For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.

*There is a time to live, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to harvest; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to rejoice; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to speak, and a time for solitude; a time to love, and a time for memories. I have seen everything beautiful in its time.*

CALLAHAN — FIRST HOME

82

Robert and Sarah Frances Callahan had seventeen children in this log house: Columbus, b. 1872; Charlie, b. Dec. 27, 1874; John Hugh, b. Oct. 10, 1878; Mary Jane, b. Sep. 19, 1879; Ardella "Dell," b. June 23, 1881; Fannie, b. May 29, 1884; Thomas, b. Nov. 15, 1885; Louisa, b. June 1, 1888; Benjamin, b. Dec. 24, 1889; Elizabeth "Bet," b. May 6, 1891; Amelia, b. 1894; Matilda, b. Aug. 16, 1896; and William, birthdate not known. (He joined the Standing Army and settled in Oklahoma City where he was buried when he died.) Triplets, died at birth; and another child that did not live long enough to be named.

This first home did not come easy for the Callahans. Robert was the son in the family to serve as a soldier in the Civil War. His brother, Richard, was left to be Home Guard. A Home Guard was a man left in the community to be on the alert for outlaw Rebel troops who would kill and steal for food and shoes. The Rebels were near starvation and some of them would do anything for food. Robert's brother got word to him that their mother was dying. Robert went AWOL (absent without leave) to try to see his mother. Before he could reach home, another Home Guard told him his mother had died. Robert then made his way back to his regiment, only to be told that the war had ended and all of his regiment had gone home. He started his journey back home, travelling by night thinking he might be mistaken for one of the outlaw Rebel soldiers who stole and killed. By this time, he was in rags; he had lost so much weight that even his family members did not recognize him when he got home.

On his way home, Robert Callahan stopped at the Butcher home. The Butchers' father and mother had been killed by outlaw Rebel soldiers. Only Rube, Sarah Frances, and George were left alive in this family. The Butcher children shared food with Robert — they had hidden it under the floor of the house; all their other food had been taken by the outlaw Rebels who killed their parents.

When Robert did reach home, he was wearing rags and covered in body lice. He was not allowed in the house until he was bathed and treated for lice, and his clothes burned.

After he was nursed back to health, he returned to the Butchers' home where he met Sarah Frances. She was 13 years old and Robert was 25; he took her home to be his wife.

Robert and Sarah Frances Callahan's first home (still standing on Simpson Road in Surry County) and its furnishings were built entirely by hand with the help of Robert's family and friends

Scripture

Rev. Bud Cameron

Hear these words of comfort and assurance from God's holy word.

From the 33rd chapter of the book of Deuteronomy the 27th verse: "The eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms..."

From the 41st chapter of Isaiah the 10th verse: "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed: for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

From the 116th Psalm, these selected verses: "I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon Him as long as I live.....Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful..... Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling..... What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.....Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.....I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord."

From the beginning of the Bible to the end, we have recorded the immeasurable Glory of God revealed and also his great love and amazing Grace. God's word reveals to us that we can place our trust and hope in God and we can have the assurance that in this life and in the eternal life to come, that those who acknowledge him may live in the light of his divine love. Thanks be to God.

We gather on this occasion in worship of God the creator, preserver of life and master of the universe.

We gather in faith, trusting in His love and grace, which is revealed in his goodness, in the blessings of life and in His son Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

We gather with hearts saddened by the passing of Carl Randolph "Randy" Golding, a faithful husband, father father-in-law, grandfather, great grandfather, kinsman, fellow church member, neighbor and friend.

We gather in support of this family in their loss.

Death is as certain as birth, it is a part of our mortality and it comes to everyone.

But we gather also as Christians, confident in the assurance of God that death is not the end of our existence, but rather the entry into a greater and eternal existence which the Lord has prepared for us. God is with us through the all of life. He wants the best for us and through His son Jesus Christ, He has made provision for eternal life for those who acknowledge His lordship and believe on him. Let us give thanks unto him for his goodness towards us.

This life is hard at best. It holds joy as well as sorrow. There are victories as well as failures. Randy experienced both in life. But Randy also knew this; the glory and the wonder of heaven is far better than the best this world has to offer.

Yes we come today in grief, but we also come praising God for his love and goodness which we can count on in all of life's experiences, even the death of a loved one such as Randy.

We also come to commemorate Randy's life and all that he meant to us. Randy was born in Wythe Co., Virginia, the third child of Hobert and Julina Upchurch Dunford.

Randy's parents like many in the early years of the great depression fell upon hard times and by 1931, when Randy was two years old, the family was stricken by financial problems, legal problems and by the separation of the parents, the burden of the mother caring for three small children was too great. Such situations may seem hard for us to understand today but back then were more common.

The decision was made to find a home for the youngest child, where he would have a better life and be provided for. It is believed that Julina Upchurch Dunford, was acquainted with Columbus and Ellen Payne Golding and contact was made regarding Randy's being taken and raised by the Golding family. This was done. Some years later it is said that Randy's natural father, Hobert Dunford, sought to get Randy back but without success.

Randy grew up in the Golding family, where he knew a loving Christian home and was adored by his two teenage sisters, Emma and Ona, who both loved their new baby brother. The Golding family, grew up on a farm in the North Carolina/Virginia Border in Surry County in the Pipers Gap community.

As an older youth the family moved to Mount Airy but continued to farm in the homeplace. Randy attended Franklin Elementary and High School but like many of that time he did not graduate. At the end of World War II he dropped out of high school and helped out on the farm.

At the age of 18 he married his first wife, Ruth Miller Golding, and became a Car Salesman, working at Williams Chevrolet, Collins Chevrolet, and Phillips Motors. All total Randy was a Car salesman for over forty years. Randy and Ruth were the parents of Edward Dale Golding and Rita Golding Jones. Some years later this marriage ended.

Mary Sue, Randy's second wife, tells me that although she had heard of Randy that they first met at the popular, O'Dells Sandwich Shop. Randy was thirty-three and she was nineteen at the time of their meeting. Randy and Mary Sue were married and had two children, Carl Stanley Golding and Janet Golding Rodden.

Randy was a loving husband and a loving father. Those whom he loved knew he loved them and they loved him in return.

After Randy became a member of the Golding family, he like they, attended Imogene Methodist Church. After Randy and Mary Sue were married they like Ona and Emma and their families before them, joined Franklin Heights United Methodist Church, and this was to be their church for approximately forty-five years.

Randy was a respected car salesman and received various honors for his work in this area over his long career, but the appreciation and friendship from his customers were what he valued most. Words such as friendly, courteous, caring, thoughtful, honest and faithful are words that you hear from people in describing Randy. I have been privileged to have known Randy for over forty years and can attest that Randy that these words correctly describe the Randy that I came to know and value.

After Randy was grown, he re-established contact with his Dunford family. Both his mother and father were divorced, remarried and had additional children. Randy appreciated his biological family and knowing them enriched his life, however his being given up, was understandably hard for him to fully comprehend. However there was no question of his love and devotion to the Golding family that he was truly a part of.

Randy's life in looking back upon it, was like everyone's life, more complex than we may at first believe, filled with twist and turns and questions of why that remain forever unanswered. But I submit to you that in looking at Randy's life, if you look through the eyes of faith, as Randy did, you can see the hand of a loving and gracious God at work making bad situations better, and good becoming triumphant. I add to that list of difficult things Randy experienced in life, also the loss of his son Dale at to early an age.

Mary Sue, Rita and Kenny, Stan, Janet and Daniel, his six grandchildren, Bradley, Lee, Leslie, Meredith, Emma Kaye, Matthew, Kendall, Teagan, Jade and Chase, and four great grandchildren, family and friends. God has richly blessed the life of your loved one Randy Golding, and you yourself were a part of God's blessing that Randy was most thankful for. Love is a strange thing in that it never ends. Randy's love for you and your love for him endures and shall continue to endure as is also true of your love for him.

In this season of Advent, as we celebrate the gift of Christ, let us understand that this gift was the gift of our loving God and for those who accept this gift, eternal life is certain. Randy knew this. He wanted to live, but he was prepared and unafraid to die because he trusted in God.

I have been told of Randy's nightly prayers, how Randy prayed out loud, for any and all to hear. These were prayers of thanksgiving and love unto God. Now that thanksgiving and love can be said face to face between Randy and God.

Family, in the days ahead when the grief comes and sadness is heavy upon you, draw strength in knowing that God is with you loves you, and is there to help you go on by faith.

The thoughts and prayers of many people are with you. God Bless you.

STORIES FROM THE QUILT

A Mothers Remembers...

While I realize that in today's social and political climate the Confederate flag is hardly considered "politically correct," I have nevertheless chosen it to commemorate the life of my son Ben. I make no apology, for I trust that those who might otherwise be offended by this symbol will come to understand what it represents here. For Ben, bewildered by the virtual disappearance of his immediate family, it was a connection to a larger family which helped fill an indescribable void in his life.

Benjamin Duncan was no ordinary young man—and neither were his older brothers Jesse and Scott.

To say that these young men who grew up in the high mountains of North Carolina were adventuresome would not be exactly true. To say that they lived and tested life to its fullest would be more accurate...and it would surely bring smiles to the faces of their friends who participated in their "tests of life." The difference between these three brothers and their friends is that Jesse, Scott, and Ben have all died.

The dwindling away of our family began with a divorce in 1973. Their daddy remained a part of the boys' lives, but not part of their household. Like most parents faced with the daunting prospect of raising their children to be responsible adults, I felt overwhelmed. For the task, I drew on the things that were familiar to me.

My family, including my sons, were southerners to the core—not racists or bigots, for these traits are acquired through following examples, and we stood for none of that. I refer to our geographical, social, and cultural roots. I had learned of our ancestors who fought under the Confederate flag, and for me they and the great heroes like General Robert E. Lee were men of honor who were willing to lay down their lives for what they believed.

I couldn't make them academic achievers or give them great skill in athletics, but I could—and I did—teach my sons that a man is judged by his word, that a handshake is binding, that to be honorable is important. I taught them that if they could live their lives in such a way that it would be said of them, "They are honorable men," then God would be pleased—and so would their Mama.

In 1979 tragedy struck. Jesse and Scott were drag racing, and the car in which Jesse was riding hit a narrow bridge. His neck was broken and, at the age of 18, he died in Scott's arms.

Scott's heart and soul died at the same time, but it took his body two years to follow. He was just 19 when he died of a drug overdose.

Now it was just Ben and I. He was 10 when Jesse died, and 12 when he lost Scott—too young to understand why, and too old not to comprehend the permanence of death. Our once raucous household was so still. Together we began a journey to recover from our loss.

We began to study genealogical charts. Ben learned of his ancestral family, and they became important to us. We did, in fact, create for ourselves a sense of large family as we studied about and "got to know" as people some of the names we discovered. One of them was Henry Francis Marler, Co.D, 32nd Division, Virginia Cavalry.

Ben's quilt square represents the flag under which this particular soldier fought. The soldier was his great-, great-, great-, great-, great-grandpa.

He was an important part of Ben's family.

Even with the sadness that was a part of it, Ben and I enjoyed a wonderful life together. He grew to become a handsome young man—and continued to grow and grow (to almost 6'5"). He was nearing graduation at Clemson University in South Carolina when, in 1990, at the age of 22, he was killed when he lost control of a motorcycle and hit a tree.

Why my children had to die is so very hard to accept. I am so grateful that God has given me the grace and wisdom to understand that He didn't call my sons away from this life—but that He did welcome them home. My sons are dead because of decisions that they themselves made. These were not God's decisions.

I am also thankful that the Organ Procurement Agency of South Carolina asked me to donate Ben's organs. This was something that he and I had discussed when his brothers died, but because of where we lived, it was not possible to do. If I had not been approached about this at the time of Ben's death, I would not have thought of doing it.

Donating the organs is a decision with which Ben would have been in full agreement, and which I can, in my mind, easily attribute to him. Thus, his final decision was a good one—unlike the previous bad decision that cost him his life.

I regret that I was not aware that I could also have made a gift of his bones, and I am certain that I am not alone in my ignorance about bone donation. I hope that this quilt, and the stories associated with it, will help enlighten people about the full scope of opportunities for donations that have such impact. The recipients of these donations are no more blessed than those of us who, in our loss, gain a sense of peace from believing that there was some good derived from our tragedy.

Thank you for the work you are doing.

Dear Mrs. Capell;

On behalf of the South Carolina Organ Procurement Agency I would like to express our sincere sympathy on the loss of your son, Benjamin. I know that this has been an extremely difficult time for you and your husband, and my thoughts have been with you frequently over the past days.

I know that you have already spoken with Nancy Kay regarding the recipients of Benjamin's liver, kidneys, heart valves, and corneas, but wanted to send you this letter anyway, just as I promised. Although nothing will ever be able to replace your son's life, I hope that you will feel some comfort in knowing that he did give life to many others. In fact, a 59 year old father in Los Angeles would have died within a day or so if he had not received his transplant on September 29, 1990. In addition, a 22 year old girl and a 30 year old man will no longer need to rely on dialysis to keep them alive, as both of these South Carolinians were given your son's kidneys. Benjamin's heart valves will be transplanted later this month, and his eyes have given sight to two ladies in South Carolina.

You have been through so much in your lifetime. I cannot begin to imagine what you are feeling after losing your sons. However, I somehow feel that your husband and friends will be a great source of comfort to you in the days to come. Please know that I am always here if I can help in any way. You are a very special family. I only hope that organ donation will somehow help to ease your pain, by knowing that a part of your son still lives on.

With warmest regards,

"JOHNNIE'S PLACE" JOHN 14:1-3

①

PEOPLE HAVE THE WRONG IDEA ABOUT PREACHERS. THEY SAY "LET'S GO GET THE PREACHER TO MARRY US". - CAN'T BE DONE - ACCORD. TO WORD OF GOD - MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE WHEN GOD TAKES 2 PEOPLE - A MAN & WOMAN - AND MAKES THEM ONE FLESH. PREACHERS CAN'T DO THAT - WE DON'T HAVE ABILITY TO DO THAT - WE GIVE OUT WORDS - COUPLES REPEAT THEM - BUT GOD MARRIES. SAME IS TRUE OF FUNERALS - PEOPLE CALL AND ASK - "PREACHER WILL YOU PREACH MY DAD'S FUNERAL" - AGAIN - CAN'T BE DONE I CAN STAND HERE & SAY THINGS ABOUT YOU - BUT YOUR PREACHING YOUR FUNERAL RITE NOW - 24-7 - BY THE WAY YOU LIVE YOUR LIFE EVERY DAY - IF YOUR SAVED YOUR LIFE REFLECTS THE LORD JESUS - IF YOUR NOT SAVED YOUR LIFE REFLECTS YOUR OLD NATURE OF A JACKASS AND THE PREACHER STRUGGLES FOR WORDS TRYING TO BE NICE ABOUT YOU - TONITE - THIS PREACHER HAS NO TROUBLE AT THIS CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF JOHNNIE CAPELL. IN FACT - I COULD TELL OF HER LIFE TILL SUNRISE AND STILL WOULD HAVE ONLY SCRATCHED THE SURFACE. HAPPY IS A WORD THAT DESCRIBES JOHNNIE - THE JOY OF THE LORD WAS IN HER FACE - IT RADIATED! IT WAS THAT RADIANCE ABOUT HER THAT DREW PEOPLE TO HER LIKE A MAGNET. AS I WAS PREPARING

- THIS MESSAGE I STRUGGLED FOR THE WORD TO (2)
USE THAT DREW PEOPLE TO JOHNNIE - MAGNATIZED.
BEHIND THAT SMILE WAS PEACE - THE PEACE OF GOD THAT PASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING - IN SPITE OF
THE TRAGEDYS OF LIFE MISS JOHNNIE HAD FICED
"THE AWESOME TRIAL OF BURYING ALL THREE OF HERSONS" THER WAS A SPIRIT OF GOD'S PEACE THAT SHOWED IN HER FACE - AND WAS SEEN IN HER LIFE -

LOVE IS ANOTHER WORD THAT DESCRIBES JOHNNIE - SHE LOVED HER BELOVED HUSBAND J. C. AS FEW WOMEN DO.
SHE LOVED THE SOUTH - THE DAUGHTER OF A CONFEDERATE VETAN
HER SOUTHERN HERITAGE WAS FILLED IN EVERY ROOM IN HER HOME - IN HER CLOTHES CLOSET - ON BUMPER OF HER CAR -
SHE LOVED THE MEN IN GRAY WHO FOUGHT FOR STATES RITES
BUT MY FRIEND - THE MASSIVE LOVE SHE CARRIED IN HER HEART FOR PEOPLE - WAS SOMETHING ELSE AGAIN.
FROM TENN. TO JUST ABOUT EVERY STATE IN AMERICA
TO AFRICA - WHERE J.C. NAILED NAILS & SPREAD CONCRETE FOR A BIBLE SCHOOL THAT WAS IN MISS JOHNNIE'S EYE - HER ARMS SURROUNDED
APACHE JEWELRY MAKERS - BLACK NATIVES OF
KENYA - THEY EMBRACED OLD MEN & WOMEN & DABIES

TRUCK DRIVERS LEFT THEIR RIGS HALF WAY ③
ACROSS AMERICA AND CAME TO THE HOSPITAL WHEN THEY HEARD MISS JOHNNIE WAS IN A BAD WRECK.
I'VE BEEN BURYING PEOPLE 36 YRS - BUT IN ALL THOSE YRS - I'VE NEVER HAD THE PRIVILEGE TO SPEAK OF ANYONE WHO HAD THE LOVE OF GOD IN THEIR LIFE THAT SHOWED LIKE JOHNIE.
FOR 18 YRS SHE WOULD CALL ME ASKING QUEST. ABOUT THE BIBLE -
SHE THAT I COULD WALK ON WATER - ISN'T IT AMAZING -
I THAT IT WAS HER THAT COULD WALK ON WATER - I HOPE
TONITE THAT YOU'RE ONE OF THE PEOPLE SHE GOT TO HUG -
BECAUSE I'LL TELL YOU SOMETHING - IF YOU'VE EVER WONDERED WHAT IT WAS LIKE TO BE EMBRACED BY THE LORD
THAT'S IT - YOU'LL SEE THAT WHEN YOU GET TO HEAVEN
AND LORD PUTS HIS ARMS AROUND YOU TO WELCOME YOU HOME - YOU'LL SEE THAT IT FEELS THE SAME AS WHEN YOU WERE HUGGED ON THIS EARTH BY MISS JOHNNIE.
IF YOU WANTED TO SEE THE LORD JESUS - WATCH HIM
IN ACTION ON THIS EARTH - JOHNNIE WAS THE PICTURE.
THE LORD JESUS WAS IN UPPER ROOM HAVING SUPPER
WITH HIS DISCIPLES - HE'S HEADED TO CALVARY TO DIE
FOR THE SINS OF THE WHOLE WORLD - HE KNOWS THE DISCIPLES WILL RUN LIKE RATS FROM A BURNING SHIP
IN THE GARDEN - THEY'LL BE CONFUSED - DISSAPPOINTED - DISCOURAGED AS HE'S CRUCIFIED - SO THERE IN THE UPPER ROOM JESUS SPEAKS THESE WORDS TO HIS DISCIPLES - "QUOTE" JOHN 4:1-3 "LET NOT YOUR HEART

TONITE OUR HEARTS MAY BE SAD - MAY BE BROKEN @
BECAUSE JOHNNIE IS NOT HERE - BUT OUR HEARTS NEED NOT BE TROUBLED - WE KNOW WHERE SHE IS -

"I GO TO PREPARE A PLACE FOR YOU" OH WHAT A PLACE

NO HOUSE PAYMENTS - PLACE PAID FOR IN FULL AT CALVARY

NO ELECT. BILLS - JESUS IS THE LITE OF THAT PLACE

NO HOSPITALS - THE GREAT PHYSICIAN IS IN CONTROL -

NO PAIN - SICKNESS - SORROW - THE KING WON'T ALLOW IT THERE

NO CASKETS - THE GIVER OF ETERNAL LIFE IS REIGNING.

OH HOW BEAUTIFULL MISS JOHNNIE IS TONITE IN HER PLACE
CLOTHED WITH A ROBE OF RICHENOUSE MADE BY HER LORD.

THE SONG WRITER PUT IT BETTER THAN I COULD EVER SAY - HE WROTE

"IF YOU COULD SEE ME NOW - I'M STANDING TALL & WHOLE

" " " " " " - I'M WALKING STREETS OF GOD

" " " " " " - I'VE SEEN JESUS FACE TO FACE

"THE 'I THINK THAT KEPT ~~JOHNNIE~~ GOING IS A POEM SHE LOVED FOR QUOTE

LET ME REMIND YOU IN CLOSING -

IT MAY NOT BE TODAY - OR TOMORROW - NEXT WEEK - NEXT YR.

BUT MY FRIEND - AS SURE AS SURE HERE LIVING TONITE

THE DAY IS COMING - WHEN THIS WILL BE US -

SOMEONE WILL HOLD A SERVICE FOR US - AND IN

THAT DAY - IT'S MY PRAYER THAT YOU'VE MADE THE CHOICE

THAT YOU HAVE A SAVIOR - AND HIS NAME IS JESUS.

JOHNNIE'S SAVIOR WANTS TO BE YOUR PERSONAL SAVIOR.

IF YOU'VE NEVER TRUSTED HIM - TONITE WOULD BE A GOOD TIME TO.

"A QUIET PLACE"

I DAILY SEEK A QUIET PLACE - THAT'S FAR FROM TROUBLE AND STRIFE
WHERE I CAN PUT TOGETHER ALL THE PIECES OF MY LIFE
IT'S FAR FROM THE TV AND BOOKS - AWAY FROM THE TELEPHONE
WHERE HE AND I CAN TALK - JUST GOD AND ME ALONE
AND THERE HE POURS HIS BALM OF LOVE, INTO THE LIFE I LIVE
AND THERE I FIND A PEACE AND JOY THAT ONLY HE CAN GIVE
I WILL NOT FEAR THE CIRCUMSTANCE - I FACE FROM DAY TO DAY
FOR DAILY IN MY QUIET PLACE - I'M LEARNING HOW TO PRAY.

The Day was a Beautiful Fall Day

By J. C. Capell

It was November 6, about 10:45 in the morning. It was a happy day, for Isaac Mutua was visiting USA for the first time. The leaves were beautiful and Isaac was overwhelmed for he had never seen colored leaves. Johnnie was explaining how the colors came. There was no warning when a lady named Rose Gibson was turning left into our lane. Her turning light was red . . . She never slowed and hit us head-on.

Johnnie was thrown out of the Suburban from the back seat and onto the pavement. She probably ricocheted off the Chevy pickup that hit us. She had just taken off her seatbelt to put her head thru the two front seats. She did this because Isaac had said something she couldn't hear.

And in just a few seconds . . . Our lives would never be the same again.

When I regained consciousness, I was looking for Johnnie and found her on the pavement with her legs under the body of the Suburban and her head was next to the rear tire where the Suburban had made a 180<sup>O</sup> turn around and came to a dead stop about 6" from her head - just as if God said, "No, no, that's far enough."

Johnnie was flown by helicopter to the U. T. Medical Center in Knoxville. She was in pain to the point she was in and out of consciousness, and screaming for Jesus . . . "Please help me, Jesus!!!"

Our brothers and sisters at First Baptist Morristown had already learned of the wreck and were coming to the emergency room at Hamble County where I was taken by ambulance.

When I was released from the Emergency Room in Morristown, my friend, Dr. Max Brown, drove me to the U. T. Medical Center. This was around 6:00 PM. The ride was forever . . . I knew Johnnie was badly hurt, but couldn't help thinking she was dead.

11-06-06 Johnnie was put in Critical Care for two days, where she was kept in a coma-like state, till they thought it was safe to operate.

The Lord sent Dr. James Ulibarri to the Critical Care and told us, Johnnie had an exploded spinal column at the T-12 location and she would not have the ability to use her bladder or bowels and her spinal cord was severely damaged at the T-12 location. This was after x-rays and MRI's. This was on 11- 7-06.

Johnnie would be paralyzed from the waist down.

It is still hard to believe the number of friends that came to be with me at the U. T. Medical Center in Knoxville. It was hard to pray for Johnnie to live knowing she would be paralyzed.

No one who has known Johnnie for five minutes would want her to live paralyzed . . . Most of all . . . Johnnie.

Dr. Ulibarri told us he would operate and put 4 titanium rods - two on her back and then remove her organs, that's what I said - remove all organs, except for one lung and would have to take out some ribs. Then he would put two rods on the inside to stabilize her spine for long term care.

On Wednesday the surgery was done. It took 13 hours and we found that the spinal column was exploded, but God had healed the spinal cord. Thank you God! It is only bruised.

Could this mean no paralyzation . . . Now it would be up to Johnnie and we all know, if it is up to Johnnie for her to walk again . . . And if it takes faith for her to walk again . . . If it takes determination and there is the smallest chance . . . She will walk!

Dr. Ulibarri told me he had put the two longer rods on the inside and had put a titanium basket in the exploded spinal column and put bone grafting from her left hip in the titanium basket. He also collected the bits and pieces from the exploded spinal column and put in the basket. Johnnie thinks her value has increased greatly with the titanium.

The basket will eventually grow bone and fuse the T-11 and the L-1 vertebrae into a single (3) vertebrae bone.

The surgery and surgeons were excellent and of God.

There were three surgical teams:

1 Team: Used regular sutures, cardiac.

1 Team: Used staples, orthopedic spine.

1 Team: Used super glue, vascular.

Johnnie asked if any used Duct Tape?

After three weeks at U. T. Medical Center, Johnnie was to be moved to a skilled nursing home and then when she was physically ready she would go to Patricia Neal Rehabilitation Center in Knoxville.

But she was not at the level required. She was still vomiting all the time from her medications . . . The pain alone was enough. She was moved to Lakeway Regional Hospital in Morristown. They had a Rehabilitation Center and had a bed for her. We were told Lakeway would take her at the level she was . . . and graduate her out rehabilitated.

This did not happen . . . No where close!!!

Dr Ulibarri gave us hope after the surgery that in time and rehabilitation Johnnie just might be able to walk, perhaps with a walker or cane and he felt sure her bladder and bowels would function.

All this was after God had healed her spinal cord, for it clearly showed on the MRI to be severed. I stood right in front of the screen with Dr. Ulibarri looking at her severed spinal cord. I'm not sure Dr Ulibarri is a Christian . . . If he wasn't before, he should be now. Since, he has told me he did have help!!!!!!

Lakeway Regional was not the place for her and hurt her in ways she is still having to overcome. I believe they were not experienced to treat such a severe injury. The first thing they did was let her fall. It was not a good experience and after three weeks I brought her home.

Just before Christmas things in our home were pitiful. I had a very sick wife who cried all the time, because her pain had never been controlled from the trauma doctors at U. T. Medical Center to the rehabilitation doctors at Lakeway Regional Hospital. It seemed her vomiting was never going to stop.

12-21-06 This morning was so bad . . . Johnnie asked me to help her die. I was at the end of my rope. I had prayed for God to please help me to know what to do.

I was mad for God allowing Johnnie to get hurt in the first place. No one deserved this pain less than my wife.

Johnnie had teams of doctors at U. T. But she did not have a DOCTOR - one doctor did this . . . Another doctor did that - none knew nor cared what was going on with the other doctors.

And then I thought about a nurse practitioner right here in New Tazewell. Johnnie thought a lot of Teresa Rasmussen, so I called the doctor's office she works for, but she was on vacation. Now what can I do?

I called the doctor's office back and talked with a young lady and tried to explain what had been going on. She asked if Johnnie could walk. When I said no - she immediately said to have her there at 1:00 and she would see that "Miss Johnnie", she knew her, saw Dr. Pannocchia first after lunch.

Praise God! At this time, she couldn't walk and used a wheelchair. Dr. Pannocchia looked at Johnnie and I thought he was going to cry. I had not been able to dress her, wash her hair or barely comb her hair. She did not look good.

Dr. Pannocchia had taken care of Johnnie when she had her last blood clot here and told her at that time that he recommended that under no circumstances was she to go to Kenya with a blood clot. Which of course she ignored.

He had never seen her look like this and immediately started asking questions. When I was trying to explain her surgery and all the complications. He knew about everything I was trying so hard to explain.

When he discovered the medications the doctors had prescribed for her he couldn't believe it . . . "ALL" . . . Were known for their nausea and she was taking four. He didn't know how she survived.

Dr. Pannocchia started Home Healthcare and adjusted her medication to keep the pain under better control and stopped the vomiting.

The physical therapist made her do an exercise that caused the basket in her back to break loose from where it had already begun to graft - terrible pain - Dr Ulibarri said it set her back about three months. And oh, I forgot, her gall bladder was injured in the wreck and had to be removed. It was only 5 times regular size and she had to stay extra days in the hospital. Now we are looking for bladder and kidney damage from the wreck. Today we see Dr. Pannocchia to make arrangements for pelvic/abdominal reconstruction/hernia surgery caused by the wreck.

But . . . Good news! She can go to the bathroom alone and best of all is walking with a walker . . . She says the walker is temporary.

She lost her mama in January and that hurt her deeply, and my mama died April 21st.

We are a long way from being back to normal and we need your prayers and I know Johnnie would love hearing from you.

Victory in Jesus

I heard an old, old story, how a Savior came from glory
How He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me
I heard about His groaning, of His precious blood's atoning
Then I repented of my sins and won the victory

Chorus:

O victory in Jesus, my Savior forever
He sought me and bo't me with His redeeming blood
He loved me ere I knew Him, and all my love is due Him
He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood

I heard about His healing, of His cleansing pow'r revealing
How He made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see
And then I cried, "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit"
And somehow Jesus came and bro't to me the victory

I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory
And I heard about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea
About the angels singing, and the old redemption story
And some sweet day I'll sing up there the song of victory

Job 42:1-6, Job for Modern Man

42 Then Job answered the Lord.

I know, Lord, that you are all powerful;
that you can do everything you want.
You ask how I dare question your wisdom
when I am so very ignorant.

I talked about things I did not understand, about marvels too great for me to know.

You told me to listen while you spoke and to try to answer your questions.

Then I knew only what others had told me,
but now I have seen you with my own eyes;

so I am ashamed of all I have said and repent in dust and ashes.

Dear Friends and Family,

Greetings from up here on top of this mountain in the Cumberland Gap in East Tennessee.

I don't remember Thanksgiving or Christmas because J. C. and I were in a very bad wreck November 6th. J. C. was hurt some, but nothing too serious.

You-all know of the Birech Bible College, J. C. and I have been working on, seems like forever, in Kitale, Kenya. Well, it has finally come together and J. C. & I have been there two times in the past four years . . . But it would never have been possible if not for the prayers and financial help from you.

The young principal of Birech Bible College, Pastor Isaac Mutua, was visiting us and we were taking him to Cherokee. The "one" thing most Africans want to see is the "RED AMERICAN INDIAN."

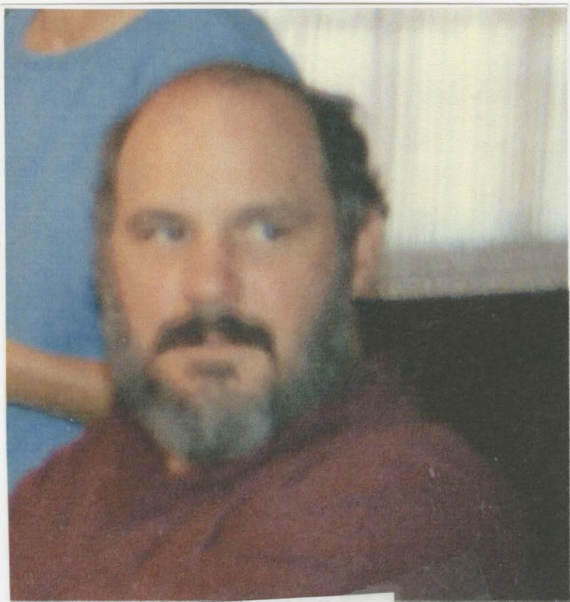

We made it as far as Morristown, TN, where we go to church. I was riding in the back seat and had my seatbelt on - Isaac said something that I didn't hear, so I unsnapped my seatbelt and leaned in between the seats to hear him better.

I never heard . . . A woman ran a stop light and we were hit head-on. J. C. got banged up pretty good and Isaac was shook up, mostly from fear, and I was thrown from the car to the pavement. I was hurt badly.

I am slowly recovering and felt the need to let you . . . Who only hear from us once a year . . . know why you didn't hear from us, and why we covet your prayers more than ever.

Love to all,

"Miss Johnnie"
