

June Caudle Weds Thomas W. Coe In Candlelight Ceremony At Home

MRS. THOMAS W. COE

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caudle announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, June Cathryn, to Mr. Thomas W. Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Coe of Ararat, Va., on Wednesday, December 24, in a home ceremony. Reverend Jesse Woodruff, pastor of the bridegroom, officiated, assisted by Rev. Edgar Burrus, pastor of the bride.

Members of the immediate families assembled in the living room, where the vows were said before a bower arrangement of fir, hemlock and white gladioli. The soft glow of candlelight illumined the improvised altar.

The bride was attired in a suit of aqua gabardine with black accessories, and her corsage was of purple orchids. The matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas Irvine, only sister of the bride, who wore a dressmaker suit of black crepe with a corsage of red rosebuds. Mr. Thomas Irvine served as best man.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the twenty-five guests present were entertained at a reception and cake cutting. The bride and groom cut the first slice of the lovely tiered wedding cake, after which Mrs. Irvine, Miss Lavinia Edwards and Miss Hazel Martin finished cutting and served with punch.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Belton of Waterville, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Coe are residing with the bride's parents at Bannertown.
