

Sept. 12, 1972

The Mount Airy Arts and Crafts Guild held its first meeting Sept. 12 with Mrs John Nieuwenhuis with 13 members present.

Discussion about the Autumn Leaf Festival was the main topic. We decided to ask for the space in the rear of the room as there is a wall to hang things on. The Festival is to be Oct. 13, 14, 15. Exhibits are to be placed Oct. 12. Mrs. John Nieuwenhuis and Mrs Jesse Banner were appointed to be Co-Chairmen.

The new year books were given out. The Secretary was instructed to write Mr. Jim Buffin's Secretary a note of thanks for printing the year books pages.

Dues were collected amounting to $39.00.

It was announced that Mrs James Gray of Enfield N.C. would have the program on Clismons and show some she had made.

The hostess served delicious refreshments upon arrival.

After the business meeting everyone took up her knitting or sewing and lively conversation was engaged in.

Nov. 7, 1972, with Mrs. Leland Dennis.

Delicious refreshments were served upon arrival.

The roll was checked with 15 members present. The minutes were read & approved.

No time was taken up with business as Mrs. Betty Jean Wright came in to assist in a work shop of Tape Painting.
After giving a few directions everyone began to cut and paste the things they had chosen to make - Mrs. Wright gave help to any needing her assistance -

The articles made were flowers, birds, and children at play. These were framed in shadow box frames and were quite lovely. One unusual one was mushrooms in a small iron skillet.
