

Siloam community celebrates Fourth of July

Copeland Ruston 2018

Dean Palmer | Special to The News

For the Siloam community's Independence Day Parade, the Shriners' mini-trucks are always a popular entry with the young and the young at heart.

Emery Mitchell, age 4, focuses intently as she tries to ring a cow at one of the children's games.

Participants get off to a fast start in an old-fashioned sack race.