree includes Nellie Bullen. She was the daughter of William and Sally. My sister has a copy of William Bullen's will and a family group sheet. She also has additional information on the Hollyfields. Not as much on the Bullens.

William is my fourth great grandfather.
My sister's address is
Minnie Lorenzen
517 S. Barkley
Mesa,AZ 85204

She will be able to help you.

Good Luck! Hope this helps.

Jim,

Good to see that you are still at it. I was in Winston-Salem three weeks ago finishing up on some research at the probate office there.

Delilah Coe, who was born in 1845 in Surry County, was the third child of Jesse and Sarah (Wood) Coe. She married June 21, 1863, in Surry County, George Bullin, son of William and Sally (Holyfield) Bullin. A private with Company A, 28th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, Confederate Army, George Bullin was taken prisoner April 2, 1865, near Petersburg, VA, and held at Fort Delaware, DE, until taking the oath of allegiance, June 19. After 1871 they moved in a covered wagon first to Bland County, VA, then to Roane County, WV, where they were known as Bullard. Children (1-3 b. in Surry County, NC; 4-5 b. in Bland County, VA; 6-10 b. in Roane County, WV): Emily J., b. 1865; Edward, b. Jan. 11, 1869; Hulda, b. 1871; Matilda, b. 1873; Cora, b. Aug. 1875; Huston Abram, b. Jan. 1878; George Jr., b. Feb. 1880; Bannie, b. 1883; Elizabeth, b. Nov. 1882; Delilah, b. 1886.

Delilah was a first cousin of Elizabeth Lydia Coe who married Thomas Davis. You are of course correct about her mother. I've never been able to discover when William Coe's second wife Rachel Holyfield died and when he married Elizabeth Gentry. If I would have taken the time to check the 1860 census of Surry County's Blevin District, I would have seen that he was at that time married to Elizabeth Gentry.

I hope that the above information is helpful.

(1) Edmond Bullin was living in his father's home at the 1850 census in Rockford District, Northern Division, and was a farmer. By 1860 he is a constable and living in Dobson District. On 4- 5 May 1861, Edmond Bullin was part of the first group to volunteer for service in Surry County for the Civil War, enlisting at Dobson in Company "A," 28th Regiment, NC Troops. He was present on the company muster rolls until January-February 1863, when he was reported to be in a hospital, cause not known. No other information about his military service is known. In 1870 he and Martha are living in Dobson Township, with their two daughters, and Martha's widowed father, Ruel. They are farmers. By 1880 both daughters have married and Edmond and Martha are farmers living alone. Circa 1888 Martha died and on 1 September 1889, Edmond, age 57, married Martha Hunter, age 21. Martha was born in April 1869, in Surry County, daughter of Lewis Hunter and "Milly" Pruett. By 1900 they are living in the city of Dobson, with their son, Walter L., born May 1888 [before his parents' marriage]. The census indicates another child from this marriage ahd died. In the index of "Inventories and Accounts" is a listing for Book 4, page 465, dated 29 April 1901, giving Martha her "widow's years allowance." It is probably that Edmond and both wives are buried in the Bingman-Wood Graveyard, north of Dobson, or in the Dobson City Cemetery.

Dear Jimmy,

Many thanks for sending me the land division document for the Holyfield/Bullen families. I haven't seen that before, and I did find it very interesting. As yet, I haven't done alot of research on my paternal grandmother's side of the family--I've been stuck on the Badgetts forever!

My grandmother's mother (Mary Jane "Mollie" Bullin Bingman) was given the wrong kind of medicine when her three children were very young. As the terrible result, she spent the remainder of her life (more than 38 years) institutionalized at Morganton. The children were reared by their dad's sister, Mary Bingman -- and no one seems to know much more. I didn't have sense enough to ask while my relatives were living.

The Marions come in on my grandfather's (Sam Badgett) side of the family. I'm sending the family sheet for Robert and Mary "Polly" Alberty Marion, and I'm not even sure it is complete. If I locate any other information, I'll send it to you.

Do you have a copy of the Stanley/Wood/Coe/Hardy documents that were in the Ancestral File at the SCC Library? It was a division of land, similar to the Holyfield/Bullen document, and there must have been at least 100 names and relationships given on it. I made a copy with the intent of giving it to Wade for the Journal, but instead I sent it to someone else who was doing research. Now, everything is gone from the file including the envelope. Hopefully, someone has just "borrowed" it and maybe it will return eventually.

Hope you'll get to come to the next meeting. I look forward to hearing the speaker from Pittsylvania Co., VA.

Thanks again for sharing the material with me. When I get further along with my research, I may "beg" for more!

Sincerely,

Ann

RUEL SNOW

Ruel (or Reuel) Snow was born October 5, 1793, in Surry County, North Carolina, the oldest child of Fielding and Sarah (Fortner) Snow. Ruel married Chloe (or Cloah) Wilmoth in Surry County on April 7, 1818. Chloe, born February 2, 1795, was the daughter of Ezekiel and Mary Wilmoth, who lived on Mitchell's River in Surry County.

To the union of Ruel and Chloe were born the following eight children: (1) Terrell Bledsoe, born February 12, 1819; (2) James Lacy, born March 1, 1821; (3) Mehuldah, born February 19, 1823; (4) Simpson Westberry, born May 15, 1825; (5) Martha, born February 23, 1830; (6) Ezekiel D., born September 13, 1832 (date ?); (7) Thomas, born March 2, 1835; and (8) one additional son, name unknown, who died in childhood.

Late in life, following Chloe's death, Ruel married Sarah (Hutson) Collins, widow of Rufus A. Collins, in Surry County on February 14, 1872. The union of Ruel and Sarah produced one son, Shepard Snow, birth date unknown.

The Census of 1820 does not list Ruel and Chloe, who may have been listed with the household of his father, Fielding Snow. By the Census of 1830, they have established a household close by Chloe's brother, William Wilmoth. Ruel, Chloe, and family, like their relatives, were tobacco farmers. They lived along Double Creek, near Rockford, and the Census of 1840 notes that all members of the family could read and write except the youngest children. In the Census of 1850, their neighbors included Hardin and Palina Holyfield and their 11 children, and William and Sally (Holyfield) Bullen and their 9 children.

By 1860, on the eve of the War Between the States, Ruel, age 66, and Chloe, age 65, had divided their land and possessions among their children and were living with their son, "Sim" (Simpson W. Snow), along Double Creek. Chloe died December 10, 1868, and Ruel went to live in Dobson with his daughter, Martha, who had married her neighbor, Edmond Bullen, son of William and Sally Bullen, on January 31, 1855. While living in Dobson, Ruel met and married Sarah Collins, as previously noted. Ruel's exact date of death has not been determined, but he is believed to have died prior to 1880.

Ruel and Chloe (Wilmoth) Snow are buried in graves marked with field stones directly behind the graves of their son Terrell B. Snow and his wife, Caroline (Mosley) Snow, in the John Henry Holyfield Cemetery. The cemetery is located in the woods back of a modern, two-story log home on the right-hand side of Hardin Holyfield Road (State Road 2236) near Stony Knoll.

Marine Killed In Low Bailout

ELIZABETH CITY (AP). — A Marine Corps flyer was killed yesterday when he bailed out of his fighter plane at Belcross, about five miles from Elizabeth City.

His parachute had opened and Naval spokesmen at Norfolk, Va., theorized that the low altitude at which he bailed out was responsible for his death.

Another Marine airman, Captain William C. Smith of Bodey, Minn., encountered the same trouble — a zero ceiling and exhausted fuel—but managed to make a ground-control-approach landing at the Elizabeth City Coast Guard Air Station.

Naval authorities withheld the name of the dead man temporarily.

The flyers radioed at 4:01 p.m. They had 20 minutes' fuel supply left. Smith made his landing at 4:42 p.m. The other flyer bailed out two minutes later.

The flyers were station at the Marine Air Station at Cherry Point.

Lieutenant Paul McGill: Coast Guard public information officer, said a ground search party sent to the scene found the plane about three miles east of Belcross. The pilot's body was found nearby with the parachute partially opened.

he was 1/4 Indian. He claimed to be kin to the Cherokee Indians that lived in the upper end of Georgia. He was born and raised in Oconee Co., Ga. He said his father was 1/2 Indian; I have heard that my grandfather's name was Jacob, but I don't know. My grandfather was wounded at a battle with the Indians in the swamps of Fla. He went out with the troops in Ga., and went out to fight the Indians. He died 3 days after they brought him back to Ga. I don't know where he lived before that. My father said he was born July 27, 1818; his name was Benj. F. Booth; he died at Atlanta, Ga., about 1882. He went from this country about 1879 to Atlanta, Ga., on a visit. My father came here about 1840 with a tobacco-trader. He was a soldier in the last war. I have heard him talk about being kin to the friendly Indians, the Cherokees. He claimed they lived in the upper end of Georgia and it was called the Cherokee purchase. My father never did get any money from the Government, as an Indian, as I ever heard of; I don't know whether he was ever enrolled as an Indian. My father was never known by any other name than Benj. H. Booth, that I know of. In 1851, my father lived in Stokes Co.; he was a voter in Stokes Co. He frankly confessed that he was an Indian and everyone in the neighborhood knew it. He was not ashamed of it. My mother was a white woman. If my father had been enrolled, I would probably have known it. I have brothers and sisters applying for this money and their Indian blood is the same as mine."
SIGNED: John Walton Booth, Pilot Mt., N. C., Mar 23 1908.
Ben Booth (19963)...deposes and says:
"My name is Ben Booth; I am 48 years old; I live at Moors Springs, N. C. I am a brother of Jno. W. Booth, whose testimony is given above; that testimony is correct. Alpha J. East (19953) is my daughter."

MISC. TEST. P. 41. No 19969 - Mary Catherine Marion:

"My name is Mary Catherine Marion; I am 59 years old; my postoffice is Siloam, Surry Co., N. C. I was born in Surry Co. I claim Indian blood through my father, John Blevins. He was born in Cherokee Nation. I did not know my father's father. My mother told me that my father came from the Cherokee Indians. I don't know where my father is; he said he was going back to the Cherokees and went off; he has never been back. He had been living with my mother about 6 years then. He went off in July, and I was born in September. John Blevins was his only name. I don't know whether I have been enrolled by the Government as an Indian. I went to the white school when I was little, and then I quit. I don't know whether I received any money from the Government as a Indian; if I had, I would probably remember it. I received a letter about 9 or 10 years ago, saying that there was a lot of money for the Blevins and I sent in an application with witnesses, and said that there was no one but me. I have no brothers or sisters; I had two sisters and they are dead. I never lived with the Indians myself. I have always passed as a white woman; they throwed it up to me lots of times, and I said I did not care, that my father was an Indian, and that I could not help it. I never heard of the Chickasaws, Choctaws, or Catawbas; when I was a little child, my mother told me father was a Cherokee Indian and wore his hair down on his shoulders, never would have it cut, and he had dark skin. I do not know in what state my father was born; he was just "Cherokee". I don't know whether my father had any relations in W. Va., or not. Father lived in Surry Co. about 6 years and said he was going back to the Cherokees. I don't know anything about my father's father or mother; he just came in here and claimed to come from Cherokee and to be a Cherokee Indian. My mother was known as Mary Wall. I can prove that my father and mother were married up close to Pine Hill church. My mother never heard from my father after he started away, that time, that I know of. He wasn't over 25 when he married my mother; he was a powerful man; worked in the forge. I do not know anyone who knew my father when he was living among the Cherokees. All I know is that my mother said he was a Cherokee Indian, or he always claimed to be. I understood that they would not let my father vote. My mother married Rural Adkins the second time; my mother is dead now. She had a son, Luke Adkins; he was in W. Va. I don't know where he is now. I have a daughter in W. Va., Alice Hunley, and one here, MeLissie E. Doss, who filed a claim (19959), and son Saml. W. Blevins (19966). His father is not an Indian, nor was father of any of my children Indian; all the Indian they have, they get from me." SIGNED: Mary Catherine "X" Marion, Pilot Mt., N. C., Mar 23 1908.

(later Symons Creek Monthly Meeting)

Pasquotank County, North Carolina

The monthly meeting in Pasquotank was usually referred to as Pasquotank Monthly Meeting in the early records of other monthly meetings. About 1770 the name Symons Creek Monthly Meeting began to be used occasionally, and this usuage increased until, by 1800, the name Pasquotank is rarely found. In its own earliest records the meeting is designated "a monthly meeting held at the house of Henry White" (or Caleb Bundy, etc.) A little later it was "a monthly meeting held in Pasquotank at Symons Creek" (or at Newbegun Creek, or occasionally, at Little River). Toward the end of the eighteenth century it became "Symons Creek Monthly Meeting held in Pasquotank County."

The earliest men's minute book of Pasquotank Monthly Meeting begins with a reference to a monthly meeting held at the house of Henry White the 7th of 5th month, probably in 1698. The recorded minutes date from 1699. During the years 1700 and 1701 monthly meetings were held at the houses of Henry White, Thomas Cartwright and Stephen Scott. At the meeting in 3rd month, 1702, it was agreed that the monthly meeting should be held thereafter at the house of Caleb Bundy, and that the first day meetings should alternate between the house of Stephen Scott and the house of Henry White.

At the monthly meeting held at Caleb Bundy's house in the Precinct of Pasquotank, 1st of 3rd month, 1703, Friends agreed that a meeting house should be built "at Pasquotank with as much speed as can be." Dr. Weeks says in "Southern Quakers and Slavery," page 67: "This is the oldest Quaker meeting house of which we have distinct record, and it places their church edifices among the very oldest in the colony." On the 5th of 2nd month, 1705, the meeting decided to build a meeting house on the plantation of Joseph Jordan, "at the charge of Friends belonging to Pasquotank." At monthly meeting held at the house of Caleb Bundy the 4th of 5th month, 1706, Friends designated Caleb Bundy, Stephen Scott and Henry Keton to choose a proper location and build a meeting house between Caleb Bundy's house and William Brothers' Creek.

In the earliest book of women's minutes the marriage of Timothy Meaids and Ane Blessing is recorded under date of 13th of 4th month, 1677. Witnesses to this marriage included Henry White, John Hunte, Arnould White, William Travis, William Torner, Dorathy Harvy, Mary White, Sary Travis, Francis Hunt, Ruth Torner, Elezabeath Sherad and Elinor Tailler. On the 24th of 4th month, 1679, Sollomon Poole and Margret White were married at the house of Henry White. Witnesses included Henry White, Timothy Meads, Francis Tooms, Charles Prous, Willam Smith, Jonathan Taillor, Arnould White, George Tailer, William Davis, William Bread, Willam Larson, Crestofer Oulldford, Mary White, Sary Davis, Francis Hunte, Rebecca Simons, Ane Maids, Elezabeath Larson and Jeams Hunte. Several other marriages are recorded with dates previous to 1700. One minute refers to a quarterly meeting held the 7th of 4th month, 1690. Monthly meetings are mentioned in 1696. At a quarterly meeting, held 4th of 4th month, 1698, a change in the dates for holding quarterly meetings was agreed upon; it was also agreed that the last seventh day of 7th month in every year should be Yearly Meeting at the house of Francis Toms the Elder. All of these meetings for business and most of the marriages were held at Henry White's house.

Three wills are recorded in the first book of women's minutes. Will of Arnould White, not dated. Executors, his brothers, Henry White and Thomas Symons. Mentions his son Arnould; his brother's daughter, Elizabeth; his brother Henry's children. (Note. Arnould White died 1690,2, 23. Will of Isack Page, dated 1680,4,30. Executors, Charles Prous and Henry White. Witnesses, Dorothy Prouse, Damaris Moris and Elizabeth Page. Mentions his daughter, Damaris, and her children; his daughter, Elizabeth, and provides for her if she marries Samuel Hill. Will of George Tailler, dated 1680,3,19. Witnesses, Henry White and Arnould White. All wordly goods both reall and personall, to wife and children, to be equally divided as they come of age; children to remain with wife if she remains unmared.

The preparative meetings which made up Pasquotank Monthly Meeting included Symons Creek, Newbegun Creek, the Narrows, Little River and Trueblood's. All these appear to have been located in Pasquotank County except Little River; this meeting was located on the west side of Little River, in Perquimans County, but had its membership in both counties. The early membership of the monthly meeting included Caleb Bundy, Samuel Bundy, Thomas Cartwright, Edward Chancey, Samuel Charles, Timothy Clare, Mary Clark, James Davis, William Everigin, Mary Glaistor, William Griffin, Joseph Jordan, Henry Keaton, Ann Low, wife of Emanuel Low, Edward Mayo, Timothy Meaids, William Morris, James Newby, Zachariah Nixon, Jacob Overman, Isaac Page, Solomon Pool, Mathew Pritchard, Sarah Pritchard, Joseph Robinson, Thomas Robinson, Augustin Scarbrough, Ostran Scarbrough, Stephen Scott, Ann Symons, Sr., Jeremiah Symons, Sr., Jeremiah and Rebecca Symons, John Symons, Peter Symons, Thomas Symons, Francis Toms, James Tooke, Thomas Tweedy, Arnould White, Henry White, John White, Isaac Wilson, Jesse Wilson.

The monthly meeting changed its chronology from the "Old Style" to the "New Style" after the meeting on 5th of 4th month, 1752, O.S. The minute recording the change reads: "By act of Parliament we are obliged to fall in with the new stile and begin at New Year's day, calling that the first month, namely January, so called." The next succeeding meeting was that of 2nd of 7th month, 1752, N.S.

Suttons Creek Monthly Meeting, set up in Perquimans County in 1794, took over part of the Perquimans membership of Pasquotank (Symons Creek) Monthly Meeting. This arrangement continued until 1835 when Suttons Creek Monthly Meeting was laid down and its entire membership transferred to Symons Creek Monthly Meeting.

The History of the closing years of Symons Creek Monthly Meeting is told by Dr. Weeks (page 261) as follows: "A considerable number had removed to central North Carolina before 1810, and in 1811 the definite migration to the West began. The result was as usual, the particular meeting at the Narrows was laid down in 1839, the one at Newbegun in 1845; in 1846 but fifty-five members were reported at Symons's Creek; in 1854 Little River preparative meeting was laid down, and in the same year, while the preparative meeting and the meeting for worship at Symons's Creek were kept up a little longer, the monthly meeting was laid down and the faithful remnant was joined to Piney Woods."

The birth, death and marriage records of Pasquotank and Symons Creek Monthly Meeting are found in five volumes. Volume I has births and deaths only; volume II has births, deaths and marriages; volume III has marriages only; volume IV has births and deaths only; volume I of women's minutes contains the oldest records of births, deaths and marriages. In the following transcript of the birth and death records, page numbers without volume indication refer to records in volume I; page numbers followed by 2, 4 or W refer to records in volume II, volume IV, and the women's minute book, respectively. The abstract of the marriage records and minutes has been compiled from the books containing marriage records as noted above and from the books of men's minutes, 1698 to 1854 (4 volumes), and the books of women's minutes, 1715 to 1854 (3 volumes)

All the record books of the meeting are in the care of North Carolina Yearly Meeting at Guilford College with the exception of the second volume of men's minutes, 1785 to 1803. This latter book is in the custody of the North Carolina Historical Commission, at Raleigh.

Bundy Family Cemetery
Ash Hill Area

Directions: Exit off Siloam Rd 1003 onto SR 2040 and continue on this unpaved road. Soon on right will see large red dairy barn on edge of road. Just past this off road will see a house trailer, 200 yds in trees. This will be home of Tim Tate, R-8, Box 458C, Mt Airy, NC. He is knowledgeable of the exact location in woods on right some 2000 yards in dense woods. Cemetery is 100 ft by 40 ft. Heavy woods cover the cemetery. Susan and late Willie Huff first informed me of Bundy Cemetery.

1. ML Ursla, w/o Alfred Bundy 1822-Jul 25, 1915. M/F/Alfred Bundy 1810-Jun 16, 1888.
2. Bro. Harden F, s/o #1 above 1859-May 5, 1879.
3. I/s/o TH & NE Allison 1889, baby 1889.
4. 3 sets of tall and heavy f/rocks for 3 baby markers, h-ft.
5. 6 sets of adult markers. 1 tall red f/rock grown in trunk of tree.

MEET THE GREAT-GRANDSONS OF SIAMESE TWINS — Heredity asserted itself in the birth of twin sons to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bunker, near White Plains, in Surry county. They are descendants of the most famed twins since Romulus and Remus. They are great-grandsons of one of the "Siamese Twins" with whom P. T. Barnum interested the world and medical science. They were given the names of their flesh-joined ancestors. Above, with their mother, are Wayne Eng, at left, and Wade Chang Bunker. Wayne was born first. At right is an old picture of "Siamese Twins," Chang and Eng, who took the family name of Bunker. The twins are descendants of Eng.—(Exclusive Photo by Eckenrod.)

On Friday, July 28, any family members interested in getting together for lunch at noon at Ray's Starlight in Mount Airy are welcome. After lunch the group will visit the Mount Airy Visitors Center and the Mount Airy Museum of Regional History.

ENG & CHANG BUNKER 11th ANNUAL REUNION

The families of the original Siamese Twins, Eng and Chang Bunker, will have a family social gathering on Saturday, July 29, 2000, in the White Plains Recreational Building, which is located at the Old White Plains School site in White Plains, NC, four or five miles south of Mount Airy on Old Hwy 601. The reunion will begin at 11 a.m. Bring a picnic basket for lunch at noon, and bring pictures or other info about the family. Also, tell other family members to come. For more information call Dorothy Haymore (336) 786-2632; Betty Blackmon (336) 789-1808; Jessie Bryant (336) 769-2517; Jim Haynes (843) 394-2477.

Eng and Chang were born in Siam in 1811 and died in 1874 at age 63. They are buried one-half mile from the site of the reunion. You may wish to see the grave. Lodging is available in Mount Airy at Comfort Inn (336) 789-2000 or Hampton Inn (336) 789-5999.

Thailand statue honors Siamese twins

21 Aug 1995

■ Eng and Chang were brought to U.S. in early 19th century, later settled in Wilkes and Surry

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

SAMUT SONGKRAM, Thailand — Eng and Chang can once again be seen in their native town.

Joined at their torsos at birth on March 11, 1811, the brothers were the original Siamese twins, earning a cruel sort of fame and fortune as circus attractions in America and Europe in the 19th century.

The twins eventually settled down in Wilkes and Surry counties in North Carolina, farming and rearing large families.

They never returned to the town where they were born, Samut Songkram, a salt-production center outside Bangkok, until yesterday — when a larger-than-life sculpture featuring them was displayed as part of a bigger memorial that the town hopes to build.

Locally called In and Chan, the brothers were little-known among Thais until the past 20 yearsd. Most stories and photographs of them were compiled by foreigners in the lands where the twins lived out their adult lives.

The statue, said Somyos Yeamprai, a local official who helped raise money to build the memorial, could change that. He hopes that it will become a tourist attraction and would like to complement it with a museum explaining the poignant lives of the brothers.

"Now, everyone here will know

The statue of Eng and Chang in Samut Songkram seems to be looking at a puppet show that was part of the ceremony.

SIAMESE TWINS

In and Chan by this statue, and then people worldwide will know this little town was once their first homeland," Somyos said. "People are curious about them. There is a lot to find out about the twins."

Local officials said it took years for the memorial to take shape. Thousands of fishermen donated broken bronze propellers from which the statue was eventually cast.

Born on a houseboat to a fisherman's family, the twins left Siam, as Thailand was known then, at the age of 17 with two British businessmen who told their widowed mother they wanted to introduce her children to the world and offered her some money in return. The twins were taken to Boston and advertised in the freak shows popular at the time. Members of the ogling public paid 50 cents each for a glimpse.

After about eight years of touring, they bought a farm in Traphill in Wilkes County.

They married sisters — Eng wed Sarah Yates and Chang wed Adelaide Yates. Eng fathered 11 children and Chang fathered 10.

As their families grew, the house became too crowded and the twins moved again, this time to the White Plains community in Surry County. They built separate houses less than a mile apart but lived together: three days at one house, then three days at the other.

After the Civil War wiped out their fortunes, they went on tour again under showman P.T. Barnum.

In 1870, they stopped touring and retired to their farm. Chang died on a January night in 1874, and Eng followed him hours later.

They have more than 1,000 descendants living in Surry County.

Does anyone recognize this family found on the 1900 census of Surry County, North Carolina?

Dudley, Clingman 32
.....Bettie -wife 33
.....Brady -son 11
.....Garfield -son 7
.....Nolie (?)-dau 3
.....Lillie -dau 1
Burchette, Nancy -mil 63

Bettie Burchette and Clingman were married Sept 1888 in Surry County.

Lillie was my grandmother. Many years ago, she told me her father's name was "Clain" Dudley and thought he had been raised by a step-father.

I would appreciate any bit of information on Clingman's or Bettie's family. Thanks!
