Following high school, Ed attended Lees-McRae for a year before being asked to pursue other activities.

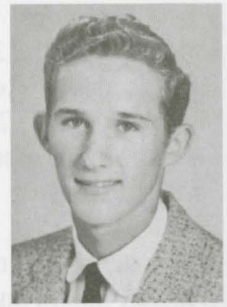

Ed then started developing companies beginning with Fortis Homes which he co-founded in 1962 and sold in 1977. He co-founded Shelton Companies in 1977. This was followed with the co-founding of Shelco which was sold in 2004. In 1999 he co-founded Shelton Vineyard - an extremely successful adventure.

Ed and Dotti were married in 1962 and have three children, Jennifer, Winni, Lydia. While Ed has not aged, his children have. Therefore he feels the children are much too old to be his. Surprisingly the same thing has happened with his four grandchildren.

His favorite room is the kitchen and his hobbies are cooking, traveling, and politics.

His extensive travels have carried him to six continents.

Important events in his life are his and Dotti's wedding, the birth of their children and touring Machu Picchu.

Following graduation, Richard worked his for father's business and Proctor Silex. He moved to Florida in early the 1960's. His love for cars introduced him to the field of logistics which expanded to spacecraft, the space shuttle, oil refineries, the Alaska pipeline, and schools. Richard retired in 1998 after ten years as Manager of Logistics in support of the B2 bomber and the 777 airliner programs.

He feels he has come full circle because he is now restoring a 1958 Pontiac Bonneville, like the one his father gave him. Richard stated that he feels he has been successful because of hard work and experience.

Richard and Linda have two children, Pamela and Richard Jr. living in Missouri and Florida. He is a proud grandfather of one granddaughter Katharine.

His favorite room, the garage with television, is his sanctuary. His favorite sports are auto racing, NC basketball, and football. His hobby is vintage car restoration.

His travels both for business and pleasure have taken him to Alaska, Hawaii, Bahamas, Saudi Arabia, Greece, Italy, Spain, Canary Islands and Zurich.

Richard's interesting events relate to being part of teams that put men on the moon, satellites in orbit, building the Alaskan pipeline, launching the space shuttle and manufacturing the top secret B2 Bomber. The long-term friends he has made along life's journey have being interesting.

Mary Ruth attended Brigham Young University. In her sophomore year she married Tom and spent the next 27 years moving about as Tom was in the Air Force. When Tom retired the family settled in Provo, Utah.

In 1990 she graduated from Weber State University in Ogden and currently works with three sons in a company that makes replicas of 1965 Shelby Cobra race car.

She is trying to quit working and have more time for her hobbies such as gardening, writing family history, photography and making scrapbooks for the grandchildren. Mary Ruth and Tom have nine children and 18 grandchildren. Making those scrapbooks should keep her busy.

Her favorite room is the guest bedroom because the children redecorated it. It is beautiful, peaceful and she does not put junk in it. Her favorite sport is watching ice-skating.

Her travels cover many states and countries including Guam. Mary Ruth relates an exciting experience of surviving very bad typhoons in Guam and gives vivid details of the extreme winds and how the house was soaked with mud and debris. Please ask her to give you the details; I do not want to ruin a wonderful description of it. This was an experience she would not trade but she does not want to experience it again.

Following high school Peggy attended nursing school from 1958 to 1959 at the University of Virginia. In 1959 she married Gary Sutphin and moved to Sumter, SC where Gary was finishing his tour of duty with the US Air Force and she worked at a local hospital.

They moved back to Mount Airy where she worked for JC Penney Company and later at Renfro Hosiery Mills as administrative assistant for in-house sales. In 1969, Peggy and Gary moved to Jackson, Miss and at Christmas of the same year moved to Texas. Peggy spent much of her time attending her boys' sports activities, but did find time to study art at the University of Texas and attended workshops by several nationally known artists. She became a successful artist showing in numerous exhibits and she earned signature member status in the Southwest Watercolor Society.

Following a job change for Gary in 1987, Peggy went to work for American Airlines where she stayed for 14 years. She still continues to enjoy the airline perks. Peggy and Gary now live in Granbury, Texas, enjoying retirement and Peggy has returned to her painting. They have two boys and four grandchildren.

Her favorite room is her art studio. Her favorite sport is golf. In her spare (?) time, she enjoys painting, golf and travel. A most interesting trip was a family reunion in Switzerland. The trip itself involved missing flights, losing luggage, and traveling through other countries with no knowledge of the language. Peggy feels a guardian angel was traveling with her. You need to get the details from Peggy. I cannot do them justice on paper.
