WELLS

CLEMMONS — Ms. Glendora Joyce Wells, 69, of 6924 Prairie Grove Drive, Clemmons, was born to the late John and Etta Smith Joyce in Henry County, Va. Reared by her grandparents, the Rev. Robert and Lou Smith, she was educated at the Ridge-Westfield

School. At an early age Ms. Wells united with Chestnut Ridge Progressive Primitive Baptist Church, where she formally accepted Christ and was baptized. She was a faithful member of St. Peters World Outreach Center, where she devoted her life to winning souls for Christ. Her care-giving spirit touched the lives of many. In addition to her parents and grandparents, she was preceded in death by two sons, Jimmy L. Joyce and John Henry Randolph, and a brother, Minister Romaine Joyce. Ms. Wells departed this life Thursday, Oct. 25, 2007, at the Forsyth Medical Center following a period of illness. She leaves fond memories to her children, Anthony T. Randolph of Mount Airy, Howard Earl Randolph of Winston-Salem, William G. (Penny) Randolph of Lincolnton, Minister Mary Wells Lyles of Clemmons, Ira R. Wells of Dobson, Bertha Wells Rowell, Elzer Charles Fitzgerald Wells and Vady Melissa France, all of Winston-Salem, and Albert (Rhonda) Wells of Mount Airy; 19 grandchildren; great-grandchildren; a brother, Russell (Crystal) Smith of Mount Airy; a sister, Minnie Pearl Smith of Cana, Va; and a host of other relatives and friends. A homegoing celebration will be held Thursday, Nov. 1, 2007, at 2 p.m. from St. Peters World Outreach Center with the Bishop J.C. Hash officiating. The family will receive friends from 1:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the church Thursday and at other times may be contacted at the residence. Online condolences may be sent to www.hooper-funeralhome.net. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in the name of Glendora Joyce Wells at Tristone Community Bank.
