TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION

JOSEPH WILLIAM JOHNSON

1861-1931

Joseph William Johnson, long one of the most faithful members of the Antioch Baptist church and a regular attendant at all the annual gatherings of the Surry Baptist Association, passed away on June 13 at the age of 70 years. Known to hundreds of friends and fellow Baptists all over this section, Mr. Johnson was a kind and loving husband and father, a faithful church worker and a valuable citizen of his county and state. He was one of the layment pillars that make the foundation of the Lord's church.

REV. ANDREW JACKSON WILLIAMS

1847-1931

Rev. Andrew Jackson Williams, for almost half a century a minister to the Baptist churches of Surry and adjoining counties, passed to his Heavenly reward on July 5 after a long illness. The veteran minister was 84 years of age at the time of his death, having been born May 30, 1847, in Burke county, North Carolina. He was a Confederate veteran and carried his soldierly spirit into his battles for the Master's cause. His work will long be remembered in the churches of the Surry Association.

J. C. KAPP

1861-1931

Another soldier of the cross was called to his reward when J. C. Kapp, prosperous farmer and merchant of the Kapp's Mill section, passed away on July 17, after a lingering illness. Mr. Kapp was a lifelong member of the Baptist church and was one of the leaders of the Rocky Ford church of the Surry Association, as well as one of the leaders in the fight for better educational facilities in Surry county.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

We have held three regular sessions of the Committee during the year. The attendance has been small. Some members of the Committee could not attend any of these meetings. Bad weather and poor roads have kept us from doing much work. More than one hundred letters have been written. One rally was held in Dobson during the winter in interest of our denominational work. This meeting was well attended.

We had no applications for pastoral aid during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS

From the very beginning of the organized life of North Carolina Baptists, State Missions have held a large place in the thinking and planning of our people. One of the primary objects in the minds of our fathers in the organization of the Convention as stated in the first article of the Constitution, adopted at Greenville in 1830 was "the employment of missionaries within the limits of this state." This has been the consistent and aggressive policy of the Baptist State Convention for more than a hundred years. The truth is, the wise and aggressive policy of State Missions, humanly speaking, has made the denomination what it is in members and power in North Carolina today. Napoleon said: "Conquest has made me what I am, and conquest will sustain me." That is certainly true of State Missions, and the growth and enlargement of the Baptist churches in North Carolina demonstrate the truth of it. Literally hundreds of our strong churches are trophies of State Missions.

Great and far-reaching changes have taken place in North Carolina within recent years. Three recent developments especially have thrust upon our country and village churches acute and critical problems,—the coming of good roads, the automobile, and the consolidation and growth of the rural grammar and high schools. We believe these three developments are going to be the very acid test in the life or death struggle of many of our smaller rural churches. In the days of bad roads and lack of communication, there was some necessity for a Baptist church every three miles. But that necessity no longer exists. Many of those weak, struggling churches are doomed to die. Many more of them are going to be compelled to consolidate with others in the same territory. There must be better equipment and better support for the ministry.

The great agency in this new and untried situation, for a sane and progressive program of work and development, ought to be our General Board of the Baptist State Convention.

Let's strengthen the hands of this Board and begin with patience and zeal the effort to solve these great State Mission problems.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. HALL.

REPORT OF RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

Some time ago I was anxious to know the nature of literature the boys and girl of my town were reading, so in an effort to inform myself along this line I visited all drug stores and newsstands that sold current magazines and papers. At each establishment I asked this question: "What is your most popular seller to the boys and girls?" Without hesitation the proprietor at each place answered, "The True Story." "We sell more of these magazines than all others combined," was the added comment of several salesmen.

When we consider the kind of literature the youth of our country is reading we need not be surprised to learn that crime and gangster life is on the increase among the youth of the land.

We, as parents, are very careful about providing pure food and water for the stomachs of our children, yet we allow them to feed their minds from the garbage cans of literature.

Prohibition, as some would have you think, is not responsible for the delinquent youth of today; neither can we charge the Crime Wave to the World War. To my mind the greatest factor that is causing our boys and girls to venture upon the highway of lawlessness is the influence of the filthy literature upon which they feed their minds. As a nation reads, so is it.

When we consider the danger of bad literature and the opportunity of securing good literature, it behoves us as Christians and parents to carefully select and direct the reading of our boys and girls. With our denomination furnishing an abundance of religious literature, it is very important that we endeavor to fill our homes with wholesome reading matter.

The Baptist denomination of our State and southland with its agencies is providing ample religious literature for its members. I wish to commend the following publications as worth reading matter for our people: The Biblical Recorder, Charity and Children, Home and Foreign Fields and the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Periodicals.

OF THE SURRY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

If we expect to train a loyal constituency, properly informed in the faith of our fathers, we must encourage the reading of our denominational literature. I believe every Baptist church in North Carolina should provide for the BIBLICAL RECORDER in its annual budget, and send it into each home represented in the church. One main reason why our people are not more loyal to the denominational program is because they are not properly informed. "THE RECORDER is a bundle of information bringing to Baptists the very things they need to know. It is a direct connecting line between our mission boards, Secretaries, W. M. U. officers and the Church, society and individual." No wide-awake farmer or business and professional man would try to keep abreast with the profession today without reading some good publication dealing with his particular occupation. Can we as Christians be less alert to the progress of the Kingdom?

Respectfully submitted,

L. B. PENDERGRAPH.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS

Home Missions is the effort of all that group of missionary and evangelistic tasks which because of their nature or their size and difficulty can best be handled by a Southwide denominational agency. In short it is a co-operative effort on the part of all the churches to carry the Gospel to all those sections of the homeland not now being served by regularly constituted churches.

The Home Mission Board, through which the Southern Baptist Convention is doing its work, is confronted with a large debt which came about as a result of post-war expansion and the resultant drying up of easy money. During the past year the Home Mission Board has made a commendable effort to wipe out and retire $141,000 of this debt and every effort is being made to make a substantial reduction in this indebtedness each year. The denominational leaders have made up their minds to cut the denominational garment to fit the cloth (or funds) available. This has been done in the face of decreasing receipts and without crippling materially the work already begun.

Following is the budget of work which the Home Mission board has set out to accomplish the coming year.

Following the instruction of the Southern Baptist Convention the Board is living within its income and paying its debts. Last year, in spite of decreased receipts, the Board by combining departments and practicing the most heroic economy paid $141,000 on the principal of its indebtedness and carried on its mission work. No one single mission field has been abandoned.

The budget for next year at the annual meeting of the Board, June 3rd, was laid out, according to the instruction of the Convention, on the basis of the cash receipts of the year before. The receipts were $413,283.96. This was $26,510.80 less than the Board received the year before. The Board was, therefore, forced to the painful necessity of cutting $26,500 off of its budget of operations. This reduction was made by economizing in overhead expense and in reducing the appropriation to institutions. Only a very small percentage of reduction was made in the Mission work. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars was set aside for payment of interest and principal on indebtedness. The Board has definitely decided to retire its indebtedness as rapidly as possible.

During the past year the Board has had 252 missionaries and helpers who have given 3,162 weeks of labor, conducted 3,563 religious services and preached 9,373 sermons, held 5,875 prayer meetings and made 51,356 visits, received by profession and baptism 3,562 people, added to the churches 3,015 members and distributed 634,514 pages of tracts.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. WOODRUFF, for the Com.

REPORT ON "OUR OLD MINISTERS RELIEF"

There is no object to which our denomination contributes that is more worthy of our most thoughtful consideration and our most liberal support.

None of us who are living today and still active can deny for a moment that we are not indebted to those worthy heroes of the Christ Jesus our Lord, who have become disabled by the infirmities of old age or who have fallen in the faithful performance of their duty which was dearer to them than life itself; a debt of gratitude that we shall never be able to pay and with deep humility we must acknowledge that we have fallen far short in showing our heartfelt appreciation for the services that they rendered to the churches and to society in their unfaltering duty as ministers of the Gospel of our blessed Lord. In view of these facts let us enlarge our contributions to this most worthy object.

Although we have made great advances in contributions to this cause; yet, if we provide for the needs of these faithful ministers and their families adequately we have yet a long distance to travel. Therefore let us enlarge our contributions to this worthy cause and thereby show our appreciation of their services in laying well and deep the foundation on which we are all today building.

Respectfully submitted,

S. F. MORTON.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RESOLUTIONS

We, as Baptists of the Surry Association, are truly thankful for what the Sunday schools have accomplished. When we look back and see what has been done by the Sunday schools, it causes our hearts to swell with gratitude to the Giver of all good things, but when we see our young boys and girls, who are soon to take our places, we realize now more than ever the great work to be done.

Therefore, we would suggest to the pastors of the Association that they encourage the Sunday school work by encouraging the superintendents and teachers by calling attention to the fact that our leaders today were one time somebody's boy, whose mother fixed and sent away to Sunday school for training. We would suggest, too, that the singing of inspiring gospel songs be encouraged at Sunday school, and the Sunday schools with the best choirs visit other schools to encourage the better music.

The Sunday school work is so good and glorious, let us take a new hold and fit it to its proper place in the Master's work.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Whenever the spirit of God has touched human lives, there has been a desire and longing for knowledge.

The touch of the Master produces in a human life a profound desire to acquaint him or herself with the facts of the universe of which he or she is a part.

It was the abiding interest of the Christian religion that caused our forefathers to establish our first institutions of learning.

With the revival of learning, coupled with the Christian religion that swept over this southland about a century ago, gave rise to the birth of our Missionary enterprises and the founding of Wake Forest College and our Baptist State Convention as well as the founding of all of our Baptist schools.

We should be grateful to the early Christians of our denomination and not only to them alone, but to our sister denominations in North Carolina who started the movement for the education of our people.

We are happy that all people have today become strong believers in education, and we are further grateful because the state has relieved the church of the burden of educating our people.

Although the Baptist have seen best to maintain and support higher institutions of learning for the general welfare of the Kingdom of God.

The difference between secular education and Christian education is that the instructors in our Christian schools not only seek to turn out men who can make their way in the world, but in addition try to inculcate an abiding interest in Christian service so that every community may have ample Christian leadership.

It does not matter how well the state may provide for higher institutions of learning, the Baptist people of North Carolina can not afford to support and maintain our Baptist institutions, Wake Forest, Meridith, Campbell, Boiling Springs, Wingate and Chowan. For it is from these schools that our preachers and Christian leaders come.

In view of promoting the Christian religion let every loyal Baptist of the Surry Association give his hearty support to this worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER CALLOWAY

REPORT OF BAPTIST ORPHANAGE

One Hundred years ago Mr. J. H. Mills, the pioneer of child welfare, was born. Forty-six years ago, Mr. Mills founded one of the greatest institutions North Carolina has today; namely the Mills Home, our Baptist Orphanage. This institution has touched the lives of thousands of children and now have a host of Christian Citizens scattered over our state and reaching into numbers of other states, active in Civil and Religious matters. This great institution now has at the Mills Home 499 children, at the Kennedy Home 136 and has 68 mothers caring for 286 children in their homes in the state, through M. A. all of these 911 children are having the very best of care, are being taught in the very best school in the state by the very best teachers available.

These children are not only taught from school books, but are taken to the places of industry and are taught and trained in active service as they leave this institution. They are trained to enter the different fields of industry and are well equipped to earn for themselves respectable support.

Out of this number we have from Surry Association 15 children, we find that it costs $23.53 per child per month for maintenance. We (Surry Association) have contributed $788.63 for a period of one year, or $52.67 per child, or $229.69 less than actual cost per child per year. There are hundreds of children over the state that need this home and scores of applications on the waiting list that are being deprived of equal opportunities of the average child.

The institution is supported by free will offerings from our Sunday Schools and a Thanksgiving offering once a year, however, the greater number of our churches are doing nothing for this institution other than furnishing inmates. Numbers of our pastors are doing very little other than making applications and recommendation for commitments.

If we are to care for our unfortunate children as we should, we must open up our hearts to this great need, and give it a greater and better support.

Respectfully submitted,

L. F. WALKER.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE

It has been said that ours is the greatest nation on earth, and that we have the greatest principals to constitute our government of any nation on earth and that our laws are against many of the forces and evils which would destroy our homes and nation.

We have grown in numbers and in wealth and in power as no other nation has ever grown but we are failing to enforce our laws until the crime wave is sweeping our country as never before.

Our nation also has laws against the manufacture and sale of strong drink, but like all other laws, they are not enforced as they should be. When our stills were under control of the government we made more blockade liquor than we do now.

Prohibition is here to stay but what we, as citizens of the United States, need to do is to elect men to office who will enforce the laws of our country regardless to respect of persons.

We must keep our people informed on the forces and evils that would destroy our homes and our country. We have six million people who do not know anything about the old still and saloon. They have become of age since prohibition came into effect. We have men who do not care anything for our government or its laws, who says prohibition is a failure and no good.

We are informed by many of our greatest business men that it has been a success and enforced as many as any of our laws. Mr. Edison says a good many of the men whom he had employed during the days of saloons spent their money for strong drink but since the days of prohibition, spend it on their families.

Mr. Ford says men whom he had employed in the days of saloons, a number of them, gave him trouble but not so now. Many of our people used to spend their money with saloon keepers but since the days of prohibition many of them have bank accounts and homes and are spending their money on their families.

Strong drink is an evil—

God says in the 14th chapter of Proverbs, "Fools make a mock of sin"; sin, that awful thing; that thing that has murdered; stolen from, lied to, blasted, cursed, damned the human race; that thing that has broken the hearts of half the race; that thing that has brought anguish, and tears to the whole race; that awful unexplainable, horrible thing that is still cursing the race; sin, and yet men make a jest of it. Sin, that leprosy of the soul, they mock at. Sin, that disgrace of the soul, they jest at. sin, that death of the soul, they mock at.

J. L. MARTIN.
