WILLIAM WYATT BLIZARD/BLIZZARD

20

My great-great-grandfather, William Wyatt Blizard (1827-1899), the probable son of Isaac Blizard and Mary Elizabeth Hobson of Duplin County, was born in Duplin County. Isaac, with family in tow, headed for Randolph and Guilford Counties. He settled in Randolph County for a little while, and then he moved on to Guilford County.

William remained in the Back Creek area of Randolph County. He met and married Dorcas Walden in 1843. Dorcas Walden, (1823-1881) of Randolph County, was the daughter of William Anderson Walden and Elizabeth Lytle.

William and Dorcas had eleven children:

1) Albert Blizard (1846-1870) born in Randolph County, returned to Duplin County and married Rosannah Goodman in 1867. One child was born of this marriage.

2) John Dixon Blizard (1847-1920) was born in Randolph County, died in Guilford County, and was buried in Surry County, NC. In Wilkes County, NC, in the year 1872, John married Elizabeth Thompson (1855-1913) of Grayson County, VA. John and Elizabeth had six children, all born in Wilkes County before moving to Surry County. Elizabeth was the daughter of William Thompson and Mary Elizabeth Cash.

3) Thomas Jefferson "Jeffery" Blizard married (first) Jannette Hill (1858-1908) of Randolph County in 1875. Jannette was the daughter of James and Pennie Hill of Randolph County. In Surry County in 1909, Jeffery married (second) Margaret "Mae" Jane Mitchell (1870-1956) of Wilkes County. Jeff had eleven children by Janette and four by Margaret. Jeff, Janette, and Margaret are all buried at Mt. Airy in Surry County.

4) Dorcas Louella "Savannah" Blizard (1850-?) was born in Randolph County and married Jesse E. Wood (1848-1926) of Guilford County. Savannah and Jesse are buried at Oakdale Cemetery in High Point in Guilford County. Several children were born of this marriage and all have not been identified. Jesse was the son of William and Eliza Adams Wood of Randolph County.

5) William Anderson Blizard (1851-?) married Evangeline Harper (1856-?) of Pennsylvania. Anderson left for California by way of Iowa where four children were born and arrived in California in the late 1880's where one child was born. Both Anderson and Evangeline are buried in Orange County, California.

6) Delphine Blizard (1853-1927) was born in Randolph County in 1853 and married in Guilford County in 1879 to William M. Welborn (1858-1925) of Davidson County, NC. William was the son of Lindsay and Vina Welborn of Guilford County.

7) Joshua Blizard (1855-1934) was born in Randolph County and went to Rockingham County early in life. In Rockingham in the year 1895, Joshua married Henrietta Herdson of Rockingham County. They owned and operated a grocery store business. They had no children of record. Joshua is buried at Leaksville-Spray.

8) Mary Ellen Blizard (1858-1942) was born in Randolph County, had one child. Mary Ellen, is buried at Oakdale Cemetery in High Point in Guilford County, NC.

9) Maggie Blizard (1860-?) was married in 1884 in Guilford County to Joseph S. Brady.

10) Parthenia Blizard (1861-?) was born in Randolph County in the year 1861 and married in Guilford County in 1886 to Winborn B. Millikan of Guilford County.

11) Roella Blizard (1862-1948) was born in Randolph County in 1862 and married in Randolph in 1886 to Samuel McKendree Rike (1863-1932) of Randolph County. Sam was the son of McKendree Rike and Luzenia Millikan. Roella and Sam had eight children. Both Sam and Roella are buried at St Paul's Methodist Church Cemetery in Randleman, NC. Sam and Roella have one daughter still living. Epsie Rike, their daughter, was born in 1898 in Randolph County, married Ambrose Wilson (1893-1970) of Radford, VA, and still resides in Radford.

After Dorcas' death in 1881, William remarried in 1886 to Martha Russell at Randolph County. Dorcas is believed to be buried at Caraway Baptist Church Cemetery at Sophia in Randolph County. William died in 1899 and is buried at the old Davis Chapel Cemetery, located along Highway 220, at Randleman. Having rotted and fallen down, the old church building is no longer standing.

Driver Named In Law Suit

A suit filed for $25,000 damages, was filed by Ruby E. Briggs, administrator of the estate of Henry M. Briggs, deceased, against Paul E. Holloway.

The complaint points out that Mr. Briggs died Sept. 19, 1948, as the result of injuries received in a car driven by the defendant a week earlier.

It states that the defendant was driving recklessly at the time of the wreck, entering the intersection of U.S. Highway 89 and the Blue Ridge Parkway without stopping, at a speed of 60 to 70 miles an hour. The car was wrecked against a bank after going through the intersection, the complaint says.

The plaintiff states that Mr. Briggs complained to the defendant of his speeding before the accident happened and that the defendant did not even stop at the stop sign near the intersection on Highway 89, on which he was traveling.

Mr. Briggs was being taken to his temporary home in Galax, Va., at the time of the accident, according to the complaint. The defendant offered to take him there from near Elkin, where Mr. Briggs had been visiting, the complaint states.

DENAIR CEMETERY CARETAKER DIES

The caretaker of the Denair Cemetery was found dead in his room yesterday (Aug.28, 1958)after neighbors became concerned because he had not been seen for several days.

The body of Frank A. Blizzard was discovered yesterday by Stanislaus County Sheriff's Deputies. The 73 year old man was lying face down on the bedroom floor of his apartment between a dresser and his bed. He had apparently been dead for several days. Cause of death appeared to be a heart attack.

A native of Iowa, Mr. Blizzard had lived in the Denair area since 1908. He had been employed at the Denair Cemetery for many years.

A member of the Church of the Nazarene. Mr. Blizzard is survived by a sister, Ora Helderle of Alhambra, and nine nieces and nephews.

Funeral services are pending at Allen Mortuary in Turlock.

Note:

I believe Frank's middle name was Anderson, thus named from his father's middle name.
To my knowledge and research Frank never married.

DEATH OF TURLOCK MAN ATTRIBUTED TO SUFFOCATION

Results of a post mortem examination last night showed that Adrian Thomas Blizzard, 68, of 423 Boulevard Avenue, died of suffocation under a pile of wood shavings.

Mr. Blizzard was found dead Wednesday afternoon by his son LeRoy at the Snider Lumber Products plant according to Coroner Jack K. Ransom, Mr. Blizzard was loading the shavings to haul away. His son who works at the yard, noticed that his father appeared to be gone, while the shavings continued to pour out of the bin.

Rushing to where his father had been standing, LeRoy found him buried by the shavings, apparently dead.

Ransom said that Mr. Blizzard had a heart condition and had recently suffered a number of blackouts. It was his opinion, he said, that Mr. Blizzard suffered a blackout and collapsed and the shavings buried him.

Funeral services were scheduled of 2 p.m. today at the Norton Mortuary with the Rev. Robert Carrington, pastor of Bethel Temple, officiating. Interment was to be in Denair Cemetery.

Note: Adrian Thomas Blizzard is the son of William Anderson Blizzard and Evangeline Harper Blizzard. He also was the husband of the former Carolina Norton Blizzard.

Adrian was more than my "grandpa". I was raised by he and "grandma" Caroline in Turlock, Central Valley CA for about six years. He was a mild mannered, steadfast, considerate man who didn't have to prove that he "was a man". He had an independent streak who farmed for many yearss then became a one-man produce wholesaler. He expressed an aversion to working for others, though he did so for brief periods to profit from an opportunity. While usually taciturn, he could laugh heartily when occasion arose, for example when driving his about '37 GMC truck and fell asleep to go straight on a curve near Hollister, and wind up in a freshly ploughed orchard - slow speed stop. And when he "hawked" to spit out the window - that was closed; and I was riding "co-pilot". So he and wife were in effect my parents for these years, part grammer school, part high school. It was safe, rich environment for a kid to spend most of his youth. Robert Downey
