Dear Terry:

I received 2 letters from you today just before I was leaving to go to Bassett Library to work. I don't know what to tell you about sending your family charts to Surry County, yet I do know that the Patrick County Historical Museum would appreciate copies of them. They only opened last year and are glad to get all the information they can on Patrick and surrounding counties families.

After hurriedly running through your letters before I left, I got some new ideas on where to look. Going on the premise that William's father was John, I started searching for John Lovells. I found the marriage of John Lovell and Frances Buckham on July 28, 1815 in Culpepper County. If William was born circa 1820 - 1825 as indicated on the 1825 census, I think this couple is a good candidate. After finding this, I started searching for John Lovells on the 1820 Va. census. Guess where I found John? Henry County! On the 1820 census John was listed between the age of 26-45 (gives you a lot of leeway, huh?). His wife was age 16-26 and in the household was one male age 0-10. I then checked the 1830 census (copy enclosed). As you can see by that time they had added one male 0-5 (this could very well be Wm. (1825) and one female 0-5. Of course William was married and out of the household by 1850 so this lets out really tying him to John by census records. I also found in Culpepper the marriage of Elizabeth Lovell to Henry Taliaferro on Feb 19, 1800; and Frances Lovell to Wm. G. Hiatt (Hyatt) on May 30, 1811. These are most likely John's sisters.

On the Culpepper - Westmoreland connection, I started checking other counties for Lovells. As early as 1695 a Robert Lovell was already a landowner in Westmoreland. It will take much more work to tie them all together. I also found a John Lovell on the 1787 tax list for Rockland County.

In a book "Marriages of Pittsylvania County 1806-1830" I found the following. January 7, 1820 Robert Coleman and Sarah Crews, daughter of Susannah Crews who consents. Rev. John Crews - married Jan. 13 by the Rev. Shadrack Mustain.

In a book "Marriages of Old Rappahannock and Essex Counties", I found the following. Jan 7, 1806 Martin Coleman and Patsy Haskins. This can't be Robert's father Martin, unless it was possibly a second marriage for him. However, it could be Robert's brother. I looked in Halifax County (Robert's birthplace) for a marriage for Martin, but didn't find anything.

I did find many references in Culpepper Co. to Robert Lovell, Sr and his wife Sarah and Robert Lovell, Jr. and his wife, Betty. I think there is a good possibility that Robert, Jr. could be Martin's father. (Enclosed Samples.)

I checked Stokes County on the 1880 census for William, but did not find him. He also was not in Patrick in 1880.

I then concentrated on Wm and Net New. They should have been listed on the 1870 Stokes County census. However, there was no William and Net. I did find J. H. (James William) New age 33, Farmer Chelnessey, age 31, Mary E, age 12; John who was listed on 1860 census had died; James D 5; George R3; Sarah E, 1. I also found the enclosed on the Martins. Why are your Mother and your Aunt so sure this is Net your line? If I had a name like Octavia Chilcissa I'd have a nickname also! If this is not your line, where were they in 1870? They aren't on the Stokes or Patrick census.

I'm glad you enjoy the letters, so do I. I've made some really good friends doing this, especially a man from Dalden, Co. I've been working on his family (Palmer) for almost 2 years. He and his son, who lives in San Francisco, came to see me in May and spent a week. We had a ball. They had never been to Patrick and thoroughly enjoyed themselves and so did I. In fact, Greg is looking for real estate to buy here.

I have decided about the marriages you received from Stokes regarding William and Frances' other children. Why would one of them use the name "Billie".

Just don't give up, we'll finally get them all sorted out.

Back in touch soon.

Best Regards,

Kelly

WILLIAM C. AND SARAH (WORLEY) MARTIN

504

William C. (called "Billy") Martin was born about 1795 in Virginia, probably in Bedford or Botetourt County. His parentage is not known at this time. A Thomas Martin was the security for William C.'s marriage, and is likely a brother or other close relative. The marriage bond of William C. Martin and Sarah Worley in Bedford County, Virginia, is dated 11 October 1828. Sarah's guardian, Jesse Brown, gave his consent, and they were married the following day by William Leftwich. Sarah was one of the ten children of David Worley and wife Patsy Payne who married in Bedford with the bond dated 19 November 1803. David was the son of Francis (died 1780) and Martha Worley. Patsy was a descendant of Flayl Payne (c 1706-1765) of Frederick County, Maryland.

William C. and Sarah (Worley) Martin had eight children, all except the youngest being born in Virginia (Bedford and Floyd counties). The family removed to Stokes County in the mid-1840's and the youngest child was born there about 1847.

The oldest child, Samuel D. Martin, was born 11 November, probably in the year 1829, and died in Stokes County in 1899. He married in Patrick County 19 July 1860 to Susan F. Overby. (See separate article.)

The second child, Jemima F. Martin, was born about 1834. She is listed on the 1850 Census with her family but no further record is known.

The third child, William Alexander "Sandy" Martin, was born 9 January 1835 and died 15 January 1916. He married 10 February 1859 to Sarah Aaron, who was born 2 January 1840, and died 5 March 1924. They had ten children as follows: John A. Martin (28 August 1860 — 28 October 1930) married first 18 October 1892 to Nannie Allred, and second to Emma Alice Joyce; William J. Martin (4 November 1863 — 4 March 1865); Savannah Texas Martin (7 July 1866 — 17 March 1865); Savannah Texas Martin (7 July 1866 — 17 March 1928) married 18 February 1886 William Thomas Collins (19 January 1862 — 28 June 1934), son of James Jackson and Mary Emily (Lawson) Collins; Augustus Martin (12 March 1869 — 24 July 1952) married Huetokah Marshbank; Joseph Gideon Martin (12 June 1872 — 23 February 1939) married 2 January 1898 to Vila A. Overby (5 January 1874 — 25 February 1952), daughter of Burrell and Martha (New) Overby; James Dillard Martin (8 April 1875 — 21 June 1929) married 29 June 1924 Ada Barnard (20 May 1883 — 15 February 1971); George Wesley Martin (28 July 1877 — 23 November 1955) married 16 August 1903 Bettie Webb; Robert Martin (12 February 1880-1957) never married; Walter A. Martin (16 June 1882 — 17 March 1926) married Flora Hutchens (23 September 1888 — 11 May 1962); Alice Virginia Martin (24 February 1885 — 15 August 1951) married Sandy A. Beasley (8 July 1876 — 2 May 1931), son of William and Susan (Collins) Beasley.

The fourth child, Sarah Florantine Martin, was born about 1838 and died about 1859. She married 16 December 1858 to James Madison Mitchell, son of George and Martha Mitchell. There were no children.

The fifth child, Chelnissa Octavia Martin, was born about 1840. She married 13 October 1856 to William New. They were the parents of several children including: Mary New (born about 1857); John New (born June 1860, died young); James D. New (born about 1865); George Rufus New (born about 1867); Sarah E. New (born about 1869); and Susan New (born about 1874).

The sixth child, Thomas J. Martin, was born 28 July 1841, died 21 April 1913 and was buried at the Martin (New) Cemetery. He married 28 March 1868 to Catherine Frances "Kitty" New who was born 6 August 1840 and died 19 April 1925. Tom and Kitty were the parents of six children: Nancy Jaromie "Nannie" (9 April 1870 — 7 June 1936) never married; Mary A. Martin (20 March 1873 — 22 April 1948) married 5 April 1914 Giles M. The seventh child, Elizabeth "Puss" Martin, was born 14 February 1842 and died 27 January 1929. She married about 1860 to James Madison "Matt" Mitchell, the widower of her sister Sarah Florantine. Matt and Puss had nine children as follows: Joseph C. Mitchell (born about 1861); Gabriel R. Mitchell (born about 1863); Lucy Ann Mitchell (born about 1865); Fannie B. Mitchell (7 April 1870 — 5 July 1949) married 12 January 1896 Elkanah Dunkley (23 October 1875 — 18 July 1952), son of William H. and Elizabeth Jane (Collins) Dunkley; Nicholas "Nick" Mitchell (born about 1873); Gassie Mitchell (born about 1880) married 20 January 1903 Andy Holt, son of William D. and Paulina Jane (Wood) Holt; Lester L. Holt (female — born about 1881) married 22 March 1903 Kelly Holt, brother to Andy; Nannie M. Mitchell (born about 1883) married 22 March 1903 Powell Holt.

The eighth and youngest child, Finetta F. Martin, was born about 1847 in Stokes County. She married 6 December 1866 to William Coleman and they had several children including: Creed Coleman (born about 1868), Mary Ann Coleman (born about 1870); Sarah Coleman (born about 1872); Willaim R. Coleman (born about 1874); Flora Coleman (born about 1876); Jerome Coleman (born about 1878); possibly others.

William C. Martin died on 26 November 1872 and was buried at the Martin (New) Cemetery. Sarah (Worley) Martin died on 16 December 1894 and was probably buried beside her husband, but neither grave is marked. Her obituary found in The Yadkin Valley News states: "She was a highly esteemed old lady and lived and died a faithful servant of the Lord."

Dear Gerry:

Received your package today with the plastic covers. Thanks so much. A trade is fine with me if that's O.K. with you.

First, let's get our locations in mind. Everything we have found on the Lovells and the Nuns in Patrick was in the Ararat area. I don't know if you have been in Patrick or know how it's located, but both Surry and Stokes joins the Patrick County line. So you can see how easy it was for them to jump back and forth across state lines.

Now, there are no Lovells in Patrick for the census years of 1830. We know that William H. & Frances were living in Stokes County in 1850 next door to John F. New (John Foster?). You will note that by 1860 James H. New was out of John F.'s household and head of a household. In his household was a daughter, Mary, whose birth year would have been 1856 or 1857. It is not unusual for age discrepancies to appear in everything. Do you suppose that James H. could have been James William New and Octava could have been a first name or a nickname for "Net" Martin New?

To further confuse things, by 1880 James H. New, age 44, was in Patrick County. I'm pretty sure this is the same James H. New. However, on the 1880 census his wife was listed as Chelnessy, age 42. Who knows if this is a different wife or the same wife using a first or middle name. The two older children were already out of the household (Mary and John). In 1880 in the household was James 15; George R., 14; Sarah E. 11; Susan N. 9; Martha J. 6; and Robert F. 2. I haven't checked the 1870 census for Patrick as you had already found Wm H. there, but I think I will check it for News.

I hope to also get a chance to check the 1850, 1860 & 1870 Floyd census for Wm and Net New and also for passible Martin families. I think that Pet Martin should be listed in somebody's household on the 1850 Stokes census, and probably Wm and Pet on 1860 + 1870. I really think that Mary Eliza was born and living in Stokes at the time she married. This should also be checked on the 1870 Patrick census to see if she was living in Patrick.

Mt. Airy is very close to Ararat, so it wouldn't be unusual for William to have lived and died in Ararat. However, I haven't been able to find any deeds to him.

I know you probably think I haven't read what you sent me, but sometimes I'm out working and don't have all my info with me and can't remember what I have if I don't have it with me.

Hopefully, I will get to work on this again on Wednesday. Please send me your phone number. Sometimes I can make more progress in one phone call than in 2 or 3 letters. I tried to get it from information, but the operator said it was unlisted.

At least we have located the Calemans and Wm. Lovell in 1850. Wm. and Frances must have moved back to Patrick by 1852 when John Robert was born.

Maybe on Wednesday, we will get some more answers.

Best Regards,

Kelly

Dear Linda,

I called Esther for your address & just received her answer a few days ago. I'm sorry it's taken me so long to get back in touch with you about the "News", you know I really didn't have much to tell you befor this, as I couldn't get to the library, etc. to do my own research.

As you will read as you go through all this material, I certainly have alot of stuff now that may help you too.

Living here in Balto. I had no way of getting to court house records or register of deeds office, so I had to hire Betty Tilson (Thank God) to help me with all of my family history.

Therefore I am sending every letter she wrote explaining exactly how all the Martins, News, (Lovells) and Colemans are Connected to each other through marriages.

I could not separate any of it, as you will see. She was kind enough to do the explaining for me as she went along.

I'm hoping you won't mind that, because you can't search for one surname without finding something on another - right?

Also hoping you may find something here that will help you.

Maybe you would do me the favor of passing this stuff along to the Surry Co. Genealogy association if you feel someone else there may also be searching these families, As I don't know if you are a member of that Genealogy group, but I ~~don~~ know Esther is,

I have written several letters & different ones in the last couple of months (befor I wrote to Betty Pilson for help) to please search the files (3x5" cross indexed surname cards) at the S. C. G. A. + please send me the names + address's of the people searching the same Surnames I am.

1. → New - William, father of Mary E. New Lovell
2. Coleman (Francis Coleman is the wife of William W.
3. Lovill - my great-great grand father.)
4. → Martin - (Nettie Martin, NEW mother of my great-great grand mother - Mary E. New Lovell. and wife of William New. (A.K.A. James W. New.

But, as you can see, Betty Pilson has done so very much to help me, I can't believe my good fortune to have found her.

She's told me so much in the short time I've been writing to her.

Unfortunately, I've not learned much yet on my "Lovill" line.

I do have the marriages of his children from Stokes Co. N.C. register of deeds. I feel though in time, Betty will find him too.

It's so very confusing at first when you first start reading all of this about the "News" & "Martins" & you can't connect them (at least I couldn't at first).

But as you re-read it (over & over) Ha. Ha. It does start & come together.

That's why I wrote the comparisons chart for you, so you can see how William News, William Jackson New, & James W. New are probably the same person. The same goes for Chelrissa, Chelrissa & Octavia Martin New, who is probably the "Neuble Martin" New who was the mother of my great grand mother Mary Eliza New Lovill.

I only wish I can find Frances Coleman's husband William W. Lovill soon, Keep my fingers Crossed. Say a prayer for me, will you?

Let me know if any of these News are yours, would you?

They had so many children, one of them is bound to be yours. I hope!

I hope you will Call Esther + let her know what all I've sent you. I don't know exactly what line of News is in your family history, so I thought I had better send it all.

Sure hope you can sort this out + will be able to use it, O.K.?
I really hope you will share this with someone at the S.C. G.A. too, as I don't know who is searching for whom there, no one has answered me yet. I haven't even sent them my charts yet because I haven't had much to go on before now. When I get a chance one day soon, I will try to sit down + make charts up for the "Martins" + "News" from what I now have here.

Gotta run for now, please write + let me know if you can use these stories + info. inclosed, I don't want to send you things not of your line, if you can't use it. That's why I feel maybe someone at the S.C. G.A. can.

Till Later,

Gerry

We finally heard from the Archives in Raleigh regarding Edward Lovell. Enclosed is the form sent us by the Archives stating information on the estate of Edward Lovill (1816). The cost for a xerox copy is $35. Apparently, the file is rather extensive.

If you wish to order the file, change the name on the form to your name and return to the Archives along with a check. They stated they did not find estate information on Sarah Lovill. The only information we found was listed in the Surry County Index which you might give them is as follows: Sarah Lovill, Agent A. H. Sheppard, years allowance, May 1816, File #28-A. (The file was not in place at the Surry County Courthouse and we could not copy it.)

We are sorry it took so long to hear from the Archives. If we can be of further service to you, please let us know.

Dear Mrs. Phillips,

I guess you wonder why I'm sending these file cards at this late date, but I have on Oct. 20, this year just sent all of my "family-history" in the form of an album & the S.C.G.A. I hope it arrived there safely & someone else may benefit from the work I put into it.

Although the charts are far from complete I had also sent a couple of these file cards before, unfortunately I've not heard from anyone about the "Surnames" I'm descended from yet. I sincerely hope you will (if time permitting) print a "querie" on one or 2 of the Surnames I'm sending now on

Dear Mrs. Jackson or Surry Co. Genealogy Society,

I have recently applied to for membership and hope I will be accepted by the "Society".

I am really anxious to learn if some-one may be going to the Patrick Co. registers of deeds office any time soon, also Patrick Co. Circuit Court.

I have some information (charts) which I desperately need help with, in regards to marriages and deaths of death, mainly.

Am also seeking marriage Bonds, ~~etc~~ Wills & probate papers on a couple of my ancestors, if possible. But I would be very happy just to learn who they married and when they died. I know most of the Counties involved, but it is a very time consuming and expensive process trying to do this on my own (not to mention frustrating!?).

Would you please ask at your next meeting, if some-one would be willing to help me??

Please write to me at:

Gerry McKerman
2538 Fleet St.
Balto. Md. 21224

P.S. As a member, I will be happy to pay reasonable price for search gas, + copies. Will also send charts of what I do have.

Sincere Thanks- Gerry

Dear Genealogist:

Enclosed is a check for five dollars for photocopies of:

Settelement of the estate of Sarah Lovel/Lovell/Loveall who died abt. 1830 in Greene Co., Indiana.

Her husband, Edward Lovell,died in 1816 leaving her quite a lot of land. I would like to know if this land was sold BEFORE she went to Indiana or was it distributed among her heirs AFTER her death, and who were those heirs!! Some of her heirs were in Indiana at the time of her death and returned to North Carolina abt. 1832/3. She was the third wife of Edward Lovell and did not have any children by him, I understand, but she may have had children by a previous marriage.

I will be looking forward to the Settlement of the estate of Sarah Lovell or a list of the sale of her land with dates. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Barbara Thorn

Thank you for your letter dated February 22, 1999 regarding Sarah and Edward Lovell. We are sorry it is taking so long to answer your letter. We could not find any estate information at the Surry County Courthouse. We understand there is extensive information in the Archives in Raleigh. We have requested information but have not heard from them. The cost may be more than $5 that you sent. We will keep you advised. They normally send a form letter indicating what the charge is before they send the papers requested.

We found several entries in the index to the Inventory, Accounts, & Settlements books but when we went to the file there was nothing there. This is the usual luck in the Clerk of Court office in Surry Co.

We have enclosed a bit of information on Edward Lovell that was printed in a local paper called "Simple Pleasures." We hope it will be of some interest to you.

Please bear with us and we hope to hear from the Archives soon.

We finally heard from the Archives in Raleigh regarding Edward Lovell. Enclosed is the form sent us by the Archives stating information on the estate of Edward Lovill (1816). The cost for a xerox copy is $35. Apparently, the file is rather extensive.

If you wish to order the file, change the name on the form to your name and return to the Archives along with a check. They stated they did not find estate information on Sarah Lovill. The only information we found was listed in the Surry County Index which you might give them is as follows: Sarah Lovill, Agent A. H. Sheppard, years allowance, May 1816, File #28-A. (The file was not in place at the Surry County Courthouse and we could not copy it.)

We are sorry it took so long to hear from the Archives. If we can be of further service to you, please let us know.

have been intouch with Mr Gerry Ackerman, (his mother just died)
his new address is 21 Cedar Dr, Apt B Glen Burnie MD 21060

I am sure with him just moving in with his daughter and her family, and with the death of his mother, he hasn't had time to notify to many about his address change. (plus he just found out he has emphysema. :(

Thank you for your help! As soon as I get a little extra funds, I'll send off for the info! Thank you, again! Princess

SURRY COUNTY GENEALOGICAL ASSOCIATION

Please find enclosed, my membership dues for 1999. I look forward to another year of interesting publications.

I have also enclosed some compiled family genealogies, including a partial on an extended line of Lovell. Many records and other materials were used in researching these families; including other compiled family histories by other researchers. Though I try very carefully to prove my findings, they likely contain errors and undoubtedly a great many omissions.

I would especially like to thank Ann B. Stewart for her encouragement and helpfulness in researching the Davis and Isbell families in early Surry Co, North Carolina. She inspired me to keep trying, and I have indeed found additional information through Surry County records. It would seem that researchers also have a friend in Dennis W. "Bud" Cameron, and many others there in Surry County.

Thank you all, I am greatly appreciative.

Sincerely,

Vicki Peterson

Thank you for your letter dated January 20, 1999 and becoming a member for another year. We appreciate your support. We were happy to get your family genealogies for our files. We could probably use some of the material for our journal if you would like for us to print any of it. You can let us know or if you want to do a special article for the journal that would be okay also.

It is always nice to hear from our members. Best wishes to you this year. We hope you find more genealogy information on your families.

If we can help in any way, please write us.

Dear Gerry:

I went to the Bassett Library yesterday and did some work on William W. Lovell. He was in Stokes County, N. C. on the 1850 census as you will see by the enclosed copy. However, take note of his age. He stated that he was 25 making his birth year 1825 and not 1811. Frances was 22, making her birth year 1828. I don't understand the discrepancy between the ages on the different census records. However, I do think that at times they didn't really known their own ages or the census takes wrote them down wrong.

Where did you find that he was born in Henry County, Virginia? The only thing that I have found stated simply "Virginia". The difference in the birth years would also make a difference probably as to where he was born in Virginia. I searched Henry County for Lovells that were there in the 1811 time frame. I eliminated all except a William Lovell who was on the 1810 census in Henry County. On December 17, 1812, he married Polly Odaniel. He was not in Henry County on the 1820 census. In 1820 in Stokes County, there was a William Lovell listed as head of a household. In his household were several children, 5 males in fact the oldest 16-26 and the youngest under 10. There was also 5 females from 0-16 years of age. I don't know if this is the same William Lovell. If so, the marriage in Henry County must have been a second marriage for him.

As you can see, there were also News on the 1850 Stokes census. I'm not sure if the Daniel and James Ponel (?) New listed on the enclosed are your line or not.

Hopefully we will get them all tied together eventually. Must close for now. Back to you soon. Please let me know if any of the names of these people mean anything to you or any of your family. Sometimes that will link ends up when you can't find written evidence to do so.

Stokes C. N.C. 1850 Census
July 1992

Dear Gerry:

I stopped by the local library on my way back from Winston-Salem today and checked the 1850 census for William Lovell. He was not listed in Patrick in 1850. He must have been in Stokes County, although I didn't see him when I checked last week. If I get a chance this week I will check Stokes County again. I didn't check 1860 and 1870 for Patrick, but did check 1880 and he wasn't listed there. If you haven't checked 1860 and 1870 for Patrick let me know.

Thanks for the stamps, even though you didn't have to send them. They are appreciated.

In checking the 1880 census for Patrick I did find the following: Samuel Coleman, listed as head of household, age 41, Martha, age 35, Mintora, age 7, Louisa, age 5 and Sallie Gray, age 3. This must have been Frances' brother, Samuel.

Also, James Coleman, I assume that this was also Frances' brother James, was listed. His age was 48, wife Mary, age 45 and daughter Sarah, age 22.

There was also a listing for Frances' brother, William. His age was 50, wife Vincy, age 30, Mary Ann, age 10, Creed, age 12, Sarah, age 8, William R. age 6, Flora, age 4, Jerome, age 2 and an infant 1 month old.

There was an Eliza Coleman listed as head of a household. Her age was 35 and in her household was a daughter, Sally, age 15. I don't know where she fits in as yet, but perhaps we can tie her in later. She could have been the wife of a deceased son whose name we don't have or she could have been a younger daughter with an illegitimate child.

Also on the 1880 census in Patrick I found James W. New listed as head of a household. His age was 44, wife Chelnessy, age 42; James, age 15; George R., age 14, Sarah E., age 11; Susan N., age 9; Martha J., age 6; and Robert F., age 2.

There was a Mary New, age 50, hireling, listed in the household of Nickles Lawrence. I also don't know yet where she fits in. I would have gotten you copies of these census records, but the microfilm copier wasn't working today.

I hope to get a chance to go to Bassett one day this week and work on Stokes County and Henry County for Lovills. I checked the Patrick County Courthouse for wills and deeds in the name of William W. Lovill to no avail. I didn't find any record of him having ever either bought or sold land. John Robert did own lands at one time, and I didn't read the deed, but it was sold by a Commissioner in Chancery in 1934. This was probably done to settle the estate, although I did find a will for John Robert, copy enclosed.

I love the poly-vu covers that you are using in your notebooks. I would love to have some for my information on my other families. How expensive are they and would you mind sending me some?

I am sending you a copy of the 1860 census from Stokes County showing James W. New. He evidently was living in Stokes in 1860 and moved to Patrick by 1880. The 1860 census has two older children (Mary and John) listed which are not on the 1880 census. They were probably already married and out of the household. His wife's name is also different, although their ages are the same. If this is the James who was referred to in the articles I sent you, this could be number 2 or number 3.

I hope you are as pleased with our progress so far as I am. I think we have found a lot of information in a short period of time.

Back in touch soon!

All my best regards,

Dear Gerry:

I had a chance to check Stokes County today for the family of New. Enclosed you will find articles on the family New, the first one of which was in Stokes County was John Foster. I thought that this man could possibly be William New's father. Everything fits in fairy well, except the date of birth of John Foster New, that being 1759. You can see by this that John Foster would have been a fairly old man when William was born. Of course, William could also have been an older man when he married and Nettie Martin New could have been considerably younger than he.

As you can see by the enclosed, there is a New family cemetery down at Aaron's corner in Stokes. Aaron's corner is on the line between Patrick County and Stokes County and it might be worth a trip down there and doing some tombstone tracings to get William and Net's birth dates and death dates. I feel as if there are probably other members of the family. As you will see, the author acknowledges that there were probably other children, i.e. Mary Eliza, of whom they have no records. Evidently "Net" was a nickname or possibly a middle name for Chelrissa Martin.

I hope this is your line of News. I feel extremely fortunate to have found this so quickly. I only wish I may have the same luck on the Lovells.

I did find an abstracted copy of the 1820 census for Stokes County. On this was a William Lovell listed as head of a household. In this household were the following males: 1 age 0-10; 2 age 10-16; 1 age 16-18; and 1 age 45+ (probably William). Also there was the following females: 2 age 0-10; 3 age 10-16; and 1 age 26-45. I thought this might possibly be William W.'s father. As you can see, there were 10 children in the household and one of the younger ones could have been William W. Do you think this William on the census could have been the William named in the bill of sale in Henry County in 1769. At that time Patrick was still a part of Henry County and they could have very well been living in what is now Patrick in 1769 and then moved over into Stokes County.

I hope that we are finding some of the things that you wanted to know. Sometimes, it takes a while to find things, and then sometimes they are just not there to find. Do you have any relatives or descendants of the Lovells living in Patrick who might know some of the family tree? If you do, if you will send me their names I will be glad to contact them for you.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon and I hope that I may get a chance to work again in Stokes County on Monday. I have an appointment at Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, N. C. and hope to stop at the Forsyth Library on my way home. I hope to get a chance

JOHN FOSTER NEW

Family history handed down for generations told of three brothers names New coming to America from England or Ireland. It was said that one brother went west, one went south, and the other brother settled in the northwestern corner of Stokes County. This history was told by one of the descendents of these three brothers, Thomas "Tom" G. New, Sr. of King, North Carolina.

After researching the family history the true story was learned. In the sixth volume of Colonial Families of America, the story of the origin of the New family was told.

Elizabeth Tattern was French and married to an Englishman, New. They lived in England and had three sons, Goerge Leonard, Thomas Tattern, and John Foster. After New's death, Elizabeth Tattern New probabley felt uncomfortable in England due to political tension between England and France. For this reason, among others, she decided to immigrate to America.

Elizabeth Tattern New left England in 1761 with her three young sons. Where they first settled in America is not currently known. It is possible they settled along the coast of North Carolina or in Delaware since either place had a number of News living there in 1760.

Both George Leonard and Thomas Tattern New served in the Revolutionary War on the American side. George Leonard New was killed at the battle of Cowpens.

After the war, Elizabeth Tattern New settled in the northwestern corner of Stokes County with her two surviving sons. Thomas Tattern New never married, living his life out in Stokes as a farmer.

John Foster New, born in 1759, remained in Stokes County and also farmed. The land the brothers owned in Stokes could have been a land grant.

John Foster New married Polly Hall. They had several children. The names of all of these children or their birthdates are not known. One son, George, moved out West. There was a son named Frank. Another son was William, who remained in Stokes.

Sally New, one of John Foster New's children, married Jack Aaron. Jack Aaron was a traveling salesman and possible Jewish. Sally New and Jack Aaron operated a store near John Foster New's farm. The community that grew up around this store later became known as Aaron's Corner.

Another daughter of John Foster and Polly Hall New was Catherine. She also remained in Stokes County, married Thomas Martin and had several children.

One of Catherine New and Tom Martin's children was Jasper Martin, married to Susie Puckett. Jasper and Susie Puckett Martin's son, Charlie Martin, married Myrtle Sheppard and they live in Aaron's Corner.

GEORGE RUFUS NEW

George Rufus New was born in Stokes County to William and Chelrissa Martin New. He married Louise Dalton, daughter of Jack and Sally Gilbert Dalton of Virginia. Jack Dalton disapproved of George Rufus New. He also thought his daughter, Louise, too young to marry at the tender age of thirteen. Giving the excuse of looking for speckled eggs, Louise Dalton went down to the spring house.

There, barefoot, but in her best dress, Louise met George Rufus New. They ran off together and got married. George Rufus New worked in the textile mills. He traveled a great deal and moved his entire family, houshold goods and livestock by rail. To assure the arrival of the milk cow the same day as the family they all traveled in the same box car; furniture, livestock and children. George Rufus used all the tricks to survive, such as collecting insurance on the same cracked mirror many times.

In those days family members worked the mills together. If one was insulted or mistreated the whole extended family would move on to another mill, in another town. There were labor shortages in the mills so it was usually easy to find work. This was one reason George Rufus would move so often.

Later Jack Dalton, Louise Dalton New's father, gave a farm to George Rufus and Louise Dalton New. Here George Rufus quick-

George Rufus New was a gruff looking man with a handle bar moustache. He died May 19, 1936, and is buried in Durham.

After he died, Louise Dalton New moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, to live with family. She was gifted with extra-sensory perception about family members knowing when they were coming unexpectedly for dinner or when a baby was coming. Louise Dalton New died in April, 1958, and is buried in King Cemetery.

George Rufus and Louise Dalton New had ten children. Samuel, the oldest, was married twice and had seventeen children total. He lived in Greensboro, North Carolina.

The next child was Thelma New. She married George Brown and lives in Forest City, North Carolina. They have five children.

THOMAS GABRIEL NEW

Thomas Gabriel New was born September 14, 1894. He was the sixth child of George Rufus and Louise Dalton New. His family moved from town to town, working in various mills. Tom, as Thomas Gabriel was called, moved at least sixty-five times with his family before he married.

While living in Hanestown with his parents, Tom married Mallie Agnes Bennett. She was born March 1, 1896, in Stokes County. Mallie was the ninth child of Pinkney Olive and Malvin Saphonia King Bennett. Before she was born her parents were building a house. A carpenter found a tobacco tag at the house with the word "mallie" on it. The carpenter told the Bennetts if the baby was a girl and they named it Mallie he would buy the baby a new dress. So that is how Mallie Bennett was named.

Mallie Bennett was living in Hanestown when she met Tom New. She lived with her sister and brother-in-law, Jennie Bennett and Ollie Boyles. Mallie worked at the company store, before and after she married.

After Tom and Mallie were married they lived with Tom's parents, George Rufus and Louise Dalton New. Tom New worked in a textile mill where the rest of his family worked, When Dixie New, Tom's sister was fired from the mill. George Rufus New announced it was time for the family to quit there and move on. He told Tom and Mallie to pack up also. Tom New decided he had moved enough and stayed in Hanestown. A month later George Rufus and family were back living in the house next door.

After living in Hanestown a while, Tom and Mallie Bennett New moved to King. Here Tom opened a store with his brother-in-law, Ollie Boyles. Rome Bennett, Mallie's brother was a silent partner, putting up cash to start the store. Ollie Boyles sold out, leaving several notes to people who died soon after this. Their deaths left Tom New and Rome Bennett owing a considerable amount of money.

Tom New continued to run the store. During the depression he took his inventory and moved to the Kiser Building. He moved back to the original location after one year. Tom and Mallie Bennett New ran the store from 1918 to 1971. They gave credit, even during the Great Depression, and survived as a business. The last three years the store was in operation their son, Howard New, ran it.

The store could have been considered a self-service store since most grocery items were on open shelves. Yet many customers left their grocery list and went to take care of other business in King. Tom or Mallie would get the items on the list together and have it ready when the customer returned. Other customers spent time sitting around the wood stove, discussing the usual topics, while their groceries were bagged. Some people dropped in just to visit. Children could always find a penny in the dry beans bin near the cash register to by candy with, even if Tom or Mallie had to accidently drop one in.

Tom and Mallie Bennett New lived on Dalton Road. They raised a variety of vegetables and livestock to supply their own table. Mallie cooked on a wood stove, which she fired up every day around four o'clock to cook supper. Tom raised one of tobacco crop and quickly decided, like his father, farming wasn't his avocation. Together they worked at the store. in addition to raising a garden and rearing children. Tom and Mallie Bennett New had five children and helped rear the five children of Ollie and Jennie Bennett Boyles after Jennie died of pneumonia.

Mallie Agnes Bennett New died April 7, 1975, after a long illness following a broken hip. She will be remembered as a small woman, hardly weighing a hundred pounds, with a large and loving heart. Mallie never had an unkind word to say about anybody. She always found the good in a person and taught her grandchildren to do the same.

Thomas Gabriel New died September 4, 1979. He will be remembered a generous man, willing to wait till times were better for payment of bills. Tom was a shrewd businessman and made a small profit at his store. Yet he never forgot people counted more than dollars.

Tom and Mallie Bennett New had five children. The oldest was Thomas Gabriel New, Jr., born October 28, 1917. The next child was Doris Louise New, born December 23, 1919. The third child was Howard Tyler New, Born November 5, 1922. Virginia Dare New was born May 7, 1924. The youngest child of Tom and Mallie Bennett New is Joel Bennett New, born August 19, 1926. Tom and Mallie Bennett New also helped rear the five children of Jeannie Bennett and Ollie Boyles. These children were C.O., Pansy, Odessa, Dot and Norman Boyles.

Lovell + Davis

Nov. 29, 1991

Dear Ms. Phillips,

Thank you for your letter. It sounds like you are very busy and I appreciate you taking the time to help me out. I am sending you my charts on David Davis and Edward Lovell.

There were at least two David Davis's in Surry County in the late 1700's. The entry from the 1774 tax list - Gray Byrum's list - David Davis with sons Philip and Daniel ~~are~~ is not my David Davis. The other - 1782 Capt. Blackburn's List - David Davis (5 = single man) no land - I'm not sure about. It could be him but he would have been about 26 years old. I don't have any deeds for David going back to 1782 so it could be. I have no marriage date for him + Ann either.

I do have the access to censuses for 1784-1787, 1790, index to 1800 + 1810 + 1820 of N.C.

Edward Lovell is listed in all of them but 1820.

There's a David Davis in Rowan Co. in 1790, a David Davis in Surry in 1800 and 1810.

David had two brothers Thomas and Leonard who were mentioned in his will as executors. I read where one moved to Virginia and the other to Georgia but maybe that's not true because there are a lot of Thomas and Leonard Davis's in the list of Deeds for the name Davis. I have a deed dated 11 Feb 1800 from David Davis to Leonard Davis. It's real difficult to read but I believe it leaves 2/3 of the mines and mineral rights to David Davis.

and Thomas Davis and heirs. It was signed, sealed, and delivered in the presence of Elijah Davis. I did wonder if Elijah could possibly be their father. I doubt it but it is a possibility. There are some deeds listed for Elijah so I think I will send for them and see if there might be anything on them.

I just recently received a Gladys Lovell Upleger's address and have written to her in hopes of getting more information on the Lovell family. She is the one who helped to submit the information to the Heritage Book on the Lovell family.

I don't know what else I can tell you that wouldn't be too confusing, so I better close for now. I hope this information helps. Thank you for your help. Let me know what I owe you if you do find anything.

Sincerely,

Trudy Davis
