To Whom It May Concern:

I am just beginning to research the Flinn (Flynn) family of Surry County. My ancestor Nancy Flinn was married in Surry County in James Palmer of Virginia. There marriage date is either 3/22/1840 or 3/22/1845 according to records I obtained at our local Mormon church. Unfortunately, this is the only information I have. Anything you could provide regarding the Flinn family would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!!

Sincerely,

Dear Chris Summers

Your letter to the Surry County Genealogical Association was passed along to me. I am a member of the Association.

According to "Marriages of Surry County, NC" 1779-1868 by Brent H. Holcomb the date on the bond of James Palmer & Nancy Flinn is 22 March 1845 with William E. Cook as bondsman.

If you would like a copy of the bond you may wish to write to "Surry County Register of Deeds Office, Dobson, N.C. 27017". If they do not have this copy they will send you an address for the archives in Raleigh and how to obtain a copy from them.

I checked the surname card file the association maintains for names of researchers who have written for information in case you wanted to contact them.

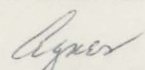

Bonnie Wagner, 800 Norcross Rd, Kernersville, NC 27284 (Flinn, Burton, Shore, etal)
Mrs. Harry E. Bauder, 327 Frances Ave., Peoria, ILL 61614 (Ayre, Carr, Flinn, Wright, etal)

I will add your name to this card file and perhaps someone will write to you.

I am also enclosing some listings of books available for Surry County if you think any of them will be of benefit to your research.

I hope this will be of help to you. If you can think of some way we can help you feel free to write again to the association.

Good luck in your research,

The first record I found of Timothy and William A. in Garrard County was their purchase of what appear to be adjacent tracts of land from Edw. King on October 6, 1819. From information shown in "The Kentucky Land Grants" compiled by Willard Rouse Jillson, Timothy received three warrants for a total of 400 acres in 1822 and 1824 while William received a warrant for 50 acres in 1825. An item of interest in sales of property made by both Timothy and William in the 1830's, their wives were a party to the sales and both were named Sarah.

Another evidence of a presence in Garrard County was a listing of William Truelove as being a Corporal in the War of 1812. This was found in the "History of Garrard County".

she, while a young child, had been treated by Dr. Evan Benbow for an attack of measles followed by pneumonia. Later in life, she had been Dr. William Evan Benbow's patient. In 1941 when she had to have surgery, we were glad that the hand that held the knife was Dr. Benbow's.

Dr. Benbow has been very dedicated to his profession and to the people of Yadkin County where he was born and where he received his high school education. In 1969 he gave the final donation, a generous one, that put the drive for the Yadkin County Library over the top.

Some of his other donations have been to the restoration of Richmond Hill Law School, the American Legion Building at East Bend, and for the continuing care of the cemetery at East Bend, a Hammond Organ given to the East Bend Baptist Church as a memorial to his mother, Mattie Jane Poindexter Benbow, and piano to Stoney Knoll United Methodist Church honoring the good people of the Flint Hill community.

Dr. Benbow is a veteran of both World War I and World War II. He was a private in World War I and a Major in World War II.

He was a factor in the successful passage of a Yadkin County Bond issue which made it possible for the construction of a hospital in Yadkin County.

Dr. Benbow is the author of several surgical articles that have been published in medical journals. He is also the author of a short book called Wooden Ships and Iron Men in which he recounts a true tale of that doughty warrior of the Spanish Main, mariner and gentleman, Admiral John Benbow of the Royal Navy, whose illustrations name was affixed to the inn Stevenson's Treasure Island, "The Admiral Benbow Inn."

Dr. Benbow enjoys hunting, fishing, trips to Florida, and trips to his cabin located in Yadkin County.

THE TEMPLE BLAKELY FAMILY

320

Temple Blakely, believed to have been born in England in 1808 (although on some census records his place of birth is listed as North Carolina), married Jane Stewart. She was born in 1815 in Orange County, North Carolina. It is not known just when Temple came to America, but he resided in Guilford County for some time before coming to Yadkin County between 1850 and 1860.

Temple Blakely was a tanner by trade. He and his wife lived in the East Bend area and had a large family.

George Washington Blakely, born about 1819, married Sarah S. Matthews on March 1865. George served in Company F, 28th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, during the Civil War. He had part of one hand shot off, but returned to Yadkin County, married and raised a large family.

The children of George Washington and Sarah S. Matthews were: Henry (married Lucy Tate); William (married Jennie Hunter); Jossie (died young); Mitty (married Enoch Bullin); and Paul (born March 7, 1877, died June 22, 1913, married Jane Elizabeth Burton, daughter of William and Sarah Chamberlain Burton).

Eli J., oldest daughter of Temple and Jane Stewart Blakely, was born about 1840. She married John W. Smith in October of 1866, in Surry County, North Carolina. Names of children are not known to this writer.

Martha Emma, born 1846, died November 29, 1922, married Walter Lewis on October 7, 1869, in Yadkin County. He was the son of Moses and Ann Lewis.

Henry, son of Temple Blakely, was possibly born as early as 1830. He married Minatona and had sons, Early and Everette, and possibly more.

Eli D., born about 1847 according to the census record, and 1845 as stated on his death certificate, married on October 12, 1866, in Yadkin County, Nancy Stewart. Eli D. died March 31, 1930 and is buried at New Home Methodist Church, at Smithtown, in Yadkin County.

Mary A., daughter of Temple Blakely, was born about 1850. She married on December 9, 1869, in Yadkin County, J.H. Tucker, son of John and Cliny Tucker. No further information available on this family.

Frances (called "Fanny") M. Blakely, born about 1851, married in 1872 in Yadkin County Winston Childress, son of Stevens and Margaret Childress.

Malissa was born in 1852, and Margaret in 1854. John C. was born in 1855. Then there were twins, Aquilla and Larkey P. born in 1857. The twins were females. William F. was born in 1859.

Augusta Blakely was not listed on the 1860 census so she was probably born July 2, 1860 and died June 5, 1928 in Yadkin County (see death certificate of Augusta Flynn). She married first Peter Daniel Lineberry on December 13, 1884, the son of Solomon and Catherine McDaniel Lineberry. For a complete listing of her descendants see THE DESCENDANTS OF SOLOMON LINEBERRY, published in 1868, by Frances H. Casstevens. Augusta (or "Gus" as she was called) married after Peter Lineberry's death, John Thomas Flynn. He was born in 1858, the son of Clinton and Cynthia Hall Flynn. Augusta and John Thomas were married in 1911. Augusta and Peter Lineberry are buried at Prospect Methodist Church.

James Blakely, possibly another son of Temple and Jane Stewart Blakely, and if so, the youngest, married on October 22, 1868, in Surry County, North Carolina, Eastor E. Baker, daughter of William and Mary Baker.

Dealie, the youngest daughter of Temple Blakely, married J.H. Taylor, and they had at least two, if not more children. The known children are: Alice, born in 1896, died in 1968, married W.G. McCollum; and C.P. Taylor.

For a complete list of the children of George Washington Blakely see THE MATTHEWS FAMILIES OF YADKIN COUNTY, published in 1968, by Miss Irma Matthews (now Mrs. Irma

M. Robertson).

GEORGE BLAKELY and FAM.

321

George Blakely was a veteran of the Civil War, Company F, Twenty-Eighth Regiment; he not only survived, but he recovered from a wound. Part of one of George's hands was shot off. Temple and Jane Stewart Blakely were his parents.

George married Sarah "Sookie" Matthews the daughter of Absalom and Mitty Poindexter Matthews. George was a farmer. Their home was across Bean Shole Creek from Absalom's home. One of George and Sarah's grandchildren and the family of a deceased grandchild own the house and part of the land now.

Four of George and Sarah's children lived to be adults: Henry, William, Mitty, and Paul. Henry and William, thinking they could make a better living for their families, left Yadkin and moved to Lee or Moore Counties in eastern North Carolina sometime about 1911. All George and Sarah's children are deceased. William's surviving daughter, Alma Yow, lives in Lee County. Some of Henry's children also live in Lee County, but the writer does not know which or where the other are.

Henry Blakely married Lucy Tate. Henry's children are: Early, Ivory, Luther, Coley, Joe, Carrie Farlow, Pearlle Bullard, Marvin, Roxie Montgomery, and Everette. William Blakely married Jennie Gunter. William's children are: Tommy, Alma Yow, and Jossie Yow. Mitty married Enoch Bullin. Mitty's children are: Claude and Nellie Hunter. Paul married Jane Burton. Paul's children are: Florence Lineberry, Vernie Spillman, Flora Scott, Myrtle Brown, and Estelle Ailmon. Nellie Hunter, Vernie Spillman and Myrtle Brown live in Yadkin County. Mitty and Paul's other children are deceased.

February 23, 1789, Surry County, North Carolina. Mary (Lakey) Elliott; b. 1765, Virginia; d. December 18, 1839, _____; widow of Thomas Elliott who died 1786, Surry County, North Carolina. Daughter of _____ and _____ Lakey.

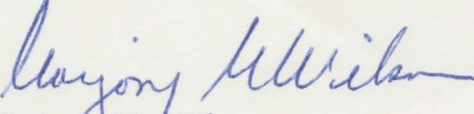

Son of:

Thomas Flinn; b. ab. 1730, St. George County later named Amelia County, Virginia; d. about 1783 and prior to 29 April 1784, Surry County, North Carolina; m. ab. 1751, probably Virginia. Elizabeth _____; b. _____; d. about February, 1784, Surry County, North Carolina. Daughter of _____ and _____. Children:

My questions are: Sources for more information on these families?
More specific dates and wives maiden names?

If you do not conduct searches yourself, maybe you can supply the names of some researchers willing to help with my puzzle. If there is a charge for copies and services, please let me know. Enclosed is a stamped self-addressed envelope for your use.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
