Above the noise of sin and strife,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of Man!

Second Tuesday night of each month
at 7:30:

O Master, from the mountain side,
Make haste to us, O Son of Man;
Among these, O Son of Man,
O tread the city's streets again,

Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Till glorious from Thy heav'n above
Shall come the city of our God.

Permanent W. M. U. Watchword:

"Laborers together with God" I Cor. 3:9

1967-68 Watchword:

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these....ye have done it unto me"
(Matt. 25:40)

Permanent Hymn:

"Come, Women, Wide Proclaim"

1967-68 Hymn:

"Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life"

Where cross the crowded ways of life,
Where sound the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of man!

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
On shadow'd thresholds dark with fears,
From paths where hide the lures of greed,
We catch the vision of Thy tears.

From tender childhood's helplessness,
From woman's grief, man's burden'd toil,
From famish'd souls, from sorrow's stress,
Thy heart has never known recoil.

O Master, from the mountain side,
Make haste to heal the hearts of pain;
Among these restless throngs abide;
O tread the city's streets again,

Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Till glorious from Thy heav'n above
Shall come the city of our God.

Happy is the woman who finds joy in her work;

Who keeps before her a vision of the finished task and who seeks perfection in every step along the road to completion;

Who can perform a small and seemingly humble task with the same fervor, the same intensity of effort as she performs a momentous and important task;

Who spurns not helpful suggestions, but who rather seeks and then follows the advice of those who have gone before and who have profited by similar situations and corresponding tasks.

Happy is the woman who finds joy in her work!
