WHAT'S FOR DINNER?—Roy Kidd, right, is interested in previewing what his brother, Johnny, is cooking for dinner. But from experience he knows it'll be good without tasting it.

A House of Hospitality Johnny Kidd's Work Is Never Done —He Performs the Domestic Duties

By Jeanette Reid

DOBSON—It's a man's world—no women needed—around the Kidd brothers' home and farm.

For while Roy, the elder, is in the fields tending crops, Johnny is home cooking, canning, ironing and cleaning.

And on weekends, the Kidd home is next thing to open house at the community park of yesteryear. Crowds flood to the 12-room white frame house several miles east of here on Turkey Ford Road. And they mill around the large, well-kept yard with its many, many flowers and well-kept encircling hedge.

Furnishing music are the Kidd brothers, with assistance from all others who wish to join them—with instruments or with voice.

Johnny is the brother who plays. He not only plays the piano, organ, accordion and violin, but he also plays two pianos at the same time or a piano and the accordion simultaneously. He "dreamed" one night how to play the accordion, ordered one, unpacked it and began playing.

Roy leads the singing—and there have been over 100 persons on these Sunday occasions to lend their voices.

The Kidds are so hospitable they don't have to extend invitations—people simply come invited or uninvited.

Relatives of the brothers, who come from a family of seven boys and four girls, drop in for Sunday dinner just as though the Kidd household had a woman in the kitchen. And they never complain about the food because Johnny is considered as good a cook as any woman—and better than most.

"I don't go in for fancy foods, he explains, "but just try to find someone who can beat me on vegetables, meats, biscuits and cakes!"

The food is so good that Tom Kidd, another brother who is a widower and lives nearby, boards at the family home.

Johnny not only cooks, but cans jars and jars and jars of fruits and vegetables off fruit trees around the place and from the garden which he tends.

Asked how he got started doing the housework, Johnny explained that his mother needed some help and the work seemed to fall to him. Although he had four sisters, they would "up and get married by the time they got old enough to be of much assistance."

Then for three years before her death 10 years ago, their mother was a complete invalid and they took care of her.

Roy, although he had passed the 70 mark, is still quite active and tends several acres of tobacco on their 60-acre farm. The family homelace originally had more than 300 acres before being divided among the children.

The Kidd family came down from Pennsylvania about 1811 and settled "just across the river" from the present house. The first portion of the house was built 80 years ago, and two additions since then have increased its size to 12 rooms and three big porches. Several pieces of Johnny's needlework decorate the house. The needlework is in direct contrast to the robust, masculine wielder of the needle.

Johnny maintains the house so immaculately that visiting female housekeepers get inferiority complexes. He also does the family wash.

His comments would sound familiar to most housewives, . . . such as "I washed yesterday, but I ain't ironed any yet this week."

Out of all the housekeeping activities, he would rather do anything else than to iron.

And just like most housewives, he complains because "there's never enough time to do everything. . . there's always something that needs doing."

Benjamin Kidd
A Soldier of the Revolution from Virginia
1777-1779

On November 13, 1852, Jesse Kidd as a resident "near Mt. Airy" appeared before A. Dunnagan, Justice of the Peace in Surry County, North Carolina as the "legitimate heir" and "identical child" of Benjamin Kidd "who was a soldier in the war of the Revolution" as stated on the official form. Jesse hired Samuel M. Knight of Washington City and gave him power of attorney to "prosecute the claim of Benjamin Kidd for any amount of Revolutionary Pension, or increase of Pension that may be due." No documented resolution of the claim resides in the National Archives other than an envelope that is stamped "Rejected" and appears in the same collection of documents from which the following transcript was made.

In June 1838, Jesse took Benjamin to see Elyah Thompson to apply for his pension. Here is my verbatim transcription of his statement (completed September 6, 1999) from a copy in microfilm files at the National Archives, M-804, Roll #1480, Pension R5906:

QUOTE

Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

State of North Carolina
County of Surry

On this the 9th day of June 1838 personally appeared before me Elyah Thompson, a justice of the County Court of Surry County in the State of North Carolina, Benjamin Kid aged 86 years (he being unable to travel to court) so being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his Oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the bennifit of the provision of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832, that he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein after stated (to wit) I was bornd in Buckingham County Virginia in the year 1752 I have no record of my age, and only know my age from what I have been told-when called into the service I lived in Buckingham County Va- Continued to live there for several years after the Revolutionary war-then moved into Surry County NC in which County I now live.

I was Inlisted in the service of the United States in the year 1777 for three years. I think in the month of March by Capt John Nickolds or Nickles. I was promised as a bounty forty dollars in money-too suits of Cloathing per year & one Hundred acres of land, twenty dollars is all that I ever received of my bounty. I was taken sick and was not not able to march with my Capt when he marched his company off. At my recovery I was put in the company commanded by Capt Thomas Betoo and by him marched to the Long Islands of Holston. at this place I was commanded Col Christy, we was here stationed about three months. I was then put in a company commanded by Capt John Looney and by him marched to Carter's Valley. there we built a fort and guarded it for ten or twelve months. I was then put in a company commanded by Capt George Freeland and by him marched to Blackamores fort near Clinch river near a place called the Elkgarden and was there stationed about three months. I was then then marched by George Brooks (I do not recollect what grade of office he held) to Wkilliys (whittiys) fort in Kentuckey and here Stationed one month & some few days. at this place I was commanded by Capt Whitly. I was here put in a company commanded by Capt John Chisum & by him marched to Logans Station and here stationed one month. from this place I was marched by the afforesaid Capt Chisum to Harrodsburgh. This was commanded by Capt James Harrod. I was here stationed seven months, tho often out with skouting partys after the Indians. we took some few Indians prisoners, but was in no General Ingagements. sometimes at this place my bread rations was four ears of corn per day & 1/4 pounds of meat when the hunters could kill it. I was then marched to the falls of the Ohio by a Capt whose name I have forgot. at this place I was put in Capt John Rogers Company & by him marched to the Opost on Waubash I do not recollect which it was called. at this place we was under Cleark, I do not recollect wahat grad office he held, here we took Hamilton & his men (102 or 103) at this place we stayed but a short time. I was now informed that we was to gard the afforesaid prisoners to Harrodsburg Kentuckey at which place we arrived in January at which place we remained with the afforesaid prisoners (Hamilton & his men) until the first of may following. I was now informed that we was to gard the afforesaid prisoners (Hamilton & his men) to Williamsburgh Va to which place we now started. I still remained in Company commanded by the afforesaid Capt John Rogers. The Army was now commanded by Col Richard Callaway. as we marched and come near lynchburgh Va I was Informed all that had relations near could go and see them accordingly I received a written Discharg I do not recollect whether my Capt Rogers spigned it or Col Callaway but I lost it long ago. The officers was to go and draw our mony and come back and pay us-and was all to go to Kentucky together as it was a rich Desireable Country-but I have never seen Officers nor money from that day to this. I do not recollect the names of any other Officers but those already mentioned-I served three years as a private for which I claim a pension-I know of no person by whom I can prove my services, nor have I any Documentary Evidence thereof-

I am known to a Clergyman residing in my neighborhood William Howard Esq who can testify to my Character for Varasity. I hereby relinquish every claim whatsoever to a pension or anuity Except the present-Did as that my name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state, Territory or District,

Mr. Thompson also took the testimonial of the two men mentioned by Benjamin as follows:

And I Elyah Thompson declar my opinion after investigating of the matter of the application of Benjamin Kidd for a pension had before me, a Justice of the County Court of Surry in the state of NC that the foregoing are the proceedings on the same. Benjamin Franklin Kidd

According to my notes from his records in the National Archives, Benjamin enlisted (conscripted) on August 14, 1862, for three years at the age of 26. He was probably at Second Manassas, Chantilly and Antietam, confirmation pending. I have evidence from medical records of the 21st NC in the Museum of the Confederacy that he participated in the Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville campaigns in 1862-1863.

The Archives shows he was listed by his unit as missing in action at Gettysburg on July 2, 1863. (The 21st assaulted East Cemetery Hill that night after fighting in the Brick Yard the day before.) Union records indicate he was captured at Gettysburg on July 3, 1863, and transported to Fort Delaware, Delaware, arriving between July 7 and July 12, 1863. On October 18, he was transferred to Point Lookout, Maryland. On October 26, 1863, he was transferred to Hammond USA General Hospital at Point Lookout with chronic diarrhea. He died on November 13, 1863. Benjamin Kidd is listed on the North Carolina Roll of Honor for Surrey County.

B.F. Kidd is also listed under Company "C" of the 21st North Carolina Infantry on the granite monument in Mt. Airy, N.C., the Regiment's hometown. I am in the process of confirming him as Benjamin Franklin Kidd.

We found a little on James Kidd in Surry County but do not know if it is your James Kidd. It appears a James Kidd was in Surry to witness a deed as early as 1805 but he was not found on any census records until 1820 in Surry County. We do not know if this is the son of Benjamin Kidd or not as he was the only other Kidd in Surry in 1820.

Below is what we found on James Kidd:

James Kidd may have left Surry County sometime after 1822. A James M. Kidd was found in Wilkes Co., NC in the 1830 census records.

James Kidd, age 60, farmer, b. NC, is listed in the Poor House (old age) in the 1850 Surry County Census.

Jesse James Kidd, b. ca. 1797, son of Benjamin, was probably born in VA but came to Surry County early in life. He married Susannah Greenwood 3 Jan 1816. He had three children: Rebecca, Benjamin F. and Martha E. (info in the Allen Kidd family history in "The Heritage of Surry County, NC" Vol. II)

-----
William Kidd (1675-1727), son of Thomas and Jane Kidd, married Margaret and had ten children: Margaret, Robert, Aggatha, Moses, Dirrell, Aaron, twins William and James, Samuel and Catharine. (info in the Allen Kidd family history in "The Heritage of Surry County, NC" Vol. II)

-----
James Kidd witnessed a deed of James Howard dated 9 Nov 1805 in Surry Co., NC.

James Kidd was listed on the 1819 Surry County Tax List (1 white poll), 100 acres adjoining Charles Chrisman, and on the 1822 Surry County Tax List (1 white poll).

-----

1820 Surry County, NC Census:

James Kid - 2 WM 0-10, 1 WM 26-45, 2 F 0-10, 1 F 26-45

Benjamin Kid - 1 WM 16-26, 1 WM 45 +

James M. Kidd was listed in the 1830 Wilkes County, NC Census, the 1840 Davi Co., NC Census (could be Davidson or Davie County) and in Lincoln County, NC in 1870.

-----

Jesse James Kid & Anner Greenwood applied for a marriage bond in Surry Co. 3 Jan 1816, Jesse Johnson was bondsman. (A-3455)

-----

James Kidd and Polly Wilkes applied 11 Mar 1816 in Surry Co., Watson Holyfield was bondsman. (A-3456)

-----

You may wish to write James Paul Kidd, 121 Woodhaven Drive, Hendersonville, NC 28739 as he is researching James M. Kidd.

We are sorry that this is all that we can find at this time. If you would like to put a query in our quarterly journal, we would be happy to do so. Information is enclosed.

Good luck with your research and let us know if we can help you further.
