

vices.com.

WOLTZ

MOUNT AIRY — Mrs. Joan Moore Woltz died on June 14, 2007. She was born in Burlington on December 11, 1928, to Elizabeth P. and Edwin H. Moore Sr. She graduated from high school in Burlington and from Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Va., where she was editor of the school newspaper and was May Queen. Joan was a member of Central United Methodist Church in Mount Airy, where she was active in the Abigail Circle. In the 1970s, Joan was instrumental in the establishment of Surry County Hospice and served as a volunteer. Joan was a Red Cross volunteer and a charter member of the local hospital's ladies auxiliary. She played golf and tennis and learned to sail when she was in her 60s. Joan is survived by her husband Howard of the home; and four children, Louise Woltz of Wilmington, Joanie Robins and her husband Randy Robins of Richmond, Va., H. and Agnes Woltz of Mount Airy, and Ed Woltz also of Mount Airy. She is also survived by 10 grandchildren, Rand, Spotty and Berkeley Robins of Richmond, Louise, Parker, Charlotte and Reddin Woltz of Mount Airy, and Moore, Osler and Bessie Woltz of Mount Airy; and by her brother, Jack Moore and his wife Julie of Mount Airy; and by a sister-in-law, Pat Woltz of Mount Airy. A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, on June 16, 2007, at Central United Methodist Church, with a service conducted by the Rev. John Ferree with family visitation at 10 a.m. at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Mountain Valley Hospice and Palliative Care, 401 Technology Lane Mount Airy, NC 27030 or to the charity donor's choice. Joan's family would like to thank her caregivers, the staff of the skilled Nursing Facility at Northern Hospital of Surry County and Mountain Valley Hospice and Palliative Care for their compassion and loyalty. Condolences may be made at www.moodyfuneralservices.com.
