

The Maun Art, and Crafts Guild met on Tues, Sept 14, 1971 at the home of Mrs George Nevenhuis. After delicious refreshments furnished by Mrs George Seeger, a business meeting was held.
New officers for the year 1971-1972 are:
Mrs Louise Fay - Pres
Mrs Allen Sparger V. Pres
Mrs Louise Bailey Program Chairman Mrs Thomas Sallgate - Sec - Treas.

Miss Fay called the meeting to order and dues were collected from the members present.

Miss Sparger then passed out the new yearbooks which she had had revised at a considerable charge to the club ($7.50)

The calendar for the year was read and the following program changes were cleared:

Oct 12 Mrs Reed Jackson Program
Art Metal Craft

Mar 14 - Haulers Mrs Keeloch Hale

Mar 28 Haulers Mrs Walter James

Mrs George Nevenhuis announced that she had received a letter from Mrs George Kallendach in regard to our display tables for the Annual Leases Festival. Mrs Reed Jackson made a motion that the Guild not participate in the Festival this year due to the scarcity of work to be displayed by members. Mrs Hayner seconded the motion and after discussion the motion was passed. The possibility of a private showing of members work later in the year was suggested as an alternative and that members should strive for more varied crafts during the coming year so that we may participate in the Autumn Leaves Festival in the Fall of 1972.

Mrs Bailey read a letter from Celeste Russell stating that her busy schedule would not allow her to present a program on art as requested. She gave several dates when it would be possible for members to come to her home at Roaring Gap to view her work and after discussion Oct. 13 was the date chosen.

Mrs Jackson made a motion that the President later change up keeping the festival up to date. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mrs Jackson then read a history of the Guild written in rhyme by Mrs Jesse Baumer. This delightful recap will be put into the scrapbook along with call of all members, past and present.

Miss Fay reminded the members of the Open House at the Arts & Crafts Council to be held in Winston Salem on Sept 19.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

The Mount Airy Art and Crafts Guild met at the home of Mrs John Fraule on October 26th, 1971. After the members enjoyed refreshments Miss Laine Bailey introduced the speaker, Mrs Booker McKiff whose subject was New Trends in Public Health Care. She gave a detailed daily schedule of the services rendered by the health department which serves not only the indigent but the public at large through free immunization shots X-ray and blood sugar tests. One of the new programs is the Multi Phasic Screening, started in cooperation with local physicians to give indigent patients a complete physical evaluation. She also said that a kidney dialysis machine is being used on one patient in Mt. Airy with great success. The health service also holds clinics in Reid Mountain, Dalton and Ellen on specified days. Members then asked many questions of Mrs McKiff.

Mrs Fay conducted a brief business meeting where the minutes were read and approved & a report given by the dues members who went on the trip to Albee Ross Cox's home. Names were drawn for the Christmas party and Mrs Fay again reminded the members to let her know of names for the vacant memberships to be proposed and discussed at the Dec 7th meeting.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

The Mount Airy Art and Crafts Guild met at the home of Mrs. Frances Fay on November 24. After enjoying refreshments Mrs. Fay introduced Mrs. Jeanne Griffin and Mrs. Robert Kowalski. Mrs. Kowalski gave a most complete and interesting program on needlepoint. The two speakers had recently completed a course in needlepoint in Greenville and recommended the book Creative Canvas Embroidery by Betty King as the best workbook for interested members. A "sampler" with 17 different stitches was displayed as well as many books and examples of class work by those who had taken the course. Everything from belts to a large rug were shown. They stressed the point that any creative original work was to be the object of the course rather than the more usual "fill in" pieces which can be purchased anywhere. After an enthusiastic discussion the meeting was adjourned.

The Mt. Airy Art and Craft Guild met on Jan 4, 1972 at the home of Mrs Kellie Hale seeking help for Mrs Jesse Hennessey who had been elected to the Guild on March 14. The President asked that members submit their expresses for the Christmas party to Mrs Sue Hales. She announced that the membership would vote on the two houses submitted for membership at the next meeting. It was suggested that Mrs Porter's name be held until she is better known to the members.
After business representative Miss Alice Sparger presented a delightful program on the art of collage. This art was pioneered in 1910 and 11 by Picasso and George Braque to achieve texture and visual effects. It has since become a recognized and serious art form.
Miss Sparger then proceeded to give members the step by step procedure in detail in preparation for the workshop on collage to be held at the next meeting. Illustrations of the technique she used several words for her own as well as some of Mrs Gunnors and Mrs Rayne Walters.
Miss Sparger loved and enjoyed the work and made this a most enjoyable program.

The Mammal Arts and Crafts Guild met on February 1, 1972 at the home of Mrs. Sam Harris. After delicious refreshments the President called the meeting to order. Mrs. James Greffine was cordially welcomed as a new member.

The following changes were made for future meetings and hostesses:

Mrs. John Mendenhall	Feb 15
Mrs. Alma Sparger hostess	March 14 at Mrs. Reid Jackson's home	Feb 29
Mrs. Walter James hostess	Mar 28
Mrs. Jean Banner	April 11

The Secretary reminded the members of the current fund drive for the Serry Arts Council. The members voted to give a donation of $25 for the current year. The By-Laws were then read.

Mrs. Barker made a motion that at the time of the printing of next year's yearbook the By-Laws be reprinted with appropriate corrections and copies presented to all members. The motion was seconded and passed.

A discussion followed about electing a new member at the next meeting to fill the remaining vacancy. It was decided to hold this election on March 14 since the next meeting will be the calligraphy workshop.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.
