Chief Elder Of The Moravian Church

At a Synod of the Moravian Church, that met at Marienborn, Germany from December 5 to 31, 1740, Leonhard Dober asked to be relieved of his chief eldership. He felt that with the years more had come to be expected of the chief elder than he could perform. However, consideration of this was postponed until a later synod.

The next synodical conference convened in London September 11-23, 1741 with ten persons attending. Leonhard Dober remained firm in his determination to resign his office and was supported in this by the lot. Various brethren were nominated as chief elder, but the lot negated each. It was on September 16 when the idea came to them "to accept the Saviour in this office." At the outset of their deliberations they opened the next Text Book. There they read on one page 'May our door be open unto Christ,' and on the other: 'Thus saith the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask of me the things that are to come; concerning my sons and the work of my hands, command ye me. To your Jesus - He is your safeguard - Jesus ever will protect you.' Immediately all of them reached the decision not to appoint anyone but him to be our Chief Elder. - And He approved this (by the lot).

GRACE MORAVIAN CHURCH

After sixty eight years Grace Church continues to grow and serve the Lord and the communities in which we live and work. Jesus Christ is still our Chief Elder and we, as members of Grace Moravian Church are part of the Body of Christ and seek not only to serve him but find great joy in His service.
