

The background of the page is light blue and filled with various yellow line-art illustrations of school activities. At the top left, a student is shown at a desk. To the right, a group of students is playing basketball. In the center, a large schoolhouse with a bell tower is depicted. Below the schoolhouse, several students are shown carrying books and bags. At the bottom, a student is playing a sport, possibly tennis or badminton. The overall theme is school life and activities.
