NTS.

You are requested to examine every part of this report carefully. If the grades are unsatisfactory you should confer with the teachers, ascertain, if possible, the cause of the unsatisfactory work, and then do all in your power to secure better results.

Your attention is particularly called to the following:

1. Co-operation of Parents:—Your earnest, active and continued co-operation with the school is necessary to secure the best results.

2. Regular Attendance:—Pupils should not be permitted to be absent or late except for the most urgent and imperative reasons. Regularity, punctuality, singleness of purpose and concentration cannot be too strongly emphasized. The home should instill the idea that school duties are paramount and cannot be neglected without serious loss.

3. Inferior work is unsatisfactory, and unless improvement is made the pupil is likely to fail of promotion at the end of the term.
