

Copeland Senior Citizens support the community

COPELAND SENIORS SUPPORT COMMUNITY

Members of the Copeland Senior Citizens meet the second Wednesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. in the Copeland Ruritan Building. They are, front, from left, Peggy Simpson, Mae Crissman, Katherine Shinault, Bruce Snow, Jewel Snow, Dorothy McCormick and Decie Bowman; second row, Opal Hardy, Geneva Mabe, Lorene Key, Sylvia Atkins, Ruby Moser, Maureen Simpson, Clara Hundley, Mary Ann Thomas, Jo Anna Hutchens, Sadie Bullin, Shirley Nichols, Shelby Bowman, Dorothy Scott, Randy Bowman, Fayrene Doss, Clayton Bowman and Frances Key. A covered-dish meal is served following the program which features guest speakers. The group visits and sings at nursing homes, helps the Foothills Food Pantry with donations and support and donates to the Copeland Ruritan Club. Clara Hundley, president, said, "Most of all we have wonderful fellowship with each other. We welcome visitors and hope they become new members." For more details, call 374-5772.

King and queen crowned

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Shown, standing, is President Clara Hundley crowning Copeland Senior's King and Queen Bruce and Jewel Snow at the February meeting of the Copeland Seniors.

