

Rockford, N. Carolina.

March 12th 1865

My dear sister,

I seat myself this beautiful sabbath evening to write ^{you} a short Epistle I have been to church to day, there was a large crowd out. Lennie and the Let were there, she had her hair curled and thought she was looking very pretty but Lencie cut her out and took the Let home - with her Bettie, our old friend William M. Davis has been to see us, about Lettie give him a supper and invited all the ladies from Rockford, we had a nice time, we stayed at grandma. untill after supper and then came over here, he had a very nice gentleman with him Mr Tomson, Mr Davis laughs as much as ever he has not forgot how to trot yet. I wish you could have seen Mr Tomson she is a
