Dear Betty,

Sorry I'm so slow in writing to thank you for the 1810 & 1830 censuses.

My James Franklin Gambel
(b. 1804) ~~would~~ have been one of the 4 males under age 10 of John Gambel in 1810 and the 1 white male listed in 1830 ^{under} John Gambel.

If you come across the will of John Gambel (Gambel) after 1830 or a deed between 1830-1857 where James Franklin sold his share of inheritance

please let me know (with cost)

My daughter, her husband and 3 children have been living with me for 6 weeks while they remodel an old house they purchased, so I've been extremely busy.

Sincerely,

Dear Miss Cammie,

As I gathered the information,
you had sent me on John B Damble, to take to a cousin in Louisiana, discovered I had never read the date, 1863,
(or at least without thinking)
On the inventory of his estate. Owing then, instead of the 1897 as I had thought, would certainly make him
the probable father of James Franklin Damble.

Sorry I confused
the issue by not reading

the material more thoroughly.

Did you say you had come across information that would take the line of John B. Gamble further back?

Very best wishes for a Joyous Christmas.

Sincerely,

Regarding Research to find parents of James Franklin Gamble

I have proof on the following from the William E. Adger Family Bible (owned now by my first cousin) and I have been to the cemetery and seen the graves of James Franklin Gamble, his wife and their three little boys who died in infancy. They are buried in the Presbyterian Church cemetery in downtown Winnsboro, S.C.

The two daughters of James Franklin Gamble, Mary Moultrie Gamble Adger and Lila are buried in the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Church, Bossier Parish, La. Lila (Eliza Jane and called Lila) never married.

James Franklin Gamble was born 25 Nov. 1807 ^{43 in 1850} died 3 June 1857
married 5 June 1838 Jane Richmond b. 8 July (Feb? can't read) 1816

Jane Richmond ^{was} granddaughter of John Richmond - a proven C.A.R. line.
The Richmond family lived in Fairfield Co., S.C.

Census Record - South Carolina 1840 gives J. F. Gamble (not listed before then)

My grandmother, Jane Adger Glassell, wrote in her diary in 1879 that she and her family had visited in Florence, South Carolina with her mother's uncle "Uncle Wash" Gamble. Enclosed is a copy of the letter I received from Darlington Co. Historical Society giving me the dates on Joseph Washington Gamble. Also enclosing the first and last pages of Joseph W. Gamble's will and the 2 pages telling about his land in Guilford Co., N.C., with a sister Sarah living on the land. With no other leads, than Guilford Co. I would like for you to research the Gamble wills there to see if a Gamble family listed a James Franklin, a Joseph and a Sarah, as heirs. Perhaps you have a better idea. If so, use it.

I do have these Gamble names (with similar names) from the N.C. Census Indexes:

1800 North Carolina Census:	James Gambal N.C. 620	10010-20010-00
	Guilford Co.
	Mary Gambal NC 623	00000-00101-00
	William Gambal NC 632	01110-00010-00
	John Gambla NC 623	10010-20100-01
1810 NC Census	James Gambitt Guil 152 NO	TWP L
Guilford Co	John Gamble Guil 5152 NO	TWP L

	John Gambel Guil 152 NO	TWP L

1830 NC Census	John Gamble Guil 149 NC	TWP L
Guilford Co	Hannah Gambol Guil 123 NC	TWP L

Regarding South Carolina Census Robert and Samuel Gamble lived in Fairfield Co. in 1820 and 1830, but the Fairfield Co. Historical Society looked up their wills and James Franklin was not listed as a son.

A thought: If the 1880 South Carolina Census is in the Raleigh Library, would it have the birthplace of Joseph W. Gamble. I think census started then. Bible 1869 to list birthplaces ^{about then, or is 1870?}

Dear Madam:

We learned through the local D.A.R. ladies that you are closely related to the Gamble family which was once in this vicinity.

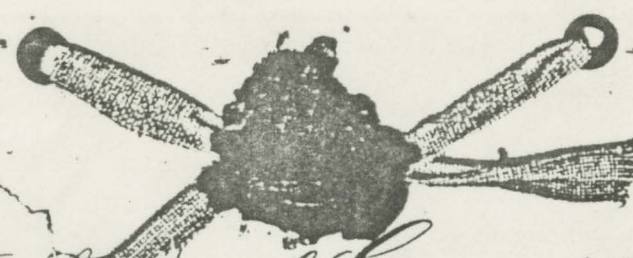

This family was very prominent in the mid-nineteenth century history of this county, and altho' the name appears many times in old records, the sum total of what we know about the family is still very little. Anything you might be able to contribute to our knowledge would be deeply appreciated. We presently know that Joseph W. Gamble was born July 4, 1804 and died Dec. 11, 1889; that he came possibly from Guilford Co., N.C.; that he had a sister in Cheraw, S.C.; that he had sons Julian and Clifford.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Horace Fraser Rudisill

Here is a copy of John B. Gamble's will. No wife or children are named. He must be the brother of my James Franklin Gamble. Sometime when ^{you} are researching Guilford Co. records, please see if there is a will (Gamble) that named a James Franklin, John B, Sarah and Jos. W. as children. - ~~No in Guilford.~~

In reading the letter you mailed me July 25, 1988, Jane P. Mary S., Andy and Rubin were perhaps brothers and sisters also.

The will I obtained was in Will Book D-163 in Guilford Co.

Vicksburg, Ms. 39180

Dear Dorothy,

Nice to hear from you again.

Not so sure that I have anything important for you. However, the 1850 census does show in Guilford County, #348 a Mary Gamble age 71 and a Sarah Gamble age 31 and a John B. Gamble age 24 or 26. At least it is interesting.

I do not find a will listing James Franklin, John B., Sarah, Joseph W., Jane P., Mary S., Andy and Rubin. This is from the estate of John B. Gamble. In the same census are a Joseph W. Gamble, age 34 with wife Mary 28, a James age 35, a John E also 35, Mary Gamble with Sarah and John B and a John Gamble age 55, wife Sally age 47 with son Joseph W., 26 years, son Wm., dtr Susan 20, Hannah 17, Hulda 15, son James 7 and dtr. Eliz. age 5.

I read this in looking for the brothers and sisters of your James Franklin. I would like to have seen their ages so that we might be able to place them into a family in one of those early census records.

John N. Gamble died in Knoxville, Ten. Nov. 14th 1818. Perhaps you should look for an estate or probate record there - also look into wills.

Am placing your file back in my brief to return to Raleigh and check and see if there is a Guilford Co. Heritage Book that might give someone else's proof of the family or give you a clue.

Sorry not to have found any wills that would help you.

Dear Mrs Camin,

I was glad to receive the information and will send for
J. B. Bamble's will - and probably other records listed. Enclosed is a check for $7500.

I don't see how John B. Bamble, who died in 1897, could be the father of my James J. Bamble, who was born in 1807 - wonder if he was a brother

with no children - Hope the Will will shed
some light.

I will write if I

Dear Mrs. Dalreymple,

This is a letter I hate to write, but best have done with the news. I have developed a medical problem and don't feel that I will be doing my best in the next couple of months. Once this is cleared, I will be back at it again.

I tried to work today, but, the room seemed to be full of chatty Cathys and Bobs and with the interruptions I really did not achieve that much. I was reading all the deeds that I could as quickly as possible. I was reading them looking for something more about the relationship of John B Gamble etc. Will make a print out for you and hope that from all the scraps of reports I send you, something will tell us who is who!!!!

- 4-369 William Gamble has wife Prudence 1787
- 5-463 Andrew Gamble sale in 1793 with John & James Gamble as wit. —
- 5-551 John Gamble listed as wagonmaker in 1794. Land sold joins the land of Andrew Gamble.
- 6-22 Shff. sells some land and James Gamble buys with Andrew and Mary Gamble as witnesses.
- 6-65 James Gamble in 1796 buys 2 3/4 acres with John and Joseph Gamble witnessing.
- 4-148 Andrew Gamble is listed as father of Joseph Gamble in sale to — James Gamble. 1793. Wit. is John Gamble.
- 7-310 James G. sells his N.C. grant in 1801 to Tucker. Levi Tucker & Joseph Gamble wit.
- 9-541 William Gamble to his son Andrew Gamble in 1808.
- 12-78 William & Andrew Gamble to J. Thom. 1804. Unreadable.
- 1822 1821 John Coe as guardian of the heirs at law of James Gamble. — to S. Jones.
- 18-31 James Gamble to Causey 1814. 121 acres. Wit: T. McCulloch & John Gamble.

Now in these early deeds it would be nice if I could assume that there were only one William, one Andrew etc. Then we could say with great authority that William and Prudence Gamble had a son Andrew and that said Andrew had a son Joseph. This might be true, but, I am not saying so as of now.

I will gather some copies for you and send this on to you. I suggest that you have the deeds copied or have someone read them for you - at the county would be better than here. Also suggest that someone read the census for the 1860, 1870. These are not indexed.

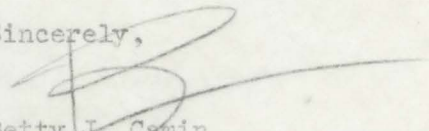

If you feel that you wish to go on with this in a couple of months, feel free to write and if you want to go on with someone else, I understand. Would like to have a chance to approve anyone here that you might find. The honest ones are all so very busy etc.

Best of luck with the new year!

Mrs. W. J. Dalrymple
360 Marian Lane
Vicksburg, Miss 39180

Dear Mrs. Dalrymple,

Worked on the Guilford County Gambles today and find that your people definitely are related to those in that county and that Joseph W. Gamble did have land transactions there in Guilford.

I have abstracted the Grantor and Grantee Deed Index lists for Gamble and picked the correct one to prove Joseph W. Gamble. The reading was extremely difficult on the microfilm. I would suspect that your best bet - if you want to read these, or have someone else read them, would be at the county court house in the original.

Also have located a will of John B. Gamble there, but, did not have time to read same. You can order a copy from the county without having to have a researcher or you can have me get a photocopy, paying me and for the copy.

Reg. of Deeds The Will might be in the Clerk of the Superior Ct.
Greensboro, N.C. 27402 Office.

You can get a more accurate listing of the deeds from the REG. of Deeds if you need same. I have marked some of the deeds I think you might want to look into. It does look as if you are going to be able to take this back into the 1730s.

If you are unable to follow this, I can stop at the court house some time and do it for you. Whatever you desire.

Am enclosing the Estate Papers of John B. Gamble. Do you want copies of all the little receipts in that file? I only had them copy the papers showing the heirs and the Inventory and Sale accounts. They can be so interesting.

Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Betty J. Camin
3123 Childers St.
Raleigh, N.C. 27612

P.S. I did not get into the census. If you want me to do so, merely say so and I will read same down through the years. bjc

Dear Betty,

I've enclosed $50⁰⁰ more for the Gamble research. In your 7 Dec letter you said a
Robert G. ^{of S.C.} had sold the Reddy Creed land.

There was a Robert Gamble
in Fairfield Co., S.C. Could there be a connection?

Sincerely,

Dorothy

Best wishes for a Joyous Christmas!

Dear Dorothy,

The Gambles were in Guilford Co. as early as 1782. It would seem that straightening them back to that time would not take so very much time. After that, I am not really sure where they came from, but, possible out of Rowan Co.

In Rowan an Abigail and Robert Gamble are buying Granville Grants in 1756-1757 etc. In 1777 Robert G. of S. C. sells the Reedy Creek land. This land is in what became Guilford County in 1771. The creek runs from what is now Forsythe Co, through Guilford etc. etc.

Sounds good from here, but only checking into the records will tell. We will be going to Surry Co. on the next warm weekend in N.C. and I will be glad to leave here early to read the different deads etc. that I would like to check in Guilford Co.

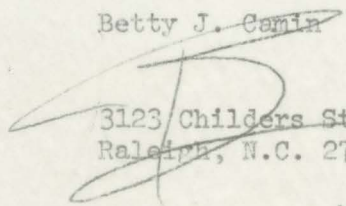

If you want more done of this line, let me know and I will see what I can do for you.

Oh, in 1777 Rbt. G. of S. C. might be going home or he might be moving on. Only time will tell you.

Best of luck whatever you decide to do.

Sincerely,

Betty J. Camin

Dear Miss Camin,

I am enclosing the letter I mailed to the North Carolina Archives regarding my interest in finding more on my Gamble line.

They sent a list of names and addresses of persons willing to perform genealogical research for a fee.

Would you be willing to do this resaerch for^{ms} and, if so, what would be the fee?

My ancestor^s name is James Franklin Gamble. He married Jane Richmond and they lived in Fairfield Co., S.C. I have been trying to locate his birthplace. An autograph book of my great uncle contained the name Joseph W. Gamble, Florence, S.C. and my grandmother's diary yielded the information that, in 1879, she had visited her Uncle "Wash" Gamble in Florence.

From the Darlington^{Co} Historic Commission I received Joseph W. Gamble's will in which he left land in Guilford Co., N.C. to his sons, with the understanding that his sister Sarah and her husband Jesse Holmes could continue living on the land.

Perhaps there would be a deed showing that James Franklin sold his interest in the land. A researcher in Fairfield Co., S.C. thinks James F. was in business there, so he might have sold his interest to buy the merchandise company.

I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for your reply, and hope you can help me in my search.

Sincerely,

Mrs. W. J. Dalrymple
