

1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met in the home of Mrs. Sam Kennis, Jr. January 3rd.

The hostess served refreshments after an hour of conversation and the exchange of ideas.

Miss Alma Sparger gave a most interesting and instructive program on Antiquing Picture Frames. She displayed frames with paintings suitable for the frame. These paintings were her own work which were beautifully done. She left us with the feeling that we must try our hand at Antiquing.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis left early and Mrs. Patridge, Vice President presided over the business session.

The minutes of the meetings of December the 6 and 13, were read and approved.

The roll was checked with 15 members present.

The treasurer's report was given and recorded.

A check was made on the bills due for Christmas Dinner.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. A. Jackson January 17, 1967

Respectfully Submitted
Mrs. J. Nieuwenhuis, Pres
Mrs. George Snow, Sec

A letter from the Special Class was read by members.

Treasurer's Annual Report.

Balance Jan. 3rd. $71.06

Pd. for Christmas Dinner $26.04
as follows:

Mrs. Jesse Canale	$3.45-
Mrs. John Frank	1.75
Mrs. R.R. Jackson	2.35
Mrs. Sam. Hennis Jr.	1.55
Mrs. Kellcock Hale	8.00
Miss Louise Fay	.69
Mrs. Frank Hennis	5.00
Mrs. Lester Haynes	2.25
Mrs. R. Francisco	$1.00

1969

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met January 3rd in the home of Mrs. W. A. Jackson.

The time was spent in doing crafts and the exchange of ideas. The hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, president presided over the business session.

The roll was checked with eleven members present.

The minutes of the meeting of January 3rd. were read and approved.

Bills for the Christmas dinner were paid.

A note of thanks and appreciation from the secretary, of the Handicapped Children's Center was read.

The treasurer's report was given.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. R. Jackson on January 31st.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

Jan. 1969

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met Jan 31st. in the home of Mrs Reid Jackson

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The president, Mrs John Nieuwenhuis presided.

The roll was checked with 13 present.

Dues in the amount of $3.00 were collected.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and recorded.

The treasurer's report was given and checks for Christmas Dinner were given out.

There was no new business.

Mrs. Kelloack Hale gave a most interesting program on "quilting". She talked and showed examples on Trapunto the Italian quilting of stitchery in 2 lines and stuffing after the stitchery.

Mrs Jesse Banner thanked the members for flowers and card sent her mother.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Garland Warren on February 14th.

Respectfully Submitted
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs Ross Francisco, Sec Pro-tem

Feb. 14, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met February 14, 1967 in home of Mrs. Garland Warren.

After a period of hand work, the hostess served refreshments.

In the absence of the President and Vice President presided over the business session and called the meeting to order.

The minutes of the meeting of January 31st, were read and recorded. The roll was checked with eleven members present.

The treasurer's report was given.

Cards were signed by the members - to be sent to Mrs. Webb and Alona Sparger.

The members exchanged their favorite recipes -

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Fred Johnson February 28th.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. Garland Warren -
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

Acting Pres.

Feb. 28, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met in the home of Mrs. Fred Johnson February 28, 1967.

The hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, President presided over the business session.

The roll was checked with thirteen members present.

The minutes of the meeting of February were read and recorded.

The Guild expressed a desire to make a gift of $10.00 to the Building Fund of the First Baptist Church in memory of Mrs. A. G. Webb, a deceased member. The secretary was asked to do this.

Mrs. Nieuwenhuis paid a worthy tribute to Mrs. Webb, expressing the feelings of the Guild members, by saying will (greatly) miss her. She was a helpful, devoted and an enthusiastic member.

The secretary was asked to write to Mr. Webb and family expressing deep sympathy to him and his family - mentioning the Guild's loss in the death of Mrs. Webb. (This has been done).

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Reid Jackson. She based the pro-

Bal. Feb. 28th $44.41

Mrs. James for Christmas material 4.70

Bldg. Fund First Baptist Church in memory of
Mrs. Webb. $10.00

Pd. Cokerham Florist $3.61
$18.31

Balance March 14th $26.10

P2P1, 85, 348

gram on "Decorations in the Home". After remarks on decorating, she passed out papers with many questions there on. These questions after answered would tell each member the type of house she should live in and the one best suited for her.

This program was a lot of fun and each one enjoyed answering the questions. At the same time Mrs. Jackson gave some helpful decorating suggestions.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis on March 14th.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

March 14, 1969

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met in the home of Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis March 14, 1969.

The hostess served refreshments.

The business session was presided over by the President, Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis.

The minutes of the meeting of February 28th were read and recorded.

The roll was checked with five members present.

The treasurer's report was given.

The meeting of March 28th will be with Mrs. George Nieuwenhuis. At this time Mrs. John Frank will give a program on "Antiquing Furniture."

A most pleasant afternoon was spent with Mrs. Nieuwenhuis with much conversation and handwork.

Respectfully Submitted
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

March 28, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met March 28th. in the home of Mrs. George Nieuwenhuis.

The first hour of the meeting was spent in exchanging ideas and doing handwork.

The hostess served refreshments. Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, President presided over the business session.

The minutes of the meeting of March 14th. were read and adopted.

The roll was checked with thirteen members present.

Since there was no special business to be taken care of, the President presented Mrs. John Frank, who gave a most interesting and helpful program on "Antiquing Furniture".

Mrs. Frank gave the background of the beginning of antiquing of furniture. She displayed samples of Antiques Furniture and gave in detail the types of antiquing and the method to pursue.

The meeting on April 11th. will be on "Hatmaking". This program will be given by Mrs. James McDavid of Fayetteville, N.C. - a friend of Mrs. Sam Hennis.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs. George Snew, Sec.

April 11, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met April 11, 1967 at the Mount Airy Country Club, with Mrs. M. H. Patridge as hostess.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, President, presided over the meeting and asked Mrs. Sam Hennis to introduce her guest.

Mrs. Hennis introduced Mrs. James McDavid of Fayetteville, a professional in "Hat Making".

Mrs. McDavid gave a most interesting and instructive method of "Hat Making". She started with the beginning of a hat - and worked on a frame as she gave instructions - She showed sample hand made hats also.

At the close of the meeting, she gave the frame that she had used to demonstrate to the one who held the lucky number.

Our other guests for the program were Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Henry Rowe.

The meeting of April 25th will be with Mrs. Snow - The program will be given by Mrs. George Nieuwenhuis.

April 25, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met April 25th in the home of Mrs. George Snow.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis called the meeting to order for the business.

The minutes of the meeting of April the 11th were read.

The roll was checked with nine members present.

Flowers were sent to Mrs. Wrenn who is in the hospital. A card was signed by the members present and was ^{also} sent to Mrs. Wrenn.

The Guild Picnic was discussed but a definite date was not decided on.

Mary Rowe has graciously offered her home on Groundhog Mountain for the picnic.

A trip to visit a handicraft exhibit was suggested. This to be discussed later.

Mrs. George Nieuwenhuis gave a most interesting and helpful program on "Ajaru Embroidery". She gave an explanation and the development of this work in other countries. She showed the many types of this work that she had done so beautifully - This represented a lot of time on the part of Mrs. Nieuwenhuis.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Miss Alma Sparger May 9th -

Respectfully Submitted

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.

Mrs. George Snow, Sec -

The treasurer's report -

Balance April 25 th	$26.40
Pd to Cockerham's Flower Shop	6.68
Balance May 9 th	~~$24.72~~
	$19.42

Pd. First Baptist Bldg.
fund in memory of Mrs
L.P. Wrenn, Sr.	$10.00

Balance May 23 rd	$19.42
------------------------------	---------

May 9, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met May 9th in the home of Miss Alma Sparger.

After a period of conversation and handwork the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, President presided over the business.

The minutes of the meeting of April 25th were read and approved.

The roll was checked with 14 members present.

The members of the Guild expressed a desire to give $10.00 to the Building Fund of the First Baptist Church in memory of Mrs. L. P. Wrenn, a deceased member.

Mrs. Nieuwenhuis paid a worthy tribute to Mrs. Wrenn expressing the feelings of the Guild Members by saying we will miss her. She was a Charter member, helpful, devoted, talented and enthusiastic.

The secretary was asked to write to Mr. Wrenn and family expressing deep sympathy and mentioning the Guild's loss.

A picnic for the Guild was discussed but the members voted to take a trip to Old Salem instead. This trip to be on June 6th.

The meeting adjourned to meet May 23rd with Mrs. Lester Haynes.

The program will be given by Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Frank Dennis -
The topic will be "Ceramics"

Respectfully Submitted
Mrs. John Neumann, Pres.
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

May 23, 1967

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild met May 23^d in the home of Mrs. Lester Haynes.

An hour was spent in doing many crafts.

Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres. presided over the business session.

The roll was checked with sixteen members present.

The minutes of the meeting of May 9th were read and approved.

The meeting of June 6th was discussed. This is to be a visit to Old Salem. Those ~~who~~ go will meet at the Reception Center at 1:30 o'clock for directions and to be assigned to guides. This was verified by a letter your secretary received from Old Salem in answer to a request for information.

The officers for 1967-1968 will be —

President: Mrs. Garland Warren

Vice Pres: Miss Louise Foy

Program Ch: Mrs. Jesse Banne

Sec-Treasurer: Miss Alma Sparger

The program on Ceramics was presented by Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Frank Kinnis.

Mrs. Kinnis gave the history of Ceramics which dates back many, many years. It is one of the oldest crafts.

~~slit~~ ^{slip?} Mrs. Haynes demonstrated the making of ceramics by pouring ~~slit~~ ^{slip} in a mold and removing it from the mold when it hardened. At the same time she showed many articles she had made, painted and glazed.

This was a most interesting program and gave each one an urge or desire to get into the ceramic business.

The meeting was the last in the homes for the year. The final meeting will be the visit to Old Salem June 6th.

Since our meeting we were saddened to hear of the death of our President's Brother in England.

Your Secretary wrote to Mrs. Nieuwenhuis for the Guild members expressing our love and deepest sympathy.

Respectfully Submitted
Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis, Pres.
Mrs. George Snow, Sec.

Sept. 2, 1967

Letters of sympathy ^{were} written to Mrs. W. A. Jackson and Mrs. Ross Francisco

June 6, 1967

The last meeting of the Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild for the year was a visit to Old Salem.

The members who went down met at the Reception Center and were assigned guides for the tour.

Balance Sept. 1966	$ 34.59
Collected dues & fees etc.	$ 64.70
	$ 99.29
Paid out	87.37
Balance	$ 11.92

Paid for Christmas Party $ 26.04

Paid for flowers $ 27.31

Paid in memory of
Mrs. Webb & Mrs. Wrenn $ 20.00

Paid for paper to Mrs. W. $ 6.82
Paid to Mrs. James for Christmas material $ 4.70

Paid to Mrs. Wrenn (cash) for Christmas Party 1965 $ 2.50
Paid out $ 87.37

Bal. Sept. 1967 $ 11.92