

DIRECTORY 2009

MOUNT AIRY
NORTH CAROLINA

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
FOUNDED 1858

ONE HUNDRED FIFTY YEARS

Whoever believes in Him, shall have eternal life.

Welcome

Church directories are snapshots of a congregation for a particular period of time. This directory captures the membership of First Presbyterian Church of Mount Airy in 2009; specifically the spring months. That's when the photographers met us in the Koinonia room on successive weekday afternoons and evenings to snap away at our smiling faces. You'll see families and single people; old and young; a mix of God's children that gathers together for worship services, Sunday school classes, choir practices, Bible studies, youth groups and fellowship meals - just to name a few.

Front Row: Lynn Rigney (Office Administrator and Financial Secretary), Steve Lindsley (Pastor/Head of Staff)

Back Row: Etta Arrington (Mother's Morning Out Director), Sandy Beam (Dir. of Music), Shasta Bode-Brown (Dir. of Christian Education)

Churches, however, are the past, present and future of a community of faith as it seeks to be faithful followers of Christ in its community and around the world. So as we continue in this, our 151st year on the corner of Church and Main, we embody those who have preceded us and lay the foundation for those who are to come. And through it all, we are bound by the transforming presence of Christ in our midst - a presence that enables us to live out our mission and vision:

OUR MISSION:

We are a community of Christians
Celebrating the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ
Gathering in God's grace
To worship and serve our Lord.

OUR VISION:

We envision our church as a growing community of excited Christians
Who glorify God through spiritual growth,
Congregational nurturing, passionate mission and service,
And active participation in the life of the church!
By the grace of God we are honored to be the First Presbyterian Church of Mount Airy. One 150 years down, another 150 years to go!

Steve Lindsley, Pastor/Head of Staff

A HISTORY OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

As early as 1848, a small number of Presbyterians living in Mount Airy made attempts to organize a church in this small foothills village. The Reverend W. N. Mebane spent eight months here as a spiritual leader; but on December 9, 1848 he said that it was inexpedient to organize a church at that time.

Presbyterians continued to meet, however, in school buildings and were led from December 1849 to June by the Reverend Monroe T. Allen. A study for Orange Presbytery in 1851 again found the time was not right for a church. Worship services continued in school buildings and with visiting ministers. After an attempt to organize in early 1858 did not succeed, on June 6 of that year, First Presbyterian became the second church to be organized in Mount Airy.

Charter Members of the new church were: Susan and Robert S. Gilmer and daughters Martha J. and Lizzie A. Gilmer, Mildred and Allen Denny; and Mary Dicks. The group met in schools and the Methodist church until enough funds were donated to start a church building in the winter of 1872. It was completed in the spring of 1873 on a lot given by R. S. Gilmer, where the church now stands. Though funds had been raised earlier, construction was delayed by the Civil War and Reconstruction.

The Gilmer family and John M. Brown were largely responsible for erecting the church, at the time a plain frame building. To early members the church was a wonderful sight with its flowered carpets, pine ceiling, ruffled curtains, and horsehair pulpit furniture. But the pews were straight, uncomfortable and unattractive.

The church bell, originally hung in Mrs. Gilmer's stable near the church in 1876, was hung in the corner of the church in 1878. In 1887, a bell tower was added to the front. Mr. Gilmer was the church's only elder for the first fourteen years after organization. Because the church was small, several ministers who came eventually left for larger churches after short stays. In 1902, Mount Airy Presbyterian helped organize a mission Sunday School in Flat Rock that grew into the Flat Rock Presbyterian Church.

The granite church that stands today was started in 1907 and completed in 1914 during the ministry of Dr. T. C. Gales. When construction started, the minister was the Reverend J. A. Gilmer, a nephew of the church's founder. The women of the church held suppers to raise money for the foundation and the roof.

The first communion service was given by Lizzie A. Gilmer, daughter of the founder. Part of the service, the baptismal font, continues to be in the current sanctuary and is still used today. The present pews were donated by Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, and the communion table by Mrs. W. E. Merritt. The Celtic Cross at the front of the sanctuary was donated by members in 1968 in honor of long-time elder C. B. Naylor.

In 1951, the church dedicated a new educational addition that also includes the current office space and choir room. In 1990, a new fellowship hall and Sunday school addition was added to account for a growth in membership. The Koinonia Room (in the original New Testament Greek meaning "fellowship") next to the sanctuary was renovated in 1997-98, almost doubling the church's worship space. New stained-glass windows in the Koinonia Room, the hallway off the sanctuary, and former pastor's study behind the sanctuary increase the beauty of the church.
